Ionic OES officers installed Dec. 14th

On December 14th, Mrs. Gertrude Chapman installed the officers of Ionic Chapter No. 72 O.E.S. for 1965.

In the impressive ceremony, the following officers were installed: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Joyce Swift; Worthy Patron, Mr. Dan Dodds; Associate Matron, Mrs. Ella Hardy; Associate Patron, Mr. Neil Phillips; Conductress, Mrs. Evelyn Nolan; Associate Conductress, Mrs. Daisy Young; Secretary, Mrs. Georgia MacKay; Treasurer, Mrs. Pat Glover; Chaplain, Mrs. Georgia Christensen; Marshall, Mrs. Eileen Pike; Adah, Mrs. Ollie Moon; Ruth, Mrs. Kay Walker; Esther, Mrs. Rosalind Annis; Martha, Mrs. Helena Thiessen; Electa, Mrs. Vivian Murray; Warder, Mrs. Elizabeth Davison; Sentinel, Mr. Bill Davison.

When installation of the new officers was completed, Mrs. Joyce Swift presented the retiring Worthy Matron, Mrs. Georgia Christensen, with a Past Matron's Jewel. Mr. Dan Dodds presented Mr. Paul Thomas, retiring Worthy Patron, with a gift.

Mrs. Ella Hardy, on behalf of the Chapter, then presented Mrs. Swift with a bouquet of flowers and expressed the good wishes of the Chapter members for Mrs. Swift's year as Worthy Matron.

Mrs. Swift thanked Mrs. Hardy for the bouquet, Mrs. Chapman for the installation ceremony, and the members for the honor bestowed on her. She announced her plans for the year, beginning with a Christmas hamper and boxes of cookies for the bachelors at Christmas.

Mrs. Esther Anderson was honored for her eleven consecutive years as organist.

Rev. Hammett gave a Christmas message to the Chapter, after which a Christmas lunch was served.

FROM THE SCRAP BOOK

As we say goodbye to 1964, a year gone beyond recall, and as we enter into 1965, let us look forward with hope for a better and brighter year, with "Peace among the nations of the world, Love and concord among the people".

—JWR.

A. W. Dragon passes at 69

M. K. Westmanocot

RYLEY.—Alexander William Dragon passed away suddenly on December 29th from a heart seizure, at the age of 69 years. He had lived on the Ryley district and farmed south of town for about 50 years. He leaves to mourn his loss, his loving wife, three daughters and one son, two sisters and one brother. Prayer services were held at the Catholic Church in Ryley with Father Scriven officiating. Interment followed in the Ryley cemetery.

NEW METHOD FOR VACCINE

Dr. E. B. O. Smith, director of Alberta Health Units and Communicable Diseases, demonstrates the method used to administer Sabin oral vaccine, as a staff member prepares to eat a lump of sugar saturated in the solution.

Gun Club enjoys 'game' supper

Recently the members of the Tofield Gun Club held their annual "game" supper. All members and their wives were present along with special guests George Kidd of CFRN-TV, Bill Carlson and Nick Krevshero of the Alberta Arms and Cartridge Collectors Association.

The different game meats served, including white tail deer, mule deer, elk, moose, mountain goat, goose, duck, pheasant, grouse and rabbit, were enjoyed by all.

Color slides taken by members of hunting and fishing trips and also of several shoot-competitions ended a very enjoyable evening.

The Tofield Gun Club has recently purchased two light-weight .22 calibre rifles for the use of junior members and it is very gratifying to see the juniors learning proper gun handling.

Junior High scores in December games

The Tofield Junior High basketball season opened on December 2nd with Holden playing host to the Tofield teams. The Tofield girls won their first game by a score of 20 to 6. The Tofield boys were ahead until late in the third quarter when Holden made a few quick baskets. Tofield was defeated 24 to 18.

Tofield played their next game in their home gym against Ryley on December 9th. The Tofield girls won their second straight victory by defeating Ryley 18 to 8. The Tofield boys again tasted defeat, this time by a 37 to 13 score.

On December 17th, Tofield Junior High teams again played against Ryley, this time in the Ryley gym. The Tofield girls were again victorious, winning by a narrow 17 to 15 margin. The Tofield boys were defeated by a 30-19 score.

Local HS rinks play in Edmonton 'spiel

Tofield H.S. rinks made an excellent showing in the ACA high school bonspiel during the holidays at the Sportex in Edmonton. The rink skipped by Jack Nolan with Greg White at third, Robert Wall at second and Kevin Pike, lead, lost a last rock decision to Brian Douglas' Rose Shephard rink in the finals of the first event. The second Tofield H.S. rink made up of John Kwasny as skip, Mike Gallinger third, Brian McFadzean second and Allan Ewenitt lead lost out in the semi-finals of the third event.

H.S. basketball practice was held over the holidays in anticipation of this Friday's games against Ryley H.S. The games will begin at 7:30. Everyone welcome.

The H.S. party which was scheduled for December 19th, was postponed and will be held early in the new year.

Liberty lives only where the power of the people is supreme.

STAR IN ICE SHOW

Members of the Ice Capades' skating ballet, along with the featured artists Per Larsen, Revell and DesJardins and Dick and Joanne Maxfield, skate to the beautiful music of Gale Porter in one of the six magnificent production numbers plus 20 great acts in the all-new 1965 edition of Ice Capades which opens Tuesday, January 12, for a 6-day engagement at the Edmonton Gardens.

School news

On December 11th, the Tofield and Viking basketball teams met in Tofield. The Tofield girls took the game 39-18 and the Tofield boys also won 46-14.

On December 18th, Tofield and Holden basketball teams, who were scheduled to meet in Tofield, met in Holden as a result of the fire at Tofield school. The Tofield girls won 34-19 and the boys won 62-31.

Students and the staff of the Tofield High School would like to thank the quick action of the fire brigade in saving our school.

The students of grades 1, 4 and 7 put on the annual Christmas concert for the elementary Monday morning and the high school in the afternoon.

Tuesday night the concert will be put on again for the public.

Tuesday afternoon the French students of the Tofield school put on a very enjoyable program for their annual French Day. The various French activities delighted all the non-French students.

Historical Society plans annual meet

The president of the Historical Society, Harold Schultz, hopes to call the annual meeting of the society in January. At that time the election of officers will be held and entertainment provided. Further details will be given later.

Mr. Schultz is anxious to secure, for the museum, an old-time telephone which was in use about 1900.

Should the weather moderate, Mr. Lancaster and Mr. Francis, who have keys to the Historical Museum, would be pleased to show visitors around.

The Tofield Historical Society made application to the provincial government for a historical point-of-interest sign for Tofield but has been informed that this will not be granted.

FUA meeting postponed to Feb. 9th

The joint meeting of the FUA and UFA called for the purpose of payment of UFA 1964 dividends on Tuesday, Jan. 12, has been cancelled due partly to the inclement weather.

It was intended at this meeting also to have a speaker on the new crop insurance plan, but on account of the great interest in this plan it was found impossible to get one for this date. Now it is hoped to get one for the February 9th meeting.

Please keep this date in mind, as it is not very fair to ask a speaker to come a long distance to find only a handful of people interested enough to turn out to hear of something that may be of great benefit to them.

Watch for advertising confirming this date in The Mercury issue of February 4th.

Around town

Francis and Jean Campbell and girls from Edmonton spent Christmas with Mr. and [illegible] Jim Campbell. On Boxing Day they all visited with Ella and Harvey Young and family at Camrose.

Finley Dunlon, having been a patient in the Royal Alexandra Hospital for a week after suffering a bad fall at work returned home with his wife and family New Year's Day and is recovering nicely.

W. F. Empey, Dr. Beth Empey and the Misses Ruth McClure and Margaret Shaw, all of Edmonton, spent New Year's Day at the Stinson home.

Helen Grover visited in Edmonton during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Dann and family and Mrs. Oslund visited in Calgary during the Christmas holidays.

Doug and Evelyn Dann and family, Mrs. Oslund, Wayne and Gary spent New Year's Day a tthe Max Schacher home.

Mrs. J. A. L. Smith and Edith Mary spent the Christmas weekend at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson. On Christmas Day, a long distance phone call from Philadelphia gave them all the opportunity of speaking with Isabel's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. W. James Brickman.

SOUTHERN HOLIDAY

Donna and Wendal Clark and Granny Hardy left Saturday for California where Granny will visit with her sister at Long Beach, while Donna and Wendal will travel on to Mexico, Arizona and other points south. They plan to be away for a month.

* * *

Mrs. J. W. Robinson spent four days in Edmonton during the holidays at the home of her daughter and while there visited former friends from Tofield. Mr. Robinson joined his family at the ehome of his daughter for New Year's Day and enjoyed dinner with them. Before leaving for Tofield, all had the opportunity of sending a call to Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson returned to Tofled by bus that evening.

Council holds first meeting in new year

The Tofield Town Council met January 4th, 1965, at 8:00 p.m., with Mayor Dr. Freebury and Councillors Allan, Boese, Everitt, Patterson and Swift present.

The secretary-treasurer informed Council that an order had been received by Mr. Thompson of the local CNR station that installation of the flashing light protection would begin this month. The secretary-treasurer was instructed to take the necessary steps regarding the closing of the East crossing.

HEARING

Information wa sreceived from the Local Authorities Board of a hearing to be held on Tuesday, Jan. 26, at 2:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers, regarding the separation of Blocks A and B, Plan 761 AN from the Town of Tofield and registered in the name of Arthur C. Francis. Notice of the Hearing is to be sent to the Council of the Town of Tofield, A. C. Francis, County of Beaver No. 9, the Town and Rural Planning Board and Department of Highways.

It was moved and carried that Dr. Freebury prepare a brief to be presented at the hearing.

LIBRARY BOARD

The appointment of Mayor Dr. Freebury, Clr. Jefferson, Mrs. Hazel Patterson, Mr. Ed Watson and Mr. Don Hardy as members of the Board of the Tofield Municipal Library, with Mrs. Rita Halverson as secretary, was approved by Council.

Correspondence from the Department of Public Welfare stating that the Campbell family would be coming into pay of Social Assistance effective Feb. 1, 1965, instead of Jan. 1, 1965, as previously noted. A request for a clothing allowance was turned down.

Mrs. M. Boyles is to be asked to act as Welfare Officer for the Town of Tofield.

A poll, taken at the request of the Chamber of Commerce, showed four places of business favoring the present one-half day closing and seven favored closing all day Monday. The results are to be turned over to the Chamber for further action if they so desire.

A letter of resignation from D. W. Jacobs as building inspector was received with regret. The secretary-treasurer was instructed to contact the Gas Company regarding future gas inspections. The Committee is to contact Mr. O. Sware regarding plumbing and building inspection for the Town.

Clr. Swift informed Council that the Fire Department wished to take the St. John Ambulance course. The secretary-treasurer was asked to see if the E.M.O. would sponsor the course, with Larry Wilson as instructor.

Correspondence from Dept. of Municipal Affairs regarding Municipal Assistance Grant was read, and Council decided that a census be taken by the secretary-treasurer.

Two Gas Permits were issued to J. K. Neufeld and Chas. F. Kallal.

The new date is Wednesday, Jan. 13th. It is to start at 6:30 p.m., and will be held in the Tofield Community Hall.

THANK YOU

Production of General Motors cars and trucks has resumed. Daily output will rise speedily and our plants will soon reach maximum capacity. We wish to express our sincere thanks to everyone who has waited so patiently for this good news.

Our appreciation embraces many people across Canada . . . our customers . . . our suppliers . . . and our dealers.

To the customers who have cars or trucks on order and are awaiting delivery, we are particularly grateful for your faith in our products, for your forbearance and for your understanding. Now that our production has started again, rest assured we will fill your orders as quickly as possible.

To our suppliers, we extend our sincere appreciation and offer the encouragement that soon all our operations will be back to their normal level. Already, you are providing the many quality products and services that will enable us to reach peak production with minimum delay.

We thank our dealers and their employees—the men whose important job it is to sell and service General Motors cars and trucks. We know they will welcome this renewed opportunity to fulfil the transportation needs of every customer.

Those of you who have not yet ordered your new vehicle can now buy your choice, confident that delivery will be made within a reasonable time. Every effort will be put forth by our dealers, our suppliers and ourselves to meet your requirements.

It is our belief that our 1965 cars and trucks are the finest ever produced. This is confirmed by the enthusiastic reports of the thousands of customers already driving them. Try them out soon at your General Motors dealer's.

Again we thank you, and, along with all our employees, we extend warmest seasonal greetings and good wishes for 1965.

THE RYLEY TIMES

District news items from Ryley

M. K. Westmancott

The Lutheran Sunday School held their annual Christmas concert on Sunday, December 20th, at 4 p.m. in the church, and in spite of the intense cold there was a very good attendance. The children gave a very nice program, as with smiles of joy they told, in song and recitations, the story of the holy birth of Jesus in the stable in Bethlehem.

Visiting ministers have been taking charge of Sunday services in the Lutheran Church during December, and will continue to do so throughout the month of January. On Sunday, February 1st, Pastor E. Rude, the new minister will be in residence, and will preach his first service.

Friends and neighbors called on Mrs. Alma Adams one afternoon recently to wish her a "Happy Birthday", and spent a pleasant hour visiting during the coffee period.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hay spent the holiday season at Jasper with their daughter and son-in-law, the Val Greigs.

Douglas and Marvel Down and their four little girls, of Athbasca, were Christmas visitors for a few days with Marvel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Neraasen.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Bendiksen were guests for Christmas in Edmonton with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wampler.

Mrs. Tillie Branes was in Edmonton to spend Christmas Day with Berniece and Odin Eckland and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Oslund were holidaying in Edmonton for the festive season, guests with their daughter Alice Wilson, and Mr. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pepper and Garry and Ronnie spent Christmas Day at Ohaton with the Cliff Peppers, and with Ethel's mother, Mrs. W. Pepper.

Len and Jean Hutchinson, and Bill and Olive Hutchinson and family from Drayton Valley, and Lenard Hutchinson of Calgary were home with Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pepper on Christmas Day.

VISITORS FROM U.S.A.

Mrs. Alma Adams entertained at her home on Christmas Day with a supper party for relatives and friends. Guests were Mrs. Mary Erickson and Donald of Camrose, Miss Magda Anneho of Edmonton, Mrs. Astrid Holte of Kingman, Alfred Sorenson and family of Houden, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Sorenson of Droville, Wash., USA. Siguld Snortheim joined the party for coffee.

Mrs. Alma Adams spent Christmas Day with Mrs. Astrid Holte in Kingman.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hostland of Calgary have been visiting with their daughter, Annie, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pope and family for a few days before returning to their home in Calgary, after a holiday in the United States.

Bill Ruddy had the misfortune to slip on the ice and fracture his ankle, and is a patient in the Tofield hospital.

Bill Fisk of UBC, was at home for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fisk.

The Lions Club sponsored the New Year's Dance in the Community Hall with Emil Sadownyk and his orchestra supplying the music. All report that they had a very nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Edwards and boys of Fort Saskatchewan were New Year's visitors with Norah's father, George Lyons, and the other members of the Lyons families.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pope spent Christmas Day in Edmonton with their daughter, Madelene and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Budinski and family. Madelene's two brothers, Delbert and Dale, were both able to be present also.

Rokos rink to receive 'eight-enders' awards

Robert Rokos and his foursome came up with one of those rare eight-enders when curling in the "Oyster 'Spiel" on December 3rd. With his seven rocks in the house and only one opposing rock, Robert chinned out opposing skip Art Anderson's rock and stayed to count that curler's dream score. Curling with Rokos were Stan Kubin at third, Garry Pepper throwing second rock and novice Lyle Roth as the lead position.

The Rokos rink now joins the exclusive "8 Enders Club" and will receive the awards which go with this membership.

Each member of the rink will receive engraved silver curling stone butter dishes and an 8-end pin from Corby Distilling Limited of Vancouver, B.C., as well as a plaque and crest from the makers of Canada Dry.

Presentation of these awards will be made at an Oyster supper to be held at the curling rink on Friday, Jan. 8th. The oyster supper is the culmination of the "Oyster 'Spiel" when the winning rinks will be the guests of the losers. Chefs for the occasion will be two of the towns most renowned "oyster stewers", Ernie Brown and Garnet Burnstad.

Following the completion of this first round of curling, new draws will be announced and the members of the Ryley Club will get down to some more serious curling—and who knows—another 8-ender may be in the offing.

NOTICE!

OF PREPARATION OF ASSESSMENT ROLL – 1965 –

VILLAGE OF RYLEY

NOTICE is hereby given that the assessment of the previous year has been adopted under the provisions of The Assessment Act, and that the assessment roll of the said Village has been duly prepared, and that if any person thinks that any property has been wrongfully assessed, or assessed too high, or too low, or that his name or the name of any other person has been wrongfully entered upon or omitted from the roll, he may at any time within thirty (30) days from the date of this notice, notify the Secretary-Treasurer in writing of the particulars and grounds of his complaint(s).

DATED at Ryley, this 28th day of December, 1964.

GARNET J. BURNSTAD,
Secretary-Treasurer.

British crops without plowing

(Press and Journal, Aberdeen)

"The biggest development in the use of pre-emergent selective weed killers is the possibility of sowing cereals without any direct cultivation. It simply means spraying the land and drilling in the seed." Mr Douglas Evans of Manchester, England, said this in Perth at a fall meeting of the Scottish Branch of the Institute of Agricultural Engineers.

Mr. Evans said they had 18 machines working throughout the country at the moment, sowing winter grain either into stubble or grass land that had not been ploughed.

Giving three years results, he said that productivity had been better maintained on land that had simply been sprayed and drilled, than on land under normal cultivation.

Everytime one took a cultivator through the soil in order to kill weeds that had germinated, one was exposing a fresh lot of seed to germinate and possibly compete with the existing crop, said Mr. Evans.

Not any old sheet

Ten years ago a store could satisfy its customers' demands by having 48 different items on its bed-sheet counter. This week the same counter must carry 616 items to meet the more sophisticated demands of its shoppers. This comes from R. J. Butler, director and general manager of the T. Eaton Co. who outlines some of the new complexities in merchandising and the retailer's response to them. Butler makes this interesting point: By 1970, at least 60% of the products on sale in Canadian stores will have been newly introduced within the previous decade.

Ryley to host Farmers' 'Spiel

The 1964 Farmers' Bonspiel was a resounding success and the Ryley Club is looking for a repeat performance in 1965 during the week of January 11th to 15th.

Excellent support from local business firms enabled the club to provide excellent prizes which farmers from surrounding districts did their best to take home. Present indications are that the 1965 prizes will be even more sought after as most will be trophies and items designed for the home mantle piece.

To enable all farmers to take part without too much interference with their farm duties, the curling will be restricted to daytime.

At press time several entries had already been received by secretary Stan Powers. Those contemplating entering and not yet having done so, should phone the secretary at Ryley 21 during the day or 51 after 6 p.m.

Labor has no place to hide

Most observers say the court judgment brought down with regard to the strike against Gaspe Copper Mines Ltd., of Murdochville, Que., could prove to be one of the most far-reaching in the history of Canadian and international trade union movements, according to Amy Booth in The Financial Post. The court decision is still subject to appeal. United Steelworkers of America (USW) has been ordered to pay Gaspe approximately $2.4 million ($1,747,-645 for company losses during the seven-month strike in 1957 plus 5% simple interest on this total from Dec. 31/57). This is by far the largest judgment ever handed down in Canada against a union. In addition, the union has to pay Gaspe's legal expenses, about $750,000. The strike itself cost the union about $800,000 in welfare payments to the strikers, on top of the cost of four separate organizing campaigns that have been launched by the union.

What Mr. Justice Antoine Lacourciere, of the Quebec Superior Court makes very clear are these two points: 1 — Unions, corporations and individuals are in fact as well in theory equal under the law. 2 — Unions cannot hide behind their workers.

Q. What jewelry should be worn with a bridal gown?

A. This should be limited either to that which is functional, such as a pin needed to hold the dress together, to a strand of pearls, perhaps small gold or pearl earrings. A watch or bracelet should not be worn. The engagement ring may be worn on the RIGHT HAND, or left at home until after the ceremony.

Labor has no place to hide

Most observers say the court judgment brought down with regard to the strike against Gaspe Copper Mines Ltd., of Murdochville, Que., could prove to be one of the most far-reaching in the history of Canadian and international trade union movements, according to Amy Booth in The Financial Post. The court decision is still subject to appeal. United Steelworkers of America (USW) has been ordered to pay Gaspe approximately $2.4 million ($1,747,645 for company losses during the seven-month strike in 1957 plus 5% simple interest on this total from Dec. 31/57). This is by far the largest judgment ever handed down in Canada against a union. In addition, the union has to pay Gaspe's legal expenses, about $750,000. The strike itself cost the union about $800,000 in welfare payments to the strikers, on top of the cost of four separate organizing campaigns that have been launched by the union.

What Mr. Justice Antoine Lacourciere, of the Quebec Superior Court makes very clear are these two points: 1 — Unions, corporations and individuals are in fact as well in theory equal under the law. 2 — Unions cannot hide behind their workers.

Q. What jewelry should be worn with a bridal gown?

A. This should be limited either to that which is functional, such as a pin needed to hold the dress together, to a strand of pearls, perhaps small gold or pearl earrings. A watch or bracelet should not be worn. The engagement ring may be worn on the RIGHT HAND, or left at home until after the ceremony.

TROUBLE OVER!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP

Calgary Power have completed repairs on their main Wabamun generator and power output has been restored to normal. Full use of your electric service can now be enjoyed.

DUE TO YOUR CO-OPERATION in voluntarily easing up on power consumption during the daily peak-load period, all essential electric services were fully maintained while the generator was being repaired.

Calgary Power appreciates the assistance of Canadian Utilities, the cities of Edmonton, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat for supplying them with reserve power, and the sympathetic response of the City of Calgary Electric System in permitting the appeal to their customers.

We take this opportunity to wish all our customers

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

County councli meet held Dec. 10th.

Following are the minutes (in part) of the regular meeting of the Council of the County of Beaver No. 9 held on Thursday, Dec. 10, 1964:

Mr. W. D. Isbister, assistant chief municipal inspector, attended the meeting in regards to the installation of artificial ice at Bruce under the Municipal Winter Works Incentive Program, and explained the situation to the Council. According to Mr. Isbister it would be possible to apply this work under the Winter Works Incentive Program providing the application was sponsored by the County of Beaver, and also that payment to the workmen and the claiming of refunds must be made under the auspices of the County. Mr. Isbister further pointed out that workmen involved must be either unemployed or persons who would be unemployed in the absence of the program. In this connection two ways of administering the program would be possible. One would be that the Curling Rink Association in Bruce made their own payments for labour and submit all the relevent information to the County. The other, and the more acceptable manner, would be for the County to make the payments and be reimbursed by the Curling Rink Ass'n.

It was moved and carried that the County does handle the administrative end for installation of artificial ice at Bruce and that the necessary application be submitted.

Concerning the Round Hill Flood Control Project, motion 585/64, the secretary-treasurer reported that the work had been completed except for the installation of one culvert, which the contractor intended to put in in the spring, as the ground was frozen too hard to make it an economical job at this time. The total price to the Mid-West Drainage Limited was $7,-178.20 and an advance had been made of $2,000. The manager of Mid—West Drainage Ltd. had contacted the secretary-treasurer requesting a further payment. It was considered that no hold-back was necessary, the secretary-treasurer reporting he had discussed this with the engineer from the Dept. of Water Resources.

Moved and carried that the balance of the account due in the amount of $5,178.20 be paid to Mid-West Drainage Ltd.

In the matter of the County's request that it be declared a disaster area for freight assistance purposes was brought up, and it was finally moved and carried that the secretary-treasurer inquire from the Field Crops Branch what is going to be done with the County's request with information that a great shortage of feed is expected in the late winter or early spring.

It was moved and carried that the P.F.A.A. be requested to inspect E½ of 49-13, W½ of 49-13, W½ of 47-13 and all of 45-12 to ascertain whether or not these areas may be eligible for the P.F.A.A. Bonus.

CORRESPONDENCE

It was moved and carried that letter from the secretary-treasurer of Highway 13-14 Ass'n, advising that the annual meeting of the Ass'n was to be held on Thursday, Dec. 10, at 2:00 p.m. in Camrose, be received and filed.

Moved and carried that letter from Tofield Gun Club thanking the County for donation of grass seed for their new shooting range be received and filed.

A letter from Mrs. Gordon Lancaster stating that the road between the S.E. of 14 and S.W. of 13-46-12 had been undermined by beavers, making the road unsafe for travelling, was referred to Council.

Moved and carried that this complaint be referred to Cr. Johnston for investigation and necessary action.

Correspondence from the District Engineer, Dept. of Highways, concerning the Natural Resources Grant 1964, was referred to Council. The letter indicated that the work, done by the County under this grant in 1964, had been very acceptable and that the grading costs, averaging $3,500 per mile, was very reasonable.

Moved and carried that the letter be received and filed.

A letter from the Assistant Chief Maintenance Engineer of the Dept. of Highways concerning Special Contingency Roads Appropriation was referred to Council, and some discussion took place. Cr. Weatherill requested that consideration be given for the regravelling of the road going north of Tofield, D.H. 345 N. stating that, although this road had not been considered as a Special Contingency Road, it had nevertheless been paid for 100% by the Department.

Moved and carried that the secretary-treasurer ascertain if this road would qualify for a regravelling grant and that the matter of the Special Contingency Roads Appropriation be tabled to the next meeting.

A letter from A. C. Francis of Tofield, advising that he had applied to the Local Authorities Board to have 80 acres in N.E.-3-51-19-W4th transferred from the Town of Tofield to the County of Beaver was referred to Council.

Moved and carried that the Local Authorities Board be advised that the Council has no objections to the proposed transfer.

Moved and carried that information from P.F.A.A. Branch concerning townships inspected and decisions made by the Board of Review on these townships be received and filed.

Resignation of the County's mechanic, Stan Towns, to be effective after this meeting, was referred to Council.

Moved and carried that the resignation be accepted.

Moved and carried that an honorium of $25 be paid to the pound-keepers, referred to Council at this time.

The matter of Centennial 1967 was brought up at this time, and it was realized that this matter could not be settled at today's meeting, but that it was necessary that the Council decided one way or another how this grant should be handled.

Moved and carried that the Council meets on Dec. 18th at 10:00 a.m. to consider this matter, as well as any other matters that may be brought before the councillors at that time.

Cr. Ruddick suggested that the large spray truck should be placed in the Town of Viking for the winter as an auxiliary fire unit, stating that as from Dec. 1st the Town of Viking would not allow its fire engine to leave the town limits, but that if the sprayer truck was left at Viking as an auxiliary unit the regular fire equipment might be available to the farm area. He stated that it appeared possible that a Local Fire Fighting Unit Association would be established early in the new year in the Viking area.

Moved and carried that arrangements be made to have the sprayer truck placed in Viking as an auxiliary fire fighting unit.

Moved and carried that the secretary-treasurer's report on tax collections to Nov. 30th be accepted—1963 figures shown in parenthesis:

Levy $758,510 ($740,526); current taxes collected $260,583 ($266,653); percent of current levy 34.5% (36%); arrears collected $338,920 ($274,350); F.F. lands collected $4,936 ($5,552). Total collections to Nov. 30, $664,439 ([illegible]); percentage of current levy, 79.7% (73.8%); arrears at Nov. 30, [illegible] ([illegible]).

I appreciate them and am sorry I cannot return greetings except in this way.

Mrs. Sears Sr.

Tofield, Alta.

Editor, The Mercury:

I am asked why I do not quit the farm and take up some other activity? And I ask myself what and where?

I remember a painting of several oldsters on a bench, in the sun, with naught to do but twiddle their thumbs. But to one who has opened his eyes for the last three score and more years wishing that he were two and had two days to do the things ahead; just twiddling his thumbs seems rather inane. You rise to feel the caress of the morning breeze and the warming of the rising sun, and then later the cooling stimulation of a swim or wash in a pool or creek at the end of a hot, tired day.

You stroll again over the hills among the remaining trees and feel the oneness and communion with nature. In memory you see the acres of trees giving place before your slow laboured axe strokes, to growing and waving grain, giving you again the pleasure of living and doing. You close your eyes and see the changes still planned to conclude the tasks began, years of pleasure shaping and building towards these goals.

Can you quit the farm and these dreams?

Geo. G. Abernethy.

AND THE WESTERN SUPPLEMENT

VOL. 13. NO. 20. PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT TOFIELD, ALBERTA Thursday, January 14th., 1965

Vaccination programs are discussed by ASB

Dr. Stiles would likely complete his vaccination program by about December 15, 1964, and Dr. Bildfell would be a little later in starting his, Rex Boyles, field supervisor, told the recent meeting of the County of Beaver Agricultural Service Board.

The completion of the compulsory Brucellosis vaccination was discussed. Rex Boyles said according to information he had there would be no compulsory vaccination after October 1, 1965. The service board was in general disagreement with dropping the present system of Brucellosis control. They feel that the system now used is the best way of keeping this disease under control. Mr. Boyles said he had raised objections with Dr. Brisbane but could get no assurance that these regulations would not be changed.

CORRESPONDENCE

A letter was read regarding an Agricultural Service Board conference to be held in Two Hills December 9th, and it was moved and carried that all the members of the Service Board attend if possible.

Cr. Kropielnicki mentioned the amendment to the County Act that was proposed at the 1964 Municipal Convention. This amendment, if passed by the Legislature, would make the Agricultural Service Board a Committee of the Council. The details as to representation on this Committee were not established.

In his Field Supervisor's report, Mr. Boyles said: "Field inspections for weeds has been narrowed down to problem farms where fall work was promised. No seeding orders will have to be placed on five of these farms.

"Toad-flax infestations were checked and further spreading of this weed is unlikely due to the dry growing season.

"The application of Ureabor was carried out on three locations, including the Viking Carena and on patches of Leafy Spurge and Hoary Cress.

"Eighty strychnine pellets were released for coyote control. Five farmers have made use of the magpie traps. Four farmers received grass seed for backslopes and roadside ditches.

"The pesticide course was attended from October 26 to 30. A great deal of useful information was received and authorities outlined a complete program on the use of all farm chemicals.

"Checks were made on Hydroseeding of forage seed on roadsides, also costs. Several Counties have adopted this type of seeding in order to reach backslopes.

"It has been suggested that the county supply grass seed to farmers at a considerable saving. Information and figures have been obtained from other counties that are handling grass seed, and we will consider the advantages of a similar program here.

"The Bangs vaccination program got under way on No. 0 in the western half of the county and on Nov. 16 the eastern part. If roads permit vaccination should be completed by the end of the year.

All Civil Defence equipment has been checked in accordance with headquarters requirements".

Mr. Boyles said he is having difficulty in getting farmers to control the weeds in ditches, since the County took over the control of noxious weeds on road allowances. He said that the county should possibly reconsider this bylaw.

AND STILL WORKING. Medical Missionary Dr. Albert Schweitzer, above, became 90 years old on Jan. 14 but refuses to slow down his pace at his hospital station in Lambarene, in the jungle of equatorial Africa. The doctor cares for about 500 patients, with about 200 of them in an isolated leper colony.

Former ball champ now lives in city

A recent publicity booklet from the City of Wetaskiwin carried a baseball picture of the Wetaskiwin baseball team which won the Alberta Championship in 1904 and 1905. Pictured as a member of the team is Joe McLaughlin who lived in Tofield district for 30 years and is now a resident in Edmonton.

Unfortunately the picture was on a printed page from a booklet, and so it cannot be properly reproduced for The Mercury. Only original photos can be used because of the screening necessary for printing.

Father Scriven named EMO co-ordinator here

Mrs. Rex Boyles advised the recent meeting of the Emergency Measures Unit meeting at Ryley that Father Scriven would be replacing her as co-ordinator for the Town of Tofield commencing January 1, 1965. It was moved by Joe Chamulke and carried unanimously that Father Scriven be accepted.

Mrs. Boyles advised that Northern Zone Headquarters had informed her that they would not have instructors available for the dates requested for a control room course, and it was moved by Joe Chamulke that the secretary write and find out if any other dates are available.

George Taylor noted that Rex Boyles would be used in radiological work by the provincial department of agriculture in the event of a nuclear explosion. As he is the chief radiological officer for the county it was suggested a new one be trained. As Mr. Boyles knows who is well enough trained to replace him, it was moved by T. F. Harris that Mr. Boyles get someone qualified to replace him.

George Taylor gave an outline of the meeting regarding Police training.

There was some discussion regarding First Aid courses, and it was moved by Selmer Hafso that the co-ordinators hold First Aid courses when arrangements can be made.

High School team curls at Viking

The Tofield H.S. curling team participated in the zone playoffs in Viking on Saturday, Jan. 9th. The team skipped by Jack Nolan, with Greg Whyte at third, Robert Wall at second, and Kevin Pike at lead, although winning B section, they were defeated by Viking in A section finals.

The Tofield H.S. wishes to congratulate the excellent Viking team, skipped by Doug Dobry and wishes them every success in the provincial competitions.

The basketball game last Friday was called off because of the bad weather. The next basketball game will be at Viking Friday, Jan. 15th. The next home game is scheduled for February 5th when Viking will be in Tofield.

Tofield Lions have first 1965 meeting

The first regular meeting of Tofield Lions Club in 1965 was held on Tuesday, Jan. 12th. Reports of visitation of other clubs were made and entertainment provided there.

Lion McAdoo reported that 158 donors had contributed $217.40 to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind canvass held late in 1964. Lion Dave Duguid reported on the skating rink situation, and Lion President Wall reported a snow blower had been purchased for less than $400. A donation had been made to the local Scout Troop. Lion Tom Kerlee was a visitor from Ryley Club. Discussion took place as to insurance on the operations of the club both on skating rink and playground and decided to have this placed in care of Lion Regehr.

End this poisoning

Grain buyers, as well as farmers, are feeling the full brunt of regulations that no grain can be sold to elevators if it has been mixed with mercury-treated seed. Even an incredibly small amount of the treating compound can ruin whole shipments, and clamps have been screwed on hard in recent months, to the extent that one buyer was dismissed, and others have been repeatedly warned to keep their eyes open.

As pointed out many times, it's extremely difficult for a grain buyer to tell from the appearance of grain whether it's been treated, for wheat kernels can be found ranging all the way from green to red in color. And it's quite possible for a farmer to forget the auger or other equipment he's using for his harvest was also used in the seed treating program way back in the spring. Or he may not even know it was used by the hired man.

But the grain is just as poisoned as if it were done on purpose.

Since the effect is so deadly, and since it's so hard to detect, the suggestion of an old hand in the business seems eminently sensible. Chemical companies providing the compound should be required to give a distinct and different color, such as blue, to the chemical. Any wheat coming to the elevator with a blue tinge would immediately stand out: both farmer and buyer would be spared the responsibility. And the public would be safeguarded.

For safety's sake, let's color it blue.

Hardly a holiday

Coming so soon after Christmas, Boxing Day and New Year's the country hardly wants another holiday on January 11th, yet certainly there should be some recognition of the day as the birthday of Sir John A. MacDonald, Canada's first prime minister.

1965 marks the 150th anniversary of the date, and it's not a bit too soon to get busy developing some sort of national observance. Probably no American has to be told that Lincoln's birthday was February 12th, nor Washington's on the 22nd. Thousands among us know that January 25th recalls the birthday of Robbie Burns. Yet we'd be surprised if even one in a thousand Canadians could date the birthday of John MacDonald.

It might even be surprising how few know he was the country's first prime minister.

Out of the mouths of babes

The old saying that great wisdom may come from the young was demonstrated at New Year's when the Tuxis Boys' Parliament met in Calgary and discussed, among other things, fluoridation.

Representing senior youth from all over the province, the group carried a resolution asking the government to adopt legislation 'so that the adoption of fluoridation by municipalities be by a simple majority vote, rather than the required two thirds majority'.

Isn't it a shame we can't be so reasonable as we grow older? When we should be growing smarter, too.

Co-operate to control

A Saskatonian, L. L. Lloyd suggests that Canadians should build more and bigger co-operatives to keep control of more of their own industries. President of the Federated Co-operatives, he points out that no other country in the world has so much of its economic life directed by people who do not live within its borders.

While we heartily agree with Mr. Lloyd's objective of control within our own country, we cannot agree with his method. He pointed out that the cash refunds being made to the co-ops would go back to members, and stay in Canada, and inject added purchasing power for consumers.

This reminds us of the argument used recently by Henry Young of Millet, in bolstering the suggestion that three Alberta cities generate their own power near Ardley. Mr. Young pointed out that privately owned power companies pay huge sums of money back to the investors as dividends, often reaching into millions of dollars.

What Mr. Young says is true as far as it goes. But he neglects to say this is the wages for the money employed . . . and even co-operatives pay this. He further neglects to point out the private companies pay even larger amounts to the government as taxes . . . something the co-ops do not do. Cut off this tax money, and the government will have to soak us more in some other direction.

A NATIONAL HOLIDAY? January 11 marked the 150th anniversary of the birth of John A. Macdonald, chief of the Fathers of Confederation. There is a growing movement in Canada to make this date a national holiday, especially for our Centennial Year in 1967. Above shows his modest gravestone in Kingston, Ont.

No change in egg support program

The support price for eggs in the period of October 1, 1964, to September 30, 1965, will remain unchanged from the previous year's 34 cents, said Agriculture Minister Harry Hays recently.

In the 1963-64 period, the national average price amounted to 32 cents per dozen, resulting in a deficiency payment of two cents per dozen to producers. To date, payments amounting to approximately $700,000 have been made.

The maximum for a deficiency payment remains unchanged—4,000 dozen eggs per producer. This covers Grade A Extra Large, Grade A Large, and Grade A Medium sizes. No payments of less than $2 per individual.

Holden UCW has final meeting

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 9. — Members of the U.C.W. of the afternoon group met Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7th, for their final meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary James. Most of the ladies, who are reaching a good old age, feel unable to carry on actively as their number decreases every year. However, they will meet to carry on with their Study book and various things.

The Devotions were taken by Mrs. N. L. Campbell, who also gave a report of the year's activities. There were thirteen ladies present including members and visitors. At the conclusion of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

The next meeting in February will be at the home of Mrs. Earl Hardy, and Devotions will be taken by Mrs. J. A. Giebelhaus.

FROM THE SCRAP BOOK

When our friends are present, we ought to treat them well; and when they are absent, to speak of them well. —JWR

VICTOR 101 SUPER

the 1965 Victor

It's gracefully wider and elegantly longer. That's how the 1965 Victor 101 gets its brilliant new styling. And lots more is new besides. A new roominess that comes from the new curved glass side windows . . . an extra 4 inches of shoulder room that takes the squeeze out of three-abreast seating. There's new luggage space in the bigger trunk. New year 'round driving comfort in Victor's new heating and ventilation system. New efficiency in self-adjusting brakes. New durability in extra rustproofing and weathersealing. New extra power too. On the other hand, some things haven't changed. Like Victor's pocket-saving gas economy and delightfully easy handling. They're permanent Vauxhall features. But only first-hand experience could ever tell you all the new Victor 101 has to offer. So don't delay! See and test drive the 1965 Victor 101.

BARLEY VARIETIES 1964

The accompanying map shows the 1964 distribution of the barley varieties in Western Canada. The three most commonly grown varieties (Parkland, Olli and Montcalm) now occupy 50% of the total acreage seeded to barley. In addition, seven other varieties are grown to some extent and three others occupy at least some acreage.

The percentage of the acreage occupied by the different varieties in Western Canada is as follows: Parkland, 21.1%; Olli, 16.3%; Montcalm, 12.6%; Gateway, 10.3%; Hannchen, 7.9%; Betzes, 5.7%; Husky, 5.6%; Compana, 4.6%; Palliser, 3.7%; O.A.C.21, 3.1%.

Miscellaneous varieties totalling 9.1%, include Jubilee, Keystone and Herta. In Alberta, Olli leads, occupying 34.1%; in Saskatchewan, Montcalm with 24% and in Manitoba, Parkland is predominant, occuping 48.9% of the barley acreage.

Principal changes as between 1963 and 1964 may be noted. Alberta: shows a moderate decrease in Olli and a slight increase in Gateway. Saskatchewan: shows a moderate decrease in Hannchen and a slight decrease in Montcalm. Manitoba: shows a moderate decrease in both Parkland and Montcalm and a sizeable increase in the acreage seeded to Keystone.

Modern Etiquette ...

Q. Are the candles on a dinner table lighted before or after the guests are seated?

A. Before. They should be lighted immediately before dinner is announced.

Q. Just what is meant by "semi-formal," as applied to the dress of both men and women?

A. This usually depends upon the community. In some places, where men customarily wear tails, semi-formal means tuxedos for them and simple evening dresses for the women. In a simpler community, it would be plain dark blue or gray suits for the men and afternoon frocks for the women.

Q. When there is to be a supper for the bridal party after the wedding rehearsal at the church, is it necessary to invite the Clergyman and his wife?

A. If you know the clergyman well, it would be nice to invite him and his wife. This is not, however, necessary.

Q. Should the used silverware be gathered up before removing the plates from the dinner table?

A. No; the silver should be left on the plates, and all removed from the table together.

Q. When you have entertained an out-of-town guest and have received a "bread-and-butter" letter of thanks from her, it is necessary to reply to this letter?

A. This would be far better than ignoring the letter. Your guest will certainly appreciate learning that you, too, enjoyed her visit, and that you are looking forward to seeing her again.

Q. When a finger bowl is provided at a formal dinner, does one put both hands into the bowl at the same time?

A. No. Just dip the FINGERS of ONE hand into the bowl at a time.

Q. Is there such a thing as being "fashionably late" socially?

A. Indeed not! Punctuality is always "fashionable" politeness.

WON'T STEP DOWN. Conservative Party sources have discounted reports that party leader John Diefenbaker will step down from power before the next general election. Diefenbaker is said to believe the flag controversy, the use of closure by the Liberals and allegations of bribery against high-placed Liberals will boost Tory chances in the next election.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE IMPORTANT VARIETIES OF BARLEY SEEDED IN WESTERN CANADA IN 1964

BARLEY VARIETIES 1964

The accompanying map shows the 1964 distribution of the barley varieties in Western Canada. The three most commonly grown varieties (Parkland, Olli and Montcalm) now occupy 50% of the total acreage seeded to barley. In addition, seven other varieties are grown to some extent and three others occupy at least some acreage.

The percentage of the acreage occupied by the different varieties in Western Canada is as follows: Parkland, 21.1%; Olli, 16.3%; Montcalm, 12.6%; Gateway, 10.3%; Hannchen, 7.9%; Betzes, 5.7%; Husky, 5.6%; Compana, 4.6%; Palliser, 3.7%; O.A.C.21, 3.1%. Miscellaneous varieties totalling 9.1%, include Jubilee, Keystone and Herta. In Alberta, Olli leads, occupying 34.1%; in Saskatchewan, Montcalm with 24% and in Manitoba, Parkland is predominant, occupying 46.9% of the barley acreage.

Principal changes as between 1963 and 1964 may be noted. Alberta: shows a moderate decrease in Olli and a slight increase in Gateway. Saskatchewan: shows a moderate decrease in Hannchen and a slight decrease in Montcalm. Manitoba: shows a moderate decrease in both Parkland and Montcalm and a sizeable increase in the acreage seeded to Keystone.

Modern Etiquette . . .

Q. Are the candles on a dinner table lighted before or after the guests are seated?

A. Before. They should be lighted immediately before dinner is announced.

Q. Just what is meant by "semi-formal," as applied to the dress of both men and women?

A. This usually depends upon the community. In some places, where men customarily wear tails, semi-formal means tuxedos for them and simple evening dresses for the women. In a simpler community, it would be plain dark blue or gray suits for the men and afternoon frocks for the women.

Q. When there is to be a supper for the bridal party after the wedding rehearsal at the church, is it necessary to invite the Clergyman and his wife?

A. If you know the clergyman well, it would be nice to invite him and his wife. This is not, however, necessary.

Q. Should the used silverware be gathered up before removing the plates from the dinner table?

A. No; the silver should be left on the plates, and all removed from the table together.

Q. When you have entertained an out-of-town guest and have received a "bread-and-butter" letter of thanks from her, it is necessary to reply to this letter?

A. This would be far better than ignoring the letter. Your guest will certainly appreciate learning that you, too, enjoyed her visit, and that you are looking forward to seeing her again.

Q. When a finger bowl is provided at a formal dinner, does one put both hands into the bowl at the same time?

A. No. Just dip the FINGERS of ONE hand into the bowl at a time.

Q. Is there such a thing as being "fashionably late" socially?

A. Indeed not! Punctuality is always "fashionable" politeness.

WON'T STEP DOWN. Conservative Party sources have discounted reports that party leader John Diefenbaker will step down from power before the next general election. Diefenbaker is said to believe the flag controversy, the use of closure by the Liberals and allegations of bribery against high-placed Liberals will boost Tory chances in the next election.

10 commandments for safe winter driving

The "Dangerous Third" of the year, motor-travelwise is now with us. December, January, February and March are the months when the motorist must amend his driving habits if he would side-step the hazards which abound on snow-covered thoroughfares.

Dominion Automobile Association whose interest in accident-free driving on winter-glazed roads is understandable through Mr. W. S. Chalmers, Manager, Members' Services Division, Dominion Automobile Association, offers below a time-proven set of rules which will, if adhered to, help guide the motorist through the winter months without mishap. Check your own driving habits with the suggestions contained in this decalog, and if necessary, revise your methods to conform.

1. Start Gently: To overcome rear wheel slaughing in snow, start slowly. Second Gear or [illegible] gear, will frequently get a car moving, when the usual low gear start only spins the wheels.
2. See and Be Seen: Don't drive with a befogged or snow-covered windshield and windows. Don't start to roll until you can see around your full circle of visibility. Let others see YOU, by turning on your headlights in the late afternoon, even if it isn't dark.
3. Get the "Feel" of the Road: Check the braking efficiency of the existing road surface with a light test pressure on the brake. If you slide, reduce speed accordingly.
4. Don't "Tailgate": The generally accepted "car length for each 10 m.p.h." doesn't apply at this time of year. It takes from 3 to 12 times the bare road factor to stop your car on ice and snow. Set up your following distance with this in mind.
5. Brake Before Turns: Anticipate a reduction in speed and let your engine help you brake for a turn. A fast, right-hand turn on snow can throw you into an "about-face" skid!
6. "Pump" Brakes when Slowing: Don't risk a dangerous skid by sustained brake pressure when slowing or stopping. Apply brake in gentle intermittent pressures.
7. Carry Along Some Traction-Makers: Always carry a shovel, some sand, and tire chains (if you don't have snow tires) in your trunk. Try putting the sand in cardboard milk containers for easy spreading under wheels.
8. Don't Take Your Car Muffler For Granted: A leaky muffler or exhaust pipe can spell "curtains" for you under winter conditions. Have the boys at the filling station check these parts every time your car is on the grease rack.
9. Don't Try To Push Your Stalled Car Out Of A Snowbank: Especially if you are over forty! A severe strain on a faulty heart can result from unaccustomed pushing of a car out of a snowbank. Better to call a tow truck than an ambulance.
10. Use Your Seat Belts at All Times: Seat belts are particularly valuable in winter type skidding mishaps. Don't drive ANYWHERE without them in place.

A compliment is the pause that refreshes.

Historical Society will discuss centennary plans

The annual meeting of the Tofield Historical Society will be held in the Historical museum at 8 o'clock on Thursday, Jan. 21st. This will be an important meeting for several reasons, namely:

1. Election of officers for 1965 will be [illegible].

2. A discussion will be held as to the members' wishes for a centennial project to be undertaken by the socity either alone or in conjunction with other organizations. It would surely show a regrettable lack of interest in Canada's history in general and that of our particular locality in particular to let this occasion pass without commemoration in Tofield. With this thought in mind, the executive of the Historical Society asks that all members, past, present, and prospective, attend the meeting. ## Double-ring ceremony for Lutz-Fraser rites

St. Francis of Assisi Roman Catholic Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Monday, Dec. 28, 1964, when Betty Jean Fraser, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fraser, of Tofield, and Benjamin Ewald Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Lutz, of Holden, exchanged vows in a double-ring ceremony. Monsignor Joseph Malone of St. Joseph's Cathedral, Edmonton, performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William Fraser Jr., wore a floor-length gown of embroidered nylon net, with Peter Pan collar and lily-point sleeves. Her chapel veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white prayer book with American Beauty roses.

Attendants of the bride were her sister, Mrs. Joan Schacker, as matron of honor, and Miss Stephania Komarnisky as bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of light blue and tea blue satin. They carried nosegays of carnations tinted to match their dresses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Walter Lutz, and his cousin, Wilmar Froelich. Ushers were David Frebrowski and Otto Froelich.

The organist was Miss Carold Hurum of Viking, and the soloist Mrs. Patricia Batty of Edmonton, who sang "Blessed Be This Day".

A reception for 180 guests was held in the Tofield Community Hall. The bride's table was centered by a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake flanked by vases of carnations. Kenneth Eastlick, master of ceremonies, proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded. Following the reception "open house" was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For her going-away trip to the West Coast, the bride wore a powder blue suit with fox cuffs and black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutz will reside in Viking.

Double-ring ceremony for Strome wedding

At St. Paul's United Church, Strome, on Saturday, Nov. 21st, Judith Elaine Larson became the bride of Melford Fredrick Wiklun. Rev. K. Morris officiated at the double-ring ceremony which united the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Larson of Strome and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiklun of Tofield.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked radiantly lovely in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, featuring a fitted bodice, bell skirt and lily-point sleeves. The bride's train flowed from a rose and pearl trimmed headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Helen Wiklun, sister-in-law of the groom, was matron of honor. Miss Sharon Larson, sister of the bride, and Miss Virginia Kawaliliak of Holden, friend of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were identically styled street-length gowns of vivid red velvet with matching veiled headpieces. Their bouquets were of white roses.

The groom was attended by his brother Alvin Wiklun of Edmonton. Ivan Sorenson and James Snortheim of Ryley, friends of tahe groom. Ushers were Hans Pilger, uncle of the bride and Bob Wiklun, cousin of the groom.

Larry Benson of Holden, soloist, friends of the groom. Ushers ist, sang "The Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony, and "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register. Mrs. Mildred Gorden accompanied him on the organ and also played the processional and recessional music.

A reception for 115 guests was held in the church basement at 4:30 p.m. where the mother of the bride received her guests wearing a beige satin brocade sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds. The groom's mother chose a gown of blue magic crepe and corsage of pink rose buds. Miss Colleen Cramton, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Master of ceremonies was Dave Cramton of Strome, uncle of the bride. Sam Olsen of Hawlf proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom ably responded.

For going away, Judy chose a charcoal wool dress with matching accessories and a red rose corsage.

The happy couple will reside in Sherwood Park where they are both employed.

Disappearing Gypsy race invades Bavaria

Sudbury Star

A one-paragraph news despatch from Munich told how the state of Bavaria "has stopped a threatened invasion of its territory." The "invaders" were 1,000 gypsies who had planned to cross into West Germany by air and automobiles.

The news report is enlightening in one respect. It shows that the Nazis didn't get all of the gypsies into the gas ovens. A more interesting story could be told if it was known how many gypsies survive in the world. If there was ever a scattered race in the world it must surely be these wanderers who roam as single families or in small groups. An aging generation can be forgiven its nostalgia in mourning the passing of the gaily-decorated horse-drawn caravans and their mysterious inhabitants who silently appeared and disappeared like the seasons.

The North American continent has [illegible] hobo jungles but never gypsy encampments. The name of "gypsies" was given to these European people in the British statutes. In France they were known as "Bohemians" and in Germany they were called "Zigeuner". They called themselves "Rommany".

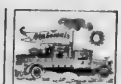
Here are three important reasons why it will pay you to renovate and redecorate your home now!

1 SKILLED MEN ARE AVAILABLE—NOW! Although more and more building is being done each winter, exterior construction does slow down during the cold weather. As a result, home improvement contractors and skilled craftsmen seek out the smaller interior jobs that they are unable to handle during the summer. You benefit—with skilled workmanship by experienced tradesmen when it's most convenient to you!

2 DISCOUNTS AND LOANS ARE AVAILABLE—NOW! To create incentives that will balance their sales and keep their staff employed throughout the year, building supply dealers run winter sales. These special discounts help you renovate and redecorate at the lowest possible cost. You'll find your bank a good place to visit, too—for low-interest Home Improvement Loans under the National Housing Act: up to $4,000.00, with up to ten years to repay!



3 MATERIALS ARE AVAILABLE—NOW! When building slows down, materials become more readily available. Result: irritating delays in completing your job because of late delivery of supplies are [illegible]

There's no doubt about it. Winter is the very best time to spruce up your home (and your place of business)—quickly, efficiently, inexpensively!

Mrs. Lavina Yoder passes in Tofield January 3rd

Mrs. Lavina (Kauffman) Yoder, daughter of Elias and Magdaline (Lehman) Kauffman, was born October 18th, 1888, and died at Tofield hospital January 3rd, 1965, aged 76 years, 2 months and 18 days. Death was caused by complications from the heart.

On July 27, 1911, she was married to Henry L. Yoder in Parnell, Iowa. To this union were born one daughter and two sons: Mrs. Velma Lehman of Tofield, Lloyd of Camrose, and Leslie of Tofield. Also surviving are 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Lena Berky of Kalona, Iowa; two brothers, Joe Kauffman of Tofield and Menno Kauffman of Newark, Ohio, who also mourn her passing.

and five sisters predeceased and five sisters preceded her in death.

One grandson, one son-in-law

In 1912 they moved from Parnell, Iowa, to Tofield, Alberta, where they took up farming. In 1963 they moved into Tofield to live with their daughter, Mrs. Velma Lehman, where the deceased lived till she went to the hospital, nine weeks before her passing. She accepted Christ as her Savior and joined the Mennonite Church in her youth. She was a faithful member up to the time of her death. Even though Mother suffered much, she bore it all patiently. Her family will remember her as being a devoted mother and grandmother, always concerned about the welfare of her children and grandchildren.

All is over, hands are folded
On a quiet and peaceful breast.
All is over, pains are ended,
Now dear Mother is at rest.

The funeral service was held at Salem Mennonite Church on Wednesday, Jan. 6th, at 2 p.m., with J. B. Stauffer and Milo Stutzman officiating. Order of service was as follows: hymn, "What a Friend We Have In Jesus"; hymn, "Fade, Fade Each Earthly Joy"; Scripture reading and prayer by J. B. Stauffer; hymn, "Midst the Darkness, Storm and Sorrow", by octette; obituary and message by Milo Stutzman; viewing songs: "Saved by Grace", "Heaven is My Home", "I Come to the Garden Alone".

Interment was made in the Salem Mennonite Church Cemetery. Pallbearers were John Wideman, Wayne Yoder, Loyal Kauffman, Eldon Boettger, Marvin Boettger and Donald Yoder. Hoveland Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

INSTANT PLAYMATES

These are only two of the many Tofield children taking advantage of the mild weather and like most of them find the snowman an ideal playmate. Also like most other children they stop all activity when the camera is in sight. These are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Murray of the local RCMP detachment. – Photo by Peter Nickel.

Scarlet fever outbreak not serious says Dr. A. L. Leslie-Spinks, MHO

Regarding the recent outbreak of scarlet fever in the Tofield-Ryley areas, the medical health officer for the Vegreville Health Unit, Dr. A. L. Leslie-Spinks commented this morning: "There is quite an unnecessary flap about all this. This is an outbreak — not an epidemic, mind you — but an outbreak of a mild form of scarlet fever, affecting mainly children of 12 years of age and younger, most of them from farms in the areas around Tofield and Ryley."

SHOULD BOIL MILK

The common vehicle of the disease, said Dr. Leslie-Spinks, is milk or water. "It can be assumed that most of these farm children drink milk as it comes right from the cow, rather than pasteurized milk," the doctor continued. "We have therefore recommended that people boil their milk. We are not in a position to incriminate milk anywhere, but in order to do all that is possible, we have suggested that unpasteurized milk be boiled before it is consumed.

A total of 33 cases of scarlet fever in the Tofield-Ryley area have been reported to the health unit offic. "But these have come in over a period of three months approximately," said Dr. Leslie-Spinks, "so you can see the outbreak is not very serious However, we are doing everything possible to stop the outbreak."

VISITS AREA

The medical health officer was in Tofield and Ryley yesterday to meet with H. A. Page, superintendent of schools for the County of Beaver, as well as school principals. Asked if the question of closing schools because of the outbreak had ever arisen, Dr. Leslie-Spinks replied, "Heavens, no! Nothing like that. We merely discussed what action the school principals should be taking. After checking with the principals involved, I found they have been doing the right thing, and so I suggested they just carry on as they have been doing."

New doctor for Holden

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — We are pleased to welcome into our community, Dr. M. J. Bhadnani, who will commence practice in Dr. Calo's present office as of January 25th.

Dr Bhadnani will hold office hours from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. Monday, and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. the balance of the week

Being a resident of Holden, he will also be available after hours as was Dr. Calo.

Dr. Bhadnani was born and raised in India where he received his early schooling.

His medical training was completed in England. After graduating he served as a general practitioner in England, Trinidad and later in Fort McMurray and Smoky Lake.

Dr. Bhadnani brings to his practice in Holden a most commendable medical background and a wealth of experience.

The Doctor and his wife are most charming people and with their twin sons, who are presently in grade 7 at school in Edmonton, will be a most welcome addition to the medical and social life of our community.

Holden OORP meets on January 12th

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 16.– The Holden Lodge of the O.O.R.P. held their monthly meeting Tuesday, Jan. 12th, in the Community Hall. Owing to the cold and stormy evening the attendance was small.

Regular business was dealt with and reports received. Past Honored Royal Lady Sorenson was presented with a bar to her secretary's pin which was merited by her some years ago, after serving a fourth year in that capacity

At the conclusion of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses for the evening, Ladies Mary Semotuik and Kay Chupka

Two debates at 4-H meet

The debate on "Whether Fathers or Mothers are better leaders" at the Tofield 4-H club meeting recently ended in a draw.

The second debate was on whether "fast car drivers have less accidents than slow car drivers". The group that was debating for slow drivers won.

On January 30th calf judging will be held at Weatherill's — weather permitting

Interesting films were shown by Mr. Duggan.

Baergen re-elected League president

(By Peter Nickel)

An unusual case turned up at the annual meeting of the Tofield Community League, held last Wednesday.

In the past, a nominating committee had selected officers for the new year, making it a point to have a new president each year. This time, however, the president's office was left blank, resulting in a "time out" for an election.

In sincerity, John Baergen was asked to remain in the president's office and, with a bit of persuasion, he finally consented.

OTHER OFFICERS

The nominating committee's choice for the other officers were: Cal Annis, vice-president; Arnold Swift, second vice-president, and Lionel Borton, third vice-president. The secretary's office was taken up by Jack Lampitt, while Hans Christensen was given the treasurer's office which he had filled since the resignation of Ralph Gorrie last fall.

Both the regular meeting and the annual meeting were brief. The only business other than the installation of officers and committee reports was a request to sponsor the cancer campaign, from Mrs. Con Patterson. The request was granted and voted into effect.

The meeting and pot luck supper were wound up in approximately two hours.

Icy streets a hazard!

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 16.—While we are enjoying the spell of mild weather, walking and driving is very hazardous.

Olaf Chotney had a nasty fall Friday of last week. After stepping out of the house and trying to avoid a pool of water, he slipped on some ice, hurting his face, breaking some teeth and cutting the inside of his lips quite badly.

FUN RIDE

A very unusual sight in this day and age but a very pretty one, indeed. The photographer caught this scene on Tofield's main street last Sunday while the riders were out for fun the old-fashioned way. —Photo by Peter Nickel.

Law of the jungle

Recent reports from Ottawa indicate that a group of crusading young Liberals are out to win their spurs by forcing down objections of W. E. Kilgour, chief spokesman for the insurance companies opposing the government's entry into the pension field with the present pension plan.

Disturbed when he came off best in a verbal duel recently, the group of ten or more have divided briefs into small sections, each one becoming an expert on one phase, and determined to best the opposition, get the pension plan approved, then effect the needed improvements as time goes on.

While this may be mighty good politics, there seems to be a wide gulf between this approach and statesmanship. We'll admit to being naive, but somewhere in the "get Kilgour" cry, we miss any interest in what might be best for Canada. Admittedly Kilgour has an axe to grind, but we completely agree that such far-reaching and continuing legislation doesn't have to be rushed through on the basis of a pack of wolves or jackals hounding a stag in turns until he trips and falls to his doom.

Kilgour isn't elected; members of parliament are. Is this kind of member representing the kind of people we think we are?

Boom for farmers

Agriculture Minister Harry Hays has come up with a new program which, though inexpensive, will probably prove a real blessing to farmers across the country. Four special test farms will be established across the country, each operating under more or less typical conditions in its own area, and designed to point the way to increased farm efficiency and revenue.

With one each in the Maritimes, Quebec, Ontario and the prairies, the farm programs will be quite different from the experimental farms in that each will be farmed as a practical model designed to produce an adequate income for a farm family. All aspects of the program will be documented fully, so as to provide information concerning livestock weights, feed costs, labor expenditures, and whatever revenues are derived.

They'll never replace the experimental farm, but they may go a long way to supplement the first program on a practical, profit-making basis. If so, the farmers will bless Harry Hays.

Carving his own monument

Few men in life ever leave a monument, and fewer still ever help to carve it during their lifetime. Yet Eric Harvie of Calgary has built one of the most enduring in this province, through the conception and development of the magnificent Glenbow Foundation in Calgary.

Since its formation almost ten years ago, the foundation has amassed an almost incredible wealth of historical material and data dealing with all parts of the history of Alberta, from the written record, to the pictorial histories and the antiques and relics of the immigrant settlers. Far-ranging in its vision, the foundation's first phase, now completed, has seen the establishment of the Glenbow Museum in Calgary's old Court House, the Glenbow Art Gallery in the Public Library Building, the Glenbow Historical Library and Archival Research Centre, and the Luxton Museum in Banff.

So much material has been amassed that expansion plans are constantly on the drawing boards, as more and more material is drawn in for preserving. The contribution being made by Glenbow cannot possibly be measured today: it will be left for future generations to assess its importance. Yet it's interesting that the preserving of this pioneer wealth of Alberta has been made possible very largely through the development of Alberta's wealth in the form of the oilfields at Leduc, which helped weave the legend surrounding Mr. Harvie.

However, while Mr. Harvie is turning the helm over to other hands, he still will do some of the navigating.

Only a symbol

Lawyers were roundly criticized earlier this week by Chief Judge Nelles V. Buchanan, when he addressed a gathering of more than 70 lawyers. His criticism was for "playing it safe . . . playing it cool."

No lawyer has to worry over losing his job, he said, and in consequence they should be in the forefront in any struggle to improve the lot of his neighbors.

Well known for his outspoken nature and his acid comment, the chief judge was given a standing ovation for his fiery talk . . . which is to admit that many of his hearers agreed with him.

The real trouble is that the criticism they received is really deserved by all of us. Lawyer, merchant, or Indian chief, we don't want to get involved in controversy, we don't want to rock the boat, we want to maintain the image of the imperturable man in the grey flannel suit.

It's one of the biggest criticisms of our time that since we don't want to stand for something, we allow ourselves to fall for anything.

The versatile soybean gains in popularity

Aside from the introduction of hybrid corn, one of the most striking developments in the field of crop production, in North America, has been the rapid rise of the soybean from a crop of very limited significance to one of considerable economic importance in both agriculture and industry.

Although the history of the soybean is lost in obscurity, it is probably one of the oldest crops to have been raised by man, having been grown in China for many centuries. Here the first record of the plant was contained in a materia medica describing the plants of China, written in 2838 B.C. by the Emperor of that time.

First introduced into the United States in 1804, soybeans were grown only in gardens as a curious plant from the Far East. Here, in 1920, only three million bushels were raised. Fifteen years later, in 1935, production had increased to 40 million bushels and fifteen years later again the production was 244 million bushels. Last year, soybean production in the United States reached a record of over 700 million bushels, of which 440 millions were crushed and another 181 millions were exported.

Because of the comparatively long frost-free season required, production in Canada as yet, has been limited to Ontario where the acreage has increased gradually, the latest soybean area totalling 231,000 acres from which a crop of 7 million bushels was raised. During the past five years, Canada has actually imported an average of 12.5 million bushels of soybeans, annually, as well as a significant quantity of soybean oil and meal.

In the Orient, soybean foods, to a very considerable extent, have provided a substitute for the protein that is furnished by meats in the diet of Western peoples. In the Western world, the uses are much more diverse. Here the soybean really came into prominence during World War II when it was not possible to import all the fats and oils that were required, from the Far East. At this time, too, an important use was found for soybeans in the plant and lacquer industry as well as in many other fields. [illegible] in the Western world, this increasingly important crop has found a wide range of [illegible], [illegible] of them far removed from the food [illegible] category. Nor is the [illegible] in sight.

'Most of Canada is owned by America', says George Hees

If you think of Canada as a company, you will realize what a disastrous state our company and our balance sheet is in.

Sixty-four per cent of our gross national product goes to Americans as their part in the ownership of Canadian companies. It would seem that more than 51 per cent of our Canadian company is owned by Americans. That almost makes us all American employees.

George Hees, president of the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges and Howard Graham, president of the Toronto Stock Exchange, are selling Canada. That is their job. They sell it over the counter to whoever will buy. Canadian's won't and don't.

Mr. Hees has many times condemned Canadians for not investing in their own country for leaving their billions in bank savings accounts. And if Canadians will not buy their wares, who will?

Recently the Chase National Bank put out a news release which claimed that in their opinion investment in Canada was among the best of all possible investments.

What a tragedy that Canadians cannot be convinced of the same. Recently too, Howard Graham, of the Toronto Stock Exchange said that we would never be able to buy back our ownership in our own country.

He is right. It was an unfortunate fact that this is so. It is an unfortunate fact, too, that the United States will own the whole lot before the end of the century if nothing is done about it immediately.

Drastic and immediate steps must be taken if our grandchildren are to have any part of this country that is hardly ours now, and neither of the major political parties have announced their intention of taking such drastic steps.

The Liberals have a long history of "cooperation" with the United States which goes back before the days when Mackenzie King was employed by the Rockefellers, and they don't seems to be too concerned about the erosion that continues to move the 49th parallel further and further north.

Messrs. Hees and Graham will continue to sell choice bits of Canada over the counter to Uncle Sam. That's their job. Canadians won't even come into the store.

And when all the stock is gone, when we've nothing left to sell, we'll give the keys to uncle Sam, because then he'll have it all to himself.

— Independent Businessman.

Q. When someone to whom you have just been introduced says, "I'm so glad to have met you," isn't a smile of acknowledgement sufficient?

A. Just a wordless smile would seem to have a condescending air about it. I think it is better to accompany the smile with a pleasant "thank you".

Editor, The Mercury:

I do enjoy reading your paper and that way I get to know how all are doing. I see you have had [illegible] cold [illegible]. Well, we have it around 80 most of the time but a few nights we have had frost down to 29 but it does not stay long at that. It may start to get cold about 4 a.m. and by 6 it is all gone.

How about you all come to see us down here?

Best wishes to you all at Tofield and countryside.

Salem LCW has first meeting in new year

(Mrs. J. A. Anderson)

KINGMAN, Jan. 19th — The January meeting of the Salem LCW was held at the church on Thursday evening with 11 members and three visitors present.

Mrs. J. Holte, the new president, was in charge of the meeting and led in devotion. The Bible study was given by Mrs. Wm. Bjorgum. Mrs. Mary Bjorgum reported that eight boxes of baking were delivered to the Bethany Home and Hospital. It was decided to start two layettes and continue with the groups as before. Meditation and prayer was given by Mrs. P. Boness.

Mrs. J. Johnson and Mrs. P. Boness were hostesses and served a delicious lunch. Offering amounted to $7.70.

News items from Holden district

OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Laura Christianson entertained at tea on Wednesday afternoon of last week, the occasion being her birthday. About 20 ladies attended to pay their respects to this grand lady, who still is active in her church and entertaining. We also add our congratulations with all those from her friends, and hope to see her around for many more years.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Chupka were visitors in Edmonton over the weekend, visiting their daughters and other relatives, also transacting business.

Ray Hovland was a supper guest with Lawrence and Diane Komarnisky Saturday evening of last week. Diane, who is employed at the N.A.D. Pool creamery, has been laid off until the beginning of March.

Joe Alexander and Geo. H. Taylor motored to Ryley on Tuesday afternoon of last week, when Mr. Taylor was a business caller in the County office on E.M.O. business.

Hans Hussby and several friends from Edmonton left Monday, Jan. 4th, by car for a month's holiday in Las Vegas. The gentlemen usually spend a month in the "sunshine" this time of the year.

Guests for the New Year holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kaluzny and family were Mrs. Kaluzny's mother, Mrs. Telka Skroka, and brothers Sam of Edmonton, Louie of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mothuski and family and Mr. and Mrs. Knudson, all of the Bruce district, Mrs. Mary Wandio, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gardecki and Leona.

U.C. ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the congregation of the United Church was held last Sunday morning, January 17th, after a short service. A report of the church finances and membership, etc., was given by the secretary, D. H. Allan. Reports of the year's work was also given by other church groups.

Mrs. Geo. H. Taylor was absent from her desk at the Village office for three days the end of last week, confined to bed and home with a bad attack of the stomach 'flu.

Ray Hovland was a supper guest with Mrs. Campbell on Friday evening of last week, before attending the annual shareholders' meeting of the Bruce R.E.A. The meeting was held at Veregin's stockyards.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Pasnak are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby son, on New Year's Day at the Viking Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hooper have had plumbing installed in their residence this past week.

Joe Alexander, the genial rural mail driver, made the mail trip alone Friday of last week, as Bert Taylor who usually drives around with him, was indisposed with the 'flu.

The average life of a Canadian $1, $2 or $5 bill is only one year; larger denominations last longer, and a $100 bill lasts 15 years.

Modern etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. If a hostess is talking with a group of persons at a large party in her home, and a new guest arrives, is it necessary that she excuse herself and leave to greet the new arrival?

A. Always. She should excuse herself, greet the new guest and see to his comfort, then return to her other guests and resume the conversation. All this can be done very smoothly, and the hostess needn't feel embarrassed about interrupting a conversation for this reason — her guests expect it of her.

J. Should a waffle with butter and syrup be cut with the knife, or must it be cut only with the fork?

A. Like pancakes, waffles are usually cut with knife and fork.

Q. Is the recipient of a birth announcement always expected to respond with a gift of some kind?

A. Definitely not — although it IS a nice response. It's up to how you feel about it.

Q. Who should alight first from a taxi, the man or the woman?

A. The man always goes first, then turns aside and assists the woman by offering her his HAND, not his arm. In assisting her INTO vehicles, he places his hand under her elbow for support, allowing her to go first.

Q. I've been told that a bride always wears gloves. True?

A. Formerly, yes. But today it's up to the individual. If gloves are worn, the seam on the wedding ring finger is ripped so that it may be slipped off during the ceremony.

Q. When giving an informal dinner, how should the hostess let her guests know the seating arrangement she wishes?

A. She stands at her place at the table, and tells each guest just where he or she should be seated.

Aud-ities

by Aud Jorgenson

Plastic Bags!—Has there been anything invented that the housewife appreciates and uses more? It is something that must be used a hundred times a day—for deep-freeze storage, for keeping breads and pastries fresh or when you are travelling, for protecting sweaters and blouses, and for carrying shoes and other types of footwear. Plastic bags . . . where would we be without them?

And now there's something new. It's a heavy and durable polythene tote bag. Made in an attractive tan bark color, they are 18"x20" and can be bought at most hardware stores. They are ideal for carrying bulky objects on a camping trip, taking swimming paraphernalia to the beach, and are just perfect for carrying junior's hockey gear. They should also prove very useful in the laundry until such time as Mom gets around to ironing; and when not in use they are so easy to store...

This is a product ideally suited for a number of varied purposes, and once these polythene drawstring bags are tried, chances are the homemaker will have a thousand-and-one other uses for them.

Someone was really using her head when she suggested using muffin tins as molds for foods other than muffins.

Have you ever prepared baked apples for your family, and then just as you are ready to put them in the oven, found yourself wondering how you are going to keep them from falling apart after they've been cooked? The same thing goes for onions, potato puffs, rolled fish fillets . . . and muffin moulds are your answer.

Here's a real novel idea—prepare your meat loaves in miniature. By using muffin tins you rid yourself of the problem of meat slices that just won't stay together, and also, if you have small children who are picky eaters the miniature loaf will probably be just different enough to be both interesting and appealing.

And for something that should prove a little different in taste appeal, try [illegible]

Meat and Mushroom Muffins

- ½ pound (1 pint) mushrooms, sliced
- 1 medium carrot, shredded
- 1 large onion, finely chopped
- 1½ pounds lean hamburger
- 1 cup fine, dry bread crumbs
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon savory
- dash pepper
- ½ cup catsup
- 1 [illegible]

Mix all ingredients together and form into 12 large balls. Pat lightly into 3-inch muffin pans, leaving the tops rounded. Bake approximately 30 minutes in a 400° F. oven.

In this modern century someone is always thinking up something to save us time and energy, but wait until you hear this . . . re-usable ice cubes!

That's right! They are called "Ice Balls" and are a thin ball of plastic inside which is contained water for the ice. Apparently all you have to do is stick them in the freezer until such time as you need them, and after you have used them, simply wash them in slightly soapy water and return them to your ice-box. The next time you need ice they're right there to be used again.

Should come in very handy for the family that just can't quite round up enough energy to fill the ice-cube tray with water all the time. Or, think of the advantage if you were in the middle of the Sahara where water is pretty scarce. And maybe it's just the thing for the person who has everything.

District news items from Ryley

(M. K. Westmancoat)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cretney and family of Edmonton, were visitors on Sunday with Mildred's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sewel Booth, and dinner guests with her sister Beulah and family, the Gunner Oslunds.

Garry Winsnes of Wetaskiwin was home for a short stay this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winsnes.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Parisienne Custom Sport Coupe

the new look of success... '65 PONTIAC

Pontiac is excitingly new and different this year. And more luxurious than ever. With its striking new styling, sleeker, lower profile and majestic new grille, Canada's Success Car has outdone itself beautifully for 1965. And there's so much more than good looks to Pontiac's success story. It's the best handling, smoothest riding, roomiest and most comfortable Pontiac yet. A new extra-strength perimeter frame, new wider track, new suspension and steering are just a few of the things that make this the greatest Pontiac ever. Here indeed is the new look of success for 1965!

(Iris Bilan)

Wednesday evening visitors at the home of Kenneth and Betty Pederson were George and Winnie McLaughlan and son, Clifford and Kenneth's sister, Doris, and husband, Russ, and family of Vegreville.

Thursday evening visitors with Kenneth and Betty were Raymond and Frances McLachlan and family.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Dorothy Shultz is a patient in Tofield hospital.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Vivian Basaraba returned home Tuesday after spending several weeks as a patient in the Tofield hospital. Marie and Bruce were happy to have their mother home again. Mavis will stay a while longer with her grandparents in Tofield before returning home.

GREETINGS FROM FORMER CORRESPONDENT

A cheery hi! one and all. Best of health, happiness and peace for this new 1965.

Have almost enjoyed a year of daily duties at the Agnes Forbes Lodge trying to keep the ladies happy and healthy, also enjoy bowling as a recreation.

Thanks to Iris Bilan for taking over the Ross Creek news and keeping up each week. I did enjoy being correspondent the past eight years.

Sincere wishes to all,
Bessie Pederson,
Box 729, Fort. Saskatchewan

Grant and Jewell Becker were Sunday evening visitors at the home of Arthur and Mary Ferell.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ford were daughter, Edith, her husband Harold, and family Saturday evening, and daughter, Wilma and husband, Lester, and family on Sunday afternoon.

BONSPIEL

The "Farmarama" curling bonspiel got under way Monday, Jan. 18th, at Ross Creek. Two local rinks entered are: skip George McLachlan, with Joseph McLachlan, Raymond McLachlan and Nell Bailey; skip Graham Snider, with Howard Malcolm, Kenneth Pederson, and Marshall Elaniak.

Milton and Rita Hennig of Andrew were Sunday visitors at the home of Graham and Elma Snider.

On Saturday, Joseph and Isabel McLachlan took Isabel's father, Mr. Duncan, to Edmonton. He has been visiting with them since Wednesday.

Joseph and Iris Bilan, Joseph Hockertz and Kenneth Malkewich spent a most enjoyable evening Friday at the home of James and Rose Woytowich.

25th ANNIVERSARY

Saturday supper guests at the home of John and Gertie Ferell to mark their 25th wedding anniversary were Ernest and Beatrice Ferell and daughters, Shirly, and husband and family, and Ruth, and son, Kevin, George and Winnie McLachlan, Raymond and Frances McLachlan, Wilfred and Lydia Van Buskirk, Graham and Elma Snider and Basil and Clara Savage.

HANDSOME COUPLE

Along with the most welcome warm spell which hit Tofield last week came the urge to make snowmen, after waiting for five weeks even to get outside due to the extremely cold weather. Judging by the height of this happy couple though, it wasn't only the children who got the urge.

"I like this armchair banking"

Banking by mail saves time, travel and parking problems for customers of a chartered bank. It's one of many ways your local branch helps make modern banking so simple, so convenient. From your own armchair, you command nearly the full range of bank services. You can send deposits, make withdrawals, transfer funds . . . or handle almost any other banking business, including some types of loans. Special mailing forms are available. ## Dobson - Davick vows exchanged Dec. 19th

(Mrs. J. Knudsen)

PALMER-EARLING, Jan. 8 A pretty pre-Christmas wedding, Saturday, Dec 19th united in marriage Miss Sharon Caroline Davick, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs Jorgen Davick, Ryley, and Gerald Eugene Dobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dobson of Kitchener, Ont.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev Palmer Olson, Hawif, at the Bethel Lutheran Church, Ryley.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and looked lovely in a white English satin brocade gown slipper-length, with lily-point sleeves and [illegible] skirt. Her headpiece was a sequin tiara with a full chapel veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

A friend of the bride Marilyn Kushnir of Ryley was bridesmaid wearing a turquoise ballerina length gown with matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of double white and yellow daisies and lily of the valley.

The bestman was Edwin Davick, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Garry Stenerud nephew of the bride and James Davick cousin of the bride.

The wedding music was played by Mrs Pearl Kushnir. The soloist was Lloyd Wickstrom of Ryley who sang "I'll Walk Beside You".

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davick chose a forest green crepe dress with white accessories.

A reception for 100 guests was held in the Legion Hall

The lovely three-tiered bridal cake was made by Mrs Clara Bodnar of Shonis and decorated by Mrs. Clifford Bratrud. Edwin Davick was master of ceremonies and Theodore Caney proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom ably responded. Mrs. Eric Larson was in charge of the guest book

The happy couple left on their honeymoon to Kitchener Ont., where the groom's parents reside.

Solve a Crime

BY A.C. GORDON

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

A voice comes ringing to you over the phone "This is David Coleman, of 427 Larrimore Lane. I'm going to shoot myself!" Then, before you have time to say anything, you hear the sound of a shot, then a groan, a crash . . . and silence.

You speed to the address, and after ringing the doorbell several times and getting no response, you try the door and find it unlocked. In the living room you find Coleman sprawled on the floor next to a small table on which rests the telephone. There is a gun clutched in Coleman's right hand, a bullet hole in his right temple, and a quick check tells you he died almost instantly after the shot was fired. As you lean over him, you accidentally knock the phone receiver from its cradle and, upon replacing it you notice that it is considerably scratched up.

Now you hear the front door open, the sounds of approaching feet, then an attractive blonde woman and a distinguished looking man enter the living room. She stops short when she sees you, then she sees the body lying on the floor, and her hand darts up to her mouth as she stifles a scream: "David . . . my husband . . . is he . . . ?"

You slowly nod your head, and she sinks into a chair, sobbing convulsively You look questioningly at her companion, a tall, middle-aged man with a ruddy complexion and dark, greying hair.

"I'm Phillip Blaine, Dave's business partner", he says. "Of course, we've been having a little rough time lately in some of our business dealings, but I surely had no idea that Dave was taking it so seriously as to commit suicide this way".

"I just can't believe it!" cries the victim's wife. Dave mentioned a few times that the world would be better off without him . . . but I thought it was just so much foolish talk".

"Have you been away all afternoon?" you ask the pretty young woman.

"Oh yes", she replies. "In fact, no one so far as I know was here except Dave. I gave our maid and our house man the day off, and I left here shortly after lunch to do some shopping. Dave was staying home from the office today . . . said he wasn't feeling up to par. I met Phil . . . ah, Mr Blaine . . . on the street. He told me he was coming to see Dave on some business matter. So we came here together, and . . ."

"I think one or both of you knows more about this than has been told", you interrupt. "This doesn't have the appearance of suicide—but of murder!"

Why do you say this?

SOLUTION

Both persons were a little too quick to point out the "suicide" angle to you, and you've already noted a big discrepancy. If it had been Dave Coleman who phoned you and who killed himself while talking with you on the phone, the receiver would still have been in his hand, or on the floor, when you arrived on the scene. After hearing the shot over the phone, you heard the groan, the crash, then silence. However, when you arrived, you found the telephone receiver resting on its cradle!

(Mrs. C. M. Rude)

BARDO, Jan. 18th — Sunday School next Sunday, Jan. 24th, at 1:30 p.m., and services at 2.30 p.m.

There will be a social at the Bardo Recreational Centre on Friday evening, Jan. 29th. Young and old are invited to come for an evening of fun which is being planned by the social committee.

Douglas and Clara George and family from Edmonton were Sunday dinner guests at the Olaf Stokkan home. Dale, Arlene and Kevin Rude from Inland spent the weekend with Arlene's parents.

The Leonard Stauffer family visited Leonard's mother, Mrs. Petra Stauffer on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cinnamon's dinner guests on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arthur and family from Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. John Sirois and Craig from Tofield.

Mrs. Elmer Sitler went to Edmonton on Sunday to stay at the Ed Look home and get acquainted with her new granddaughter, Karen Arlene.

NORWEGIAN DINNER

On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Kindley entertained at an old fashioned Norwegian dinner when guests were Mrs. Ragna Helberg, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haukedal, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cinnamon and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rude.

Sunday dinner guests at the Clarence Rude home were Axel and Nita Kindley, and Glen and Iris Francis and family. Afternoon visitors were the Lars Rude family and Linda and Johanne Lehman from Ryley.

Grandma Feshaug and Ronnie Feshaug are patients in the Tofield hospital, and Phillip Feshaug, Bruce Anderson, Darlene, Shirley and Barry Rude are all in quarantine for scarlet fever.

A large crowd was present to enjoy the fine program put on by the parish Luther League which had been postponed at Christmas due to the severe weather at that time. Lunch was served by the ladies during the social hour.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED

A joint birthday party was held at the Lester Severson home on Sunday afternoon when Gladys and Patricia entertained in honor of Lester's birthday which is on January 19th and Gregory's on January 18th. The guests included Ralph and Alice Dahl from Camrose, Ingvald and Gladys Ness from Kingman, Darrel and Niki Ness from Edmonton, Grandma Inga Ness, Albert and Agnes Haukedal, Glenn and Diane Reil and Brenton, Lief and Evelyn Feshaug, Ingolf, Esther and Donnie Brekkan; and David Severson was home from CLC for the afternoon.

Former Tofield resident passes

A member of one of Edmonton's oldest families died Monday after a sudden illness.

Mrs. Katherine Ingram, 83, had been living the past 14 years at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John (Kathleen) Nickerson in Edmonton.

Mrs Ingram was born Katherine Ratigan at Dover, N.H., in 1882 and went to Edmonton with her family at the turn of the century.

She married James Ingram in 1907 and the couple homesteaded in the Tofield district where Mrs. Ingram lived until the death of her husband in 1948

Survivors include two sons, William of Kingman, and James who farms the original homestead at Tofield; three daughters, Mrs. Wendall (Mildred) Wiley and Mrs. Gertrude Ovelson, both of Terrace, B.C. and Mrs. John (Kathleen) Nickerson, Edmonton; three brothers, James and Frank, Edmonton, and Thomas, Los Angeles and one sister, Mrs. Ernest (Susan) Brick of Keg River, B.C.

Requiem mass for Mrs. Ingram was said in St. Francis Roman Catholic Church in Tofield with burial in the Tofield Cemetery.

(By Dorothy Barker)

What a break for youth!

With each week that passes prospects for centennial celebrations are becoming more promising, yet if they were to achieve little more than move young Canada from one coast to the other over the next few years through the sponsorship of the Student Exchange Travel Programme, Canada's one hudredth birthday will have been honored in a most suitable manner.

A report on my desk informs me that hundreds of young people who took part in the pilot programme have written to express their enthusiasm for the opportunity to know Canada better, which their 1964 travel and inter-provincial visits afforded them.

When you try to analyse it, the project seems like a colossal undertaking. The objective, however, to establish a better understanding among Canadians, is to be commended.

Details of how this youth travel adventure was launched are interesting. Early last year, Milton L. Sinclair, CN passenger sales representative in the Ottawa ticket office, was asked to prepare individual itineraries for the students who would participate. At the same time, he prepared 3,000 sleeping car tickets for those who would require this accommodation. Together the CN and Claude Brouillard, project planning officer for the youth travel scheme, planned each move in detail. groups of 24 accompanied by Fourteen section cars were assigned and the first travellers to be chosen were organized in two chaperones. The program will be expanded and it is expected that by the end of the centennial year some 30,000 teenagers will have benefited from the exchanges.

1964 PILOT PROGRAMME DUAL SCHEME

On the one part, the Centennial Commission, which is the federal agency responsible for promoting interest in the centennial celebrations and for planning and implementing programmes and projects befitting the occasion, awarded grants totalling $92,750 to some fifteen national organizations already engaged in youth exchange programmes, so that they might expand their activities in this field.

The second aspect of the programme involved a federal-provincial arrangement whereby 906 high school students travelled to provinces other than their own in 1964. Under this scheme, the federal government undertook to pay the travel costs from point of departure to point of arrival and return, plus a $20 contribution to the provinces for each towards reception costs. The provincial government, on the other hand, agreed to look after the selection of participants and chaperones, to find host families for the visiting students, and to arrange interesting programmes and side trips for their guests.

The Centennial Commission also arranged special one-day programmes for groups stopping in Ottawa while en route. Cabinet ministers and Members of Parliament were invited to meet their young constituents whenever possible. The Commission also prepared and distributed evaluation questionnaires to all participants and provided each of them with an attractive travel bag bearing the inscription "Centennial Travel / Voyageurs du centenaire".

To those young people who will be privileged to participate in this great travel adventure we echo the wishes of the Centennial Commission and the CN, "Bon Voyage".

Winners named in decoration contest

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 16th.—In the annual contest held by the Chamber of Commerce for best decorated homes for the Christmas season, prizes were awarded as follows in Holden: 1st prize, Joe Chamulke; 2nd prize, John Semotiuk; the 3rd prize was a draw between Dennis Cooper and Don Coutu.

Owing to the very severe weather few farm homes participated, and 1st prize was awarded to Chester Wright.

Lakeshore-McKenzie news briefs

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Lottie Moos is quite ill in the Tofield hospital, and hope that she will soon be well again.

Ernie and Eleanor Runzer were Sunday evening visitors and coffee guest at the home of Charlie and Mickey Niemetz.

Leonard Loxton arrived Saturday from Swan Hills and spent Saturday overnight and Sunday with his wife, Patsy, at the home of her parents Charlie and Mickey Niemetz before returning to work Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hoover and family of Edmonton were Sunday visitors at the home of Rod and Isabel Rudzcki.

Abe Freese from Sudbury, Ontario, was a Monday morning visitor and coffee guest at the home of Charlie and Mickey Niemetz. Charlie and Abe were boyhood friends and hadn't met for many years.

Seventeen members of the ISCF group, with Miss Cummings in charge, had a tobogganing party on Saturday night north of Tofield in the McKenzie district. Later, all gathered at the home of Melvin nd Rose Walker for lunch. Carl and Mavis Jacobsen were visitors at the Walker home, with Mavis helping Rose serve lunch.

Leroy and Shirley Eaton and children of Holden were Wednesday dinner guests at the home of Leroy's mother, Ellen Eaton, in Tofield.

With warm weather arriving last Wednesday and staying for the week, after a month of below zero weather, it has been a welcome break in the winter and all are hoping the remainder of the winter is milder than December and early January.

Emil and Martha Tiedemann and Emil's brother, Bill and Mary Tiedemann of Deville were Tuesday evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Neil and Grace Phillips.

Mrs. Martha Tiedemann and son, Bobby, were Sunday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Martha's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Goubault of Lindbrook. Also there on Sunday was their other daughter, Odele, and Cliff Gonseil and son, Kenneth, of Edmonton.

Yvonne and Peter Brown of Ketchamoot were Saturday evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Yvonne's parents, Martha and Emil Tiedemann.

Kingman HSA meets

(Mrs. J. A. Anderson)

KINGMAN, Jan 19th The regular meeting of the Kingman Home and School Association was held at the school on Friday, Jan. 15th, with Mr. Hendrickson in charge. A letter was read from the Girls' Club, thanking for the $15.00 received from the H & S. A letter from County Recreation board, Camrose, asking for assistance in planning activities for Farmers' Day, to be held at the fairgrounds, was tabled, to be decided on later.

Mr. Cumberland gave thanks on behalf of the Boy Scouts and Cubs for money raised for them from a turkey supper. Mr. Reistad's room won the award for best attendance, with 24% parental attendance.

Some interesting and educational films were shown.

Meeting adjourned for lunch, with hostesses Mrs. Wilfred Johnson, Mrs. Bob Mickleson, and Mrs. Hampton Anderson.

WCTU has party for temperance writers

(Mrs. C. M. Rude)

BARDO, Jan. 19th - The WCTU met at the home of Mrs. Alma Marie Nelson in Round Hill on Saturday afternoon when a party was given in honor of the children who wrote answers to temperance lessons and the mothers were also guests at the party.

A few choruses and rounds were sung in opening and Mrs. Borghild Rude read from Psalm 100 for devotion. Presentation of prizes was made. From the Baptist Sunday School in Tofield, Bill Taekema got first prize in his class; Lorna McMann in her class, and Dale McMann in his class.

From Round Hill Sunday School, Garry Nelson got first prize in his grade; Beverlee Burnstad first in grade 5 to 8; and Darlene Haugen won second prize in grade 5 to 8.

From Bardo Lutheran Sunday School, Harry Mosby got first and Walter Johnson second in the teenage group; Grace Helberg got first prize in her group and Carol Anne Francis, David Francis and Ivy Mosby tied for second.

Fay Anderson got first and Sandra Anderson second in that class.

Pencils were given to all the other children who didn't receive prizes. After the presentation, games were playd and the afternoon wound up with a delicious lunch and popcorn served by the members. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Borghild Rude on February 10th.

Mrs. M. Abernethy passes after lingering illness

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

LAKESHORE — Sympathy of the district goes to George Abernethy on the death of his wife, Maggie Abernethy at Camrose on Friday, Jan. 15th, after a lingering illness. Sympathy also goes to her brother and sister and their families, namely, John and Mary Wood and family, and Esther and Joe Majakey and family, and all other members of the Wood families.

Maggie (Wood) Abernethy was an old-time resident of the Lakeshore district, having come to Alberta from Oklahoma with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood, as a young girl in 1901. Maggie was a wonderful neighbor and friend, loved and respected by all who knew her and will be sadly missed by all.

Quite a number of relatives and friends from distant points attended the funeral of Mrs. Maggie Abernethy on Tuesday afternoon, January 19th. After the funeral the family and relatives and a few close friends gathered in the basement of the United Church and were served lunch and coffee by the Lakeshore UCW, of which Maggie had been a member for several years, having seldom missed a meeting until her illness.

Guests at the home of John and Mary Wood on Tuesday, Jan. 19th, were their daughter, Lorene, and Jim Francis and Mr. Francis Sr., all of Viking, as dinner guests before attending the funeral of Mrs. Abernethy. After the funeral, visitors and supper guests were their three other daughters, namely, Dede and Robert Goubault and daughter, Judy, of Drayton Valley, Mrs. Evie Halwa of Edmonton and Miss Kathleen Wood of Calgary, also their son, Johnny, and Gloria Wood and Mrs. Ethel Wood and son, Donald Wood.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

There were no services at the United Church last Sunday but they will continue on Sunday, Jan. 24th. with Les Smith as student minister.

The Ministik Community Club is sponsoring a dance on Friday, Feb. 5th. with good music and a good time assured for all.

PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting is being held at Ministik Hall to make plans for a donation of money for community services by the provincial government. A good attendance is expected.

ICY ROADS!

The icy highways and side roads bound many who commute daily to Edmonton, in the ditches. However, despite these conditions, Gary and Glenn Ferguson managed to reach their destinations. Most of the school buses were unable to travel, but things were back to normal the next morning.

GOOD FISHING

The mild weather we are experiencing has brought out ardent fishermen, among them Michael Naichuk, Andrew and Archie Ferguson and Bill Roddick, who join many from Hastings Lake district.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thor and Gregory were Sunday guests of the Alex Penrice family. While there, Gordon and Gregory enjoyed horse back riding.

The TB x-ray unit is expected to visit this area near the end of March. Watch for announcement of the date.

Mrs. Helen Hennessy was shopping in Edmonton Friday.

Mrs. Andrew Ferguson spent Thursday in Edmonton with her sister, Mrs. J. Potts, who was celebrating her birthday.

Mrs. Violet Naichuk spent the weekend at her home on the farm.

The skating rink at the school was the meeting place for many youngsters on Sunday, who enjoyed the afternoon skating.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roddick and Margaret and Mrs. A. George were Sunday afternoon tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leach. The Stanley Williams family of Edmonton were supper guests in the Leach home.

Andrew Ferguson visited his optometrist on Thursday, who fitted him with new glasses.

Mrs. Effie Naichuk was a visitor to Edmonton Friday and Saturday.

Sympathy of the district is extended to Gordon Kildoyle, who lost his brother-in-law in an auto accident at Chilliwack, B.C.

Friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. S. L. Edwards who was a patient in an Edmonton hospital, has now returned to her home.

Margaret Roddick returned to her position at Wawanesa Insurance on Monday after seven weeks in hospital and living weeks at her home, following surgery on her ankle. Continued good health is wished her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill George and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce George were guests of their mother, Mrs. S. George on Sunday. They also visited with Mrs. Frank Shupe who is a patient in Tofield hospital.

Mrs. Pat Paterson was an afternoon guest Monday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ferguson.

Mrs. Jim Holmes and Mrs. Russell Rowland were business visitors in Tofield on Monday.

High school news items

(School Reporter)

On Monday, Jan. 18th, the basketball game drew one of the largest crowds in the history of the Tofield school. We wish to thank the public and invite everyone to continue this support as the basketball schedule draws to a close.

Monday night the Ryley girls won 36-31 over the Tofield girls and the Tofield boys won 43-35 over the Ryley boys.

This Friday at 7:30 the Holden teams will be in Tofield; everyone is welcome.

Ted Whyte, former student of THS, and the ship of last year's team, skipped his Alberta College team to a birth in the TPC zone playoffs. We wish Ted and his rink the best of luck in the provincial championship play.

Spilstead news

(Mrs. Gertie Fairbrother)

Recent visitors at Mrs. Louise Winsler's home were Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Winsler and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Winder and family and Glen Winsler.

Visitors at the Gus Schmidt home Sunday evening were Howard and Ed Knull.

Mrs. Robert Sarrasinah spent a month in Edmonton recently, leaving after the family of Dr. and Mrs. John Larbalestier while he attended the World's Geographical Congress in India.

Recent visitors at Ernest Belcourt's home were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Brunner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mitchell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Belcourt and daughter, Joanne and Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. Lirendell, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Mitchell, Lelia and Milton Ray, and Franklin Ray.

During the holidays, visitors at the T. W. Fairbrother home were Mrs. Joy Birtch, David, Donald and Darryl.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barnhard, Ted, Lloyd and Edward, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fairbrother recently.

Recent visitors at the Ernest Fairbrother home were Mr. and Mrs. Helmuth Fester and family, Myrtle Stauffer, Dirk and Elaine deFreese, Virgil and Elsie Fairbrother and family, Harold and Lois Ray and Keith, Marie and Mathew Eagleshan, and Vivian Fairbrother.

Shirley Fairbrother has been a patient in the Tofield hospital. We hope she will soon be home again.

Society re-elects Mrs. Belcourt pres.

(Mrs. Gertie Fairbrother)

SPILSTEAD — The annual meeting of the Spilstead Ladies' Society was held at the home of Mrs. Rae Fairbrother on January 6th, with eight members present. Mrs. Bertha Belcourt is president for another year; Birdie Brunner, vice-pres., and Mrs Rae Fairbrother, sec.-treas. Next meeting will be in February at Mrs. Bertha Belcourt's home.

Tofield youth is not involved in slaying, dynamite incident

Taken into custody but released later

It was reported earlier this morning that an 18-year-old Tofield youth, found wandering in the area of Northwest Industries Ltd. in Edmonton, where a night security officer was killed and four F-84 jets were damaged by dynamite, had been taken into custody, along with another youth, by Edmonton City Police. The Mercury learned later, however, from Edmonton City Police, that the unidentified youth from Tofield was not involved in the incident.

MAN CHARGED

It was also learned that a 36-year-old German immigrant, Harry Hubsch, has been charged with capital murder. Hubsch came to Canada in 1957, and has been a farm laborer in the Edmonton district since that time.

The night security officer at the Northwest Industries plant, located near the Edmonton Airport, was found shot to death. He was also bound and gagged. The dead man was identified as Trenton J. Richardson, 49, of Edmonton.

Northwest Industries Ltd. has a one-year million dollar contract to overhaul 112 U.S. Air Force planes. Besides finding the four jets damaged by dynamite, police found dynamite strapped to other undamaged jets inside the plant.

After a 20-block chase in which about 20 policemen were involved, police arrested one man, believed to be Hubsch, after he had been seen leaving the plant. About the same time they took the now-released Tofield youth into custody.

Police also found an abandoned car, with about 80 pounds of dynamite in it, near the plant.

A DISASTER SERVICE

It took only six days to build this house using all voluntary labour. The project was taken on by the Tofield Mennonite Disaster Service after fire destroyed the farm home of the Joe Sadowski family. As many as 12 men during one day volunteered their services and each one was kept busy. Half of the material was donated by C. F. Kallal while the other half was paid for by various donations. — Photo by Peter Nickel.

Mennonites, Kallal Lumber aid fire victims

"We'll never forget this", exclaimed Joe Sadowski, first "We can't find any words to really express our feelings of thanks", chimed in his wife, Helena, during a recent interview.

Cause for the comments was a new house built for the Sadowski family of the Lindbrook district, after fire completely destroyed their previous farm home last November. No fire insurance was carried by Sadowski.

Realizing a need for help, the Tofield Mennonite Disaster Service came to the rescue and during a mild spell in early December constructed a modern new home for the fire victims, in a period of only six days. Co-ordinator Joe Kaufman stated that six or seven men were lined up for each day but as many as 12 turned up in one day, including friends and neighbors other than Mennonites, and all men were kept busy under the very capable directions of Abe Wiens who supervised the construction from the floor up.

All labor was voluntary and many of the volunteers travelled distances of up to 20 miles each day.

Material, supplied by Kallal Lumber of Tofield, was paid for by donations from various organizations, churches, fund-raising projects and one generous donation from C. F. Kallal who gave half of the total cost.

The family recently moved into their new home from a heated garage offered them by a neighbor till the new house was constructed.

"It's funny when I think of it", remarked Mr. Sadowski. "My wife had a baby boy during all the confusion and the poor fellow didn't even have a home". Then he declared that when the baby was old enough he would tell him many times of how these wonderful people helped them and built this house for them.

CURE-O-RAMA WINNERS

New Liquor Store

The application by the Town of Tofield, as recommended by the Tofield Chamber of Commerce, for a liquor vending store to be located in the town, apparently is meeting with opposition from certain individuals and groups. This, of course, should come as no surprise, but rather, it should be expected.

We wonder if those opposed to the establishment in Tofield of an outlet for liquor have weighed the situation carefully, or if this is the usual protest from those who condemn alcoholic beverages and would abolish their sale completely without regard for the consequences. They need only to look back to the era of prohibition to see the results of an unsuccessful attempt to ban the booze — boot-legging, hi-jacking, robberies with violence, speak-easies, gangland wars, establishment of crime syndicates, and last, but most distasteful of all, wholesale murder.

Bringing a vendor store to Tofield would, we suggest, be advantageous to those living in and around the town. We would not make a statement of this kind without valid reasons. They are this: Firstly, whether we like to admit it or not, liquor — like sex — is here to stay, and the tougher it is to get, the more it is desired, and the more drastic will be the method of getting it. In other words, people who feel they must have liquor will not think twice of driving miles to get it, and it is very likely that many of them will sample their purchases before they leave for home, or on the road home. The result? More drunken drivers on the highway. Wouldn't those opposed to the proposed vendor store feel better knowing that there would at least be a small decrease in the number of drinking drivers on the highways around their own community?

Secondly, we cannot see that having a liquor store in the town would result in more drinking among those under 21 years of age. How could a young person from around Tofield, for instance, possibly purchase liquor at the local store, where he is so well known, and most times his age is known? Having a local liquor store could conceivably make for more control in the sale of liquor to minors, but how could it possibly account for an increase in sales to minors is incomprehensible.

Thirdly, as was pointed out above, those who must have liquor will get it one way or another. Many times while in the town or city where liquor can be legally purchased, from a vending store, the purchaser spends considerable sums of money in other places of business for various commodities, most of which are available in Tofield. Why shouldn't the Tofield merchant benefit from these sales? It cannot be denied that the establishment of a vending store in Tofield would bring more business to the town. This, of course, should not be the main reason for bringing a liquor outlet to a community, nor is it. The main reasons, we feel, were covered earlier in this column.

Chateau Lacombe

Choice of Edmonton for a new hotel to be constructed by the Canadian Pacific Railway brings the interesting announcement that the name of Father Lacombe, the famed "Black-Robed Voyageur" is to be commemorated in this 38-storey luxury complex overlooking the North Saskatchewan.

Though maybe eighty years late, the name seems fitting for without Father Lacombe, there might have been no continental railway construction. It was his influence with Chief Crowfoot that resulted in stopping the Blackfoot from tearing up rails as fast as they were laid.

Co-incidentally, another link with the history of that era would seem to lie with the architect, whose name believe it or not, is John A. Macdonald.

A MOUNTAIN COLLAPSES. A 100-foot-high wall of rocks cuts off the southern route of the Trans-Canada Highway between Hope and Princeton, B. C., as rescue workers gather to hunt for bodies in the debris. The mountain was halved when millions of tons of rock and mud poured into the Nicolum Valley.

Oppose liquor store

Editor, The Mercury:

As members of the Tofield United Church Women we wish to register our opposition to the Town Council's unanimous agreement in approving a liquor store for Tofield, which was requested by the Chamber of Commerce. This was reported in the December 24th issue of The Tofield Mercury.

We feel this will only encourage more drinking and delinquency among the youth of our town and country.

Yours truly,
(Signed)
Tofield United Church Women.

By George!

I wonder how many times, for lack of something better, people have written the sentence, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party", I have heard of people using it to test typewriter or linotype keyboard, thinking they were using all the letters of the alphabet. A quick examination, however, shows a number of letters are missing.

But there is another sentence, probably every bit as common as the "aid to the party" blurb, that does contain all the letters. It is "The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog".

I can well imagine that a good number of people are tiring of the "quick fox" as a test sentence. Day after day, week after week, the same old thing. But now some smart fellow has come up with some new ones: "Graft kid vows quit cozy xylophone job", "Exiled zouave packs barque with jolly frogmen", "Squeaking rival jezebels exhume crypted wolf", "Wet squid's inky haze veils sea of jumping crab", "Dozy with charming buzz quails vodka juleps".

But did you know that of all of them, the old standby, the "quick brown fox" uses the least number of letters — 35. "Graft kid" is next with 36, and managed to stick with me so far, you might be interested in one more observation. Counting spaces in between the words as characters all three are the same length with 42. So, if you want to make your test as brief as possible, dont use "Exiled zouave", "Squeaking rival" or "Wet squid".

Now, then, aren't you glad you read this column this week? Isn't it great to be "In the know"?

Funeral held for oldtimer

(Mrs. Jim Reddish)

MINISTIK, Jan. 25. Funeral services were held on Wednesday for the late Jos. Atkinson, who lived in this district from 1913 to 1935. He lived where [illegible] and homesteaded the farm where Carl Schweichow and Bruno Jeske now live. Later he moved to Leoma, where he worked with the CNR for many years.

Sympathy of the district is extended to his wife, who lived as a girl on the land where Lakeview sanatorium resort now stands, and to all members of his family.

W. F. Davenport and Jos. Mr. Alex Boss and Alex. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Reddish and Mrs. E. George attended the graveside services at South Cooking Lake cemetery.

Ketchemoot

(Mary Mitchell)
(Intended for last week)

Dorothy and Roy Williams and the boys motored to Edmonton where they enjoyed a turkey dinner with the Ken Ovelson family on Sunday.

Mrs. Gertie Ovelson and Mrs. Mildred Wyllie of Tarzan, B.C., arrived here to attend their mother's funeral on Thursday morning.

Lyle and Casey Coombes of Edmonton called on Ida and Chester Coombes on Thursday afternoon.

Mary and Jerry Wiens and family visited with Opal and Donnelly McGinitie and family Sunday evening.

Patsy Sears of Calgary is spending a few days with her parents, Pat and Joanie Sears and family, before returning to continue her studies in the next semester.

Community League reports progress in '64

After Father Scriven had said grace, about 50 people sat down to the annual potluck supper of the Tofield Community League on January 13th in the meeting room of the Community Centre. After supper, president John Baergen called the group to order and announced that the annual meeting of the league would be preceded by the regular January meeting.

The December treasurer's report and the December theatre report were given by Hans Christensen and Jack Whyte, respectively. The reports included accounts of the December bingo and the Christmas Carol Festival, both of which were successful.

Since the WATCL has disbanded, Mrs. Hazel Patterson requested the TCL to sponsor the cancer drive which will be staffed by the ladies. The League was happy to accede to her request as for many years Mrs. Patterson has been the organizer of successful cancer drives in this area.

ANNUAL MEETING

President Baergen announced that the annual meeting would then take place. Hans Christensen who completed Ralph Gorrie's term as treasurer, gave the financial report for 1964. This showed the League to be in better financial condition than usual due partly to the fact that the WATCL had turned over their funds when they disbanded. Donations had also been received from the Lions Club and the Tofield Branch of the Canadian Legion.

Jack Whyte gave the theatre report for 1964. He was happy to report that attendance at the theatre was good and that the theatre was in good condition.

The library report was given by Mrs. Georgia Christensen on behalf of the library board. She reported that the big day held in connection with Young Canada Book Week was very successful than in previous years. The UFWA had provided lunch for the library, open house on November 20th. There are 1867 books in the Tofield Library and ten boxes of books were rented from the department of extension during 1964. There are six volunteer members of the library staff and the TCL supplies the meeting room for the use of the library.

President Baergen gave his official report of the League's 1964 activities. This included the operation of the 100 Club bingos, a successful July 1st celebration which netted over $200, help for the Scouts, supplying swimming lessons during the summer, the Carol Festival and the 'Welcome to new residents' dinner.

He expressed his warm appreciation to all his committees and to those who had assisted him in any way. Also special thanks to Grace Phillips who did an outstanding job in reporting the activities of the League to the local paper.

SLECTION OF OFFICERS

Arnold Swift conducted the election of officers for 1965. This began with the re-election of John Baergen as president. Thus Mr. Baergen joins the ranks of those who have held the presidency for two years. Other officers elected were:

1st vice-pres., C. F. Annis; 2nd vice-pres., L. Burton; sec., J. C. Lampert; treas., Hans Christensen; board of directors, G. McFadzean, Ed Watson, Charles Sears, Elmer Gorgiera, Dr. W. H. Fyseleary, E. Blashfield, P. Kine, D. Shaw and H. Seltzer.

Those present joined heartily in the vote of thanks to the outgoing executive, proposed by Ed Watson.

THE RYLEY TIMES

John Moore sweeps Ryley farmers' 'spiel

John Moore's Tofield foursome swept all opposition aside to win the Dodds Coal Mine Trophies in the Grand Challenge Event of the Ryley Farmers' Bonspiel last week. The Moore rink, however, did not have an easy time earning their win as, by luck of the draw, they were pitted against the strongest rinks in all games and had to fight all the way to win the grand challenge shield and the barometers. In the final game John laid a four and five-ender on the Ed Lyons rink after a nip-and-tuck battle in the early stages, so Ed conceded the game to John without going the full stretch.

The Lyons rink were awarded the Kathan & Kondrowski trophies for placing second in this event. Nick O'Herton presented trophies to Harry Shyba of Holden, winners of third place in the grand challenge. Harry edged out Cecil Stenerud, who placed fourth and was awarded the Fred Londes Hardware trophies for his fine efforts.

In the second event, it was the "Bearded Hardo Boys", who never looked back after their first defeat, who won the event and the Corny Penner trophies. Several of this rink sporting beards made it the most colorful rink of the 'spiel and were the subject of much jest and conversation. Skipped by Larry Foshaug and backed by Richard Foshaug and Lars and Merlin Rude, they came up with some very fine curling to top the event. In the final game they edged out Murray Lyons rink and his foursome. The Lyons rink took home the Palm Dairy trophies. Vern Roth scored an upset over the Holowaychuk rink, skipped by Ted Strilchuk, to win the Jack Stumbo trophies, so Ted and his southern crew had to settle for fourth spot and the Ryley Curling Club trophies.

The Don Hultholm rink, ably skipped by Norman Koethe, with the able sweeping of Charles and Allan Zwierschke, came back after two initial losses to cop the third event. In the final they came up against the old pro, Bill Winsness, but youth beat out experience and Bill had to settle for second place, and was awarded trophies presented by Stan Powers.

Sig Helgeland, who was curling against bad luck all through the 'spiel, finally edged out a win over Harry Kuracn to place third, and his rink received two cases of oil through courtesy of Ed Albrecht, the Purity 99 oil dealer, while Harry Kurach's foursome each received a gallon of Tune for their efforts in the 'spiel.

Despite the threatening weather, 16 rinks were entered, an excellent entry considering the fact that all farmers were exceedingly busy maintaining feed supplies for their cattle. Had the weather broke a few days earlier many more rinks would undoubtedly have entered to vie for the $400 worth of prizes contributed by the Ryley business community.

With the Farmers' 'Spiel over, curlers are now looking forward to the two 'spiels which will take place next month. The first will be the Open Mixed 'Spiel to be held February 6th and 7th. This 'spiel will be restricted to 16 rinks and prizes will be paid in cash. Following the mixed 'spiel will be the Open 'Spiel, which will take place beginning February 15th. With interest presently shown in the two 'spiels, the executive feels that both will prove to be as successful as past bonspiels have been.

Ryley 4H club is host at annual social night

(M. K. Westmancoat)

The Ryley 4-H Dairy Calf Club held their annual social evening on Saturday, Jan. 23rd, in the Legion Hall.

They invited the members of the other local 4-H clubs and, as usual, the Dairy Clubs from Viking and Vegreville, and from each of these came two carloads of members, accompanied from Vegreville by Ken Seiph and Dale Cole, and from Viking by Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Withers. Mrs. Gordon, a leader of the Ryley Food Club, came with her members. Altogether there were approximately sixty to enjoy the evening's entertainment.

Ernest Brown showed colored slides of Nova Scotia which he took on his vacation last summer and Mrs. Bertha Winsness showed slides of the Yukon Territory which were both interesting and much enjoyed.

The Ryely Dairy Club served a delicious lunch.

Dodds - Ryley

(Mrs. O. Lehman)

Mrs. Walter Wiklun is a patient in the Tofield hospital.

Friday dinner guests at the Ole Hjelter home were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson and Doreen.

Edel Wiklun and Mrs. Alma Steffen of Ryley were guests at the Walter Wiklun home on Monday.

Bible study was held Tuesday afternoon at the George Thompson home.

The Baptist ladies held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Henderson on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Henderson led the meeting.

Visitors at the Ole Hjelter home at the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hjelter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lehman and family, Mrs. Evelyn Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nearaasen and Walter Wiklun.

Mr. and Mrs. Melford Wiklun of Sherwood Park were visitors on Sunday evening at the Walter Wiklun home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zook were coffee guests at the Ole Hjelter home on Saturday forenoon.

Ryley news

(M. K. Westmancoat)

Mrs. Rose Nicholls moved into Edmonton this week to make her future home with her son James and family.

The Imperial Lumber Company store was broken into sometime Friday night, and much of the stolen merchandise was found under the office of the Alberta Pacific Elevator. The police are investigating.

[illegible]

Mrs. Tillie Branes observed her 76th birthday on Sunday, Jan. 24th, and in the afternoon many of her relatives, friends and neighbors gathered at her home to help her celebrate the occasion. Her daughter Bernice, Mrs. Odin Ecklund, and boys, of Edmonton, were down for the day and presented her with a lovely pole lamp.

Some twenty-five ladies were present on the afternoon of Tuesday, Jan. 19th, to wish an old-timer of Ryley, Mrs. Caroline Davick, a happy birthday. The afternoon was spent in visiting and recalling incidents of past years. At the coffee hour, lunch was served by Mrs. Davick's granddaughters, Marion (Mrs. George Campbell) and Mildred (Mrs. Walter Stenerud), and her daughter-in-law, Lorraine (Mrs. Lenard Davick). After lunch the group sang "Happy Birthday To You", and made an appointment to meet for the same occasion again next year.

Terry Neraasen, of Edmonton, was down for a short visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Neraasen, this week.

Farmers' bonspiel set for February 8 to 12th

All that the farmers of the Tofield area have been waiting for will take place on February 8th to 12th, as the farmers' open bonspiel will be held on these dates. A large entry is anticipated, so get your entries in early, to either Bob Wyllie or Andy Heiberg.

There will be four events with four draws daily, with the first draw getting under way at 9:00 o'clock in the morning.

As an added incentive this year, the Bank of Montreal is awarding a large trophy and four miniature trophies to the rink winning the Grand Challenge. This trophy is to be awarded annually to the G.C. winner of the farmers' open bonspiel. Dr. Freebury and the F.U.A. have donated trophies in the other events. These trophies, together with the other good array of prizes should make for an interesting 'spiel to take part in. Ice-maker Bob Haycock has promised to have the ice in first class shape, so there should be first class curling.

Entries close Friday, February 5th, and the entry fee has been set at $12.00 per rink.

Dodds - Ryley

The Emergency Measures Organization held a Municipal conference at the Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton this week. Attending from Ryley were Tommy Harris, Fred Nordwaski and Bob Westmancoat.

Mrs. Minnie Hutchinson, of Easyford, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Tillie Branes, and other relatives around the district.

High School news briefs

(Elaine Walker)

Last Friday night, the Holden and Tofield basketball teams met in Tofield. The Tofield teams won both games. This Friday, Tofield will play in Ryley. The last game will be held on February 5th, when Viking will be in Tofield.

The basketball tournament will be held on February 12th and 13th. Next week will decide who will be playing and where.

CURLING

Ted Whyte of Alberta College lost to Doug Dobry of Viking in the Northern Alberta final on Saturday, Jan. 23rd. Doug will be representing Northern Alberta in the provincial finals at the Jasper Place Curling Club this Saturday. The Tofield students wish Doug every success.

Entries for the open mixed bonspiel on March 6th are now complete. The names of the rinks will be given at a later date.

Holden UFA to discuss hog marketing board

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 23 – The local F.U.A. wish to advise all who may be interested that they are holding a meeting on February 10th in the Beaver Livestock Yards office, the former Veregin's Stockyards, at which meeting Alex Gordey, MLA, will attend.

The discussion will be regarding the present procedure for forming a Hog Marketing Board. Members wish to discuss this in all phases with Mr. Gordey before the opening of Legislature, the middle of February. The meeting will commence at 8:30 p.m. so be sure to keep this date in mind and plan to attend so all views of the problem can be thoroughly discussed.

Ketchamoot news briefs

On Sunday, Agnes and Henry McGinitie were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson in Tofield.

MRS. INGRAM PASSES

Mrs. Kathrine Ingram, an oldtimer of this district, passed away in an Edmonton hospital last week at the age of 83. The funeral services were held on Thursday morning at the Catholic Church in Tofield.

Later in the evening, visitors and luncheon guests also included Mrs. Martha Tiedemann and daughter, Mary, another daughter Yvonne and Peter Brown of Lindbrook, Daryl and Donald Bertch of Edmonton, Ethel Wood and son, Donald. All were helping Mary celebrate her birthday.

We are very glad to be able to report that Mrs. Lottie (Grandma) Moos was able to leave the hospital on Saturday and is staying with her daughter, Marguerete Myers in Tofield. She is much improved and we all wish her a speedy recovery.

Harold Ferguson, student at the University of Alberta in Edmonton, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Lionel and Emma Ferguson.

Marilyn and Don Langille and son, Greg, of Calgary were visitors at the home of Marilyn's parents, Ollie and Verlyn Moos, from Thursday to Saturday. While here they visited Marilyn's Grandma Moos in the Tofield hospital on Friday afternoon, and were Friday evening visitors and supper guests at the home of her cousin, Vivian, and Doug Murray in Tofield.

Sunday visitors, dinner and afternoon coffee guests at the home of Martha and Emil Tiedemann were Martha's father and brothers, Emil Goubault and sons, Victor and Armand of Lindbrook, also their daughter, Yvonne, and Peter Brown of Lindbrook and Donald Bertch of Edmonton.

Afternoon visitors and coffee guests were Martha's sister Adele and Cliff Gossell of Edmonton and Gloria Scott of Lindbrook. Adele and Cliff had also visited Adele's mother in the Tofield hospital.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Emil Goubault fell on Thursday and was quite badly bruised and shaken up. She was taken to the Tofield hospital in the ambulance where she is still a patient. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

Doug and Vivian Murray and children of Tofield were Saturday evening visitors and supper guests at the home of Marjorie and Morley Jacobsen.

Gary Niemetz arrived home Saturday from work in the north, to spend a week's holiday with his parents, George and Ida Niemetz. Gail Niemetz of Edmonton also spent the weekend at home, and Bob Ozubko was a Sunday afternoon visitor and supper guest there also.

Donna and Frank Edwards, Loretta and Jack Weir and little daughter, Wanda, all of Edmonton, were weekend visitors at the home of Donna and Loretta's parents, Howard and Mae Ferguson.

Mary and Herb McAdoo were Monday evening visitors and luncheon guests at the home of Howard and Mae Ferguson last week.

Mrs. Helen Murray was an afternoon visitor with her daughter, Mrs. Joan Warner, on Tuesday.

Robert Goubault and Donnie Oberg of Drayton Valley were Tuesday dinner guests at the home of John and Mary Wood.

In the afternoon, Robert visited his mother, Mrs. Emil Goubault who is a patient in the Tofield hospital, before returning home.

Brother passes in Washington, USA

Andrew Hillerud passed away December 25th, 1964, at Bellingham, Wash., at the age of 82. A retired logger and farmer, he had lived in the Bellingham area for 58 years. The visits he made to Alberta were among his dearest recollections. He is survived by his brother, Hans B. Hillerud of Ryley, and numerous nieces and nephews in Canada and the United States. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, Dec. 29th, with interment in the Bethany Lutheran Cemetery at Lawrence, Wash.

Lions Charter Night set for February 27th

Regular supper meeting of Tofield Lions Club was held on Tuesday of this week in the Community League meeting room. This is re-dedication month in memory of the late Melvin Jones who founded Lions International in the year 1917.

Five original charter members sat as a group at the meeting. The usual number of items were attended to, the most time-consuming being arrangements for the Tofield Club Charter Night to be held on February 27th.

Lion Duguid reported that the skating rink is operating satisfactorily, and a delegation was appointed to interview the Tofield Town Council at next regular meeting to iron out two or three matters. Lion Kallal reported on another bingo.

Some start was made for attending the International Convention in 1965.

Ketchamoot

(Mary Mitchell)

The Ketchamoot UCW met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Lee when plans were made to hold a bake sale on Saturday, Feb. 20th, at the Crown Lumber store.

Sunday dinner guests at the Martin Lawson home were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baker and girls of Sherwood Park.

Ruby and Charlie Sears held a dinner party at their home on Saturday, the occasion of Mrs. McGinnis' and their daughter, Gail's birthday. Included with the guests were Mrs. McLennan, Ruby's mother, Mrs. McGinnis and Lawrence, all of Edmonton.

District residents who are ill this week are Ethel and Rocky Carlisle and Ida Coombes.

Ethel McCall and Gladys Gaberts of Edmonton called on their parents, Chester and Ida Coombes on Tuesday.

Roy Williams spent a few days last week in the Tofield Municipal Hospital.

Delbert Lee arrived home on Tuesday evening to spend a few days with his parents, Mildred and Roy Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sears and Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly McGinitie were Sunday visitors at the Otto home to help celebrate Mrs. Otto's birthday.

Sunday supper guests with the Roy Lees were Gerry Perro and Delbert Lee of Edmonton.

Hastings Lake

(Mrs. S. Gladue)

The Social Credit group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunham January 13th.

The whist drive of January 20th was well attended. Winners were: ladies' high, Mrs. L. Grummett and low, Mrs. C. Sukretchow; gents' high, Mr Campion, low, Collin Peterson. The next whist drive will be Saturday, Jan 30th.

LADIES' CLUB

The ladies' club met at the home of Mrs. [illegible] for their annual meeting. Mrs A. Rowland, as president, and Mrs. Simpson as sec.-treas., were re-elected for another year. Mrs. A. Scott filled the post as vice president.

They are planning a grocery bingo for Saturday, Feb. 6th, at the hall.

Liza Ward is a patient in Tofield hospital.

Historical Society has annual meeting Jan. 21

The annual meeting of the Tofield Historical Society was held on January 21st in the Historical Museum with the president, Harold Schultz, in the chair, and 30 persons present. The minutes of the last annual meeting and of two executive meetings were read and approved. Mrs. Bowick, treasurer, gave her report which showed a bank balance of $470.69.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The president's report recalled the society's welcome to the oldtimers on July 1st and the winning of the cup for its parade entry in the Community League's July 1st celebration. He also reported many improvements in the museum facilities and additions to the exhibits therein. Two new exhibits were called to the attention of the meeting: 1, a collection of letters showing cancelled stamps from rural post offices no longer in existence; 2, a collection of receipts for livestock which showed the vast differences between prices then and now. Some advertising novelties had come in in answer to an appeal in The Mercury; more would be welcome.

CENTENNIAL PROJECT

A centennial project was the main item of new business. The Alberta government has rejected our application for an historical point of interest sign on the grounds that Tofield's "claim to fame" is of local interest only. So the Historical Society is considering the erection of a cairn to mark Canada's one-hundredth birthday. Cost estimates are to be secured and discussed at a succeeding meeting.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The election of officers resulted in the following slate for 1965:

Pres., Harold Schultz; vice-pres. Conrad Patterson; sec. Mrs. Neil Phillips; treas., Mrs. Edna Bowick, all re-elected; directors for two years Dave Heidebrecht, James Francis; directors for one year, Stanley Dunham, Wm Lancaster.

Some discussion ensued regarding means of raising money. It was decided to not have the quilt raffle this year and have a donations-jar at the museum exhibit on July 1st.

Some method of keeping valuable historic documents is also being sought. Mrs. Goeglein suggested the acquisition of a small old-fashioned safe because that would be fireproof and an exhibit in itself. If anyone has one or knows where one could be obtained, the society executive would like to know of it.

Mrs. Bowick, treasurer, reminds past members and prospective members that she would be pleased to receive membership dues and will mail receipts for the same. The society also extends a cordial invitation to interested parties to visit the museum. Be sure to sign the guest book when you do!

After adjournment of the business meeting, the society members were entertained by James Francis who showed slides of a trip taken by the Jim and George Francis families to Eastern Canada this past summer. Scenes of historic and geographic interest, such as Upper Canada Village, the reversible falls on the St. John River, the tidal bore, the home of Anne of Green Gables, the longest covered bridge in Canada, and the magnetic hill, were shown and were enjoyed by the audience.

After the pictures, lunch was served by Mrs. Schultz and her helpers.

Friendship group aids Home and Foreign Missions

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 23rd. The Friendship Group met at the home of Mrs. N. L. Campbell Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21st, with sixteen ladies present. Mrs Joe Hooper was in charge of devotions.

The members started to make plans for the world day of prayer which will be held on March 5th in the United Church. The ladies are also getting together quilts and children's clothing for a spring shipment to the missionary station in Hong Kong. They are also sending a parcel of used stamps to Calgary.

The group sent a "get-well" card to Mr. and Mrs. George Albrecht, who had been patients in Vegreville Hospital for several days. Mrs. Albrecht is a member of the group.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carrie Olson on Thursday, Feb. 18th, with Mrs. Blanche Olson in charge of devotions. All women interested in missionary work and fellowship are most welcome to the meeting.

FATHER PASSES

Mrs. Stinson's father, W. H. Ismond, aged 95 years, passed away in hospital at Balcarres, Sask., on Wednesday, Jan. 20. Mrs. Stinson left on Thursday to attend the funeral at Abernathy, Sask., on Saturday. Mr. Ismond arrived there in 1882 and same has been his permanent address ever since.

Few attend annual meet

(Mrs. S. Gladue)

There was a very poor attendance at the hall January 8th when the annual general meeting was held, with only enough persons present to hold the meeting.

Mrs. A. Gladue was re-elected president, Mrs. Fontaine, vice-pres., Robert Dunham, sec.-treas., Mrs. Muir, Mrs. P. Peterson and Mrs. Locktie, directors.

A vote of thanks was recorded in the minutes book to Mr. and Mrs. A. Rowland who have served for several years as vice-president and directors, but who were unable to attend the meeting. It is the wish of the meeting they will serve as honorary directors on the board for another year.

The new hall board met at the Dunham home January 19th. They arranged a ladies' night dance to be held at the hall on February 12th.

Legion Auxiliary names new officers

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Jan. 23rd. -- The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Holden Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion held their meeting in the Legion Hall Tuesday evening Jan 19th. Regular business was attended to and reports from the Provincial Command were read.

Mrs. Anne Black was installed as president for a further term of one year; Mrs. Stella Komarnisky, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Nellie Kahamy, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Hazel Armstrong, secretary, and Mrs. Rene Taylor, treasurer.

Tofield Junior High plans Valentine tea

The Tofield Jr Hi "Big Three" will be holding their annual Valentine Tea in the school on Wednesday Feb 10 from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. The proceeds go to the student organization, the "Big Three". Last year, basketball uniforms were purchased with the proceeds.

This year a new feature has been added. Each of the six rooms in the Jr. Hi has chosen a candidate for a Queen of Hearts to preside over the tea. Votes for the candidate are being sold by the students at 10¢ a vote. The candidate for whom the most votes have been purchased will be crowned as Queen of Hearts during the Valentine Tea.

From the tickets sold, a draw will be made for a door prize, and the purchaser of the lucky ticket will receive an appropriate prize.

This annual event has always been well supported by the parents of the students and by the community at large. The "Big Three" asks for the same generous patronage this year. Free baby-sitting service will be supplied for children while their mothers enjoy the tea.

Two-day course for Dr. Stiles

A two-day short course in veterinary medicine will be held on the University of Alberta campus February 8 and 9. The course, which is the third in a series is another example of the interest the university's medical school is taking in the continuing education of medical scientists throughout Alberta. Delegate from this area is Dr. W. C. Stiles of Tofield.

The course is sponsored by the Alberta Veterinary Medicine Association with the co-operation of the faculty of medicine. Eighteen veterinarians from various parts of Alberta will partake in the courses which are concerned with the clinical aspect of blood and its diseases in cats and dogs.

Junior High basketball

Basketball is popular with the Tofield Junior High students. The two teams, girls' and boys', are participating enthusiastically in league games. The girls' team is doing very well and is in first place. Ryley is in second place, and Holden in third. Out of five games, the Tofield girls have lost only one, and that one by a narrow margin of 14-11. Their record is a fine tribute to Mr Rurka's fine coaching.

The Tofield boys' team has yet to win a game, but have lost by small margins and are improving rapidly. Mr. Stenberg, Mr. Dennison and Mr. Rurka share the coaching duties for the boys.

Co-op refunds up this year

The annual meeting of the Tofield local United Farmers Co-operative Association UFA will be held in conjunction with the regular monthly meeting of the Farmers Union on Tuesday, Feb. 9th, in the Legion Hall, starting at 8:30 p.m. Lunch will be served.

Business for the year totalled over $10,000, and cash refunds of 6½% will be distributed that evening. This is more than double the previous year. This covers the year from August 1, 1963 to July 31, 1964.

It is hoped to have Danny Manderson, who was the local's delegate to the annual convention at Calgary in November, present to give the highlights of that meeting. The financial statement will be presented and officers for another year elected, including the secretary who is retiring.

A good turn-out of members is urged to avoid having someone vote not to pay out refunds, but keep them in the organization.

Holden couple marks 25th anniversary

(Mrs. Taylor)

On Saturday evening, January 23rd, a number of relatives and friends met in the Community Hall, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zwierschke on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in playing various games, and several square dances were also enjoyed. On behalf of their many friends, Mrs. N. L. Campbell made the presentation of a purse of money to the guests of honor, and the members of the 4-H Club, in which they have always taken an [illegible] part, presented them with a beautiful silver tray. A delicious lunch was served, and the head table was centered with a lovely decorated wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Zwierschke thanked all present most graciously for the lovely surprise and the kindness of all, saying it would be an occasion they would always remember.

Tofield oldtimer passes at 89 years

The sympathy of the district is extended to the McAllister family in the death of their father, Pete McAllister, an oldtimer of the Tofield district, who passed away January 31st in Edmonton at the age of 89 years. The funeral was held from the Tofield United Church February 3rd. Rev. W. H. McDonald conducted the services.

Mr. McAllister is survived by four daughters and seven sons.

Superintendent for Elk Island

G. H. W. Ashley, 56, has been appointed superintendent of Elk Island National Park.

Born in Banff, Mr. Ashley received his education there. He saw active service in World War II with the Canadian Army and the RCAF. He was attached first as instructor to the Canadian Infantry Training Centre, Currie Barracks, Calgary, and later served overseas with the RCAF, returning to civilian life with the rank of Flying Officers.

Mr. Ashley's early employment with the government was in Banff National Park. He carried out Acting Park Warden duties from 1936 to 1941 and re-joined the National Parks Service after the war. After a brief period as Assistant Chief Warden, at Banff, he was promoted to Chief Park Warden in 1951. Three years later he became Assistant Superintendent.

In March, 1957, Mr. Ashley became Superintendent of Kootenay National Park, and was appointed Superintendent of Prince Albert National Park in October of the same year.

R. R. Webster, Superintendent of Elk Island National Park since 1959, now becomes Superintendent of Riding Mountain National Park in Manitoba.

Community League meets to consider current agenda

The regular February meeting of Tofield Community League was held on Tuesday, Feb. 2nd, in the Community Centre meeting room, with President John Barrgen in the chair and sixteen members present.

It was decided to ask Mrs. Hazel Patterson to act as co-ordinator for the Cancer Drive, which is now sponsored by the League. Mrs Patterson has previously been the co-ordinator under the sponsorship of the W.A.T.C.L., which has now disbanded.

An auditing committee, consisting of J. E. Stinson and Conrad Patterson, was appointed to audit the League books.

The committee in charge of the One-Hundred Club, R. Mutlow, H. A. Pike and N. Glover, allocated the books of tickets to the sellers of same.

A building committee was appointed. George McFadzean, Charles Kallal and Arnold Swift will act in this capacity.

Charles Sears, Bill Davison, Frank Langkaas and Jack Lampitt will be the committee in charge of dances for 1965.

[illegible]ion arose as to the desirability of renting the hall to private parties when the renters requested that liquor be served. On motion of C. F. Annis and Lionel Harton, it was decided that any proposal of rental of hall involving the use of liquor be reviewed by the executive.

A new insurance policy proposed by Ed Regehr was adopted after some discussion. It was decided to add $3,000 [illegible]nce to cover the contents of the kitchen, formerly insured by W.A.T.C.L. The insurance now includes $80,000 on the building, $14,000 on contents, $1,000 liability which covers swimming lessons but not accidents on July 1, and a burglary clause.

The executive requested that J. E. Stinson and H. Seller act as a membership committee for the League, and that Mrs. Grace Phillips continue to act as League reporter for The Tofield Mercury.

It was decided after some discussion that the dance committee endeavor to put on a Teen-Dance once a month when possible.

Youth sport activities were discussed. The League felt that there was very little local interest in Sea Cadets, but that hockey was popular and that the League would endeavor to secure coaches for local hockey [illegible]

The July 1 celebration was discussed, and H. Sellers appointed to contact the Horse Show men.

Conformity challenged

Does the pressure of modern society on getting a child to "conform" to his environment really smooth the entry of the young into society, or does it drive them to frustration and senseless acts of vandalism? This is the penetrating question asked by Robert Oliver, writing in QUEST, a national magazine endorsed by the Home and School Associations.

He points out that in every phase of life, the family, the school, business, social, religious and other communities, pressures, some subtle and some not so subtle are applied which push the individual into conformity. As the pressure rises, the temperature of some less susceptible young people rises until the blowoff comes, destructive, senseless, violent.

It may well be that Mr. Oliver has put his finger squarely on one of the major social problems and phenomena of our times. It may be that he has explained why the disease of group frustration is increasingly frightening throughout the affluent societies of the world. Here in North America, (and Canada is not free of the problem) holiday week-ends, or folk singing festivals often degenerate into juvenile mob scenes. Witness the Beatles performance, for instance, or those of Elvis Presley, Frank Sinatra, to name only a few. And Britain has her mods and rockers, too. Her teddy boys and others.

Is it the pressure to achieve "group adjustment," that's at fault? Is it our narrow intolerance, even fear or suspicion . . . of anyone who dare to be different?

We must have the individualists. It is they who dream great dreams, who write books, lead political parties and nations, design great buildings, invent new machines, become great teachers. In school, the class should be taught to respect individuality, and the young individualist should be led to being tolerant of others.

Adjustment to one's self, says the writer, should be put above adjustment to the group. "The young should not be prevented," reads his final statement "from rebelling against their narrow environment, lest they submerge in that narrow environment in order to rebel against the world."

No shortage here

February may be the shortest month in the year, but there's no shortage of special 'days' or 'weeks' in this month.

Naturally, most people know the 2nd is Groundhog Day or Candlemas Day, and everyone surely must know what the 14th is. St. Valentine's Day is as firmly established as New Year's.

Some of you may have known that national electrical week starts Friday, and white cane week on Monday next. You may know that Boy Scout week and brotherhood week both start on the 21st, while the whole month is known as heart foundation month. But did you know that tomorrow opens kraut and frankfurter week, for instance, or that Friday starts Take tea and see week. Frankly, we're amazed they even exist.

This is only a slight start, too. It's even frozen potato month, milk fed lamb season, national sweeter air month, butter and pancake time, children's dental week, pencil week, crime prevention week. (We thought that was supposed to be every week).

We could go on, but maybe we're tiring you. Silly, isn't it all? At least when it's done to proliferation like this, we think it is.

Heads in the sand

All railways in Canada should be operated as public utilities!

This was the position set forth recently when the Farmers' Union presented a brief to the Alberta government. Support for FUA proposals concerning rail-line abandonment was included, mentioning the effect on rural communities of branch line closures, and the extra costs of transporting grain, etc.

The last thing Ottawa wants is to take over the Canadian Pacific Railway. If it did, it would have no yardstick by which to judge operation of its own railway, and there are already headaches enough with that. Removing the incentive to match the privately owned system would almost certainly reduce efficiency and increase costs.

As for branch line closures, the farmers must realize no lines are closed when they're paying their way. It's only when all the freight is hauled in and out by truck, and all the people by car or bus that some recognition must be taken of the economics of the situation. Even if all the railways were operated by the government, the same assessment would have to be made, followed by the same decisions.

Keeping those trains rolling takes real golden eggs, but Ottawa doesn't want to be known as the goose that lays them.

By George!

Following is an item I found in The Lethbridge Herald Saturday in the column, "Lights and Shadows", the product of a well known and respected veteran newsman in the southern part of the province, C. Frank Steele. Titled "Responsibility", it says:

One of the most dangerous things on a railroad is an engine moving without cars. It has power, it has speed, but it has no responsibility. It may leave the railroad on a curve — a curve that it could easily negotiate if it were pulling a string of cars. Like the railroad locomotive moving aimlessly without cars is the person who goes through life without responsibilities. He may lose his sense of balance on a curve of life and that curve may be just the one that a person with proper responsibilities would hardly notice.

Opposed to liquor store

Editor, Tofield Mercury, and to whom it may concern:

I am opposed to a liquor store in Tofield.

It was only through a misunderstanding and an error on my part that the council got a unanimous vote on this.

Yours truly,
George Bosse.

No need for outlet

Editor, The Mercury:

I have been asked by concerned people to comment re the need for a liquor store in Tofield

I see no need for such a place at all. Thus far I have not been aware of any shortage of liquor in and around Tofield. To establish such a store will result in more cash money spent on liquor, more drinking, and more requests for credit from local tradesmen.

Despite Solomon's editorial in the local paper, being able to think logically for myself and being thoroughly acquainted with all ramifications of the liquor business and pressure, I am completely and openly opposed to the whole fallacious idea that such a store would be a benefit to Tofield. It would shorten the drive for the bootleggers who are supplying young folk with the stuff right now.

Yours sincerely,
W. H. McDiarmid.

Huge ore cars for Pine Point

Canadian National Railways announced today that a contract for 245 steel ore-carrying cars of 100-ton capacity has been awarded to National Steel Car Corporation Ltd., Montreal.

By far the largest ore carriers on CN lines, the cars will be used on the Great Slave Lake Railway. Inside dimensions are 27' long by 10'5⅛" wide, with an overall height of 15'. The cars will be equipped with longitudinal centre-dump hoppers.

Delivery is expected to begin late in July at the rate of six a day

Sewing Circle meets at J. Johnson home

(Mrs. J. A. Anderson)

KINGMAN, Feb. 1st — The Kingman Sewing Circle met at Mrs. John Johnson's home on January 27th at 2 p.m., with 14 ladies present. A new executive was elected, namely: pres., Mrs H Asp; vice-pres., Mrs. I. Ness; sec.-treas., Mrs. John Johnson. It was decided to raffle another quilt this year, and also to buy the pieced quilt top from Mrs. Pederson at the Bethany Home. Two large boxes consisting of ten complete layettes and 21 crib quilts were packed, as well as other clothing. Proceeds from the "travelling basket" amounted to $17.55. The next meeting will be on February 24th at the home of Mrs. Olaf Hein.

The firefly only shines when on the wing; so it is with the mind; when we rest we darken.

Ketchamoot district pioneer passes

A member of one of Edmonton's oldest pioneer families died Monday after a short illness. Mrs. Catherine T Ingram, 83, had been living for the past 14 years at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. (Kathleen) John Nickerson, in Edmonton.

Mrs. [illegible] Catherine Ratigan in Maradam Junction, New Brunswick, on October 12, 1881. However, most of her childhood was spent in Maine and New Hampshire. When she was 15 years old, she was predeceased by her mother. From [illegible] on she cared for her five brothers and sisters. In the late nineties her father, Will Ratigan, and her eldest brother, Tom, came West to survey prospects for finding their fortunes. Catherine followed with the remaining children at the turn of the century, 1901 or 1902, and landed at South Side CPR station on Hallowe'en Day.

On August 6, 1906, she married James Ingram in Edmonton. The young couple prepared to homestead in the Tofield district. Before taking up a homestead they lived with the groom's brother, Pete, at the site of the first coal mine in the Tofield district, which was owned and operated by the Ingram brothers. Here, Catherine's talent at making delicious bread was enjoyed and commended by many who came miles to get coal

Later, Mr and Mrs. Ingram homesteaded in the Ketchamoot district, where they lived until Mr Ingrams passing in the fall of 1949. Mrs Ingram gave freely and gladly of her time and talents while a resident in this area.

Survivors include two sons, William of Kingman and James who farms the original homestead at Tofield; three daughters, Mrs. Wendall (Mildred) Wyley and Mrs. Gertrude Ovelson of Terrace, B.C., and Mrs. John (Kathleen) Nickerson of Edmonton; three brothers, James and Frank, of Edmonton, and Thomas, of Los Angeles, California, and one sister, Mrs. Ernest (Susan) Brick, of Keg River, B.C.

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Ingram was said at St. Francis Roman Catholic Church in Tofield, with burial in Tofield Cemetery. Pallbearers were her grandsons, Floyd and Stewart Ferguson, Wes Ingram, Royal Nickerson, Bill McCaffery and Casey Coombes.

Books in review

"The Rector of Justin" by Louis Auchincloss. The story of a most remarkable man founder of a New England boys' school, as recorded by a young acolyte in the last year of administration.

"Peace River Chronicles" by G. E. Bowes. An excellent series of excerpts from diaries, from official records, from verbal recollections of oldtimers and other sources, of events that occurred as the country opened up.

"50 North" by Lt. Commander Alan Easton. One of the theatres of the last war in which Canadians played a major role was the Battle of the Atlantic. Little has been written by the Canadian participants, now however, Lt. Commander Alan Easton, RCNVR, has written an account of his four grim years in frigate, corvette and destroyer, back and forth across the cold ocean.

"Global Odyssey" by Howard A. Johnson. Around the world in 730 days, 200,000 miles, 210 aeroplanes, 80 countries, thus Canon Johnson describes his amazing journey in search of fellow Christians in almost every country of the world.

"The Pond" by Robert Murphy. Adventures of a 14-year-old boy the delights of the woods and ponds

"North to Adventure" by John T. Rowland. His youthful experiences in northern waters and the stark, rugged, storm battered land of Labrador.

"Many Trails" by R. D. Symons. The author's first book about stories of wildlife in the Canadian West.

"Clementine" by Jack Wincour. A biography of Lady Churchill

"Scruffy" by Paul Gallico. A diversion a novel of the meanest most malevolent and misanthropic ape who ever lived. Set in the days of World War II when Gibralter was threatened by the Axis

Cereal breeders employ new methods

The Research Branch of the Canada Department of Agriculture has thrown some interesting light on current trends with respect to its cereal breeding work.

In recent years, cereal plant breeders working with small grains, have improved the structure of plants in many ways and have built genetic stocks carrying protective genes against disease and insects. They have combined these to improve yield returns in desirable varieties and have employed back cross techniques to add more desirable genes to varieties which show some defect. Now they are looking much more closely at the physiology of plants.

Among other things they are looking for difference in light and temperature responses and are speculating on how to shift to a more desirable plant type to take advantage of light to improve photosynthesis. This is the process under which water and carbon dioxide are united by the energy of the sun's rays to form carbohydrates from which, by a complex series of processes, other plant substances, such as protein, are built up in the plant.

In general they stress the fact that, while they cannot afford to abandon their conventional methods of improving our small grain crops they cannot afford to overlook some of the more spectacular approaches. Root structures are now being examined, recent studies of the root patterns of wheat varieties, as related to yield, suggesting the value of further investigations.

Another matter, the physiology of the cells in relation to winter-hardiness and drought tolerance, is also being studied. Still another factor, dormancy is being looked at closely as a possible means of turning this physiological character towards higher yields in oat production.

Plant physiologists admit that they have as yet only a rather unsatisfactory knowledge of the whole field of drought resistance. Although they realize that the problem is of paramount importance, they also realize that its detailed analysis probably depends on the development of new experimental approaches.

Today more than ever before, grain producers require high yielding commercially acceptable varieties. The synthesis of high yielding varieties has always been the goal of the plant breeder but its accomplishment is becoming increasingly difficult, and when one considers the large number of factors and agents which produce yields, it is apparent that plant scientists have done well to maintain yields at their present level.

Aud-ities

by Aud Jorgensen

Keeping a good shine on a floor, any kind of floor, whether it be hardwood, tile or linoleum, is one of the things that will always separate a good housekeeper from an amateur. The greatest difficulty is in finding a wax that will not only give a good shine but will also be hard enough to take the harsh treatment of high heel shoes and children's scuffings. Here is what I have found to answer this problem and maybe you'll find it just what you've been looking for too.

Big commercial department stores and car and tractor show rooms, I believe, have the floors that receive the worst treatment imaginable and yet, somehow most are managed to be kept clean and shiny. My father hit upon this idea one day and suggested we try commercial wax on our floors. At first I was quite hesitant, thinking that perhaps the formula might be too strong for ordinary use . . . but let me tell you it works wonders.

You'll find it more expensive than ordinary household wax—approximately $5 a half gallon, but in the long run is probably far more economical. The wax can be put on once and the floor washed five, six or even up to ten times, depending on the amount of use your floor gets, before a new coat of wax has to be put on again. All it needs is a good buffing between washings and it looks like new again. It's hard and durable, too—has to be to stand up to the run of thousands of feet that a commercial department store gets every day. And the saving of time and energy of getting down and waxing your floor every time you wash it is well worth any little extra that you might have to pay for it.

The story of the lost father

A certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, "Father, give me the portion of your time and attention, the portion of your time and attention and wise council which is my due."

Believing himself to be wise, the father divided his substance; he paid the bills for his son and placed his son in a "proper" boarding school. Then he, believing he had fulfilled all his fatherly duties, went his way.

A few days later, the father gathered all his interests and projects and journeyed into a far country, into a pattern of life in which there was no room for a boy. He wasted the precious opportunity of being a father and helpmate to his son.

When he had thus spent the best years of his life, laying up earthly treasure, he suddenly discovered that he was not really happy. He began to be in want!

Seeking to satisfy his want he joined an organization and by and by was elected president. He represented this organization in many lands.

He fain would have filled his hungry heart with the high esteem he had among men. But nowhere did he find true friendship. Eventually he came to his senses and said, "How many of my acquaintances have sons with whom they share mutual understanding? How many live in a sincere and intimate friendship with their sons, while I perish here with hunger? ! ! I will go to my son, and say to him, "Son I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight; I am no more worthy to be called your father — accept me as one of your acquaintances."

And he arose and went to his son.

While he was yet afar off, his son saw him coming, but he was very greatly surprised. Instead of running to him and falling on his neck and kissing him, the son felt uncomfortable and cowered back with great hesitation.

The father, however, in desperation spoke, "Son, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your father. Forgive me and let us be friends."

But the son replied, "No! I wish it were still possible — but you have waited too long. When I needed your friendship and your fatherly advice, you were too busy. I sought fatherly confidence from others and found them willing to counsel me — but their counsel was corrupt.

What more can I say?
. . . You are too late!"

Mrs. Grace Mrakota passes at 84 years

(Mrs. Joe Knudson)

PALMER-EARLING, Jan. 29. —A former resident, Mrs. Grace Mrakota, 84 passed away Jan. 24 at the Bethany Hospital in Camrose. She was born in Ontario and spent 37 years in the Likeness district, north of Bawlf, where she led a full life teaching and nursing. She taught at the Likeness and Hampton schools. During her declining years, she made her home with her only child, Mrs. Harold Jensen, and Mr. Jensen and three grandchildren at Ferintosh. Her neighbors from Likeness were in Camrose on Tuesday to attend the funeral.

Palmer - Earling notes

(Mrs. Joe Knudson)

PALMER-EARLING, Jan. 29. Saturday evening guests at the Frank Urlacher home were Anton Peter, Kay and Ann, Joe Peter Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peter Sr., Mrs. Noulette and Leo, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reinhart, Garry and Arden, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Urlacher of Bawlf, Philip Urlacher of Daysland, and from Camrose were the John Sharugas and the Carsten Otnoes.

Mrs. Russel Zilkie, Mrs. Tillie Johnson and Mrs. Earl Drader of Edmonton were visitors with Mrs. Jack Vassberg and girls. Her mother, Mrs. Drader, stayed on for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knudson, Wayne, Terry and Gail were Wednesday supper guests at the John Tomasheski home, marking their 38th wedding anniversary.

Andrew Reum is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, having undergone surgery.

Mr. Setterlund of Edmonton, accompanied by a group of young people from the Bible School there, conducted services at the Peter Reum home Thursday night.

Saturday guests at the Clifford Bratrud home for a turkey supper were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Helleikson and Marlene and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. George Mosby and Linda, Mrs. Lyle Bratrud and Dale and Rickie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and Larry and Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Bergquist and Karen and Shyla of Bawlf, Noreen Campbell and Valerie Johnson of Camrose.

Leonard Johnson left by plane last week for Sunnyside, Wash., to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Harold Fike, 82, who passed away Jan. 17, following a heart attack. The deceased is survived by his wife, Beata Fike (nee Johnson) a former Palmerite, three married daughters, and a number of grandchildren.

The Skudesnes LCW met on Wednesday, Jan. 27th, with Mrs. Joe Knudson and Alice Aker co-hostesses. Mrs. Knudson led the first lesson of the new Bible study, "If God so loved us". The Sunday School teachers Mrs Richard Vassberg and Mrs. Finvald Aspenes expressed their thanks for gifts received at Christmas. There were also several "thank you" letters read for get-well cards received from the LCW. Offering for lunch was $5.65. Next meeting Thursday, Feb. 25, when Mrs. Bob Beattie will conduct the Bible study and the servers will be Mrs. Sam Olsen and Mrs. Evan Kvale.

Holden and district news items

Mrs. Marian Tkaczyk is working for Dr. Bhavanhi, the new resident doctor in Holden, as receptionist for the surgery hours in the afternoons. She will still be employed at the Treasury Branch office during the morning hours.

Leo Maruszecka of the Bruce district was a business visitor around Holden Wednesday afternoon a week ago.

HERE FROM B.C.

Steve Komarnisky from Vancouver, B.C., was visiting in Holden Wednesday and Thursday of last week, on business and renewing friendships. He was saying that although the snow had just about gone at the coast, it had been very bad there and the people not used to such a heavy fall of snow did not seem to know how to cope with it. He also told us that Sandra (Mrs. Komarnisky) had had a bad accident falling on the icy pavement and breaking her right wrist, which she had in a cast for two weeks and would have to keep it on for another four weeks. She wished to be remembered to all her friends in Holden.

Ernie Good was confined to bed and home for a few days last week with a very bad cold and a touch of pneumonia. We were pleased to see him up and around again on Thursday.

Geo. H. Taylor, EMO co-ordinator for the County of Beaver No. 9 unit, was a business caller in Ryley last Thursday afternoon, also calling on Tommy Harris.

SISTER PASSES

Mrs. Roy Nichols received the sad news Sunday evening, Jan. 24th, that her eldest sister, Mrs. Dan Kirkham of Sexsmith, had passed away in the University Hospital after undergoing major surgery a day or two previously. The funeral was held at Sexsmith Friday, Jan. 29th. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Nichols and family in their sad loss.

It was with pleasure that we heard that Mr. Ruxton was first in recent exams on the New Testament at St. Stephen's College.

Chris Christenson and his sister, Mrs. Elna Parsons, were recent Sunday visitors and dinner guests with their nephew, Hans Christenson, his wife and family in Tofield.

Mrs. Oscar Ruskenveld was a patient in the University Hospital, Edmonton, for several days last week, having tests taken. She hoped to be able to come out on the Saturday.

Recent Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brekstad were Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Nelson of Edmonton, one time residents of the Holden district.

Terry Good, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Good, was taken to Tofield hospital last week with a badly infected throat and did not seem to be responding to treatments given, where she had intravenous injections, being unable to swallow. We were pleased to hear Saturday that she was showing some improvement and hope it will not be too long before she is home again.

About 20 ladies of Holden and district attended a plastic ware party at the home of Mrs. Lud Mieliamka Saturday, Jan. 23. After the demonstration, the hostess s-e-r-v-e-d a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mr. Albert S. Pederson of Camrose, with sons George and Robert, were recent weekend visitos with Mrs. Pederson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Glebelhaus, and their other relatives in the district.

We were sorry to hear that Harry Bilyk is again a patient in the Vegreville hospital. Mr. Bilyk has been in poor health for some time, but we hope that his stay in hospital will not be too long.

Mike Nalesnik has sold his farm south of Holden to Mike Manchur of Edmonton, and is planning to enter the restaurant business.

BAPTISM

Mr and Mrs. Wilbur Michlich of Edmonton were visitors the weekend of January 17th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Lukawiecki and attended the baptismal service of Mr. and Mrs. Lukawiecki's baby daughter on the Sunday, Mr. Michlich being one of the sponsors. Mr. and Mrs. Bober, also of Edmonton, parents of Mrs. Lukawiecki, were also in attendance for the occasion, Mrs. Bober being the other sponsor. After the service, relatives and friends were dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lukawiecki.

The regular monthly meeting of the Holden Drainage District No. 1 was held Saturday afternoon, Jan. 30th, in the office of the sec.-treas., Ray Hovland. Trustees present were Oscar Afseth and Nick Laskoski, while Hans Huseby is absent on holiday in the States. Regular business was discussed and attended to, and reports given regarding bridges, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rurka, nee Eileen Tymchuk, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Eaton, also picking up the three children who had been overnight visitors at the Eaton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiedemann and sons, David and Robert, were Sunday visitors and dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zwierschke and son, Allan.

Mrs. Carrie Olson, Mrs. Mabel Sizer, Mrs. Laur Christianson and Mrs. Beth Campbell were visitors and dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mrs. Mary James.

CENTENNIAL MEETING

A second meeting was held in the Community Hall Monday evening, Jan. 25th, regarding the centennial grant which is being given by the federal government. There was not a very large attendance, but it was decided to build an addition to the present hall which would be a separate building. Committees were set up for the building and financing of same.

Local student aids Witness convention

A girl from the Tofield district, Elsie Ovelson, is slated to participate in the program of a three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Wetaskiwin this weekend.

Miss Ovelson will give a six-minute sermon on the convention's model ministry school Friday night. This is a meeting which is featured weekly in all congregations of the Witnesses to develop better qualified ministers for both the speaking platform and their ministry in the homes of people.

Miss Ovelson is taking her Grade 12 in Camrose. Her parents farm a quarter south-west of Tofield. She is the fourth child of the Ovelsons to become an active member of the Witness movement. Two older brothers are ordained ministers and a sister does missionary work.

Solve a Crime
BY A.C. GORDON

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

Vernon Vance, wealthy investment counsellor, is exclaiming loudly to you on the burglary that has just taken place at his offices. "That scoundrel surely must have been fast on his feet", Vance tells you. "I was alone here in my private office this morning . . . none of my employees had arrived yet. Suddenly I heard some suspicious sounds coming from the outer office, and I jumped up from my chair and went immediately to investigate . . . but there was no one there. Then I heard the sound of running feet, and I threw open the door to the corridor . . . but lengthy though the corridor is, the intruder had already disappeared . . . probably down the the stairway at the other end of the corridor".

You turn to look at the other two persons who have followed you this morning into Vance's private office - the white-faced secretary, Mary Peters, and the young bookkeeper, Jack Ireton, who is limping heavily on a heavy-looking cane clutched tightly in his right hand.

"It must have been someone who knew about the heavy amount of cash we were keeping in the safe", volunteers Jack Ireton.

"I was much earlier than usual this morning", says Vance. "I unlocked the safe when I arrived . . . I had to get out some important papers to work on. I suppost it was very careless of me to leave the door of the safe open while I was in my office, but I was expecting Miss Peters and Ireton to arrive soon . . . they both knew I was coming to the office early and was eager to complete an important transaction. We've never had anything like this happen before . . . more than a thousand dollars . . . gone!"

You examine the inside of the littered safe, then turn back to the two employees.

"It's a dreadful thing", exclaims Mary Peters. "If only I had arrived a little earlier, this wouldn't have happened. . . . Mr. Vance was phoning you when I came into the office . . . not five minutes after the robber escaped".

"What's wrong with your leg?" you ask Jack Ireton, nodding your head at his heavily-bandaged left ankle.

"A bad sprain while I was skiing last weekend", he replies.

"Well, I suspect that you can still move much faster than you have indicated", you then state. "At present, Ireton, you're my Number One suspect!

Why do you suspect Jack Ireton?

SOLUTION

Jack Ireton had been very careless. He had entered the office limping heavily on a cane held in his RIGHT hand. Yet it was his LEFT ankle that was supposedly injured!

January bride-elect honored at shower

(Mrs. Joe Knudson)

PALMER LARLING Jan. 29 - A miscellaneous shower was held at Skuleson's Church on Saturday evening, in honor of bride-elect Anne Kvale and her fiance Michael Willis.

Edna Sorensen was master of ceremonies for an interesting program that began with a hymn by all, followed by a song by the ladies' group, duet, by Jeanette and Emma Knudson, amusing readings by Mrs. R. Vassberg, Mrs. E. Sorenson, Percy Bergquist, Bawlf, Mrs. J. Bruce, Arthur Kvale, Velvet Dumes and Jeanette and Emma Knudson.

On behalf of all present, Edna Aker made the presentation speech. The bride-to-be then received a corsage, pinned on by her only sister, Mabel. Anne and Michael expressed their thanks for the program, good wishes and lovely gifts, and a delicious lunch was served. The wedding of Anne Kvale and Michael Willis of Edmonton took place in Bawlf Lutheran Church on Saturday, Jan. 30th, with Rev. P. Olson officiating.

6 COLD WEEKS?

Tuesday was Groundhog Day, when, if the groundhog sees his shadow, legend forecasts it portends six more weeks of cold, hard winter. Try as he would, however, the groundhog couldn't climb up through the deep drifts of snow dumped in Saturday's storm, and the cameraman had to be satisfied with the picturesque jackpine above . . . and the sharply defined shadow it cast. The question is, is it the shadow that casts the spell, or the groundhog? If the groundhog couldn't make it, does that mean the end of winter?

Modern Etiquette

Q. When should you introduce yourself to new neighbors?

A. Not before you're sure they are completely settled down. Don't walk in on people the day they move in when they're busy and tired, and possibly in the midst of what seems to them an inextricable mess. They'll enjoy meeting you much more when you give them a chance to be at their best.

Q. When a dinner course is finished, should the hostess' plate be removed first, and if not, whose plate?

A. There is no rule governing the order of removal of the dinner plates. This is entirely a matter of convenience.

Q. Whose privilege is it to select the music to be played at a church wedding?

A. The bride's. But, of course, she should consult her minister regarding this, since some types of music are banned in certain churches.

Q. For how long should the bread-and-butter plates be left on the dinner table?

A. Until it is time to serve the dessert.

Q. Is it permissible to sip water at the table while one has food in the mouth?

A. This is very poor manners. One should never take so much food into the mouth as to make it necessary to use water for "washing it down".

We will have to want Peace, want it enough to pay for it, before it becomes an accepted rule.

Peace is not absence of war, it is a virtue, a state of mind, a disposition for benevolence, confidence, justice.

Only 16 attend rural fire protection meet

The annual meeting of Tofield Rural Fire Protection Association, held in the Tofield Library room on January 30th drew a very poor crowd only some 16 members out of a total membership of 170 and five visitors from the vicinity of Viking, where they are investigating the formation of a unit such as this.

There was a total of six rural fires attended during the year, five members and one non-member. An auxiliary pump unit and 300 feet of hose for same were purchased. This unit will be used in case of a lengthy fire, to permit the tank to be filled from a water supply at the same time as the large unit is working thus eliminating any stoppage for re-filling the tank. These purchases have somewhat depleted reserves, but it is felt the unit is now well enough equipped to fight almost any fire. Members are, therefore, urged to pay their dues, which were again set at $3.00, either to the Bank of Montreal or R. Crispin, treasurer.

The bylaws state as follows: "Annual dues are payable at beginning of the year. Any member whose dues are not paid would, in case of a call to a fire on their premises, be considered a non-member and would be liable for $200 for the first hour and $40 per hour for each additional hour". So please give this your urgent attention, and also hang the yellow phone number card near your phone for convenience.

The three retiring Board members were returned unopposed, namely L. Shewchuk, U. Bates and Dan Dodd.

Eulogy to Sir Winston Churchill

(by Iris Bitan)

As an English woman, and former member of the English Women's Air Force, who served during the Second World War, I would like to express the fact that Sir Winston, or "Dear Winnie", as he was affectionately known to his fellow countrymen, and women, was a truly great, and fantastic figure of man.

My personal memories of this fabulous, and indominatable leader, and statesman, are of how he spurred the men and women of England to rise up, to think, and act victory, and defiance to the enemy, during those battle-scarred years of 1939-1945.

All through his long and glorious life he was a great and historical figure, and he will live on for ever, as will his great achievements through the generations of all times and nations.

I am only one of millions who bow my head in respect and gratitude of this very human man, and inspiring leader.

School committee meets Jan. 12th

Following are the minutes, in part, of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee meeting, held Tuesday, Jan. 12:

COUNTY CREST

In connection with the County Crest, motion 453/64, Mr. Pike reported that a large number of entries had been received and that more would be forthcoming, and that the deadline for submission of the entries had been cancelled. There had been quite a number of very good entries submitted and it would be up to the Crest Committee to finally settle on a suitable crest which might conceivably be a combination of a number of entries.

It was moved and carried that the report be accepted.

In regards to the office assistance for school principals, motion 475/64, some further discussion took place, and Cr. Weatherill suggested that, in his opinion, a stenographer might be sufficient. Mr. Pike stated that this would not be very satisfactory, as a straight stenographer would be useless for at least 70% of the work that this person would be expected to do.

It was was finally moved and carried that this matter be deferred to later in the meeting, when Lars Olson would be in attendance.

The secretary-treasurer reported that Title to Lots 11 and 12, Block 9, Plan 3940 W., Village of Holden, had now been issued in the name of the County as No. 154-B-710, this being the property purchased from W. Laskosky.

CORRESPONDENCE

A letter [illegible] Johnnie B. Thiessen of Tofield applying for the position of school bus driver at Tofield was referred to the Committee.

Moved and carried that Johnnie B. Thiessen be appointed spare bus driver at Tofield provided he is approved by the Bus Supervisor.

A letter from A. B. Wetter, assistant director of school administration, was referred to the School Committee. The letter stated that Elmer Sagmoen had called at the Department and discussed some of his road and bus transportation problems with Mr. Wetter.

After some considerable discussion, it was moved and carried [illegible] matter be referred to the County Council with the request that, if possible, a road on the east side of Mr. Sagmoen's place be opened up.

Moved [illegible] carried that the Fire Commissioner's report [illegible] cerning the schools at Bruce, Holden and Viking be received and referred to the maintenance foreman and janitors concerned for attention.

Moved and carried that the Bus Supervisor's report for the month of December be received, and that his account in the amount of $31.64 be approved and passed for payment.

TEACHER AGREEMENT

The Committee was advised that according to the agreement between the County and the teachers in the County it was necessary to give notice of intent to negotiate amendments or to renew the agreement not later than the last day of January and that at the time of giving notice the party would provide the other with amendments desired to the agreement.

Moved and carried that the Beaver Local ATA be advised of the intention of the County to negotiate the 1965-66 salary grid, and any other items in the present agreement that may require adjustment.

Moved and carried that prepayment on the 1965 taxes on the County's property in the Village of Holden, in the amount of $1,388.16, be authorized.

The secretary-treasurer reported that the case of R. Oslund vs. County of Beaver would be tried in the District Court in Edmonton on January 21, 1965, at 2:00 p.m., and that he and the superintendent, H. A. Pike would appear on behalf of the County. [illegible]

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

Mr. Pike informed the Committee that some of the teachers had inquired about plug-ins for their cars at the schools and he inquired if the policy, suggested a year or two ago in this matter, would still be considered by the School Committee. The suggestion had been a charge of $3 per month per car for the winter months.

This was not considered too satisfactory, and it was moved and carried that, providing there is sufficient demands for plug-in, this be arranged for with a charge of $12 for the season for each plug-in.

TOFIELD SCHOOL FIRE

Mr. Pike referred to the fire at the Tofield School on Dec. 17, and stated that, with the approval of the Insurance Adjuster, he had employed Watson (Tofield) Limited to do all the necessary repair work, and that an initial estimate of the cost of the repairs had [illegible] $4,500 to $5,000.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and action concurred in.

Mr. Pike referred to Motion 427/63, which stipulated that school buses could not operate for extra-curricular activities when the temperature was down to 20 degrees below zero or more. He stated that the principals of the schools felt, as well as some parents, that the regulation was too drastic, and that he also agreed with this. He stated that in most cases a car driven by a teacher accompanied each bus and that therefore the danger of the bus being stalled in the middle of the night with no way of getting assistance was quite remote.

After some discussion, it was moved and carried that, providing a car with at least one teacher accompanies the bus, motions 427/63 and 61/61 be rescinded, and the question whether a bus should be used for extra curricular activities within the County be left to the discretion of the principals.

BUILDING PROGRAM

Mr. Pike referred to the need of additional rooms at the Viking School, namely a Biology Laboratory, a Chemical Laboratory, a Commercial Room and a General Purpose Room; also, possibly two washrooms and additional storage room. He stated that the architect, Mr. Clovig, together with himself, Cr. Roddick and Mr. Allen, had looked over the situation at the Viking School and that no difficulty was encountered regarding space for the proposed extension, which would be on the south side of the home economics building. The architect stated that he would interview the School Building Board to see what the possibilities were for the proposed extension.

Mr. Pike suggested that the County should try to purchase the two lots adjoining the school grounds, and it was moved and carried that the proposed project be approved, and that the Building Committee endeavor to obtain information as to whether the two lots, referred to by Mr. Pike, could be purchased.

In regards to the Building Projects at Holden and Tofield, Mr. Pike reported that the work on these projects was progressing very favorably, and that only some minor changes had been necessary.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

Mr. Pike mentioned an amplification unit was needed at the Ryley School and that the Students Union was prepared to assist in the purchase of this unit, which would cost approximately $300.

Moved and carried that the purchase of the amplification unit be authorized at an approximate cost of $300, to be shared on a fifty-fifty basis between the County and the Ryley Students Union.

Mr. Pike referred to the numerous repairs that had to be made to the water line to the Holden School on the County's property, and stated that he and the secretary-treasurer and Cr. Gibson had discussed the advisability of having the line replaced with a different type of material.

Moved and carried that the cost of replacing the present water line on the County's property at the Holden School be investigated and reported back to the Committee.

PRINCIPALS' ASSISTANCE

Lars Olson, representing the Beaver Local ATA, attended the meeting at this time. The matter of office assistance for school principals was brought up at this time, and some considerable discussion took place. It was mentioned that one or two of the principals in the County were not entirely in favor of the proposal, having stated that they did not know how to lay out the work for an office assistant of this type.

It was finally moved and carried that Mr. Olson discuss this matter at the next Principals' meeting to ascertain if the principals are 100% in favor of the proposal, and that the question be tabled to the February meeting, at which time a report should be available.

Mr. Pike mentioned that a Ditto Machine was badly needed at Tofield School.

Moved and carried that purchase of a Ditto Machine for the Tofield School be authorized.

BUS AND DESK PURCHASES

Moved and carried that tenders be called for four only 48-passenger school buses.

Moved and carried that 30 large pupils' desks be purchased.

Beef production school is slated for Holden

All beef producers should welcome the news from the District Agriculturist's office that a beef production school will be held in Holden on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb 16th and 17th. This school is designed to provide the latest information on production and building trends in the beef industry will begin at 10:00 a.m. on each of the above days and will continue through to 4:00 p.m.

The speakers at this annual school will be C. Gordon, livestock supervisor with the Alberta department of agriculture and D. Forrest agricultural engineer. Mr. Gordon will deal with all phases of beef raising and management while Mr. Forrest will speak on building design and construction, water systems and other engineering requirements for beef producers.

All farmers are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to get the latest information on this industry first hand

Tofield Legion polio drive slated for Wed.

Members of the Tofield branch of the Royal Canadian Legion will konduct a drive for funds for the Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis and Rehabilitation next Wednesday evening, Feb. 7th. The drive will get under way at 7:00 o'clock.

Residents of the town are asked to leave their porch lights on for the drive. Rural donations will be received at Macleod's, the post office or Frank Langhaus.

$48,000 IN 1963

In 1963 the Alberta Chapter of the Canadian Foundation for Poliomyelitis and Rehabilitation received funds for the care of Polio Patients in the amount of $45,000

For seven and years the Foundation had eaten into a reserve that was intended to care for any contingency, but the demand had been so great that in 1963 they had to borrow from the bank in order to meet every day expenses.

During the 1965 campaign, January 15th to February 28th, 1965, the Royal Canadian Legion hopes to raise $80,000 and again help the polio victim to "Live in Dignity"

The only help employed by the Foundation is a secretary in the Provincial Command office in Calgary. No rent is paid for this accommodation and the Foundation is able to keep expenses to an absolute minimum by utilizing the services of every Legion Officer throughout the Province.

The Directors of the Polio Foundation are the elected officers of the Command and the President and General Chairman is the President of the Alberta Command of the Royal Canadian Legion.

The Foundation books are audited annually and a financial statement is submitted monthly.

The Directors of the Foundation feel confident that their objective of $80,000 will be met in 1965, as all Legion branches in the province have been alerted and are now arranging the same drive for funds.

Blackfoot grazing Association meets

Members of the Blackfoot Grazing Association met in annual meeting last week to hear a report on 1964 operations and to make plans for 1965.

The secretary-treasurer reported that although the association had an operating loss of $968, the bank balance still stood at a healthy $4,580. The operating loss was due largely to the fact that $2,000 was spent on fencing to improve the carrying capacity of the pasture.

The meeting voted to continue making further expenditures for brushing and clearing, and directed the executive to investigate the possibility of spraying brushed areas to retard the regrowth of brush. It was also decided to sow grass where feasible to increase the value of the pasture.

Mr. Klumph, inspector with the department of lands and forests, expressed satisfaction with the manner in which the pasture was operated and commended the association for the manner in which they attempted to improve the pasture

Moved and carried that the information be accepted and the letter received and filed.

ROUND HILL FLOOD CONTROL PROJECT

In regards to the Round Hill Flood Control Project, motion 645 84, the Secretary-Treasurer reported that the account had been submitted to the Department of Water Resources in the amount of $2750.00 and that the amount of $440.00 had been received from the County of Strathcona being the contribu-

Beaver county council meeting

EQUIPMENT PURCHASE

Following are the minutes (in part) of regular meeting of the Council of the County of Beaver No. 9 held on Thursday, Jan. 21st. Present were Councillors Wm. A. Doris, A. L. Gilson, W. D. Johnston, W. Krupichnicki, E. M. Maggrah, J. H. Roddick and H. Weatherill.

Mr. George Gallimore, representing R. Angus (Alberta) Limited, interviewed the Council at this time with a proposal for one new Caterpillar Diesel D7 series E. equipped as per proposal at a price of $31,401.00 and a new Caterpillar No. 127 cable-control unit at a cost of $3,445.00 making a total cost of $34,846.00. Trade-in of a Caterpillar Diesel D8 Tractor equipped with No. 35 cable-control unit of $7,346.60 leaving a net balance owing of $27,500.00.

The proposal was fully discussed and the tender was considered quite satisfactory. It was then moved and carried that we only consider purchasing a Caterpillar tractor and that no other make of equipment be considered.

Moved and carried that we purchase the D7 Caterpillar Tractor for a net price of $27,500 00 as per quotation submitted by George Gallimore.

Business arising from the minutes

In the matter of County of Beaver being declared a disaster area for freight assistance, motion 646, 652 64, the Secretary-Treasurer referred to the Council a letter from Mr. A. M. Hanen, Field Crop Commissioner, further outlining the situation in this case.

Moved and carried that the letter received and filed.

Locals . . .

Sunday visitors at the Chilcowich home were Mrs. Chilcowich's brother, Nick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Romaniuk, Mr. and Mrs. Shandro, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Macabrodi, all of Edmonton and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Komanchuk from Lamont. A number of friends and relatives helped Annie and Pete celebrate their 25th anniversary on Sunday.

Mrs. Freebury spent a few days last weekend in Calgary, having surgery done for the library, after which she went on to the coast for a short visit.

Joe Jannault from Winnipeg, Man., spent Saturday and Sunday at the Pittet home. Mr. and Mrs. Pittet and Susan and Joe Jannault spent Monday and Tuesday in Edmonton where they attended the Macleod's convention.

Hans Beier, Ed and Ed Stove, was the winner of the Art and Art this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hunter and girls from Fort Saskatchewan were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. L. Hunter.

Betty Swanson attended the Locker convention held in Red Deer last week.

NOTES ON THE WEATHER. Josephine Defaire was wondering whether we're due for a long or short winter so she went to interview the traditional winter weather prophet, the groundhog. If Mr Groundhog sees his shadow when he pops out of the snowbank Feb. 2, it means we're in for six more weeks of frigid wintry weather.

24 rinks participate in Ross Creek men's 'spiel

(Iris Bilan)

ROSS CREEK — The Ross Creek men's open curling bonspiel was held at Ross Creek on February 5th, 6th and 7th, with 24 rinks entered. Winning rinks in the first event were, 1, Eddie Mazurek, Edmonton; 2, Glad McCue, Fort Saskatchewan; 3, Ernie Rocque, Fort Saskatchewan; 4, Graham Snider, Ross Creek.

Mazurek and McCue played off for the Grand Challenge and were tied in the 11th end, victory coming to the Mazurek rink with David Antoniuk, the skip of the Mazurek rink, throwing the last rock in the 12th end and making a perfect draw shot.

Second event winners were: 1, Billy Ferby, Edmonton; 2, Geo. McLachlan, Ross Creek; 3, Bill Litun, Hilliard; 4, Paul Stadnik, Mundare. Bill Ferby's win is attributed to his wonderful cheering section, consisting of his wife and her two lady companions.

Third event winners were: 1, Adolph Gobert, Josephburg; 2, Basil Marler, Ardrossan; 3, Gordon Olsen, Ardrossan; 4, Ed Regehr, Tofield. Ted Arbaldistin, who curled with the Gobert rink, was especially happy to be in Ross Creek again, as it was his first return in 25 years, the occasion he attended a quarter of a century ago was his brothers wedding dance.

Hard luck event: Before winning first in this event, Ken Pederson defeated the Paul Stadnik rink and the Ed Bartz rink of Lamont; 2nd was the Archie Garret rink of Lamont, who defeated the Joseph and George McLachlan rinks before dropping down. The Garret rink was skipped by Boyd Strand, formerly of Ross Creek.

Ron Goeglein of Tofield forfeited his second game to Basil Marler as due to the heavy storm of Friday night, Ron had to battle snow and shovel his way home after his Friday night game, and did not reach his home until 4 o'clock Saturday morning.

A good deal of entertainment and pleasure was derived Saturday from the curling between the Ed Regehr rink and the teen-age rink consisting of Ross Creek boys, Laurence Woytowich, Scott Malcolm, Stuart Snider and Wayne Malkewich. With the spectators being behind the teen-age team in full force, Ed had to resort to being his own cheering section for each good shot he made. Other Ross Creek teen-age boys who participated in this 'spiel were Larry McLachlan and Richard Stadnik.

ROLLIE MILES HERE

A sumptuous banquet was served to all entrants Saturday evening, with the highlight being the speeches made by Rollie Miles, who played on Norm Swartz's team from Edmonton, Bill Ferby, John Melnyk, Chipman. Each of the spokesmen acclaimed in glowing terms the hospitality and good sportsmanship of the Ross Creek people and each one stated how pleasant it was to curl here.

The Athletic Club wishes to express their grateful thanks to the volunteer workers in the lunch booth, to all the members of the home teams who donated pies, and to Raymond McLachlan and Graham Snider for the choosing of the very nice prizes and trophies. Greatly missed in the booth this year was Wilfred Van Buskirk who, owing to illness, was unable to render his services of usual.

Opposes liquor store

Proposed Government Vendors at Tofield and Viking:

I was happy to see that one of the Councillors of Tofield repudiated the report in the town council minutes regarding his vote about location of government vendor in Tofield as previously published in the Tofield paper. Also there seems to be considerable opposition by the citizens to the extent that the application may be refused for Tofield.

I have been told that there is no opposition in Viking. Imagine! I am sure that a majority of the citizens of Viking are actually opposed to this second vendor of poisonous beverages. But they are namby-pamby's without any backbones unable to say no when the liquor interests says yes, and perhaps half-way believing what the paper very falsely asserts.

To induce sensible people to believe the combined sales of two outlets of these poisonous beverages would not add to the gruesome category of final results where one outlet existed previously, especially when the second outlet dispenses much more potent wares is too silly for words.

I am hoping the good citizens of Viking and vicinity will wake up and quash this satanic effort by the liquor interest. I believe Tofield will escape this additional boozery.

A. Finseth.

Another protest

February 7, 1965.

Editor, The Mercury:

I wish to associate myself with those of this community who are protesting the establishment of a Government Liquor Store in Tofield.

The arguments that:

(1) Such an outlet would benefit the town's merchants is extremely doubtful.

(2) People are going to get it anyway, so why not here is fallacious both on moral and practical grounds.

Of course such an outlet would be a convenience to those good folk whose yearly liquor consumption is almost negligible, but those whose appetites are not so well in control, such convenience would be nothing less than disastrous.

My observation is that we have sufficient youth problems in Tofield and surrounding area already. An additional liquor outlet would, in my opinion, compound the situation.

Surely it is unnecessary in this day to point up the distress caused by excessive liquor drinking: financial stress, broken homes, moral degradation of men and women, families and youth. Why court an increase of these conditions?

To ask the age old question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" is to answer it.

Yours sincerely,

Walter L. Hammett,
Rector Holy Trinity
Anglican Church.

THE RYLEY TIMES

Ryley A-I reports continued progress

One of the best turn-outs at an annual meeting in the history of the Ryley A-I Unit Association attested to the increased interest in the work of the association, when over 50 members attended the annual meeting last week.

The financial statement, read by Secretary Mrs. Wm. Winenes, indicated that the association was in a financially sound position and would again pay dividends on the year's operation. The only discordant note sounded was the unduly large accounts receivable figure which was in excess of $2,800. Many members questioned the secretary on this matter and were advised that every means possible, short of legal action, was used to try to collect the outstanding accounts without too much success. The meeting went strongly in favor of taking legal action against those members who neglected to pay overdue accounts. Members were advised that dividends would be aid as soon as these funds were collected.

The secretary reported that although several new members were enrolled, the number of cows serviced remained about the same as in previous years. The two technicians, O. Hagen and R. Potts, were able to adequately handle all the calls without difficulty. It was stated that although most of the demand was for service of dairy bulls, there was a continued increase in the use of beef bulls.

Harry Stauffer, who was appointed by the executive to attend the provincial convention at Red Deer, reported to the meeting on the actions taken by the Provincial body at the convention last summer. He was highly commended for his report by Chairman Roland Booth.

H. B. Jeffery, supervisor of A-I for the Alberta department of agriculture gave a lecture on "Selection of Bulls". This enlightening talk gave the members a greater insight into how bulls were selected for use in A-I studs and gave all members a better understanding of what to look for when they were selecting bulls for use on their herds.

In his talk, Mr. Jeffery stated that it took from five to seven years to test and select a bull before his service was available through A-I Units, and the costs of this selection was in the neighborhood of $12,000 for each bull. Most members expressed surprise at the time and money involved in proving a bull and went away satisfied that using A-I bulls was a very cheap way of obtaining the service of the very best bulls in Canada.

Following the talk on bull selection, Mr. Jeffery was questioned about the conception rates, and he gave results of research tests which showed that conception rates for A-I were as good or better than that obtained through natural breeding. He stated that where individual cows in a herd were difficult to settle, a veterinarian should be consulted to determine the cause, because it could be caused by one of many diseases or physical deformities. However, when an entire herd was having conception difficulties it was usually found to be caused by poor feeding or management practices. Local unit records, he said, showed that the conception rates obtained by local technicians was on a par with the provincial average so was satisfied that the technicians were doing excellent work. He suggested that if any member was having conception difficulties he should make certain his animals were amply supplied with minerals, vitamins, and high energy feed for a reasonable length of time prior to breeding. He warned that due to the poor pasture season last fall and the feed shortage this winter, more than normal numbers of repeats could be expected unless care was taken to ensure that all cows received proper levels of nutrition prior to breeding season.

Following the business session, elections were held to fill vacancies on the board of directors. Reuben Giebelhaus was elected to fill the un-expired term of the late George McVige, and John Warner and Ed Chappell were elected to further three-year terms.

The meeting was closed with a reminder that all members should try to promote the use of A-I by their neighbors. All cattlemen living within a 25-mile radius of Ryley can obtain the services of the A-I Unit by phoning the secretary at Ryley, 1?2 between 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. Service charges are $8 per cow. Farmers who have not used A-I service are urged to try breeding a few cows so that they can see how much improvement can be expected through use of proven A-I bulls.

Holden news briefs

The Sea Cadets of Holden and Viking attended the recent hockey game held in the Edmonton Gardens, Oil Kings vs Drumheller Miners, in which the latter team won 5-3. Gene Bilyk and Don Manchur accompanied the Holden boys and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bornas, and Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor the Viking boys.

Mrs. Campbell was a visitor and supper guest with Mr. and Mrs. Lars Ritland Monday of last week.

Peter Ogonoski was an Edmonton visitor last Saturday driving up to visit with his sister, Mrs. John Kaluzny, who is a patient in the Misericordia Hospital, following surgery.

The Friendship Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Carrie Olson on Thursday, February 18. All those interested are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Harris of Killam, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, on January 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ratke, from B.C., were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Foran. Marilyn, with their small son, David and new baby daughter visited for several days last week with her parents while her husband attended a convention in Calgary. Mr. and Mrs. Foran were making the acquaintance of their new granddaughter.

Eddie Piasta of Edmonton, lawyer in attendance each Tuesday afternoon at the Village office, has been away on holidays in California the past three weeks, and Edgar Gerhart has been taking his place.

Holden 4-H Club has annual meeting

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Holden 4-H Club held its third annual meeting Friday, January 15th in the Beaver Co-op office Holden. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Dennis Olson and the pledge was then given by Bill Lowry. The usual roll call was taken and later the land location of each member. Ways of raising funds were discussed and it was decided that a bake sale would be held. (This was held February 6th in the Holden Meat Market).

Dwayne Marcinkoski thanked the treasurer, Marilyn Tymchuk for her talk on "Commercial Cattle Production in Alberta". Richard Tymchuk gave a report on record-keeping, and he was thanked by David Afseth.

Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Millar who spoke on the "Wild Life of the North". Dr. Millar was introduced by Steven Motkoski, who also thanked Mr. Millar at the conclusion of his talk.

Lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

The next meeting will be held on February 19th, when a skating party will be held.

Tofield girls win basketball trophy

Last Friday night the Viking basketball teams met the Tofield teams in Tofield, the Tofield girls winning their game 22-16, and the Tofield boys also won.

The Tofield girls have won seven games and lost two, which entitles them to the trophy donated by Gabe Pittet for the league winners. The boys have won five games and lost three and finished the season in second place. The tournament is to be held this year in the school of the girls' league winner and will therefore commence in the Tofield gym tomorrow evening.

TOURNEY SCHEDULE
On Friday, Feb. 12th, at 7:30 the Tofield girls will play the Viking girls. At 9:00 the Holden girls will play the Ryley girls.

On Saturday, Feb. 13th, at 9:00 in the morning, the Holden boys will play the Ryley boys. At 11:00 a.m., the Viking boys will play the Tofield boys. At 1:00 p.m., the girl losers will play; at 2:30 the boy losers will play; at 4:30 the girl winners will play; at 7:00 the boy winners will play.

Prices: Adult $1.00; Students 50c for the entire tournament. Everyone welcome.

After the games, a high school dance will be held with the visiting teams, coaches and cheerleaders invited.

Locals . . .

HERE FROM OREGON
Mrs. Blanche Hosler had as her guest last week her grandson Arthur Lewis of Albany, Oregon, U.S.A. Arthur also visited in Edmonton with his uncle, Gerald Hosler, and family, and the Ray Hosler family, returning home Saturday by plane.

1965

Who will you nominate ?

These enterprising young Albertans have good reason to be proud of themselves as have the public-spirited weekly newspaper readers who nominated them. This is why we are proud to award special certificates to the nominators of Alberta's Junior Citizens of the Year. Typical qualifications for Junior Citizen Awards are acts of courage, initiative, work done for community, church and in the home since August 1964. If you know a young person between 6 and 16 years (or a group) deserving of special recognition for any reason whatsoever, please help them to become Junior Citizens of the Year. Simply give the details to the editor of this newspaper.

Winners selected each year by a panel of Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors. All young people nominated will receive a special certificate of recognition.

Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year Awards are sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies with the co-operation of Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors.

Palmer - Earling

(Mrs Joe Knudson)

The Zion L.C.W. met Feb. 3 with Mrs. Allan Hellekson. The Bible study was led by Mrs. C. Bratrud. Offering for lunch $10.30. Next meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 17th with Mrs. Lyle Bratrud.

Pastor Palmer Olson, his brother Julius Olson, and sister, Mrs. T. Oseass motored to Peace River Wed. upon hearing of the sudden passing of their brother, Rudolph Olson.

Wednesday evening guests at the Anton Peter home were the Frank Urlachers, Joe Peters, Leo Urlachers of Bawlf, Philip Urlacher, Daysland, and the Henry Rienhart family, Bawlf.

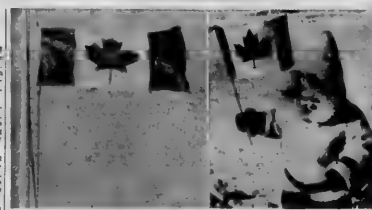
Friday night visitors who helped Morris Reum observe his birthday, were Grace, Vern Glen and Billy Reum, Carol Chapell, Noreen Campbell, Larry and Valerie Johnson, Garry Stenerud, Harold and Alf Reum, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stenerud and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reum, Philip, David and Alana.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Sam Lockhart underwent surgery in the Daysland hospital. The children Sidney and Mavis are presently staying with their grandparents the Henry Stenaruds.

The grade 10, 11, and 12 students at Ryley accompanied by three teachers, Paul Voegtlin Dennis Siminon and Diane Davis went by bus to Edmonton and enjoyed hearing the Symphony Orchestra (40 pieces) and a choir of 150 at the Jubilee Auditorium Tuesday night.

Hans Mosby and Lawrence Hoveland are patients in St. Mary's Hospital, Camrose.



THE BITTERNESS FORGOTTEN. After months of furore, on February 15 it becomes official . . . Canada will have a new flag. The maple leaf flag, chosen in December, will be raised proudly atop the Peace Tower of the Parliament Building, day before Parliament meets. Right, little Mark McDayter is too young a Canadian to know what all the fuss was about, but he thinks the new flag is certainly pretty. And by the time he's an adult, perhaps the bitterness that came with the birth of our nation's flag will be forgotten.

Mark anniversary

(Mary Mitchell)

KETCHAMOOT — A family gathering was held on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coombes on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was brought and served by their daughters, sons and families.

Mr. and Mrs. Coombes were married in Holden on February 8th, 1915, and settled on a farm in the Ketchamoot district where they have farmed all of their married life. They have three sons and three daughters, 14 grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter to give joy to their golden years.

Their children presented them with a television set. They received numerous telephone calls, gifts, cards and flowers.

Due to the road and weather conditions and illness, celebrations were postponed to a later date.

Modern Etiquette

Q. Is a man supposed to pay for everything during a date, even when she makes a telephone call?

A. Yes, without exception. If she has to make a call, have a dime ready, and if she runs out of cigarettes, produce a fresh pack. And if you're in a posh place which has a powder room with attendants, don't forget to ask if she needs some change.

Q. Do you approve of sending birthday cards or any kind of greeting card via third-class mail, that is, with the flap of the envelope tucked inside and unsealed?

A. No. Any sincere and heartfelt greeting should be a "first class" one, and deserves the dignity of a five-cent stamp.

Q. Isn't it the girl's privilege to select the table when entering a restaurant with a male escort?

A. No; she should allow her escort to do this.

Q. Just what is the proper way to get the attention of a waiter or waitress in a restaurant?

A. All that should be necessary is for the diner to raise his hand or one finger in a summoning gesture. If this fails, the diner may call softly, "Waiter", or "Waitress" (not "Miss"). No glass rapping or finger snapping, please! You may also ask another waiter or waitress to fetch yours.

Q. I've just received an invitation to something called "a trousseau tea". Exactly what is this, and am I expected to take a gift?

A. This is a very intimate tea party given by a bride-elect for her best girl friends, for the purpose of showing her trousseau. And you are not expected to take a gift.

Q. Is a woman ever introduced or presented to a man?

...s, but ONLY if he is an official of high rank, an ecclesiastical dignitary, or a very elderly man.

Q. If an usher at a church wedding doesn't recognize a guest, how does he know on which side of the church to seat him?

A. He may ask whether the guest is a friend or relative of the bride or groom. Of course, if the church is filling up on one side and the other is conspicuously empty, the usher may begin seating guests on either side in order to balance things up.

Q. When friends and guests come to your home to spend the evening watching television or playing cards, is it expected of the host or hostess to serve refreshments?

A. Certainly—if you want to be thought of as a GOOD host or hostess.

Q. At an informal dinner in a private home, where there is no maid, who starts the dishes around the table?

A. After the host or hostess begins passing some of the dishes nearest them, the guests pitch in and start the dishes nearest them.

Lakeshore -

Yvonne and Peter Brown of Ketchamont and Donald and Daryl Bertch of Edmonton were Sunday evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Yvonne's parents, Emil and Martha Tiedemann.

Mrs. Betty Chaddick and two little girls of Edmonton arrived Sunday at the home of her parents, Lionel and Emma Ferguson, and while here she has also been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jean Williams and family. She returned home on Wednesday.

Herb McAdam is still in the Tofield hospital where he has been a patient for the past two weeks. We all wish him a speedy recovery and hope he will soon be able to be up and around again.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Tillie Yurkowski is a patient in the Lamont hospital and all wish her a speedy recovery.

The weather lately has been quite changeable with one day thawing, the next snowing and blowing with temperatures dropping from 30 above to 20 below in less than 24 hours. Everyone hopes we will soon have more settled and warmer weather.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

Despite a stormy day church services were conducted at the United Church by student minister Les Smith of Edmonton.

RECREATION GRANT

A very good representation participated in a discussion regarding a grant by the provincial government for recreational purposes in the community at the Ministik Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 3rd at 8:30 p.m.

After many good suggestions it was decided to use this money towards improvement of the hall.

Several from the community attended the grocery bingo at Hastings Lake Hall on Saturday evening. Few who attended came home empty handed as a lot were fortunate enough to win one bingo or more. Among these were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Williams, Mrs. Russell Rowland, Mrs. Lloyd Grummett, Mrs. Claude Leach and Mrs. Andrew Ferguson.

A speedy recovery and continued good health are wished Mrs. Grace Grummett who underwent surgery on her leg in an Edmonton hospital recently.

The dance on Friday evening sponsored by the Community Club was enjoyed by all present. A very stormy night cut down the attendance.

Bill Reddick visited his dentist at Sherwood Park on Friday having several teeth extracted.

Alex Kleinschroth has been doing some carpentry work at Mrs. Norah Jame's home.

61st ANNIVERSARY

As in years past, Archie Flowers of Edmonton, bringing a lovely birthday cake, sandwiches and a bouquet of spring flowers surprised Mr. and Mrs. Alex McSporran on their 61st wedding anniversary. Among the guests were Mrs. Irene Williams and Mrs. S. George. A most enjoyable evening was had by all in attendance.

Ministik friends join in extending their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Norman Willmore in the tragic loss of her husband in an auto accident on Wednesday, Feb. 3rd.

Due to severe cold and stormy weather, your correspondent lacks news items for the column.

Palmer - Earling news items

PALMER-EARLING: Jan. 27 —Ingvald and Tom Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Eivald Aspenes, the Joe and Ed Knudsons were recent visitors at the Bob Beattie home.

Pastor P. Olson of Bawlf conducted Bible study at the Alvin Bratrud home Friday night.

Saturday supper guests at the Harry Johnson home were Mr. and Mrs. Gabelhaus, Diane and Gloria of Holden, Noreen and Diane Campbell, Ryley, the George Mosbys, Alvin and Lyle Bratruds, Allan Hellekson, Mrs. Anne Bratrud and Clifford Bratruds.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Throndson were Sunday visitors at Ed Knudson's.

BIRTHDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. Edof Wikhe were Sunday afternoon guests with Mrs. Alma Steffen, the day being her 73rd birthday. Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Steffen and Wanda were guests there for a lutefisk supper.

On Sunday, the Stenerud families were guests at the Cecil Stenerud home marking his mother, Mrs. Haakon Stenerud's 74th birthday January 12. Mrs. Don Campbell Sr., and Donald Law of Round Hill were also present.

Holden news

Due to the severe storm Friday night and blowing conditions Saturday morning, the rural mailman, Joe Alexander was unable to make his trip around Route #1 having to turn back due to badly drifted roads.

The annual meeting of South Holden Mutual Telephone Co. was postponed from Saturday, February 6, and will now be held Saturday afternoon, February 20, in the Masonic Hall.

North Holden Mutual Telephone Co. annual meeting will be held Saturday, February 13 in the Masonic Hall at 2:30 p.m.

Dave Hladilo of Edmonton was a weekend visitor this past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hladilo.

Around town . . .

Mrs. Roberts spent the weekend in Edmonton with her daughter and family, returning home Saturday.

SHOWER HONORS LOCAL BRIDE

A miscellaneous shower was held last Saturday evening in the United Church basement, in honor of Mrs. Hamilton (nee Dianna Hardy), when over 30 friends of the bride gathered to wish her happiness in the future. Her sister, Gerry Hardy, and cousin, Marion Hardy, helped her unwrap the many beautiful and useful gifts after which Dianna thanked everyone and for coming out in the storm. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star.

HERE DOES HE REST. This is the site in St. Martin's churchyard near Blenheim Palace at Bladon, Oxfordshire, where Sir Winston Churchill is buried. The tall stone cross, right, marks the grave of Sir Winston's father, Lord Randolph Churchill. Sir Winston often visited the gravesite of his father and mother, pointing to above spot, and saying, "Here I shall be buried."

Lakeshore-McKenzie

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

The Lakeshore UCW will meet at the home of Mrs. Mae Ferguson on Wednesday, Feb. 17th at 2 p.m., weather and roads permitting. Please try to be early. Visitors are always welcome. Read the first two chapters of Genesis before writing out the answer to the question.

Johnny and Gloria Wood and Mrs. Ethel Wood and son Donald were Sunday evening visitors and supper guests at the home of Johnny's parents, John and Mary Wood.

Mrs. Ida Siemens is attending the croup clinic in Edmonton this week.

Wednesday of last week dinner guests at the home of Carl and Mavis Jacobsen were Carl's parents, Julius and Martha Jacobsen, also his uncle, Bill Wolfe, all of Edmonton. They later visited Martha and Bill's sister, Bertha and Roe Phillips in Tofield, and their brother-in-law, Jack Miller, in the Tofield hospital.

Sympathy of the district is extended to the Conrad Simonson family on the death of Conrad's brother, Martin, last week, and to all members of the Simonson families and other relatives.

JIM CANNON PASSES

Sympathy also goes to Mrs. Mildred Cannon of Edmonton whose husband, Jim, passed away on Friday. It also goes to the Cannon families of Innisfail and Viking and other relatives of Mildred and Jim. Mildred will be remembered as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Graham, formerly of the Lakeshore district, where she lived as a young girl and attended high school at both McKenzie and Tofield schools.

Donna and Frank Edwards of Edmonton spent the weekend at the home of Donna's parents, Mae and Howard Ferguson. On Saturday, Mae and son Nelson accompanied Donna and Frank on a business trip to Elk Point. After returning Donna and Frank left for their home in Edmonton on Sunday afternoon.

Tom and Elsie Basaraba and son Darrell of Chipman were Monday dinner guests and afternoon visitors at the home of Howard and Mae Ferguson. Later Monday, Willie Nashman was an evening visitor and supper guest there.

Aud-ities

by Aud Jorgenson

"The Spread of the Eagle", a Sunday afternoon TV program, is something which I feel is worth the time and attention of all TV viewers and should be of special interest to High School students studying Shakespeare and Roman history. Julius Caesar is now being played in part installments and I suggest that parents take a special interest in these programs and encourage their children to watch them.

It's a standing belief among teachers that nothing makes learning easier than seeing, and visual helps are fast becoming a major part of the classroom. When things like these are made so readily available to the student at home, it seems a shame to pass them by. Programs similar to this offer one of the few remaining arguments in favor of the worth of this thing which has otherwise been termed a mechanical menace to the student.

And it's not only the student that I feel would benefit from this type of show, but parents and younger children should also be able to appreciate a little of this culture. There is enough drama in Shakespeare's plays to appeal to even the youngest, and it is only the criticism of older people who continually suggest that this type of entertainment is dry and boring, that convinces younger people this kind of literature isn't worth their time.

Once again I impress upon the student that this is well worth your time and effort and may even help you gain a few marks on those finals where your understanding of Shakespeare counts rather heavily. If for no other reason than this, it would be to your advantage to spend a half-hour increasing your scope of literary enjoyment.

Bardo LCW to aid children in Alaska

(Mrs. C. M. Rude)

BARDO Feb. 10th — The Bardo LCW met at the home of Mrs. Ingvald Erickson wednesday afternoon, Feb. 3rd. Mrs. Mabel Johnson gave the devotion, and Mrs. Patricia Litwin led the Bible study "The Law of Love". Mrs. Nita Kindley read the offering meditation.

It was decided to send $50.00 toward the building of a children's home in Alaska. It was also decided to visit the Bethany Home in Camrose with a program on March 18th, if the date was suitable, when each member will bring a towel, dish cloth or pot holder. Mrs. Olive Fosbaug, Mrs. Evelyne Stauffer and Mrs. Beatrice Mosby were chosen by the stewardship secretary, Mrs. Alice Stubkjaa, to act on the work committee.

The roll call was answered by 19 members with a favorite Bible passage, and Mrs. Louis Lerbekmo of Oyaking Lake, Mrs. Petra Stauffer and Mrs. Sharon Strom from Tofield were visitors.

Mrs. Agnes Heimdal and Mrs. Diane Reil assisted the hostess with the serving of lunch. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyne Fosbaug.

Says W. M. Browne, Toronto Caretakers, Toronto, Ontario. "We have used panel trucks of various makes for the past 15 years. Nine months ago we put six Chevy-Vans into service and, from our experience with these, we have purchased six more.

"Accurate comparative analysis of our vehicle operation proves Chevy-Vans to be most economical. The six-cylinder engine is sadly lively with plenty of power. Gas mileage is very good and has given us a substantial saving per unit.

"Manoeuvrability in city traffic is excellent, resulting in reduced time between calls. Mechanically, Chevy-Vans have proved to be first-class—we have had no failures.

"In summary, I would say that Chevy-Vans are far superior to any units we have previously operated."

Cr. Moved and carried that it be recommended to the Dept. of Public Health and to the Flagstaff-Beaver Auxiliary Hospital Board that consideration be given to have the present Tofield Municipal Hospital converted into a nursing home and a new hospital constructed to take its place.

Community suffers loss in passing of Mrs. Abernethy

The recent death of Mrs. Maggie Abernethy, a highly respected and much loved member of that rapidly diminishing group we know as the pioneers, came as a deep loss to family and friends. She made her presence felt in her home and neighbourhood by an unobtrusive but complete giving of herself in service to those whose lives touched hers.

Margaret May Wood was born in Kansas in 1880, and moved, while a baby, with her parents and two older children to a farm in Oklahoma on the Cherokee Strip, that had been won by her father, the late Henry Wood, in the famous race in 1889.

HERE IN 1901

In 1901, Mr. and Mrs. Wood and their seven children came to what was then the North West Territories, arriving at Wetaskiwin in September, and travelling by horse and wagon to Tofield. Maggie had started her schooling in Oklahoma, and after coming to Tofield, attended the old Tofield, Logan and Lakeshore schools.

In 1905, Mr. and Mrs. Wood moved, from their farm, now part of the townsite of Tofield, to a homestead north of town in the Lakeshore district. Here they established a home that was known far and wide for its hospitality to friends and strangers alike, and famous for Maggie's delicious baking.

When Maggie was in her early teens, Mrs. Wood suffered a serious illness and never fully regained her health, and the burden of housekeeping and mothering the younger members of the large family, became almost wholly Maggie's. As time went on and family members moved away to establish their own homes, they never failed to gather at Christmas and on Maggie's birthday, drawn together by the one who had been the heart of their home for so many years.

In the spring of 1937, she went to live with her brother, Lloyd and was there till after her marriage to George Abernethy in 1941.

Many of the large crowd that gathered to pay their last respects recalled the countless kindnesses received from Maggie's generous hands. Typical of these memories was that of one pioneer woman who said, "We would never have had the courage to stay and face another Alberta winter had not Maggie's kindness to us that first year."

Maggie had a wonderful sense of value that made it possible for her to make important the things that should be important —and her quiet but keen sense of humor enabled her to put lesser things in their proper perspective. She took great pleasure in her garden and shared her flowers and vegetables with all who called. Never too busy to help others in time of need, she also rejoiced with them in their good fortune. A member of the Lakeshore United Church and the Lakeshore WA, she served as president of the latter for several years and was presented with a life membership by that group in recognition of her faithful service.

Mrs. Abernethy passed away January 15th, and was buried in the Tofield Cemetery January 18th. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Richter, a long-time friend, from the Tofield United Church. The pallbearers were Jim Francis, Ted Gray, Elmer Geoghegan, Joe Jones, T. D. Ferguson and Doug Murray, all friends and neighbors of long standing.

The numerous floral tributes and memorials bore silent testimony to the high regard in which Mrs. Abernethy was held.

Gordey addresses FUA on 'marketing board'

Alex Gordey, M.L.A. was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Tofield local of the FUA last Wednesday. The meeting, attended by over 80 members, was one of the best attended meetings for many years, which attests to the interest in Mr. Gordey's subject, "Marketing Boards." Mr. Gordey outlined the present thinking and proposed legislation on this matter. He stated that the provincial government for assessing marketing plans submitted by a commodity group and to advise these groups on how best to achieve their objectives. This council would also make recommendations to the cabinet and would be called upon to supervise the operation of boards which would be established. He also gave the meeting an outline of the manner in which established boards operated in Ontario and the experience of the Manitoba groups to date.

RESOLUTIONS

Following his address, two resolutions were presented. The first was a resolution requesting the government to change the present voting registered voters in favor. The meeting was of the opinion that this was not in keeping with accepted democratic procedures where 51% of the votes cast was sufficient to carry an election.

The second resolution dealt with eligibility of voters. The present regulations state that anyone marketing five hogs in the previous year is considered an eligible producer and thus eligible to vote in a plebiscite. The meeting passed the resolution that a producer would be eligible to vote only if he sold $360.00 worth of hogs in the previous year. This resolution received considerable discussion but was passed despite considerable opposition.

MOTION REJECTED

Mike Tchir spoke at some length regarding the necessity for more concern about the present grading system. He insisted that if present grading standards were improved there would be no need for changing the present marketing setup. Chairman Jim Tymchuk ruled that his motion was out of order inasmuch as the subjects under discussion were matters dealing with voting procedures and suggested that he bring his motion to a subsequent meeting.

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Feb. 13. — On Sunday, Feb. 7th, Mr. and Mrs. George Albrecht with all their family met at the farm home of their son John, the occasion being to celebrate the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht, who were married in 1905.

All the family were present, three sons and six daughters. Their son Richard of Vancouver, B.C., visited for a few days with his parents before returning home last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht have 24 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs Albrecht have been residents of the district and Holden for many years and have been quite active until this last winter, when they were ill with severe attacks of the 'flu. We wish this happy couple many more years in our midst and returning good health in the near future when warmer weather comes.

Agricultural Service Board hears report on conference at Two Hills

The Service Board conference at Two Hills in December was discussed by members of the County of Beaver Agricultural Service Board at their meeting held January 30th. The members felt that this was one of the best conferences of this type they had attended. However, some of the board members felt that more time should be taken up by service board members and less by government officials, as these officials should be present to find out what changes in policy or legislation are required by municipalities.

It was found that Rex Boyles was appointed to a committee to arrange a program for the next conference, and it was felt he should be advised of any topics the board would like discussed. Such topics were mentioned —crop insurance and public relations. A small portion of the County will be in tree crop insurance area, and after a crop season some discussion on this point would be advantageous. Public relations concerning service board work and aims should be discussed, as there seems to be a lack of understanding respecting the true purpose of a service board.

RECLAMATION

The provincial department of agriculture through the field crops branch submitted a land reclamation project to ARDA, which has been approved.

The objectives of the program are to provide on road allowances. The water felt that this would be a county responsibility, as most farmers do not have the equipment necessary to do this job and that roadsides are too steep for cutting. Also, some of the weeds have been introduced by the County from gravel pits. The letter was received and filed.

The field supervisor said in report, "Since the last meeting, Dana's vaccination and pre

World Day of Prayer service on March 5th

The Women's World Day of Prayer service is held each year on the first day in Lent following Ash Wednesday. This call to prayer issued by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada started in a very humble way, originating in the hearts of a few Christian women. It was not always interdenominational nor was it always international. In 1887 the Presbyterian women in the United States began observing a day for united prayer for home missions. For many years home and foreign mission groups observed days of prayer separately, but in 1919 they came together and a committee representing both national organizations prepared a program entitled "Christ and the World We Bring".

In Canada in the year 1918 a committee was set up, convened by Miss Bessie MacMurchy, who later became the treasurer and for 22 years served most faithfully a cause she dearly loved. The committee was composed of a group of women with true Christian vision and outstanding ability who were brave enough to follow an untrodden path—an inter-denominational day of prayer for women. The first of these services was held in 1920, and in 1922 they joined with the women of the United States who were similarly planning and the first International Day of Prayer was held. At the request of interested women in other lands it became the World Day of Prayer in 1927.

After World War II having in mind the critical needs of the post-war world and observing the fact that the World Day of Prayer observance should not be limited to members of missionary societies, but was meant to unite all Christian women, including young women and girls in fellowship and service, plans for advance were made. At the annual meeting held on May 15th, 1946, the inter-board service the theme being "Christ the World We Bring".

MODERN MIRACLE

The World Day of Prayer is a modern miracle with the services held and the offering received increasing year by year. For this we are grateful to God who gave this day in which Christian women worship together around the world as an expression of their united witness. This year of service is

ATA plans for Education Week

The Tofield A.T.A. sub-local held its regular meeting on Feb. 9th.

Attention was drawn to Education Week which will be held March 7th-14th. In order to provide better relations between the Home and School during this time Mr Cribb's Grade X social studies class will stage a mock town council meeting, to which the public will be invited.

Another activity of the Week will be an A.T.A. meeting, at which Dr Harper from the University will speak on the topic, "Mental Health."

The annual Teachers' Bonspiel will be held in Viking on March 20th.

Mrs. Rude is hostess to Bardo WCTU meet

(Mrs. C. M. Rude)

BARDO Feb 15th The WCTU met at the home of Mrs. Borghild Rude on Wednesday afternoon, opening with the president reading a poem. Mrs. Pauline Rude read Psalm 121 for devotion.

It was decided to have a speech contest, the tentative date set for March 20th. A nominating committee was elected and Mrs. Pauline Rude, Mrs. Marie Frances and Mrs. Nita Kindley were chosen.

"Lest we forget" was the clip sheet read by four of the members, paying tribute to Frances Willard, founder of the WCTU.

A marble statue of Miss Willard is the only statue of a woman placed among those of the greatest men that lived in the U.S. in the Statuary Hall, Washington.

The meeting adjourned with the repeating of the motto and the hostess served lunch to ten members and the visitor, Mrs. Verna Hart.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Selma Cinnamon. This will be the annual meeting and reports will be given.

Canadian pictures shown to students

The two Grade VIII classes had the privilege on Tuesday of being shown slides of Ontario, Quebec and the Maritimes by James Francis.

Since the class is working on the beginning of Canada in their Social Studies unit, these pictures were of great interest.

Re-union for 'Fusiliers'

Plans for an All-Ranks, all-battalions re-union of the Edmonton Fusiliers have been arranged starting with a smorgasbord dinner at the Norwood Legion (82nd Street and 112th Avenue Edmonton, for 6 30 p m. Friday March 12 Any former Fusilier interested is asked to contact Jack Clucas, former R.S.M. of the 2nd and 3rd Battalions, at 11202 - 60th Street, telephone 479-2237.

Committee members include six former Fusiliers drawn from the 1908 Regiment, 1st, 2nd and 3rd Battalions.

Valentine tea is huge success

The Junior Hi Valentine Tea was a huge success due to the excellent attendance of parents and friends.

The Valentine motif was carried out in decorations of pink and silver. Large pink and silver hearts were joined by pink streamers to decorate the sides of the gym. On the end wall of the gym was displayed a collection of Valentines of many years ago. The tea table featured a Valentine centerpiece and was emphasized by pink, white and silver streamers. Suspended from the ceiling was a huge hoop from which silver cupids and pink hearts moved in the air currents. Cupid table centres and pink candy baskets decorated the tables for the guests.

An added feature to this year's tea was the crowning of the Queen of Hearts. The six nominees were Donna Mosby and Lynn Astley from Grade VII, Gwen Sears and Leona Thiessen from Grade VIII, Gwen Klassen and Louella Schacker from Grade IX. Mr. Lampitt, vice-principal of the Tofield school, anonunced Louella Schacker as the winner and crowned her as the Queen of Hearts. All the contestants were presented with boxes of chocolates. The Queen received a heart-shaped pendant as a token of her sovereignty. The Queen then drew the lucky ticket, the owner of which was Douglas Fleseth, who received a heart-shaped box of chocolates.

The students and staff of the Tofield Junior Hi wish to thank all those who supported [illegible] yearly effort.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Members of the Friendship Group are arranging the program for the World Day of Prayer which will be in conjunction with members of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid in the United Church. Those interested are asked to keep this date in mind. This is a service held all over the world on this date, the first Friday in Lent, 5th of March.

We were pleased to hear that Mrs. Joe Hendel, who is a patient in Tofield hospital, is making good progress after recent surgery and hope she will soon be home again.

HOME FROM SOUTH

Hans Huseby returned home a week ago from his trip to Las Vegas and Los Angeles, where he and several friends spent a month holidaying. Mr. Huseby reported good weather, with a couple of nights down to about 30 degrees. Other places were having very bad weather and road conditions were poor.

Mike Chupka was to Tofield Wednesday of last week to bring home his mother who has been a patient in the hospital at Tofield for the past three weeks, having treatments for arthritis.

Geo. H. Taylor, co-ordinator of the County of Beaver No. 9 EMO unit, and Joe Chamulka, EMO co-ordinator for the village of Holden, attended the regular meeting of co-ordinators and directors, Monday afternoon, Feb. 8th, in the county office, Ryley.

Mrs. J. A. Giebelhaus, who was visiting with her daughter, Dorothy, and family at Ar[illegible] for two weeks, returned home at the weekend a week ago.

HOLIDAY IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Carrie Olson heard from her son, Harry, who is holidaying in England, that he had spent a week visiting around London and was then going to visit various localities in Sussex where he was stationed with the Canadian Army during World War II.

Mr. Jeglum, brother of Mrs. Lars Olson, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Olson, was taken to a hospital in Edmonton Wednesday of last week for treatments to an infected foot.

George H. Taylor was a business visitor at the county office in Ryley Wednesday afternoon attending to affairs concerning EMO.

Harold Giebelhaus has been helping Metro Poole in the store while T. A. Liden and Mrs. Liden have been spending a three-week holiday in California with their daughter and family, the Gordon Hafsos.

Mrs Angus Keith was forced to stay in the village overnight Thursday of last week owing to the stormy conditions and they [illegible] home on the Friday morning after the snow plow went through their road.

The Holden Lodge, OORP, held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 9th. In spite of poor weather, there was a good turn-out of members. The usual business was attended to and a donation made to St. Mary's Home, Edmonton. Lodge work was practised for the annual inspection which will be at the March meeting. The hostesses for the evening were Ladies Taylor and Siner.

AT CHRISTENING

Mr and Mrs Cliff Foran took their daughter, Mrs. Bob Ratke, and two children, who have been visiting from New Westminster, B.C., to Edmonton a week ago Saturday, to meet Mr. Ratke, who had been been attending a convention in Calgary. Mr. and Mrs. Foran attended the christening of their new granddaughter the following Sunday, who was named for her great-grandmother, Mrs. Grace Foran, and great - great - grandmother, the late Mrs. Mary Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Ratke and children returned to their home the early part of the week.

IN HOSPITAL

Larry Strilchuk, eldest son of Mr and Mrs. Paul Strilchuk, has been a hospital patient in Tofield for the past three weeks. He had an infected knee which he has been having drained, and now has an infection in his hip, and is receiving treatments and X-rays. We hope it will not be too long before he is able to come home.

Mrs. Mary James spent the past week in Edmonton, having eye tests and visiting with friends. She also was [illegible] her son Arthur of Vancouver, B.C., who had been attending a convention at both Banff and Calgary, and who was to be in Edmonton Friday on his way to Prince George on business before returning home to Vancouver. Mrs. James and her son visited together Friday, and Mrs. James returned home by bus Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevan Kondrat and children were visitors over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kondrat.

Mrs. Derkach, teacher in the Holden High School, was away from her teaching duties the end of last week, due to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Malowany, of Edmonton, were visiting over the weekend with Paul's mother, Mrs. Malowany.

Ryley and district news briefs

(M. K. Westmancoat)

Mrs Roland Booth has returned home this week from her trip to Oshawa Ont., and reports having an enjoyable holiday, with even the weather co-operating fairly well. She found both Vern and Gordon well and studying hard for their exams.

Mrs. Betty Weins has returned to her home after being hospitalized in Tofield for quite a long stay. She is now feeling much improved in health, and we trust this feeling will continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nerassen returned over the weekend from two weeks' visit at Athabasca.

When the County of Beaver hold their annual ratepayers' meeting on Saturday, Mar. 6th, the Lutheran Church Women will be serving a waffle lunch all day, commencing at 10 a.m. in the dining room.

Taking advantage of the two-day holiday from school during the teachers' convention, Miss Valerie Main of Edmonton came to visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Halberg. When the short holiday was over, Mr. and Mrs. Halberg took their granddaughter home, and stayed over the weekend in Edmonton to visit with their daughter, Norma, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Main.

Mrs. Lavina Loades is visiting in Calgary with her daughter, Gerry, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tiedemann and family.

There was no Lutheran Sunday School this week due to the snow-blocked roads.

Madeleine Budinski and children of Edmonton spent a long weekend visiting with Madeleine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pope.

EDUCATION WEEK

To mark Education Week March 7th to 13th Ryley elementary teachers are sponsoring a meeting at the school on the evening of Wednesday Mar. 10th, for parents of the children attending their classes. The topics are the new arithmetic program, and the continuous program plans for grouping in reading. Parents are asked to attend for the meeting has been planned to foster understanding of the new method and change.

Mrs Hazel Davidson is a patient in an Edmonton hospital.

4-H'ers attend winter rally

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY — One of the most popular of 4-H social activities was held on Saturday, Feb. 13, when the annual curling and skating rally was held in Viking. It was a poor day for travelling, and many members living in the country couldn't get through the snow-blocked roads to attend, but still over 100 members were there to spend a very pleasant day on the ice. The ladies of Viking and district were kept busy supplying the hungry members and grown-ups accompanying them with hot dogs, coffee, and pie. Six clubs from Ryley were represented, who went to Viking in a school bus driven by Edwin Kloepper.

Shower fetes Joan Ferrel

(Iris Bilan)

ROSS CREEK — A bridal shower was held Saturday evening, Feb. 13th at Ross Creek to honor Miss Joan Ferrel, who is to be married in the near future. As Saturday was a very stormy day, and many roads were impassable due to high snow drifts, many were unable to attend, although 22 ladies were present, as well as a number of teen-age girls.

The hall was very prettily decorated in a Valentine theme by Joan's sister, Ruth. Joan, the bride-elect, was very attractively attired in a midnight-blue brocade dress, accented with a red rose corsage. Entertainment was provided by Miss Lorna Ferrel and Miss Barbara Wuetherick, both cousins of the bride-to-be, who arranged the shower. Very nice prizes were awarded to the winners of the contests held.

After Joan had opened her lovely gifts and thanked everyone present, a delicious lunch was served.

Tofield High defeats Ryley

The Ryley and Tofield Junior High basketball teams met in Tofield on February 9th. This was a very important game for the Tofield Junior High School as they were competing for the Western County championship. The Ryley girls had beaten Tofield once before and the Tofield girls were determined to win this semi-final championship. And win it they did by a score of 24-5. The Ryley girls played well and never gave up but Tofield ended as well as they started, scoring 16 points in the first half and eight in the second half.

The Tofield girls, coached by Mr Burke, will play two games against Bruce, the Eastern County champions, for the county championship. The first of these games will be on February 17th in Bruce.

MINISTIK NEWS

Holden news briefs

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Miss Anne Appleby, student at the University of Alberta, was a visitor last weekend with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Bert Appleby.

OORP ANNIVERSARY

Saturday evening, Feb. 6th, the members of the OORP lodge entertained their husbands and escorts at a sumptuous turkey supper, the occasion being to celebrate their 19th anniversary. In spite of the stormy weather, there was a very good attendance. After supper various card games were played, the evening concluding with a late lunch. Zane Iiilyk, Exalted Ruler of the Holden BPO Elks, offered a vote of thanks to the ladies for the delicious supper and pleasant evening.

The Marshall Slywkas of Edmonton visited with Mrs. William Slywka over the weekend.

Miss Carol Hurum, who is teaching in Viking was visiting Saturday and Sunday of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hurum.

81st BIRTHDAY

On Monday, Feb. 8th, Mrs. Maurice Ruskenveld entertained at tea to honor Mrs. Oscar Ruskenveld who was celebrating her 81st birthday. About 20 ladies were present to offer their good wishes and congratulations to the honored guest. Mrs. Ruskenveld still keeps fairly active although her doctor has forbid her taking her usual long walks. She is a member of the Ladies' Legion Auxiliary and rarely misses a meeting. Her many friends offer good wishes to this cheery lady and hope she will have many more happy days with us.

Nestor Semotuik attended the convention of frozen food locker plants held at Red Deer on Sunday and Monday of last week.

Rev and Mrs William Beckstead and family of Edmonton visited with friends around the village last Friday. They were dinner guests with Mr and Mrs. Earl Hardy and afternoon visitors with Mr and Mrs. Henry Tiedemann.

Mrs. Alfred Sorensen and David were visitors in Edmonton Friday where David was having dental work done.

Stuart MacGregor who is at present employed at Golden, B.C., visited for several days a week ago with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don MacGregor.

Mrs. Annie Kolodychuk has closed her residence and is staying for the present with her son Mike A. Komarnisky, and Mrs. Komarnisky.

Mr and Mrs Joe Mothoski were visitors and evening coffee guests with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gardecki a week ago Sunday. Also visiting the Gardeckis the same evening were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wandio and family.

Mr and Mrs Mike Chupka were in Edmonton Sunday and Monday of last week, visiting and on business.

Ministik Ladies' Club has annual meeting

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK — The annual meeting of the Ministik Ladies' Club was held at the home of Mrs Albert Herricks on Wednesday Feb 10th. with 13 members present.

Roll call was the exchange of Se Valentines which were all very lovely.

Officers remain the same as last year as they were voted in for two years at that time.

Reports were read from each committee, Mrs. S. George: Christmas tree report by Mrs. Ian Reddick. gift report by Mrs. Ronald Swabey; and financial report for the year by Mrs Donna Jones, secretary.

Requisitions for 1965 were made up, $80 being sent to six differeny charities among them being the TB fund, the Heart fund, Crippled Children's fund and Retarded Children's fund.

It was decided to have a grocery bingo on Friday, Feb 19th, with Barbara Herricks as convenor.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Keith Williams, Mrs. Martha Rosyle and Mrs. Verdun Swarn.

Roll call for the March meeting is "a bad habit I should break". The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Whitford.

Merlin Simonson, 51, passes away Feb. 4th

Merlin Thoreau Simonson passed away February 4, 1965, in the St. Mary's Hospital, Camrose, at the age of 51 years, 7 months and 14 days. He was born in Kingman, Alberta, on June 18th, 1913.

On October 10, 1939, he was united in marriage to Miss Josephine Thompson, and they made their home at Kingman except for six years while they resided at Gwynne Alberta.

Mr. Simonson i. survived by his loving wife; Miss four daughters, Elaine (Mrs. Orval Sunburn, Marlene (Mrs. Ken Daley) Alton all of Camrose and Trudeau and one son, Dwayne both of Kingman; three grandchildren, Valerie, Judiary and Trent; his mother Mrs. Christine Simonson; four sisters, and two brothers.

Funeral service was held in the Hoveland Funeral Home Chapel on February 6, at 2:30 p.m., with Rev. Warbe officiating. The service was as follows: Opening prayer; Scripture reading; solo, "There's A Land That Is Fairer Than Day", by Mrs. Warbe; the obituary was then read, followed by a poem, "God's Beyond"; solo, "Beyond The Sunset", by Mrs. Warbe. The message was based on Psalm 23. We have the assurance of God's constant presence; "The Lord "IS" my Shepherd". God has prepared a place. Let us keep our appointment. Closing prayer.

Card of Thanks

May the Lord's blessing and reward be unto each and every friend, relative and neighbor who has liberally given of themselves on our behalf at this time and during the illness of our husband and father. We give God the glory for surrounding us with your prayers and concern, also for the memorials and floral tributes.

—Mrs. Simonson and Family

Abnormal cases?

Ottawa, Ontario.

Editor, The Mercury:

The Metaphysical Society concerns itself with the varied manifestations of psychic phenomena, and is interested in any experiences with extra-sensory perception which Canadians may have had.

Would you be so kind as to print this letter in order that any of your readers who has experienced supernormal incidents, and would care to tell about them, might write to the Society. All such letters would receive personal replies, and would either be kept confidential or recorded in our publications, according to the writer's preference.

Anyone who would like to contribute an incident should try to state the date and place of the occurrence, giving as much detail as possible. Information on ethnic origin is also helpful for cross reference purposes, but this is entirely up to the writer.

Thank you for your consideration.

J. McCann (Mrs.)
Secretary.

Ben Bowerman passes Feb. 10th

MINISTIK — Ben Bowerman passed away quietly at Jubilee Lodge in Edmonton on Wednesday, Feb 10th

Funeral services were held at the Ministik United Church on Saturday, Feb. 13th, at 3 p.m. with Rev. W. McDonald of Tofield in charge. Mr. H Gunhorn brought the personal message and prayer

Mr Bowerman will be greatly missed by all who knew him for his wit and humor and for being the good neighbor he was while residing here.

He was a member of the United Church here and took an active part in the community until failing health two years ago forced him to a quieter life. Since the death of his wife, Enid, two years ago, he has resided in the Jubilee Lodge in Edmonton.

He is survived by one son, Baden; one daughter, Mrs. J. A. Cordingley of Boyle, Alta.; and three grandsons, Myron and Brian Bowerman, and Alan Cordingley.

Interment was in South Cooking Lake cemetery with Hainstock Funeral Home in charge.

Ross Creek hosts Chipman bonspiel

(Iris Bilan)

ROSS CREEK — Owing to the lack of ice at Chipman Curling Rink, two events of the Chipman High School curling bonspiel were held at Ross Creek on Saturday, Feb. 13th, and Sunday Feb 14th. A number of Chipman teen-agers came out on the school bus on Friday evening and stayed with Ross Creek families until the end of the spiel. With the stormy weather of Saturday blowing huge snow drifts across the country roads some players were unable to get out, but other players ably substituted and the spiel went ahead as scheduled. Sunday after the snow plow had opened up some of the roads, there was a good attendance of players and persons.

First event winners were: 1, Wayne Markevich; 2, Monie Malcolm; 3, Harold Antonish; 4, Lorne Haines.

Second Event: 1, Donald Zinger; 2, Brock Snider; 3, Cal Wunsch; 4, Jim Eglesnik.

The Wayne Markevich rink, with lead Johnny Zasko, second Ken Sharun, and third Gregory Bilan, played the last game with the Monie Malcolm rink as opposition. Wayne and his rink were victorious, thus winning the Grand Challenge. A big vote of thanks goes out to Donald and Ken Markevich, Donald for working in the lunch booth Saturday afternoon, and all day Sunday, and to Ken for attending the ice during that time, and to John Ferrel and Joseph Bilan for helping out on Saturday morning.

Ross Creek district news briefs

(Iris Bilan)

Lawrence Woytowich, Scott Malcolm, Stuart Snider and Lorraine McLachlan curled on Saturday in a one-day spiel at Vegreville, while Gayele McLachlan curled with the Frank Chelak rink, taking the first prize in the second event.

Congratulations to Miss Joanne McLachlan and Jim Carter who announced their engagement recently.

Monday, Feb. 15th. was the birthday of Debbie Yez, and Gloria Russell, Gregory and Desmond Bilan were Debbie's guests in the evening. Each enjoyed a large portion of Debbie's lovely birthday cake a gift from Debbie's grandmother.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Peter Stadnik, who has been a patient in the Archer Memorial Hospital, is now home again.

Friday, Feb. 12th. was the birthday of Howard Malcolm when supper guests with Howard and Noel were Graham and Elma Snider and family.

Thursday afternoon Gertie Ferrel and Iris Bilan visited with Mary Ferrel and Wilma Gibson at the Archer Memorial Hospital. Lemuel Wilms has now returned home

Bruce Chanth of Chipman was a weekend guest at the home of Ralph and Alice Cosey. Bruce was one of the participants in the bonspiel held at Ross Creek Sunday. Supper guests at the Cosney home were Bruce's parents removed from behind the three. Cold weather and bad roads hindered the progress of the campaign. 38 herds were mained in Dr Stiles' area during the first round where farmers did not co-operate or have calves home. 12 herds were missed in Dr. Bilchird's area, and most of these herds will be done by Jan. 30. Co-operation was good during the second round of vaccination 7,389 calves were done to December 24, approximately 1,000 more will be vaccinated during January.

A "quilting bee" was held at the home of Mrs. Olga Eglesnik on Wednesday. Six ladies worked hard and long, completing the quilt, which is to be sold by the Ross Creek United Church Women.

"Sixty coyote pelts and 9 magpie bills were released since the last report. Thirteen farmers have requested the use of coyote traps. These traps were very effective when used according to instructions

The County Spring Unit was serviced and stored in Viking as a rural fire fighting unit."

SPRAYING

Rex Boyles mentioned that the roadside spraying was not as effective last year due to the dry weather and shortage of water. He said this year he would like to use both spraying units and start about June 1st.

Stan Powers suggested that the board should look into the hiring of farmers with boom sprayers to do some of the roadside spraying. He said this is done in some areas with good success.

There was some discussion on the use of different chemicals at Ryley. The sale of chemicals was down a few points compared to the other outles. It was felt that the board should probably have an agent other than the office, who would be able to talk to and deal problems with the farmers and whose hours would be more suitable, and it was moved and carried that the board recommend the appointment of the Wheat Pool fieldman agent in Ryley to sell weed chemicals on a commission basis.

Stan Powers mentioned there were rumors that the Province of Saskatchewan was subsidizing the freight on feed. He advised that this was not true.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Don Carlisle returned to her home on Thursday afternoon after spending ten days in the Tofield Hospital.

Last Wednesday evening, Agnes McGhee attended the birthday party for Ester Henderson at her home at Amisk Creek.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Webb of Edmonton (nee Lorraine Lee), a daughter on February 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Parrett of Mansville were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sutton. They were forced to an extra day or two due to the snow blocked roads.

manager of ALC, was called on to give his impressions on marketing boards and he indicated that the function of such a board would be very similar to that now served by the ALC. The main difference being that presently it is voluntary and only 25% of the hogs are sold on a competitive market through ALC. This 25% thus set the price for the other 75% which are sold directly to plants. With 75% of the hogs going direct to plants had, he said, had a depressing effect on the market.

Mr. Winkler stated that he had visited Ontario to view the operations of the marketing board there and indicated that he was highly impressed with its operation. He predicted that in a few years changes would be forthcoming in the marketing arrangements in this province which would improve the farmer's position in the market place.

M&I

Chairman Tymchuk advised the members that the Holden Local would offer M&I to its members if sufficient interest was shown by the membership. He suggested that all members wishing to avail themselves of Group Medical Services Insurance should contact him or the secretary, George Hunchak. prior to the next meeting when a decision would be made on the matter.

more than a program and should not be discarded after the meeting is over. It has been prepared and adopted with the utmost care and study and contains material that could be used as inspiration for private and public devotional periods and valuable information for reference such as the list of allocations of offerings always to be found on the last page.

More than 3000 groups observe the World Day of Prayer. This number does not include the many of whom we are not informed the shut-ins who receive the order of service in their missionary magazines or leaflettes, the family group and the isolated little circles out of touch because away from the beaten path. Many follow the service by means of Braille or who listen to recordings of the service. However, there are still scores and even hundreds in our towns and cities, country districts and villages who are not yet conscious of the opportunity of this day. Also there is abundant reason to hope that as more women join in intercession the ministry of giving may be more widely extended.

The world theme this year is "What doth the Lord Require".

The call churches alternate for the World Day of Prayer service. This year the service is to be held in Holy Trinity Anglican Church at 2.30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all women of the town and district churches to avail themselves of the opportunity of attending this world wide service.

All district roads were snowbound again for another weekend. Each week seems to be worse than the one before. Many farmers face the grim task of getting to snow covered stacks of feed in their fields. This is a winter that will be long remembered for the heavy snowfall.

Sharon Ingram and Richard Strong of Edmonton spent the weekend with Florence and Jim Ingram and the girls.

Basketball tourney is smashing success

Last weekend the basketball schedule came to a smashing climax with a very successful tournament held in Tofield.

Friday evening the Viking girls lost to Tofield 24-12 and the Holden girls lost to Ryley girls 37-31.

Saturday morning the Tofield boys won over the Viking boys 44-23, and the Ryley boys won over the Holden boys 42-37.

In the afternoon the Holden girls won 30-20 against Viking and the Holden boys won 45-42 against Viking.

The girls' county championship game between Ryley and Tofield ended with Ryley on top by a score of 39-25.

Later in the evening, the boys' game ended with a score of 41-30 with Ryley again on top.

'THANK YOU'!

The students of the Tofield school wish to congratulate the county champions and all the other teams on well-played games. A special thanks to all the cheerleaders on a superb job. Also, a big thank you is extended to all those who have supported the basketball teams throughout the season and the tournament.

Tofield junior 'Hi' girls win County championship

The Tofield junior 'Hi' girls' basketball team won the County basketball championship this past week. Last Wednesday, the girls played the first game of a two-game, total-point series in Bruce. Several Tofield fans accompanied the Tofield players to Bruce where after a fiercely contested game, the Tofield team emerged victorious with a score of 16-8.

Monday, Feb. 22nd, saw the return match in the Tofield gym. A good crowd saw Tofield win by the narrow margin of 12-11. The 1 time was tied until the last few minutes when a basket by Terry Moore gave Tofield the run point.

At the close of the game, the County trophy for junior 'Hi' girls' basketball was presented to the Tofield team by Dave Bell of Holden, ATA sports convenor.

The successful team has been coached by Leo Rurka, the physical education teacher for the Tofield school. Mr. Rurka's team has lost only one game during the season at 10-1.

The team consists of Marjorie Moore, and Gerry Hardy, co-captains, Gwen Klassen, Cheryl Ann Karen Davison, Gwen Sears, Terry Moore, Vicki Wall, Beth Ingram, Nettie Appleby, Ethel Taylor and Kathy Klassen.

CONSOLATION GAMES HELD

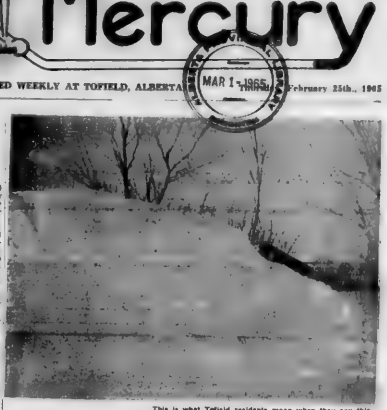
The cheerleading squad consisting of Sandra Brown, Brenda Eaton, Liana Tiedemann and Barbara Klassen, under the leadership of Miss Carol Matthews, have put on effective performances at all home games and at some games in other towns. Their mascot, Fred, is a familiar sight to the spectators of the basketball series. The cheerleaders have also been responsible for serving coffee and pop to the players, their coaches and referees at all home games.

The staff and students of the Tofield junior 'Hi' congratulate Mr. Rurka and his team on winning the 1964-65 County championship.



SNOW CAP

This is what Tofield residents mean when they say this is the most snow we have had in a good many years. Somewhere about two feet below this snow formation is a lawn patiently waiting for the sun to come and melt the snow, which will give an abundant supply of moisture for the coming year. The photo was taken at the residence of Ted and Zip Grey. Photo by Peter Nichol.

Beef, swine sale slated

This year, on the 14th and 15th of April, the Camrose Agricultural Society will again be holding their annual Registered Beef Breeds and Swine Sale. The sale will be held in the heated sales pavilion on the Camrose Exhibition Grounds. Entries must be received by Secretary Ed Schmidke by the 10th of March.

This is a fully approved sale, and all entries are subject to selection committees. Additional information can be obtained from the Camrose Agricultural Society.

Narrow escape in car-truck crash

Father L. Scriven narrowly escaped a serious accident recently on Highway 14 when the car he was driving was sideswiped by a truck travelling in the opposite direction. The driver of the truck momentarily took his eyes off the road while switching on his extra supply gasoline tank, when the mishap occurred.

The funeral of George Lions, a prominent farmer of the Ryley district, was held at Ryley on Tuesday of this week.

FUA convention deals with current agenda

George C. Abernethy of Tofield was a delegate to the recent FUA convention and gives an account of the highly interesting five-day sessions.

The convention began on the Monday afternoon with a lecture by Rev. Hart Cantelon in which he left three questions: Who am I? What am I worth? (The chemist puts our value at about $1.62); and Where are we going? All three questions apply to each an individual, as an organization, as a member of society, of the nation, of our civilization and of humanity, and left all listeners with a final challenge: Don't lose by making wrong decisions but by doing nothing."

Three present heard notable lectures by both the provincial and the national ministers of agriculture, president of the Alberta Wheat Pool, the chairman and a commissioner of the wheat board, and numerous fraternal delegates.

About 40 subjects were dealt with covering over 60 resolutions with the usual discussions, real disagreements, from tree planting to building of a $31 million fertilizer manufacturing complex, with organization, membership and fees. Further matters discussed were machinery, repairs, prices and warrantees; livestock and veterinary services, rural electrification and rural telephones; gambling and education; insurance of crops, of life, and health, welfare and medicare; natural resources of oil, gas and water; irrigation, markets and marketing boards; railroads and their profits, and the abandonment of transcontinental; hunting and the public; car licenses and insurance, and the misunderstanding of our economic position by other groups of our society.

It was a thinking convention all through the five days. And A. P. Grieve of the National Farmers' Union, expressed a good concluding sentiment, "We must pester people until they think".

Lions Club meets

Tofield Lions Club held their last meeting for February in the meeting room of Tofield Community League, four members absent, with one visitor present. Matters taken care of were reimaging of the carnival for March 6th and 7th, and which had to be postponed due to bad weather on February 20th and 21st. Arrangements were also made for Charter Night February 27th. Other items discussed were club visitation, tokens, etc.

Scouts and Cubs have father and son banquet

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — On Thursday evening, Feb. 18th, the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs together with their fathers, gathered at the Community Hall for the annual father and son banquet to honor the founder of the Boy Scout movement, Lord Baden Powell. A delicious turkey supper was served by the ladies auxiliary of the Holden Scouts and Cubs group.

The toast to the Queen was very ably proposed by Gary Semotiuk. Terry Orodnick proposed the toast to the fathers in a few well chosen words, to which Zane Bilyk replied. Mr. Bilyk also thanked the ladies for the delicious supper, and they were given a very hearty applause.

William Ogrodnick, the chairman, gave an interesting talk on the life of Baden Powell which was enjoyed by all, also giving praise to the Scout and Cub leaders of the Holden troop for their good work and time they are spending with the boys. The Cubmaster, Henry Tiedemann then made a presentation of the first star to Gregory Ogrodnick. Brian Bilyk and Lyle Todorovich. An investiture of a two star cub was held, this being Gregory Bilyk. The District Commissioner, Mr. Child, was present and presented the boys with their respective stars.

The Scoutmaster, Mick Shishkowski, and some of the Scouts put on a demonstration in semaphore code. To end the program, Mr. Ogrodnick showed a film on world wide Boys Scouts' Jamboree.

'Shower' fetes bride - elect

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Feb. 24.—On Tuesday evening, Feb. 16th, a surprise group of over 50 ladies met in the parlors of the Roman Catholic Church, the occasion being to honor Miss Myrtle Laskoski, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Laskoski whose wedding will take place Saturday, Feb. 27th. She will become the bride of Theodore James Dunczak, son of Mr. Albert Dunczak of Vegreville.

On entering the room, a beautiful corsage of roses was pinned on the guest of honor by Mrs. Grace Appleby, who was in charge of the program Mrs. Pearl Allan and Mrs. Doris Ogrodnick were in charge of the entertainment, and several games were played, after which Mrs. Grace Appleby made the presentation to the bride-elect of many beautiful gifts. Seated at the head table and assisting to unwrap the gifts were Mrs. John Laskoski, Mrs Steve Laskoski, Elvina Laskoski and Miss Anne Appleby. Myrtle very graciously thanked all for the lovely gifts and kind thoughts, after which a delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the Holden A.C.

How fraternal are high school fraternities?

Jim Almrud

As the name 'fraternities' implies, these organizations are meant to be fraternal, and offer new brotherhood and fellowship. The high school fraternities of Calgary offer very little of either.

There is a good explanation of how the large number of fraternities came about. The first few were organized as junior branches of university fraternities. The idea of high school fraternities spread. When a group felt left out because they were not in a fraternity they formed their own. Today each high school has several fraternities.

At the beginning of every school year the fraternities look over the new students to see who will become new members of the 'elite' group. Incoming members go through a week of trials to see if they are worthy of the fraternity. During this week the initiates spend their lunch hours as well as pre- and post-school hours marching the streets with members of the fraternity. The accompanying members paddle the initiates with a wooden paddle whenever they feel inclined to do so.

The initiates wear ridiculous garments such as odd socks and shoes. They are forced to praise their superiors in public while on bended knees. They tell the senior members how good they are and how lowly the pledges are.

The climax of the week comes when on the weekend all the fraternity members take their initiates to the point where they make fools of themselves. Afterwards, the initiates are taken to the place of meetings where they take upon themselves solemn vows of secrecy.

Very little is accomplished by fraternities considering the number of them. Some of them give away Christmas hampers to needy families. Others sponsor dances and formals, but most of them sponsor only beer or poker parties. From the situation in Calgary we conclude that fraternities are undesirable for the High Schools of other cities.

The dangerous herd

Eleanor Moan

"Wolves travel in packs, sheep move in flocks and geese go around in gaggles, but the most picturesque herd-former of all is the human animal. He's glorious in adult life and even more spectacular in the junior high-through-college world where it's often true that Happiness is Belonging to the Right Clique . . ."

People-packs form for good and bad reasons, obvious and obscure ones. Also there are both beneficial and disadvantageous effects on those who are part of this small, elite group known as a clique. Not only does it affect those who belong to this group but it has a pronounced effect on those who are not considered worthy of membership.

In the junior high years it is evident that a any person seeks a sense of security, of belonging, and also desires something concrete to which to cling. I believe a clique can remedy this sense of instability. It is in these younger years that one needs, and can ever benefit, from this closely knit group of friends.

But when the same people, now in their senior year or in college, are still part of the same clique, having the same group of friends, I think it is entirely wrong. There is apt to be a change in the different individuals' personalities and interests, and if there isn't and they all still share the same views as they had in grade seven, obviously little progress has been made by any of [illegible]

I am not saying that as soon as one enters his senior year of high school he should forget about all his old friends. It is quite natural that a person should have friends, some of whom are closer than others.

As people grow older, the cliques formed become groups who snub everyone else outside their small circle. Rival cliques seem then to go to great pains not to pay attention to each other. Stop and think! Do you belong to a clique? Do you and your friends belonging to the golf club, say, snub and look down on those who belong to the opera society and bridge club? Do you invite people, other than your very closest friends, to your parties and social functions?

This is not the only ill-effect that a clique may have on a person. There are many limitations put on those who belong to such a group. Little chance is had for them to [illegible] and understand others. Belonging to such groups makes one self-centered and very dependent on those of his crowd. He may not further his knowledge on a subject or activity in which he is interested. For example, he may give up his love for music, even though he has great talent, just because of his friends' lack of enthusiasm for it.

I feel that, as one grows older and becomes more mature, people will discover that they have no need for a wall of security any more, that they will enjoy doing many things with many people, and that above all they [illegible] will delight in being separate entities.

By George!

Things are tough all over. Even cheque thieves and forgers are finding the cards are being stacked against them.

More than 1,000 banks and branches in Canada and the eastern United States are linked into a network for defense against cheque thieves and forgers through a warning bulletin system, an American Express press release claims. The banks are co-operating in order to help stamp out travelers cheque fraud and other forgery and check rackets. They are coming up with some arrests, and as a result crooks have been shifting to other hunting grounds, mainly Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian cities.

During the past sixty days an inspector has extended his warning bulletin network to nearly 400 banks in Canada as a defense measure. A similar system was introduced in European countries last year and by summer at least 1,300 banks overseas will be linked into the plan.

Apparently crooks now work in teams and are completly mobile. With the use of jet air travel, for example, travellers cheques stolen in Montreal or Toronto this morning can be offered for encashment in Philadelphia this afternoon or San Francisco this evening. Those who steal the cheques hand them to passers to unload in a distant city before the alarm is sounded.

The only defense is equal speed or greater speed, and American Express uses telephone, telegraph and cable to transmit warning information ahead of the crooks. Numbers of "hot cheques" are flashed to co-operating banks in areas where the passers are known to be operating, sometimes on a daily and even hourly basis when a drive is on.

So the element of chance in forging and bank robbing is increasing. I'm going to have to pursue some other "get rich quick" plan. Working harder might be an answer.

Legislative report

–from the Press Gallery

by Wally Strang

The provincial governmet Friday took its first step towards protecting the public from unscrupulous eye glass dispensers when it introduced Bill No. 47.

In effect the bill will now make it compulsory for all dispensers of Ophthalmic appliances to belong to a provincially controlled guild.

In explaining the bill to the press, minister of health Dr. Ross said a motion was made last year by certain individuals to have the bill introduced as a private bill . . . but the government thought it was important enough to warrant government legislation.

According to the new act . . . which will become law in June and October of this year . . . anyone who supplies, prepares or manufactures such things as lenses, spectacles, eye glasses, frames, contact lenses, artificial eyes or other specified devices must pass a government board.

The board, according to Dr. Ross, will consist of five men, including a legally qualified medical practitioner. When the act becomes law . . . all dispensers in Alberta must belong to a guild and must obtain a certificate of competency. When I questioned Dr. Ross about putting a small man out of business, he admitted that even though a person can obtain a certificate of competency from the government, he must join the guild in order to practice— which in a sense makes it a closed shop.

The government for the first time in years, Friday introduced a total of 20 bills, which, according to rumors, indicate that all the government bills have been printed. Should this be the case, the second session of the 15th legislature may be a dull drab affair. The advantages of introducing the bills early make it possible for everyone to read and study the new legislation before being asked to approve it. If our readers will recall . . . last year there was considerable criticism about the bills being introduced late in the session, and as a result many of them were passed without too much quibbling.

As usual, Socred party whip Chester Sayers, of the Camrose constituency, was in his usual [illegible] the [illegible] business, and from my place in the press gallery (which is directly over him), I always get the full blast of his booming voice. Chester, of course, has not had time to make his presence known during this session . . . but there is no question of who is on the floor when Mr. Sayers does get to his feet. I should also point out at this time that the sound system installed last year was not installed for Mr. Sayers' benefit, as they usually turn the volume right down or off when he addresses the house.

Just a little note to the grooms who have been able to get married in church without a licence . . . fellows, you were lucky. According to the new Act introduced today, it will now be necessary to obtain a licence, even if you have your banns read. Under the existing Act, if you had your banns read three times, it was not necessary to obtain a licence, but according to Dr. Ross, who introduced the new legislation, there were not too many who knew this and took advantage of same. However, if you are planning on getting married, the new act does not come into force until January 1966 . . . so there is still just about ten months left to take advantage of the licence-free marriage.

MB churches are opposed

Tofield, Alberta,
February 15, 1965.

Editor, The Mercury:

We, the Churches of the Tofield area, as designated below would like to express our disapproval of the proposed liquor store in Tofield. It is our opinion that such an outlet for the sale of liquor would be a detriment rather than an asset to the town and community; therefore we join with others who have voiced their opposition to its establishment, knowing all too well the long train of evil that follows alcohol.

Yours in the interest of the best for our town and community,

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

Despite a cold day, services, conducted by Les Smith of Edmonton, were held in the United Church on Sunday.

Due to a very stormy night, the grocery bingo that was to have been held on Friday, was postponed to this Friday, the 26th.

Claude Leach shipped several head of stock on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Prices are much more favorable now than earlier months.

Mrs. Michael Nasiejchuk spent the weekend at her home on the farm.

Peggy Rowland and Maureen Perussini are staying in Edmonton until after the spring break-up. Until recently they commuted daily to their respective positions.

Bill Roddick visited his dentist again on Friday, having the remainder of his teeth extracted, and is now waiting for his plates.

Mrs. Lloyd Grumett and Mrs. S. George attended the Ladies' Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Gladue on Thursday afternoon.

A GOOD JOB!

Once more our grader man, Pat Peters, has come through with flying colors, having all roads snow-plowed out over the weekend so there were no school buses delayed in any area. This is a real accomplishment, especially after the blizzard experienced Friday evening. We hear of places that are still blocked several days later.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Jones and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones were guests at the Tom Jones home on Sunday.

THE WINNER!

Friends and neighbors will be interested in the fact that S. L. Edwards of Edmonton won the "bowler of the month" trophy in the senior citizens bowling league at Bonnie Doon bowling alley, with a score of 294.

Mrs. S. George and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roddick were Monday evening dinner guests with Mr and Mrs. Arthur Ellett and Frank in Edmonton. Part of the evening was spent watching slides of various trips taken by the Elletts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davenport and girls were Sunday afternoon visitors with Mrs. S. George.

The Ministik Community Club has made plans for a dance to be held on Friday, March 5th, with good music and a good time assured.

Holden couple marks 35th anniversary

(Mrs. G. H. Tayler)

HOLDEN — On Friday, Feb. 12th, a family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pooke of Holden, the occasion being to celebrate their 35th wedding anniversary. Corsages were pinned on them by their eldest son, Lloyd, and youngest daughter, Shirley. Rev. Lozynski gave the blessing for them, and hoped they would have many more happy years, also offering the congratulations and good wishes from all. Peter Puk, a brother of John presented the guests of honor with a beautiful pole lamp on behalf of all present, and Mr. and Mrs. Pooke thanked all their family, relatives and friends for the lovely gifts, the congratulations and the kind thoughts from all.

A delicious turkey supper was served and a very pleasant and sociable evening was enjoyed by all.

Out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. William Pooke of Ohaton, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Grosland and children of Sherwood Park, Edmonton, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Petie of Ryley.

Raging blizzard halts motorists

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

LAKESHORE-McKENZIE. - On Friday afternoon, a sudden drop in temperature and high winds with a light snow falling caused weather to change from a thawing warm afternoon to below freezing with blizzard conditions within about an hour. The storm raged all night and early Saturday morning, leaving many roads blocked and numerous motorists of the district stranded here in town or on the roads, seeking shelter for the night at the nearest farm home in the district.

This has been the third or fourth week in succession that snowstorms and high winds have blocked the roads, but this week saw the worst blizzard conditions yet. It is hoped it is the last such storm of the winter as many roads and lanes are still blocked and almost impossible to plough out because of the deep snowfall this winter and the large drifts.

Lakeshore-McKenzie news briefs

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

Gary Niemetz arrived on Saturday night and expects to spend a week at the home of his parents, George and Ida Niemetz, before returning to his work in the north with the Peter Bawden Drilling Company.

We were sorry to hear that Tyler, son of Joe and Eva McLennan of the Lakeshore district, is a patient in a hospital in Edmonton, and all wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ida Niemetz of Lakeshore was one of those unable to get home on Friday night due to the blizzard and was a Friday supper and overnight guest at the home of Mrs. Ellen Eaton in Tofield.

Joe and Eva McLennan were Monday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Mrs. Ethel Wood and son, Donald.

Robert and Dede Goubault and daughter, Judy of Drayton Valley were Saturday overnight guests at the home of Dede's parents, John and Mary Wood.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Alice Omery, Mrs. Olga Eglinski, Mrs. Mickey Niemetz, Mrs. Mavis Jacobsen, Mrs. Violet Bailey, Mrs. Isabel Rudzcki, Mrs. Vi Geuglein, Mrs. Mae Ferguson and Mrs. Isabel Riley called on Mrs. Irene Warner with a surprise party to honor her birthday.

On Tuesday afternoon last week, Mrs. Olga Eglinski, Mrs. Winnie McLachlan, Mrs. Doris Schacher, Mrs. Lil Van Buskirk and Mrs. Mavis Jacobsen called on Mrs. Violet Bailey in a surprise party to help her celebrate her birthday.

Miss Barbara Baines of Edmonton spent the weekend from Thursday to Sunday at the home of her aunt Mrs. Ethel Wood. On Sunday afternoon, Lorne and Marg Berrecloth motored to Edmonton taking Ethel and Barbara along with them and all were supper guests at the home of Barb's parents and Ethel's brother, Doug and Fran Baines and family, Barb remaining at home. The others returned home Sunday evening.

Saturday evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Emil and Martha Tiedemann were their daughter Yvonne, and Peter Brown of Ketchamoot and Martha's brother Robert, and Dede Goubault and daughter, Judy of Drayton Valley.

Sunday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Martha and Emil Tiedemann were Joey McLennan of Lakeshore and his sister, Mrs. Paul Roy and daughter, Venice and their father Joe McLennan Sr., all of Edmonton.

Jack and Loretta Weir and daughter Wanda were weekend visitors at the home of Loretta's parents, Howard and Mae Ferguson.

Koelke wins Grand Challenge in Ryley open bonspiel

Norman Koelke and his Holden [illegible] back all opposition at the Ryley open bonspiel held last week, to win the Grand Challenge event. Curling with Norman Koelke were Don Hultholm at third, Allan Zwirschke throwing second rock and Charlie Swierenko, lead.

Norman and his crew were never seriously challenged in their quest for the Northwestern Utilities Trophy. The final game with runner-up Carl Naslund was expected to be a nip and tuck battle but the Viking crew could not get the feel of the ice in the early stages of the game and were well down on the scoreboard throughout the entire game. They shook hands at the end of the 11th end to end the one sided match.

The [illegible] won the Northwestern Utilities Grand Challenge trophies and electric blankets presented by Calgary Power Limited. Carl Naslund and his rink received TV trays from Gordon's Variety Store and barber George Cline for placing second in this event. The Charles Magneson foursome of Ryley were presented with lamps by the Hoveland Funeral Home for placing third and a similar set of lamps went to Oscar Knudslein's rink, Viking for placing in fourth spot, these were through the courtesy of local farmers who contributed to the prize fund.

The second event saw Cecil Stenerud in the top position when he outpaced the Walter Kondrowski rink in the finals. Cecil and his sweepers took home trophy ash tray stands presented by E. H. Brown for their efforts, while Walter and his Ryley foursome received electric tea kettles from Dr. Price. Third and fourth spots went to the Foshaug rink of Tofield and Harry Shyba of Holden. Both received steak knives through courtesy of Imperial Lumber and the Treasury Branch.

In the third event, the Strilchuk rink of Round Hill edged out Art Francis of Tofield to win the Burnstad trophies. Art Francis received [illegible] from Roth's Red & White Store for his efforts. The Kelly rink from Viking won over the Rose rink from Tofield to place third. Both rinks received glass sets provided by the local farmers.

The fourth event finals saw Matt Leake of Holden and the Noble rink of Tofield battling it out for top spot. This game provided the only "cliffhanger" of the finals with the outcome in doubt until the final end. Leake maintained a one-point lead throughout the entire game and managed to keep it that way in the final end. Matt and his crew took home clocks through courtesy of Geo. Kast, manager of the local hotel. Chuck Noble received a set of silver mugs presented by the Alberta Brewers Agents.

Mielimaka of Holden and Burnstad of Ryley placed third and fourth in the final event and both received a nut bowl set through courtesy of the farmers and [illegible] earners in Ryley.

Despite the [illegible] conditions existing on the first day of the 'spiel, all rinks entered showed up, although some were a trifle late for their draws. However, those who were late were well warmed up from walking a mile or two or shovelling a blocked stretch of road.

George Lyons passes at home near Ryley

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY. — George Lyons, a long time resident of the Ryley district passed away at his farm home north of town on Saturday, February 20, at the age of 75 years. He leaves to mourn his loss, three sons, Fred, Eddie and Murray, all of Ryley, and one daughter, Nora (Mrs. Charlie Edwards) of Fort Saskatchewan; 14 grandchildren; one sister Mary, and one brother Fred of Terra Cotta, near Brantford, Ontario. His wife predeceased him in 1954.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, February 23 at 2:00 p.m., from the United Church in Ryley.

RYLEY, Feb. 24th. — Mrs. Erna Maaren spent the weekend in Medicine Hat visiting her sister.

TO HOLIDAY IN WEST INDIES

Mr and Mrs. [illegible] Patrick with Donna and Darcy of Hinton, were weekend visitors with Joyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Fish. Elmer and Joyce have now completed their plans for a [illegible] holiday in the British West Indies. They will travel by air starting on March 17, and will spend three weeks in the sunny islands and [illegible] waters of the Caribbean.

Members of the Ryley Badminton Club were at Camrose on Sunday afternoon for the Central [illegible] badminton [illegible]ment. The previous Sunday afternoon, Feb. 14th, the Ryley Club were hosts to 30 members of the Camrose club.

Miss Peggy Fisk and Miss Elida Helgeland, [illegible] of Mrs. Bob Cruss, have passed their Grade Three History exams with honors for the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

The Lutheran Women's waffle lunch on March 6th will begin at 12 noon and continue throughout the afternoon.

Lakeshore —

George and Ida Niemetz were Saturday night visitors and supper guests at the home of Morley and Marjorie Jacobson.

Emil and Martha Tiedemann and son, Bobby, were Sunday evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Emil's nephew, Johnny and Helen Tiedemann in Tofield.

Robert Goubault and daughter, Judy, of Drayton Valley, were Sunday visitors and dinner guests at the home of Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Goubault of Lindbrook.

Mrs. Dede Goubault and Lorne and Marg Berrecloth were Sunday visitors and dinner guests at the home of Marg's mother and brother, Mrs. Ethel Wood and Donald.

On Sunday, Feb. 14th, while the roads were blocked with snow for travelling by car, old time methods were used when guests arrived at the home of Mrs. Ethel Wood on horseback and by sleigh. The afternoon visitors and coffee guests were her daughter, Marg, and Lorne Berrecloth, Mrs. Mary Wood and son, Johnny, and Gloria Wood.

Congratulations go to Pauline and Johnny Widynowski on the birth of their baby girl, Theresa Judy, born on Friday, Feb. 12th, at the Tofield hospital.

Joe and Ellenor Jones of Lakeshore attended the funeral of Joe's nephew, Wilfred Jones, in Edmonton on Monday.

George Lyons funeral at Ryley

Funeral services for George Wilfred Lyons, an old timer of the Ryley district who passed away February 20 at his home, at the age of 74 years, were held on Tuesday, Feb. 23rd, at 2:00 p.m. from Calvin United Church, Ryley, with James Runton officiating. Interment was in the Ryley Cemetery.

Mr. Lyons was predeceased by his wife Ada in 1954, and is survived by one daughter Norah (Mrs Charles Edwards) of Fort Saskatchewan; three sons, Fred, Edward and Murray, all of Ryley; a sister, Mary Lyons, of Erin, Ontario, and a brother, Fred, of Terra Cotta, Ontario.

Andrews - McLaughlin Funeral Home, Edmonton, was in charge of arrangements.

AUD-ITIES . . .

If cows and pigs only knew it they have come into their own this season. That's what shoe manufacturers tell us.

The fashion spotlite has settled on the genuine thing and all imitations are strictly taboo. Even evening fashions are featuring leather—in sling-backs and low-cut pumps with slim low and mid-heels.

For the teen on campus, the fashion forecast suggests for the informal look, the low-cut, low-heeled pump or sling-back in "in". As for the sting, it's a charmer in grained, smooth and brushed leathers and is bigger than ever for campus and casual wear.

For a sportier effect there are traditional leather moccasin styles or colorful tie-flats in grained, embossed and brushed leathers. The tie shoe, too, boasts side openings for an airier effect.

Color combinations in shoes this year will be like everything else in fashion colors unlimited. Blues and greens, greens pinks blues and browns . . . and pinks, blues and browns . . . included in the new and daring approach. Pastel suedes dark patents, and clear, true shades in smooth and grained leathers will be covering the campus. The beige family bone through brown including natural leather colors will also continue in popularity.

Manufacturers suggest that for someone that's on the go and very active, leather leads on all counts. A natural animal product, leather has breathing pores that keep feet dry all day and a suppleness that "gives" with every movement of the foot. And only leather has the unique asset of moulding itself to your foot's contours.

Henry Ruste lands minister

Henry Arild Ruste, 47-year-old MLA for Wainwright, was sworn in as Alberta's Minister of Lands and Forests last week. He succeeds the Honorable Norman A. Willmore, killed in a traffic accident February 3. Mr. Ruste was first elected to the Legislature in June, 1955.

The son of Johan Johanson Ruste and Ronneaug Bjornegaard, both Norwegians, he was educated in Wainwright and is a member of the Lutheran faith. He married Arlene Christine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oskar Steffensen of Irma, Alberta, who is a graduate of the University of Alberta with a degree in Bachelor of Science in Home Economics. They have three children, Ivor 10, Sharon 8 and Donald 4.

At home, Mr. Ruste has served in several positions on the municipal hospital board, with the Wainwright REA, on the board of the co-op, on the supervisory committee of the credit union, on his church board, as an alternate director for District 7 FUA, and in an executive capacity of the local FUA, as well as being active in other community organizations.

HENRY ARILD RUSTE

Mr. Ruste owns and operates a large modern farm near Wainwright, a part of which was homesteaded by his father in 1905, on which he produces grain and livestock.

Grade nine students have interesting Edmonton tour

On Tuesday, Feb. 23 the two grade nine rooms of the Tofield School enjoyed an interesting and informative trip to three points of interest in the city of Edmonton. The two buses, driven by John Baergen and Charlie Sears, left Tofield at 9:15 a.m.

The first point of interest visited was the B-A Oil Refinery, at 10:00 a.m., where the students were given free pop and doughnuts, and were given an idea of the workings of the refinery. They were then broken up into groups of ten each and escorted through the refinery by informative guides.

They left the refinery and had dinner at the Burger Baron, where they enjoyed hamburgers, chips and a drink.

At 1:30, they arrived at the Parliament Buildings, where Mr Gurdey, MLA for Bruce, escorted them on a tour to the dome of the building, and at 2:30 they were seated in the balcony watching the legislative assembly in action.

At 3:00, the boys and girls left the Parliament Buildings and travelled north to the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology, where Miss Cumming's brother showed them through the Institute. A few of the departments visited were the automotive, plastering, technical and welding sections.

The tour ended at 6:00 o'clock, when the student body went to the Institute cafeteria to enjoy an excellent meal. Mr Lampitt thanked Mr Cummings for guiding them and giving factual information about the Institute. Following an informative talk by Mr. Cummings, the group boarded the buses at 7:15 for the return journey, and pulled into Premier Motors, Tofield, at 8:30.

The grade nine students would like to thank Johnny Baergen and Charlie Sears for providing transporation for the trip, and Mr. Lampitt and Mr. Stenberg for arranging the trip.

Storm disrupts power service

(Mrs. J. A. Anderson)

KINGMAN, Feb. 22nd.—Many people from this district were caught away from home in the blizzard on Friday evening and had to spend the night wherever they could find shelter. Several from here who were in Camrose got as far as Ole Rosendahl's where they stayed overnight.

Bertil Asp's school bus with 41 children aboard, had to stay at the Lloyd Bjorgum home. It was possible to phone all the parents, thus relieving their anxiety. The children were delivered safely home next day. Mr. and Mrs. Bjorgum did a fine job in housing and feeding the hungry group.

POWER DISRUPTED

Kingman village had a few farm homes without power from noon till midnight on Friday. The homes dependent on electricity for cooking and heat were quite uncomfortable and some persons stayed overnight with neighbors. Crews from Calgary Power were here from Camrose and Hay Lakes, and cause of the disruption was found at midnight about two miles southeast of Kingman.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Leif Fushaug is a patient in the Tofield hospital, having undergone surgery. Little Bruce Anderson was also a patient in hospital for a few days. He is at home again but not too well as yet.

Mrs. Stan Ramstad and Darren from Camrose arrived at the Arnold Johnson home on Wednesday evening and spent a few days. Stan came out on Sunday to bring his family home.

[illegible]

Word was received on Friday and Mrs. Alma Vekved of La Glace had passed away in Grande Prairie hospital following a heart attack. Mrs. Vekved, the former Alma Johnson, came to this district from the United States as a little girl and spent many of her years here before moving north.

Mrs. Glen Francis and Mrs. Laurence Rude, teachers at the Round Hill school, were stranded on their way home. They walked about a mile to the Tom Campbell home where they spent the night. They both suffered frostbites and will not be able to go back to school for a few days. Mrs. Lester Severson is substituting for Mrs. Francis.

Mrs. Clarence Rude attended LCW at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Nelson, at Round Hill on Tuesday evening. She stayed overnight with the Nelsons, returning on Wednesday evening.

The Peter Bjornsons of Edmonton were visitors at the Glenn Francis home on Sunday.

The Lawrence Anderson family from Edmonton visited at the Olaf Anderson home on Saturday. Pastor and Mrs. G Ostrem, Mr and Mrs. Albert Haukedal and Mrs. Alma Fushaug were Sunday after-service visitors there. Olaf was also celebrating his birthday on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Ed Wesner and Lori and Miss Caroline Fushaug, all from Edmonton, were visitors at the Ivan Fushaug home on Sunday.

Warren Stauffer is confined to his home, suffering with scarlet fever.

Palmer - Earling

HERE FROM B.C.

Mrs. Jim Tremble of B.C. arrived by train to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mohler, and her brother, Harry Johnson and family, and her aunt, Mrs. Hilda Webb, Edmonton, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mosby and Beverly and Brian have returned home from Camrose to their farm here.

Chemical school at Vegreville, March 3

A chemical school, sponsored jointly by the department of agriculture Agriculture Service Boards and the chemical trade, will be held in Vegreville on Wednesday, Mar. 3rd, at the Elks' Hall beginning at 9:30 a.m.

This school is intended to bring the latest information on new chemicals and proper use of the older and better known chemicals to chemical dealers and farmers.

With more chemicals being used on farm each year, dealers handling these chemicals and farmers using them should be more conversant with all phases of chemical use. This school is designed to provide the information to both dealers and farmers. Everyone interested in agricultural chemicals is cordially invited to attend.

Tofield HS news

(Elaine Walker)

A group of ambitious high school students, under the direction of Miss Cummings have gone to work to produce a school newspaper. The paper will be put out once a month and will contain feature articles, literary compositions, humor, cartoons and all types of news. Everyone is waiting anxiously to see the results of our future newspaper.

Last weekend six students from Tofield joined the Viking students on their trip to the Varsity Guest Weekend held at the University in Edmonton.

On Saturday, Feb. 20th, Jacklyn Hunter and Dale Christensen represented Tofield in Ryley at the Oddfellows and Rebekahs' United Nations competition. Although they lost out they represented Tofield very well.

The high school would like to congratulate the junior high girls on winning the County basketball championship. Congratulations on a job well done.

The high school open mixed bonspiel will be held in Tofield on March 6th. Of the teams participating this year there will be four from Tofield, three from Chipman, three from St. Joseph's High School, one from Leduc, two from Ardrossan and three from Fort Saskatchewan. The bonspiel will begin at 8:00 a.m. on March 6th and everyone is invited.

Betsy-Ann Shultz and Kevin Pike will be submitting essays in the Lions International District 37B Students' Foreign Exchange Competition. The students of Tofield school wish them the best of luck.

LCW MEETS

KINGMAN, Feb. 22nd. — The Salem LCW met at the church on Thursday, Feb. 18th, at 8:00 p.m., with Mrs. Bill Simonson leading in devotion, and Miss Mable Simonson the Bible study.

It was decided to visit the Bethany Home in the near future. Offering meditation was read by Mrs. P. Boness and Mrs. A Anderson, and Mrs. A. Asp closed with prayer. Hostesses were Mrs. Helga Evenson and Mrs. Willie Bjorgum.

VISITORS

Beverly Ovelson and Lorraine Wruck were Friday overnight guests at the Elwood Flemming home, to help Nola celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Johnson and Mrs. Minnie Sorgaard and Laverne of La Glace were Friday overnight guests at the Louie Erga home, and were Saturday dinner guests with Mrs. John Holte.

Mr. Cumberland and children spent the weekend in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovel Bjorgum and family were Sunday visitors at the Lloyd Bjorgum home.

Charlie Johnson and Mrs. Alma Feragen of Camrose, Fritz and Ernest Adamson and Oscar Swanson were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Seljehaug.

Audrey Anderson spent several days last week at Wetaskiwin with Diane Lindstrand.

Anne Bjorgum was a Sunday overnight guest with Lois Simonson.

Mrs. Alex Asp and Miss Mabel Simonson were at Mrs. J. Holte's for her birthday Saturday afternoon. Evening visitors were Mrs. Mary Erickson and Donald of Camrose, and Mr and Mrs. Bill Simonson.

Mrs. J. Holte was a Sunday dinner guest with Mabel Simonson. Afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Ingvald Ness and Mrs. Emma Schmidt.

Locals . . .

HOME FROM N.B.

Mrs. Marie Worton returned by air on the weekend from Fredrickson, N.B., where she attended the Dominion High School Curling Championships. Also attending from Viking were the boys' parents Mr. and Mrs. L. G Dobry, H. Hafso, P. Chillibeck and V. Slavik. Jerry Slavik, the lead on the Alberta rink, is Mrs. Worton's nephew. She said the calibre of curling was excellent and the Alberta rink made a good showing in placing second.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Eaglesham and boys of Wainwright were Sunday dinner guests with Marie Eaglesham and supper guests with Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster. They also visited with Jean Othen and Mr. Eaglesham in the hospital.

* * *

The World Day of Prayer service will be held in Holy Trinity Anglican Church on Friday, Mar. 5th, at 2:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all women of the various churches.

Hastings Coulee notes

(Mrs. B. Gladue)

The ladies club met at the home of Mrs. M. Gladue on Thursday, Feb. 18th. It was decided to send the annual donation to the heart fund. They plan to hold a parcel post sale on Friday, Mar. 26th. A military whist drive will round off the evening.

A good time was enjoyed at the Social Credit whist drive held Saturday, Feb. 13th, with six tables being played. The next whist drive will be held Saturday, Feb. 27th.

The dance sponsored by the hall board on Friday, Feb. 12th was quite well attended with everyone reporting a good time.

The hall board met at the Fontaine home Monday, Feb. 15th, where they arranged a cash bingo to be held Friday, Mar. 12th.

J. Poriste is a patient in an Edmonton hospital. He was home for the weekend, returning to hospital on Monday.

Ross Creek district news briefs

(Iris Bilan)

Wednesday, Feb. 17th, was the 43rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ford, and to mark the occasion, they were guests of honor at a turkey supper, held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edith Atterwell.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED

Thursday, Feb. 18th, was the birthday of Neil Malcolm, when visitors in the evening with Howard and Neil were Joseph and Iris Bilan.

A number of friends dropped in to wish Violet Bailey happy birthday on Tuesday, Feb. 16, bringing a delicious lunch which was served later.

Friday, Feb. 19th, was the birthday of Irene Warner, and on that day, a number of Ross Creek ladies joined with the Lakeshore ladies to call on Irene and wish her birthday happiness.

After spending two days with her daughter, Doris and husband, Russ at Vegreville, Mrs. Bessie Pederson, and her sister, Mrs. Ella Rogers, visited with her son, Kenneth, and his wife Betty, en route home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Gertie Ferrel visited with Mrs. Mary Ferrel in the Archer Memorial Hospital, Lamont, on Monday afternoon.

George McLachlan, Bill Liton, Marshall Elaniak and skip, Graham Snider were participants in the Mundare open men's bonspiel held at the weekend.

The Ross Creek closed bonspiel is now underway and will be played off this week.

Kenneth and Betty Pederson and family, who were shoppers in Edmonton on Friday, made it home just ahead of the blizzard.

FRIDAY'S BLIZZARD STOPS SCHOOL BUS

One of the school buses carrying district school children from Chipman, was caught in the storm Friday evening and the driver and children had to take refuge at Ross Creek with the Fred Antoniuk, Bill Eglenski, Ralph Cossey, Stan Klatchuk, Alvin Hauer and Joseph Kachure families, each taking a number of children into their homes overnight.

Ross Cossey was Clifford McLachlan's guest Friday night and Saturday, Friday being Clifford's birthday.

Gobbert-Malcolm rites held in Edmonton

(Iris Bilan)

ROSS CREEK — Howard and Neil Malcolm and Graham and Elma Snider attended the wedding Saturday afternoon of Howard's niece, Mavis Malcolm, daughter of Archie and Bertha Malcolm of Edmonton. The wedding ceremony was held in Edmonton with Mavis united in marriage to Gene Gobbert. After the ceremony, Howard and Neil, and Graham and Elma drove to Bruderheim where the reception and dance were held. John and Gertie Ferrel also attended the reception and dance.

Holden news

One of the workmen working on the new residence being built for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lautsen was taken to the Viking Hospital in the ambulance Friday evening, after suffering a heart attack. The driver and attendant found the trip back to Holden very difficult due to the blowing snow and storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kachman and children, of Bellevue, were visitors here for a day a week ago. Lloyd was on his way to attend a week-long Royal Bank conference being held in Calgary. Mrs. Kachman and children were visitors for the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bilyk, and Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kachman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hillman (nee Betty Michlich) of Grande Prairie, were recent visitors with Betty's father, Harry Michlich, and other relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hillman are expecting to move to Dawson Creek, B.C., about the end of Februray.

Harry Shehinski and Chris Hovland were Edmonton visitors on Tuesday of last week.

Flash blizzard leaves huge cost

Sudden blizzard conditions last Friday afternoon caused loss and damage of almost unprecedented totals, even though very little snow fell during the storm. Winds which gusted to over 50 miles per hour whipped up any loose snow, plus the little precipitated, causing blinding conditions for pedestrians and motorists, and disrupting power and phone lines.

Highways became focal points of disaster as car after car fell victim to the impossible conditions. Scores of motorists refused to travel the roads, and spent the night wherever they could find accommodation and roadside farm homes suddenly became hostels for large numbers of storm-stayed visitors. Twenty visitors overnight were reported in several areas, while the school bus driver, found himself sheltering forty pupils in his small home. Unable to make their normal trips, many school buses had to return to the schools or other emergency accommodation.

SCANT WARNING

Although the blizzard later was reported to have been experienced in the Peace River block early in the morning, little warning was heard of it in this area.

Power lines blew out in the Kingman and Armena district, telephone communication in the Kingman area was knocked out, so that no communications got through after the early part of the storm.

Luckily the storm was short lived. By morning, the wind had moved on, and visibility was again perfectly clear. Throughout, temperatures were never as serious as usually accompany a storm of such proportions, and reconstruction started immediately.

Separate reports of individual experiences in the storm are carried in many items and district reports throughout this issue.

Who Is An Alberta Junior Citizen?

Read what some of them have done - then nominate young citizens of YOUR choice!

Enterprising Alberta youngsters between 6 and 16 years can win Junior Citizen Awards for many reasons. Some save lives, like David Kilford of Sherwood Park and Lynda Dann of Vulcan. Some assume tremendous family responsibilities like Albertine Claerhout of Bashaw and Gary Fry of Edmonton. Some perform outstanding community work, like the Junior Red Cross Group of Cayley School. Heroism, quiet courage, community service, special talents, or just plain old-fashioned Alberta independence and initiative! Qualities like these can qualify youngsters you know.

But it's up to you to send their names to the editor of this newspaper.

Nominate an individual or a group for any act of merit since August 1964.

Remember, young people like these deserve recognition. You can see that they get it in our Alberta.

TEST ANTHRAX VACCINE ON BUFFALO

The Canadian Department of Agriculture's Animal Disease Research Institute at Lethbridge is the scene of an experiment being carried on to determine whether anthrax vaccine, which is effective for cattle, will also work on bison. The project is also to determine how much vaccine should be administered to guarantee immunization of a bison.

As an initial step, some 30 bison calves are receiving injections of varying amounts of anthrax organisms to determine the minimum lethal dose of the disease. In another phase of the project injections of the vaccine will be given a number of bison at Wood Buffalo National Park. In the spring the vaccinated animals will be given 200 times the lethal dose to determine if the vaccine has given them immunity, and if found effective the vaccine will be used by veterinarians in a large-scale immunization program covering all herds in Wood Buffalo Park and adjacent areas in the NWT.

The park has been a scene of recurring outbreaks of anthrax since 1962 that have taken the lives of hundreds of bison.

New deputy in ag branch

The Honourable H. E. Strom Minister of Agriculture, has announced the retirement of R. M. Putnam as Deputy Minister, effective January 31, and the appointment of his successor, Dr. E.E. Ballantyne, formerly Director of Veterinary Service Alberta Department of Agriculture.

After 10 years as deputy minister, Mr. Putnam requested permission to retire for reasons of health. He was the first native-born Albertan and the first University of Alberta graduate to be appointed to this post. He served in several departments during his 30 years with the government.

Dr. E.E. Ballantyne, has been Director of Veterinary Services for Alberta since 1947. During this period he initiated the first Brucellosis Restricted Area in Canada; was chairman of the Alberta Central Rabies Control Committee and directed a program which eradicated the disease from the province; initiated the first swine health and livestock medicine programs in Canada, and has been active in such fields as Agricultural Civil Defence, livestock diseases, and food safety, for which he was made a Fellow of the Royal Society of Health. He has been active in veterinary medicine and is a member of many committees dealing with agricultural problems.

Dr. Ballantyne was born near Stratford, Ontario. After teaching for four years, he attended the Ontario Veterinary College, graduating in 1943, and winning the Andrew Smith Gold Medal for efficiency. He was Provincial Animal Pathologist for Nova Scotia before coming to Alberta.

TEACHERS SUFFER FROSTBITE IN STORM

The storm on Friday afternoon which struck without any warning was the cause of much anxiety to many. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Finseth, Keith and Cheryl had gone to Camrose to celebrate Pastor Carl Johnson's birthday. On the way home, they bumped into a car ahead of them which had stopped because of the poor visibility. Leroy applied his brakes but the car skidded on the ice. The result was a punctured radiator and loss of antifreeze. The Finseths were sheltered at the Russell Rouse home until Saturday.

Elaine Johnson leads zone in speech contest

Saturday evening, February 20, the Oddfellows and Rebekahs of Ryley and Camrose held their semi-finals for the United Nations Speaking Contest in the Ryley High School Auditorium. About 60 people were present to hear the 10 contestants compete for a place in the finals for Zone 6 of the province of Alberta to be held at a later date. There will be 10 students chosen from this province, who will receive an all-expense-paid trip to the United Nations in New York this summer.

The competition was very close with the winner being Elaine Johnson of New Norway and Colin Nashund of Camrose in second place. Elaine's topic was "The U.N. Freedom from Hunger Campaign". Colin's topic was "The U.N., Success or Failure".

Judges were J. B. Hemphill and S. Lefbrud of Viking, and Mrs. Brundage of New Norway.

Lakeshore - McKenzie news briefs

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

UCW MEETS

On Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 17th, the Lakeshore UCW met at the home of Mrs. Max Ferguson with a good turnout of both members and visitors, despite the poor roads and cold day. After the business of the meeting it was decided to hold the March meeting at the home of Mrs. Vi Geoghen, the weather and roads permitting, time and date to be announced later. After the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs Max Ferguson and Mrs Mavis Jacobsen.

Weekend guests at the home of Roy and Ruth Wickenberg were Ruth's three sisters and a niece, namely Mrs. Nettie Thomas and Mrs. Sybil Nelson, both of Lacombe, and Mrs. Ada Keeton and daughter, Christine of Alix. They all arrived Friday afternoon by car with a friend, Mrs. Martin, who was visiting relatives in the Tofield district. On Sunday, Art Keeton of Alix arrived and was a dinner guest with the rest of the family before his wife and daughter, Ada and Christine left for home with him in the afternoon. Nettie and Sybil remained at Ruth's for a few days' visit and returned by bus on Tuesday morning to Edmonton and then on home to Lacombe.

John and Alice Warner of Tofield were afternoon visitors and supper guests at the home of their son, John Jr., and Irene Warner on the farm on Tuesday, Feb. 16th

Mrs. Mabel Bailey of Tofield was a visitor and dinner guest at the home of her daughter, Irene, and John Warner, on Thursday, Feb. 18th. She also went to Edmonton on Friday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Joyce Brumwenhe

AT UCW CONFERENCE

Mrs. Ellenw Jones, president of the Lakeshore UCW accompanied Mrs. Bessie Hunter of Tofield to Edmonton Thursday where they attended the annual UWC provincial conference on Thursday and Friday. Due to the blizzard Friday evening, they also remained in the city Friday overnight, returning home Saturday afternoon.

SUCCESSFUL TEA

On Saturday afternoon, Ellen Eaton of Tofield was hostess at a Stanley demonstration and tea at her home with Mrs. Sybil Nelson of Lacombe as representative of the Stanley Co. Due to the sudden cold spell only eight ladies were in attendance beside the hostess, but a very enjoyable afternoon was spent playing games before Sybil started her demonstration. Lunch was served by the hostess, who wished to thank all the ladies for making it a very successful party, also those not present but who purchased goods. She also thanks Ruth Wickenberg for her help with the baking and Bertha Phillips for helping serve.

Wilfred Jones dies suddenly in Edmonton

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

LAMOUREUX-McKENZIE. — Sympathy of the district goes to all the members of the Tommy Jones family on the sudden death of Tommy's youngest son Wilfred Jones in Edmonton on Friday morning. It also goes to his wife Mildred and daughter Arlene in Edmonton, and the Jones families here in the Lakeshore district.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jones and family lived and farmed in the Lakeshore-McKenzie district for a good many years and all their family grew up and attended either the MacKenzie or Lakeshore schools.

Ketchamoot

(Mary Mitchell)

KETCHAMOOT, Feb. 24th. — Agnes McGinlite was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening, on her birthday, by a number of friends who bought the birthday lunch with them. Those present were Ruth and Willard Ferguson, Kater and Marin Henderson, and Mrs. Breen.

Little Darlene McGinlite spent the weekend with her grandparents, Agnes and Henry McGinlite.

Mrs. Herman Lawson spent the weekend in Edmonton, her nephew George White bringing her home on Sunday.

Sunday visitors with Mildred and Ray Lee were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Nichols and children of Edmonton, and Mrs. Ethel Chalficit of Tofield.

Lilly and Harold Schultz were coffee guests with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harper, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Martin Lawson spent a few days in Edmonton with her daughters, Verna and Eileen.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGinlite were guests of their daughter Alice Mandeball, Eric and family of Ryley on Sunday afternoon, the occasion being Mrs. McGinlite's birthday.

Mrs. Chester Coombes is a patient in the University Hospital, Edmonton. Chester and Harold motored there to visit with her Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mitchell were Sunday afternoon callers at the Ivan Mitchell home.

A number of people of the district were caught in the blizzard that struck late Friday afternoon. Many motorists sought shelter wherever possible and were forced to stay away from their homes for the night. The temperature dropped rapidly, and visibility was cut to zero. It was one of the worst blows in the winter.

Education week sparks 'mock' council meeting

In conjunction with the observance of Education Week, the Tofield School will present a "Mock Town Council Meeting" in the school gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, March 8.

This project, under the leadership of Lloyd Cribb, was organized as a supplement to the Grade X Social Studies program. The students involved were duly elected by their peers to positions, corresponding to actual offices on the Tofield Town Council, on the mock council. During the past several weeks these students have been busily engaged in delving into actual problems of local administration, and through the co-operation of local officials have developed an interesting program for the "meeting" on the 8th.

The public is invited to this "meeting" and it is hoped that many will find it possible to attend. We feel sure that besides enjoying the excellent presentation by these students, the public may become better informed as to the workings of local government and henceforth take a more active part in the basic institution of Democracy.

B of M TROPHY

Mr. Horace Sellers, manager of the local Bank of Montreal, proudly presents the winning rink with the B of M trophy for the first time. Left to right, are: Joe Strilchuck, J. Beychuck, S. Hallowychuck, Ted Strilchuk (skip) and Mr. Sellers. The rink won the grand challenge in the long drawn out Tofield Farmers' Bonspiel which ended last Wednesday.

Large crowd attends 'Good Neighbor' night

A large crowd attended the Tofield Co-op annual "Good Neighbor" night held last Wednesday night, Feb. 24th in the Tofield Community Hall.

With Harold Schultz as master of ceremonies, the program opened with the high school band playing "O Canada".

The band, led by Captain Jefferies, entertained with several numbers, followed by Marilyn Price with a solo on the clarinet, accompanied by Rita Schmidt on the piano. Flight girls from Lee Burke's gym class gave some demonstrations in gymnastics. George Thiessen sang two numbers with guitar accompaniment; followed by a piano solo by Louise Janzen. Jacklyn Hunter gave a talk on the "Freedom from Hunger" campaign.

Following more selections by the band, Jerry Neufeld played a solo on the trumpet, accompanied by Rita Schmidt on the piano, and three Dunham boys sang a medley of songs. "The Road Runners" high school orchestra, consisting of Robert Obertos, Keith Knudsiein, Larry Tiedemann and Donald Tiedemann, entertained with several rock and roll numbers

Laurie Weatherill made the draw for the 4-H $50.00 bill which was won by Pete Kot.

Bill Nashman entertained with his guitar and told some jokes. The master of ceremonies introduced members of the co-op associations and I. Ness spoke on behalf of the Alberta Wheat Pool and co-op movements.

The newly formed "Tofield String Quartet", consisting of Keith Appleby, Ed Regehr, Tom Miller and Steve Brown, entertained "Hillbilly" style. The Barbershoppers, Henry Schrader, Vernon Walker, Neil Bailey and Ronnie Geoglein sang three numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Stinson at the piano; and the "Tiedemann Orchestra", Emil, Bert and Donald, played several selections.

Harold Schultz thanked the sponsors and all who made the evening so enjoyable.

Lunch was served by the wives of the co-op members.

SEASON'S FIRST GOPHER

At least one gopher (circled) in the Tofield area apparently adopted the winter works slogan and decided, "Why wait for Spring? Do it now." And he did . . . he came out to check on the weather. —Photo by Peter Nickel.

Tofield ladies win at Holden

Two rinks from Tofield entered the bonspiel held at Bruce on February 21st and 22nd.

Mildred Dunlop skipped one rink with teammates Faye Dodds, Elizabeth Davison, and Olive Pollack. They won fourth in the Grand Challenge event

The Joyce Swift rink won first in the second competition. Her foursome included Irma Francis, Zelda Hallet, and Winnie Christensen.

$800 damage in car crash

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Peter Zadorozny, Joe Charnuike, Nick Shilnidi, and Mr. W. J. Burke had an unfortunate accident Saturday morning, Feb. 20th. While driving to attend the retreat at St. Albert they ran their car into the back of a snow plough near Lindbrook. Luckily they were driving slowly owing to blowing snow and none of them was injured, except for bruises and cuts. However, there was about $800 damage done to the car.

Sympathy goes to bereaved

The sympathy of the district is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Moore and families in the death of their infant son. Also to the Murray family in the death of Roland Murray. Also to the Coombes families in the death of Mrs. C. Coombes, and to the Jim Harper family in the death of Mrs. Jim Hooper.

Community League has regular monthly meeting

The regular meeting of the Tofield Community League was held in the meeting room of the Community Centre on Tuesday, March 2, with president John Herrgen in the chair and twelve members present.

The minutes of the February meeting were approved on motion of C. Annis and E. Stinson.

The secretary, J. C. Lampitt read the correspondence; (1) a letter from the Federal government re. making the Community Centre available as a polling booth in the event of an election in 1965. The executive had already authorized a reply in the affirmative; (2) a letter of thanks from Joe Sadowski for assistance given him and his family when his house was destroyed by fire.

THEATRE FUND

The treasurer's report was given by Hans Christensen who, in the absence of the convener of the theatre committee, also read the theatre report. This report reflected the severe winter weather and road conditions in that it showed a substantial loss To overcome this loss, the treasurer was instructed to subsidize the theatre committee for one month from the general funds of the League.

N. Glover, reporting for the One Hundred Club, stated that 100 to 150 tickets had been sold by eight ticket sellers. The committee is hoping to sell more tickets. The first draw will be held on March 6th.

MEMORIALS

President Baergen reported that, due to the kindness of Horace Seller, arrangements have been made with the Bank of Montreal to administer all Memorial funds rather than have such funds dealt with at the town office.

Some discussion ensued regarding the wording and the arrangement of the sign to be erected on the Community Centre.

BINGO

An Easter ham bingo is to be held on Wednesday, April 14, on motion of A. Pike and W. Christensen

It was decided to defer a discussion of ways to raise money until a later meeting.

Honors student

FRIEDA WARKENTIN

Frieda Warkentin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Warkentin of Debolt, Alberta, is on the Dean's College Honor Roll for excellence in academic studies during the first semester. Wesley Prieb, Academic Dean, has just released a list of sixty-five persons whose scholarship marks honorable recognition. This includes students whose grade point average is 3.25 (better than "B") and above

Miss Warkentin is a senior at Tabor, majoring in Elementary Education and German. Prior to enrolling at Tabor she graduated from Tofield High School and the University of Alberta, Edmonton.

Tabor College is situated at Hillsboro, Kansas celebration was discussed. If Keller reported that he had received assurance that the Jumping Horse Association will again be represented here as well as the Cutting Horse Association. These groups of horsemen have been an important feature of Tofield's Human-in-Day celebration for several years.

It was also decided to contact Captain Jeffrey, who teaches band music at school, with regard to securing the PPCLI Band for July 1st. The school principals were requested to approach Capt. Jeffrey as to the possibility of having the PPCLI Band present a concert in Tofield this spring.

A. Pike requested, on behalf of the Regional Drama Festival, that he be permitted to rent the Community Centre for April 2 and 3. This was readily agreed to, on the same terms as had been in force for previous drama festivals.

Huddleston - Ferrel vows exchanged

(Iris Bilan)

ROSS CREEK On Saturday afternoon, Feb. 27th, at Wesley United Church, Edmonton, Miss Joan Ferrel was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Huddleston.

Joan was a radiant bride in her white brocade floor-length gown and shoulder-length veil, held in place with a sparkling crown, and carrying a bouquet of deep pink roses

Her bridesmaids, Miss Lorna Ferrel of Edmonton, and Miss Barbara Wartenbe of Chipman, both cousins of the bride, wore pink pastel peau de soie floor-length dresses with shoes to match and pink circular net veils held in place with pink flower head-bands. They carried bouquets of red carnations.

A friend of the bridegroom, Mr. Pete of Penola, was the bestman, while Lester Ferrel, cousin of the bride, was groomsman.

The reception and dance were held in Chipman with a large number of guests present despite the very stormy weather that day.

Mrs. Elsie Hendel, who was a patient in Tofield hospital for a few days after having surgery returned home Sunday Feb 14th.

Theodor Nakiny is a patient in an Edmonton hospital where he has had recent surgery Mr and Mrs Mike Chapka visited with him a week ago and reported him in good spirits We wish him a speedy recovery and hope that it is not too long before he is home and feeling improved in health

Lakeshore-

DISTRICT NEWS

Tofield and district residents were saddened over the week-end by the death of two well known old timers of the district, when Mr. Leonard Murray, a former resident of Tofield and before that of the Lakeshore district, where he farmed for many years before retiring due to ill health. Mr. Murray was in a nursing home at Red Deer, where he had lived for the past year or more, and passed away on Friday morning. The funeral service was held at the Tofield United Church on Monday afternoon, with interment in the Tofield Cemetery. Sympathy of the district goes to his children, Mrs. Marjorie Kenny and family of Rimbey, Douglas Murray and family of Tofield and Mrs. Malcolm Murray and family of Red Deer; also to all the other relatives of Mr. Murray.

The other death was Mrs. Ida Coombes of the Kelsemount district, wife of Chester Coombes, who passed away suddenly in an Edmonton hospital on Saturday morning. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Tofield United Church, with interment in the Tofield Cemetery. Sympathy goes to Chesley Coombes and family; also to all relatives.

We also wish to extend sympathy to Jim Hooper of Lindbrook in the death of his wife, Dolly, in an Edmonton hospital over the weekend. Sympathy goes to her family, the Meers boys, and all her relatives. Dolly was well known in the Lindbrook district, where she lived for many years, first as Miss Meers and later as Mrs. Hooper. Funeral services were in Edmonton on Monday.

Mrs. Ethel Wood and son Donald were Sunday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Mrs. Isabel Riley and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, and in the evening Mrs. Ruth Wickenberg.

Mrs Katie Baergen and Mrs. Mavis Jacobsen were Friday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Mrs. Hickey Niemetz.

Tuesday callers and coffee guests at the home of Ellen Eaton were: in the forenoon, Mrs. Isabel Riley and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, and in the evening Mrs. Ruth Wickenberg.

Solve a Crime
BY A. C. GORDON

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

You are very much shocked when news is brought to you of the death of one of your very good friends, Dan Taylor. All the evidence points to suicide ... the ... on the floor of Taylor's apartment next to his body ... the weapon ... and the suicide note clutched in his left hand. And yet you still cannot reason in your own mind that Dan Taylor would take his life this way. He was too vital a man, too filled with the joy and zest of living, and much too courageous to run away from life in such a fashion. You and Dan up to about a year ago had worked together as a detective team, and with much success, but then Dan had abandoned this line of work to invest his life's savings and ... in a speculative real estate partnership with a man by the name of Phil Garrison.

You know something of Garrison ... a fellow of rather shady reputation, and a sharp dealer ... but so far as you know Dan Taylor had been making a success of most of his land speculations ... and this makes it all the more difficult for you to accept the suicide theory. You have the "suicide note" found in Dan's hand, and you now read it:

"My good friends: Partner Garrison is ready very soon to begin to take control of my estate for life. I am forced through friendship to try to write my planned suicide in this note. And sincerely I trust and hope that maybe you will surely understand my dilemma and this will bring about the justice and sense to you and partner. Dan Taylor".

Although somewhat disjointed and vague, the note seems to bring out the suicidal intentions of a distraught man . . . but still you are dubious. Then there comes to you certain memories of how you and Dan used to enjoy working with and dabbling in cipher gimmicks and systems, and you wonder if perhaps there might be some hidden message in this last note of Dan's.

You search carefully through the note, stressing certain words, omitting others . . . and finally you find it, a cryptic message from your friend, Dan, explaining what really happened.

Can you decode Dan Taylor's letter, which will help you to solve the case ?

SOLUTION

The secret message in Dan Taylor's letter is comprised of every third word, starting with the first word. It works out this way: "MY good friend: PARTNER Garrison is READY very soon TO begin to TAKE control of MY estate for LIFE. I am FORCED through friendship TO try to WRITE my planned SUICIDE in this NOTE. And sincerely I trust and HOPE that maybe YOU will surely UNDERSTAND my dilemma AND this will BRING about the JUSTICE and sense TO your and PARTNER".

Ryley 4-H Beef Club elects new officers

The Ryley 4-H Beef Club held their regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 25th.

Officers for 1965 are: Richard Matthews, president; Roy Hodge, vice-president; Gary Wiens, secretary; Dwayne Kulda, treasurer; Lyle Hodge, club delegate; Garry Kropielnicki, club reporter; Peter Munkedahl club leader; R. Hammer and Wm. Maaren, assistant leaders.

The meeting began with a roll call each member stating a cattle disease. Feed samples sent to the Agricultural Soil and Feed Testing Laboratory were returned with analysis by District Agriculturist S. C. Powers. Fund raising was discussed. Ted Nenkowich arranged to show members the different cuts of beef. Public speaking will be held at the next meeting. The club leader, Peter Munkedahl had a knot and halter demonstration.

Ryley Cooksters organize

On January 4th, a new club, The Ryley Cooksters, was organized.

This club is probably the first boys' food club in Canada. The first meeting was held at Maaren's residence. Nominations of officers were the first business of the meeting. They are: pres., Iver Maaren; vice-pres., Barry Semik; sec., James Panier; treas., Gary Patterson; club reporter Arthur Hanson, club delegate Rodney Kokalychuk; social leader, Mrs. Maaren, assistant leader, Mrs. Stumbo.

Other members are Richard Mathews, Wade Magneson, Glen Magneson, Barry Stumbo, John Jenson, Barry Kropielnicki, and Douglas Maaren.

Their are 13 members in the Ryley "Cooksters" who hope to have a very prosperous initial year.

Trustees discuss current budget

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, Feb. 27 Trustees of the Holden Drainage District No. 1 held their regular monthly meeting Friday, Feb. 20th, in the office of the secretary, Ray Hovland, with all trustees present.

The financial statement and auditor's report were read and discussed.

The budget for the ensuing year was then discussed and made up to be sent in for the Minister's approval. Ditching needed to be done during the year's work was also discussed.

Date for the annual meeting was set for Wednesday, March 17th, at 2:00 p.m., in the Gladstone curling rink. Nominations for one Trustee will also be opened.

Ministik bingo a huge success

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK — The grocery bingo sponsored by the Ministik Ladies' Club, held on Friday, was a huge success. Bingo players came from as far away as Tofield and Fultonvale and all reported a good time. Mrs. Albert Harricks was convener, with Mrs. Keith Williams assisting. Other members of the club helped serve lunch.

George Lyons funeral held February 23rd

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY — Funeral services for the late George W. Lyons, who passed away on Saturday, Feb. 20th, were held on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 23rd at 2 p.m. from the Ryley United Church with Jim Ruxton officiating. Mr. Lyons was born in 1900 at Terra Cotta, near Brantford, Ont., and came west to the Ryley district in 1913. He was married to Ada Victoria Broad of the Bathgate district in a home ceremony conducted by the Rev. Leverage, who served the community for the Anglican Church at that time. She predeceased her husband in 1954.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from his family and relatives, and many were the memorials given in his memory to the Ryley United Church, and the Ryley Cemetery Fund.

Active pallbearers were L. Pepper, B. Jacobson, R. Westmancoat, W. Pope, G. Fisk, J. Davick. Honorary pallbearers were S. Booth, H. Hill, L. Hay, R. Greig, J. Manderson.

Interment was in the family plot in the Ryley cemetery. Andrews - McLaughlin were in charge of arrangements.

4-H Bonspiel Mar. 6

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY — The annual 4-H club bonspiel will be played in Vegreville on Saturday, Mar. 6th starting at 9 a.m. There will be 24 clubs competing for the prizes and trophies. The clubs will come from Ryley, Tofield, Viking, Vegreville, Andrew, Lamont, Willingdon, Innisfree, Hairy Hill, Ranfurly. Both boys and girls' clubs are entered.

Ryley news

(M. K. Westmancoat)

Don't forget the waffle lunch to be served by the Lutheran Church Women in the dining room from 12 noon onwards on Saturday, Mar. 6th.

The Ryley 4-H Beef Club sponsored the dance at Victory Hall on Friday evening, Feb. 26th.

Lester Pepper and Brian Westmancoat added twin calves to their Holstein herds this week.

David Harris is back home again after spending a week in the Tofield hospital.

They're not real gold nuggets," Ken Patrige of The Camrose Canadian is telling Prime Minister Lester Pearson, as he shows the gold chains and Klondike style vests which will be worn next August when the national convention of all Canadian weekly newspapers is held in Edmonton. Mr. Pearson held an informal audience with several directors of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association when they met recently in Ottawa for their semi-annual meeting. Mr. Patrige, who is this year's president, chaired the meetings, following which part of the group left for Germany and France, where they will make a quick tour of army bases. Concluding the tour, Mr. Patrige will meet Mrs. Patrige in London, for a short holiday in the Old Country. Shown at centre is Len D'Albertanson of The Wainwright Star Chronicle.

MRS. COOMBES PASSES

This district was shocked on Friday morning to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Ida Coombes in an Edmonton hospital. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Tofield United Church and interment was in the local cemetery. Rev. W. H. McDonald officiated.

Mr. Jim Williams is a patient in Tofield Municipal Hospital.

Eileen and Verne Lawson were at home with their parents, Janet and Martin Lawson and brothers over the weekend.

Anglican Auxiliary visits Boys' Ranch

The 51st annual meeting of the Edmonton Diocesan board of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church of Canada was held in All Saints Cathedral and Parish Hall from February 23rd to February 25th. Various conferences were held the previous afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Edith Bailey and Mrs. J. W. Robinson attended all the sessions and also enjoyed the tour of Oakhill Boys' Town, Bon Accord.

Four chartered buses left from All Saints Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 24th at 6:30 p.m. After touring the boys' ranch, including the chapel, they enjoyed a comedy in three acts with music in the Bon Accord Community Hall at 8 p.m. The comedy was entitled "Sunshine and Silver", and the silver collection proceeds went to the Oakhill Boys' Ranch.

Mrs. W. H. Freebury and Mrs. F. Dunham also attended some of the sessions. Mrs. Dunham reported on the 24th annual meeting of the Wainwright Deanery which was held at Lougheed on May 27th 1964.

ROAD RUNNERS

This foursome (the drummer is not shown) displayed an example of their talent last Wednesday evening, when the audience found their toes tapping automatically to the rythm of this newly formed local orchestra. These Tofield boys are gaining popularity in the surrounding area and have played for several dances since they were fortunately discovered. They could be future prospects for the Hit Parade if they keep up the good work. —Photo by Peter Nickel.

Tofield girls winners, boys losers in tourney

The Tofield junior high girls and boys' basketball teams enjoyed a fun-filled day of basketball in Ryley at the Basketball tournament. The tourney was sponsored by the Ryley and Tofield Lions Clubs, and held on Saturday, Feb. 27th. The participating teams were Ryley, Tofield, Holden, Viking, Kinsella and Bruce. The referees were Mr Rurka, Mr. Hell, Mr. Lutz and Mr. Vorgtlien. The coaches were Mr. Rurka, Tofield, Mr. Lutz, Tofield, Mrs. Lutz, Viking, Miss Olsen, Ryley, Mr. Erickson, Bruce, and Mr. Dalby, Kinsella.

The Holden - Tofield game in which the Tofield boys were defeated by one point, 20-19, was a very exciting game with all trying very hard. The Tofield girls defeated Kinsella [illegible]2 and Ryley 26-11. Marjorie Moore, Tofield's captain was accurate on her shots, scoring 12 points in the final game. All the teams played good ball and displayed good sportsmanship.

At the close of the tournament a member of the Lions Club presented the Tofield girls with their trophy. Marjorie Moore gave Mr. Rurka a trophy as a gift from the girls in appreciation of his fine coaching. Mr. Eastlich also helped coach the girls during the final games. Mr. Dennison kept score, and also charted the Tofield plays.

The cheerleaders, who accompanied the team, were Brenda Eaton, Sandy Brown, Laura Tiedemann and Barbara Knutson. The tournament was a wonderful end to the basketball season.

Ask county to take over firefighting

A request that the county take over firefighting within the district was the only item from the floor at Saturday's annual county meeting, held in the school auditorium at Ryley. Several farmers from the Viking district presented a request suggesting that initially fire trucks should be placed in Viking, Holden and Tofield, with addition of trucks in other areas at a later date.

At present, they pointed out, the fire truck in Viking will not leave town. It was pointed out by another speaker that immediately the fire truck leaves the town, all fire insurance in Viking automatically lapses until it returns. By contracting this arrangement, Viking has secured more advantageous insurance rates).

The committee suggested that modifications of such a program could be instituted in several areas, including Vegreville.

PROGRESS

A long hard battle in the Tofield area has finally produced these signal lights at the Queen Street railway crossing. Work on the lights began a few weeks ago and the final stages were completed last week, but according to a few badly shaken up motorists, the signals are not yet working to perfection and have caused some near mishaps due to the short timing.

PPCLI Band coming to Tofield this month

An opportunity of a lifetime is coming to the people of the Tofield area. The 40 piece PPCLI (Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry) Band will present a concert of varied selections at the Tofield Community Centre at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, Mar. 23rd. This band, under the direction of Lt. Naylor and coming to Tofield through the co-operation of Mr. Sedlyn's Band Commander Western Command and Director of the Tofield School Band, is the most widely known military band in Canada and has travelled through the world with Canada's service contingents, winning wide acclaim for its excellence and versatility.

As the County of Beaver is endeavoring to encourage the appreciation and study of music in the schools of the district through the formation of school bands the appearance of this remarkable group of musicians in our town provides an excellent opportunity for the parents and students to partake in a wonderful evening of musical entertainment. The enthusiasm of the public in the appearance of the Tofield School Band at the Co-op Friendship Night program should insure a large group of interested persons on the evening of March 23rd.

This program is being sponsored by the Tofield Community League. Tickets are now on sale from members of the Tofield School Band, the Tofield High School and "Big Three" Students' Union and at the Tofield Drug.

Watch The Mercury next week for further details.

Tofield Lions have meeting

Tofield Lions Club held their first supper meeting of the month in the meeting room of the Tofield Community League, with a fair attendance of members, and Lion Henry Paage had his brother, Frank, of Stettler as a guest.

A report of the Charter Night was satisfactory, but the report as to support of the carnival of March 6th and 7th very disappointing. Some visitation had been done to another club and association committee discussed for officers for next year. Mention was made of club property belonging to other clubs, a bingo get-together and arrangements for a convention to be held in Edmonton in the near future.

Tofield wins top honors in High School bonspiel

On Saturday, Mar. 6th, the annual H.S. curling bonspiel took place in Tofield, with teams from Tofield, Chipman, Amisk, Fort Saskatchewan and Lodge participating.

The first event was won by Brian McFadzean and his team of Frances Smith, Alan Everitt and Shirley Swift. Second in the first event went to Greg Wirsta and his team of Linda Kellol, Kevin Pifko and Wendy Arnott.

The second event was won by the Barry McIntyre team of Fort Saskatchewan, others on the team being Bonnie McIntyre, Lennie Wenden, Dale Sherman. Second went to Chipman and the Brock Seider team of Gail MacLaughlin, Ken Slotyski and Vicki Ulan.

The high school curling season ended on Thursday, Mar. 11, with the prizes being presented to winners. The season was very successful and enjoyable to all concerned.

The drama class of Junior High School is progressing well with their play "Heat Lightning" which will be presented on the evening of April 2nd as part of the 11-play zone 3 drama festival.

Annual high school drama festival to be held in Tofield April 2 and 3

The drama festival for Zone 3 high schools will be held this year on April 2 and 3 in the Tofield Community Centre. The area includes Lloydminster, Vermilion Blend County, County of Minburn, Lamont School Division, County of Strathcona, County of Wetaskiwin, County of Leduc, County of Beaver and the Wainwright School Division. High schools taking part are Lloydminster, Vermilion, Vegreville, Mannville, Dewberry, Wetaskiwin, Salsbury, Lamont, Ryley and Tofield.

The schedule is as follows: Friday afternoon, April 2 — Ryley, Salsbury and Lamont; Friday evening, April 2 Tofield, Wetaskiwin and Vegreville; Saturday afternoon, April 3 — Marwayne, Mannville and Dewberry; Saturday evening, April 3 — Vermilion and Lloydminster.

Public and private adjudications will be given at each performance, and after the final performance on Saturday night awards will be made for the best actor, best actress, best support, best actress, best supporting actress and best play.

Public support is requested for this project since it is a non-profit venture. Money collected will pay for hall rental, trophies and assistance to each school to defray some of the costs of transportation. Time and effort spent by the committee in charge and by the drama groups are donated to help encourage drama in Alberta.

Information concerning any phase of the festival can be obtained from H. A. Pike, Box 398, Tofield, or phone 662-3478.

Blizzard brings thunder, lightning

One of the strangest phenomena of the blizzard two weeks ago was reported by T. Chrysler recently Out on Pigeon Lake will several other fishermen when the storm blew up, they were afflicted also by a severe thunder and lightning storm, so intense as to drive them for cover.

"The thunder sounded close enough to reach up and take hold of it", commented Mr. Chrysler, who added it was one of the strangest experiences of his life.

None of the party could ever recall experiencing lightning any time but in the summer, and felt the frank experience in winter must have indicated the presence at upper levels of remarkably severe currents of air, since this is when lightning develops.

Loud snow crows

Snow plow operators in the County of Beaver were given a hearty vote of thanks for "the big job done under trying circumstances" in recent weeks of snow removal and road plowing. It was pointed out they had sometimes been operating for up to 20 hours without sleep in an effort to keep roads open A motion was made at the county annual meeting in Ryley Saturday expressing deep appreciation, and accepted with a hearty round of applause.

It was moved and carried that

Mounties not happy, either

This paragraph should have been written a couple of months ago, but unfortunately we slipped up. Nevertheless, it shouldn't be bypassed completely.

Several weeks ago this column reported that members of the RCMP were being called on, in some jurisdictions beyond our provincial boundaries, to treat speeding motorists in a somewhat cavalier fashion, in that the unwary victims were required to drive to town and pay a pretty substantial "voluntary" penalty, or lose several hours while waiting for the appearance of the magistrate, who, it was envious, would impose a penalty at least as high.

We didn't blame the "Mounties". This should be pointed out. We observed that this excellent force was being demeaned in certain areas where they have contracts to do the local policing, but that, behaving as good soldiers, they were accepting the orders given them, even when they were unreasonable.

Nevertheless, we were unprepared for the sequence of developments that ensued. The force wanted to clear their name. Visits followed telephone calls, with long, interesting chats. Our informant was living in Calgary, so we checked through to him, checked his willingness, and arranged for a visit with one of the investigating policemen. This was passed on to a Calgary member of the force, the circumstances were all checked out, and the force agreed it was not a happy situation, but one which was perfectly "voluntary" penalty, or lose several legal, in our neighboring province, British Columbia.

Not a bit happy about what it's doing to their image in the public eye, the Mounties have made strong representations, and it is possible changes may result. But what impressed us the most was their interested and assiduous efforts to track down a circumstance giving the force a bad name, and to report back. As we said, after printing the complaint, we owe the force and our readers this explanation.

Laughing stock

Remember how all the world was appalled that Jack Ruby should have been able to slip through Dallas police security precautions and shoot Oswald as he was being transferred to another jail?

Consider the image Canadian security must have, then, after a prisoner "safely" in jail was allowed to escape as his case was being heard in the courts. Especially after Hal Banks was allowed to slip away from the country the escape of Lucien Rivard, reputed to be a kingpin in the narcotics traffic, opens up serious doubts as to the efficiency, capability and integrity of enforcement bodies. We are being made to look ludicrous in the eyes of the world.

Lower the bars

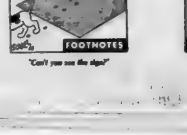
While the Canadian government is energetically persuading the American government to soften the rigid barriers against importation of more Canadian goods, so as to improve our balance of payments position with that country it should be turning at least equal attention to the impossible conditions we have established for trade with Britain.

There is ample room for Canada to be a better customer for Britain. Last year we bought from Britain only forty per cent as much as we sold her, leaving her with a deficit to make up of $797 million.

There is ample evidence that if we don't immediately make serious attempts to improve our position, Britain will stop being our best customer, for the simple reason she can no longer afford to keep up the heavy drain, especially while other markets offer. Partly, we'll agree, the fault is that British merchants haven't tried to find out what kind of goods they could sell here, and develop the market. But when our customs barriers are so high as to be punitive, the climate doesn't look healthy from the British side of the Atlantic. We can't afford to lose such an excellent trade connection.



"Can't you see the sign"

"It's that little boy in the penthouse across the way."

From the mail bag

Tofield Mercury.
Dear Editor

We frequently hear "I never did that when I was a boy". I often wonder what the prevalence is trying to cover up they "really did". In my day we didn't drive a car at over 100 miles-per-hour. But we rode the "old grey mare" as fast as she could go, by spurring her, and laughed at the danger of her stumbling as a hole and breaking a leg or our necks.

"We made our own recreation". We cleared our own ice rinks". Bill say I played hockey then, that I knew, that enabled for any length of time but the appreciation and/or support of some older person. I remember a year over 70 years of age who laid never mind a game of shinny who played goal for a hockey team. That team unsurpassed for years.

This fierce youth today the same opportunity to "Do-it-yourself" recreation facilities? I remember a certain "oil swimming hole", as which I taught many boys to swim, that is not available. The boys planned to develop another one but in short order a sign appeared "private, keep out". I played many, many games of basketball, basketball, one basketball on a natural outside level field, the only one in the community that is now a field of grain.

We have made many changes and progress in other things but in so doing have destroyed natural opportunities for youth to do their own development of skills. Should not youth also have the advantages of our progress". Perhaps it will cost money. But I'll venture that the cost nor the changes need not be as great as the change from "The old grey mare" to dad's "Super-eight".

Quick Canadian Quiz

Beaver county council meeting

Following are the minutes, in part, of the regular meeting of County of Beaver Reeve Committee, Ryall Township, Feb. 8th Business Arising From Minutes

In regards to the County Crest, motion 12/65, the Superintendent informed the Committee that Messrs Earl Hardy and Earl Kindley had been appointed to the Crest Committee from the Local ATA and that they, together with the appointed member from the School Committee Cr. J. H. Roddick, would judge the various entries.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

In regards to the proposed playground at Viking School, motion 23/65, Mr. Pike reported that the size of the commercial room would be limited to 900 square feet and that, as this would not give a large enough room, the County would have to pay for the additional area, which he estimated to be approximately 300 square feet.

In regards to the two lots, adjoining the present school grounds, the Committee was informed that the lot next to the school grounds could be obtained for $1,000, and that on the second lot there is located an old house. The owner of this property would be prepared to exchange lot if the Council would move the house, or would sell outright for $1,000. It would be very difficult to move this building and Mr. Pike was of the opinion that we could get along without the lots.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted, and that the matter of the two lots be left in abeyance for the time being.

Concerning the proposed replacing of the water lines on the school grounds at Holden, motion 24/65, the Committee was informed that no replies had as yet been received on the invitation to tender for this work.

Moved and carried that this matter be tabled to the next meeting.

Correspondence

A letter from Mrs. Harold Lefsrud of Viking concerning a Safety Essay Competition in grades 5 and 9, sponsored by the Alberta Safety Council and permission granted by the Alberta Department of Education, was referred to the Committee. Mrs. Lefsrud inquired why the County of Beaver has not participated in this essay contest in recent years, and she requested that the Committee give careful consideration to the need of this kind of education.

After Mr. Pike had explained the issue in the matter, it was moved and carried that Mrs. Lefsrud be advised that each school is at liberty to enter any essay competitions with the understanding that the staff in each school handle the judging etc and that she may contact the Superintendent in the matter.

A letter from the Correspondence Secretary of the Camrose and District Association for Retarded Children, requesting a grant from the County towards the building program was referred to the Committee.

After some considerable discussion, it was moved that no grant be given.

A letter from the Alberta Advisory Committee on Educational Research requesting a grant towards their operation was referred to the Committee, and the Committee was advised that the County grant in this connection had been $50. It was, however, mentioned that the County was not receiving the Alberta Journal of Education Research

Moved and carried that a grant of $50 be given to the Alberta Advisory Committee on Educational Research, and with the request that the Journal be supplied to the County office.

The Bus Supervisor's report and account for the month of February was presented to the Committee.

Certain recommendations were made by the Bus Supervisor, and it was moved and carried that each bus driver be supplied with a pair of pliers, a wrench and a screw-driver, and that some method be evolved whereby the driver would be responsible for these tools

The Supervisor referred to a power pole at the Kinsella bus stop that was placed almost in line with the door, making it very difficult for the buses to get in and out.

Moved and carried that arrangements be made to have the power pole removed

The Supervisor also requested another man in the shop as, in his opinion, with just the two mechanics he was not able to give sufficient time to the supervising it was decided to defer this matter until the Supervisor was in attendance

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and that the Supervisor's account in the amount of $62.63 be paid

A request from the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation for information as to the estimated 1965 capital requirements to be financed by sale of debentures to the Corporation was referred to the Committee.

It was considered that only the proposed addition at the Viking School would be undertaken during 1965, and it was moved and carried that the County would expect to borrow the sum of $60,000 by way of debentures.

BUS TENDERS

The tenders for the purchase of four 48-passenger school buses were now opened. The tenders were as follows:

Standard Bus and Body Sales Ltd., with GMC chassis and Wayne body price quoted $6,845 per unit, or $24,180 for the four buses Trade-in allowance on used buses, $800

Van-Brunt Limited GMC chassis and Van-Brunt body Per unit, $6,331.E. No units, 126. 125.56 No trade-in

Blue Bird Bus Sales (1964) Ltd. Per unit, no quotation; four units, $25,000, less trade-ins $1,200 Net, $23,700 Cash price with no trades $23,448 Options a third heater, $95 each. Blue Bird storm windows, 4 sides and drivers, $94 each

The Bus Supervisor, who was present at this time was of the opinion that the third heater was very necessary, and that the storm windows were also a very good addition to the buses

It was moved and carried that the tender submitted by Blue Bird Bus Sales (1964) Ltd. for the four units at a net price of $23,700, plus extra heater and storm windows, making a total of $23,416, be accepted.

The Secretary-Treasurer inquired how the Committee wished to pay for these buses, whether out of revenue or if another 5-year loan should be availed for

Moved and carried that we request the County Council to apply for a 5-year loan to purchase the four buses.

It was considered advisable to obtain storm windows for the 1964 buses that the County now has.

Moved and carried that we purchase three sets of storm windows at $94 per set

The Bus Supervisor was asked about his request for an additional man in the shop, whether he would consider that an apprentice was acceptable or if he needed a licensed man. Neil Reid stated that in his opinion he should have one-third to half of his time on supervision and that more supervision would most likely effect a saving of repair costs He had nobody in mind, and it was decided to advertise for an apprentice mechanic, it being considered that an initial salary of $280 per month should be sufficient and that consideration might be given to the employee receiving his salary while attending the Technical School as required for an apprentice

Moved and carried that we advertise for an apprentice mechanic for the bus garage, such advertising to be placed in the local paper only.

Lars Olson Attends

Mr. Lars Olson, representing the Beaver Local 41, interviewed the Council at this time. He brought to the attention of the Council motion 32/65, which stated that a car with at least one teacher is to accompany a school bus on extra curricular activities. He inquired if this was to be taken literally; i.e., to be applied at all times Mr. Olson was of the opinion that this was quite an undertaking and wanted the situation clarified He also mentioned the matter of the County Policy handbook, stating that it ought to be brought up to date. Mr. Pike stated that he would try to have his stenographer work on this handbook in her spare time.

Mr Olson also referred to the Varsity Weekend at the University of Alberta on Feb. 26th, and asked if school buses could be used to transport students to and from the University. Mr. Olson was assured that this would be quite in order.

In the matter of office assistance for school principals, motion 13/65, Mr Olson informed the Committee that at the Principals' meeting of Jan. 27, 1965, all principals had indicated that they were in favor of some assistance Cr Weatherill reported if it would not be possible to give less teachers time to the principals, as such the Superintendent stated that this could be done by placing an additional teacher in

Not a bit happy about what it's doing to their image in the public eye, the Mounties have made strong representations, and it is possible changes may result. But what impressed us the most was their interested and assiduous efforts to track down a circumstance giving the force a bad name, and to report back. As we said, after printing the complaint, we owe the force and our readers this explanation.

Laughing stock

Remember how all the world was appalled that Jack Ruby should have been able to slip through Dallas police security precautions and shoot Oswald as he was being transferred to another jail?

Consider the image Canadian security must have, then, after a prisoner "safely" in jail was allowed to escape as his case was being heard in the courts. Especially after Hal Banks was allowed to slip away from the country the escape of Lucien Rivard, reputed to be a kingpin in the narcotics traffic, opens up serious doubts as to the efficiency, capability and integrity of enforcement bodies. We are being made to look ludicrous in the eyes of the world.

Lower the bars

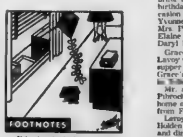
While the Canadian government is energetically persuading the American government to soften the rigid barriers against importation of more Canadian goods, so as to improve our balance of payments position with that country it should be turning at least equal attention to the impossible conditions we have established for trade with Britain.

There is ample room for Canada to be a better customer for Britain. Last year we bought from Britain only forty per cent as much as we sold her, leaving her with a deficit to make up of $797 million.

There is ample evidence that if we don't immediately make serious attempts to improve our position, Britain will stop being our best customer, for the simple reason she can no longer afford to keep up the heavy drain, especially while other markets offer. Partly, we'll agree, the fault is that British merchants haven't tried to find out what kind of goods they could sell here, and develop the market. But when our customs barriers are so high as to be punitive, the climate doesn't look healthy from the British side of the Atlantic. We can't afford to lose such an excellent trade connection.

"Can't you see the sign?"



"It's that little boy in the penthouse across the way."

From the mail bag

Tofield Mercury.
Dear Editor:

We frequently hear "I never did that when I was a boy". I often hesitate when the proclaimer is trying to cover up they "really did". In my day we didn't drive a car at over 100 miles-per-hour. But we rode the "old gray mare" as fast as she could go, by spurring her, and laughed at the danger of her stumbling as a hole and breaking a leg in our necks.

We made our own recreation. We learned our own recreation. But many rural hockey fans, that I know, that endured for any length of time had the approbation and or support of many older persons. I remember a man over 70 years of age who had never worn a pair of skates who played goal for a hockey team. That team mourned for years.

But have youth today the same opportunity to "Do-it-yourself" recreation facilities? I remember a certain "ol' swimmin' hole", in which I taught many boys to swim, that is not available. The boys planned to develop another one but in short order a sign appeared "private, keep out". I played many, many games of baseball, basketball and bushball on a natural grounds level field the same one in the community that is now a field of grain.

We have made many changes and progress in other things but in so doing have destroyed natural opportunities for youth to do their own development of recreation. Should not youth also have the advantages of our progress? Perhaps it will cost money. But I'll venture that the cost nor the changes need not be as great as the change from "The old grey mare" to dad's "Super-eight".

Beaver county council meeting

Following are the minutes, in part, of the regular meeting of County of Beaver School Committee, held Tuesday, Feb 16th. Business Arising From Minutes

In regards to the County Trustees 12-65, the Superintendent informed the Committee that Messrs Earl Hardy and Earl Kindley had been appointed to the Crest Committee from the Local ATA and that they, together with the appointed member from the School Committee Cr. J. H. Reddick, would judge the various entries

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

In regards to the proposed playing fields for cars at the schools for the benefit of the teachers, motion 111 / 65, Mr. Pike reported that the teachers appeared fully in favor of these playing fields, that the suggested charge of $15 for the season was acceptable to them. He stated that arrangements would be made for these playing fields to be put in during the coming summer and that each playing field would have a lock so that it could not be used by unauthorized persons Mr. Allen stated that this matter had been brought up at the last Trustees' meeting and he confirmed Mr Pike's report.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

In regards to the fire at Tofield School, motion 31/65, the Secretary-Treasurer reported that the damaged had now been repaired and he presented to the Committee the account from Watson Tinsdale Limited in this matter, the account being in the amount of $8,138.72. Mr. Pike stated that the work had been very well done and was now complete.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and the account paid.

In regards to the proposed building program at Viking School, motion 32/65, Mr. Pike reported that the size of the commercial rooms would be limited to 1000 square feet and that, as this would not give a large enough room, the County would have to pay for the additional area, which he estimated to be approximately 200 square feet.

In regards to the two lots, adjoining the present location of the schools, the Committee was informed that the lot next to the school grounds could be obtained for $1,000, and that on the second lot Illness is located an old house. The owner of this property would be prepared to exchange lot if the County would move the house, or would sell outright for $4,000. It would be very difficult to move this building and Mr. Pike was of the opinion that we could get along without the lots.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted, and that the matter of the two lots be left in abeyance for the time being.

Concerning the proposed relocating of the water lines on the school grounds at Holden, motion 34-65, the Committee was informed that no replies had as yet been received on the invitation to tender for this work.

Moved and carried that this matter be tabled to the next meeting.

Correspondence

A letter from Mrs. Harold Lefrad of Viking concerning a Safety Essay Competition in grades 5 and 6, sponsored by the Alberta Safety Council and participation granted by the Alberta Department of Education, was referred to the Committee Mrs. Lefarud inquired why the County of Beaver has not participated in this essay contest in recent years, and she requested that the Committee give careful consideration to the need of this kind of education.

After Mr Pike had explained his stand in the matter, it was moved and carried that Mrs. Lafarud be advised that each school is at liberty to enter any essay competitions with the understanding that the staff in each school handle the judging, etc and that she may contact the Superintendent in the matter.

A letter from the Corresponding Secretary of the Camrose and District Association for Retarded Children, requesting a grant from the County towards the building program was referred to the Committee

After some considerable discussion, it was moved that no grant be made.

A letter from the Alberta Advisory Committee on Educational Research requesting a grant towards their operation was referred to the Committee and the Committee was advised that the usual grant in this connection had been $50. It was, however, mentioned that the County was in receipt of the Alberta Journal of Education Research

It was moved and carried that a grant of $50 be given to the Alberta Advisory Committee on Educational Research, with the request that the Journal be supplied to the County office.

The Bus Supervisor's report and account for the month of January was referred to the Committee.

Certain recommendations were made by the Bus Supervisor, and it was moved and carried that each bus driver be supplied with a pair of pliers, a screwdriver and a screw-driver and that some method be devised whereby the driver would be responsible for these tools

The Supervisor referred to a power pole at the Kinsella bus yard that had been placed almost in line with the door, making it very difficult for the buses to get in and out.

Moved and carried that arrangements be made to have the power pole removed.

The Supervisor also requested another man in the shop as, in his opinion, with just the two mechanics he was not able to give sufficient time to the supervising It was decided to defer this matter until the Supervisor was in attendance.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and that the Supervisor's account in the amount of $82.63 be paid.

A request from the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation for information as to the estimated 1965 capital requirements to be financed by sale of debentures to the Corporation was referred to the Committee.

It was considered that only the proposed additions at the Viking School would be undertaken during 1965, and it was moved and carried that the County would expect to borrow the sum of $,000 by way of debentures.

Bus TENDERS

The tenders for the purchase of four 48-passenger school buses were now opened. The tenders were as follows:

Standard Bus and Body Sales Ltd., with GMC chassis and Wayne body price quoted 10,-945 per unit, or $39,180 for the four buses Trade-in allowance on used buses, none.

Van-Wilson Limited GMC chassis and Van-Wilson body. Per unit, 86,531.36, four units, $35,-125.56 No trade-in Blue Bird Bus Sales (1964) Ltd. Per unit, no quotation; four units, $34,000, less trade-ins $1,300. Net, $32,700. Cash price with no trades, $33,000 Options a third heater, $95 each; Blue Bird storm windows, 4 sides and drivers, $84 each.

The Bus Supervisor, who was present at this time, was of the opinion that the third heater was very necessary and that the storm windows were also a very good addition to the buses.

It was moved and carried that the tender submitted by Blue Bird Bus Sales (1964) Ltd. for the four units at a net price of $32,700, plus extra heater and storm windows, making a total of $33,416, be accepted

The Secretary-Treasurer inquired how the Committee wished to pay for these buses, whether out of revenue or if school bus loan should be acquired for

Moved and carried that we request the County Council to apply for a 5 year loan to purchase the four buses

It was considered advisable to obtain storm windows for the 1964 buses that the County now has.

Moved and carried that arrangements be made to have the power pole removed.

The Bus Supervisor also requested that one sets of storm windows at $84 per set

The Bus Supervisor was asked about his request for an additional man in the shop, whether he would consider that an apprentice was acceptable or if he needed a licensed man. Neil Reid stated that in his opinion he should have one-third to half of his time on supervision and that more supervision would most likely effect a saving of repair costs. He had nobody in mind, and it was decided to advertise for an apprentice mechanic, it being considered that an initial salary of $280 per month should be sufficient and that consideration might be given to the employee receiving his salary while attending the Technical School as required for an apprentice

Moved and carried that we advertise for an apprentice mechanic for the bus garage. Such advertising to be placed in the local papers only

Lars Olsen Attends

Mr. Lars Olsen, representing the Beaver Rural Municipalities, addressed the Council at this time. He brought to the attention of the Council motion 32-65 which stated that a car with at least one teacher is to accompany a school bus on extra curricular activities. He inquired if this was to be taken literally. I.e., to be applied on all trips. Mr. Olsen was of the opinion that this was quite in order, and said wished the situation clarified. He also mentioned the matter of the County Policy handbook, stating that it ought to be brought up to date. Mr. Pike stated that he would try to have his stenographer work on this handbook in her spare time

Mr Olsen also referred to the Varsity Weekend at the University of Alberta on Feb. 26th, and asked if school buses could be used to transport students to and from the University. Mr Olsen was assured that this would be quite in order.

In the matter of office assistance for school principals, motion 13/65, Mr Olsen informed the Committee that at the Principals' meeting of Jan. 27, 1965, all principals had indicated that they were in favor of some assistance. Cr. Westmeriil inquired if it would not be possible to give less teaching time to the principals, to which he was informed stated that this could be done by placing an additional teacher in

Seek county fire ...

Strathcona, and even partly in Tofield

Councillor J. H. Haddock suggested the trend is towards centralization and municipalities purchasing such units, and arranging with towns and villages for the housing, manning and sometimes the repairs of such units in return for the privilege of using them locally. Mr. Haddock suggested properly equipped trucks might be purchased at around $12,000 each depending on the equipment included.

However, Councillor H. Westerill voiced an opinion the cost would be nearer $15,000 per unit, plus an additional water tank for each unit. Mr. Westerill suggested he would rather see the county make a grant of, say, $6,000 for each of five units then face an outlay of possibly $75,000 to $100,000 for the entire program financed by the county.

LIGHTER SIDE

A question when the centennial grant could be used for the purpose brought a general chuckle from the gathering when it brought the anonymous response that the centennial grant wouldn't even buy the hose.

The matter was turned over to the council for further investigation and action, but the majority of ratepayers abolished from voting on the motion.

During the discussion the unit at Tofield was mentioned a number of times. It was explained this unit was arranged by selling shares to farmers for a total of $6,000, plus a grant given by the county of $2 000. Ratepayers in the area covered say the arrangement is working very well, the only difficulty arising when the unit serves non-members of the protective association.

A spokesman pointed out a charge of $200 is made any time the rig is called to a fire of a non-member. However, he said, it is often difficult to collect, especially when the fire call is put in by a neighbor and not the damaged party.

Soak county fire ...

Strathcona, and even partly in Tofield

Councillor J H Reddick suggested the trend is towards counties and municipalities purchasing such units and arranging with towns and villages for the housing, manning and servicing of the units. Many of the times the repairs of such units in return for the privilege of using them locally Mr Reddick suggested properly equipped trucks might be purchased at around $12,000 each depending on the equipment included

However Councillor H Wasth erill voiced an opinion the cost would be nearer $15,000 per unit, plus an additional water tank for each unit Mr Westherill suggested he would rather see the county make a grant of, say, $2,000 for each of five units then have an outlay of possibly $75,000 to $100,000 for the entire program financed by the county

LIGHTER SIDE

A question was on the controversial grant reeds I be used for the purpose bought a general chuckle from the gathering when it brought the anonymous response that the centennial grant wouldn't even buy the hose

The matter was turned over to the council for further investigation and action but the majority of ratepayers abstained from voting on the motion

During the discussion on the unit at Tofield was mentioned a number of times. It was explained the unit was arranged by selling shares to farmers for a total of $5,000, plus a grant given by the county of $2,000 Ratepayers in the area concerned say the arrangement is working very well, the only difficulty arising when the unit serves non-members of the protective association

A spokesman pointed out a charge of $200 is made any time the rig is called to a fire of a non-member However, he said, it is often difficult to collect, generally when the fire call is put in by a neighbor and not the damaged party.

Strilchuk takes honors in annual farm 'spiel

The Farmers' Bonspiel that started on February 8th with 28 rinks, and ended on February 24th saw the Ted Strilchuk rink of Round Hill emerge as the winner by defeating Eystein Heiberg, also of Round Hill, in the finals. Supporting Ted Strilchuk were B. Holowatuik, J. Boychuk and Joe Strilchuk, while Heiberg had F. Gotheridge, H. Schmidt and V. Campbell with him.

The big winner was the controversial weather man who three times came out the winner by forcing postponement of the final day of curling. However, on Wednesday afternoon of the 24th, the finals were run off in all events.

The winners were

First Event: 1. T. Strilchuk, Round Hill, 2. E. Heiberg, Round Hill, 3. A. Foshaug, Tofield, 4. L. Foshaug, Tofield.

Second Event: 1. A. Francis, Tofield; 2. G. Snider, Ross Creek; 3. G. Googlein, Tofield; 4. A. Heiberg, Tofield.

Third Event: 1. L. Coykendall Kingman, 2. O. Haugen, Tofield, 3. E. Davison, Tofield; 4. L. Stauffer, Tofield.

Fourth Event: 1. I. McLachlan, Tofield; 2. G. McLachlan, Tofield; 3. Ken Selph, Vegreville; 4. L. Shewchuk, [illegible]

After the curling was finished president Bob Wyllie thanked all participants who had taken part in the 'spiel and who had co-operated in so many ways when games had to be postponed.

He called on Horace Seller, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal who presented the new Bank of Montreal trophy and replicas to the Ted Strilchuk rink. This trophy is to be awarded annually to the grand challenge winner of the farmer's 'spiel.

Other trophy winners were the Art Francis rink who won Dr. Freebury's trophies and the Lee Coykendall rink who won the Farmers' Union trophies.

The draw for the curling sweater which was raffled by the farmers' curling club was won by Denis Lawson, a local member of the club.

Light attendance at county annual meet

Onyl 45 turned out for the County of Beaver annual meeting held Saturday in the Ryley school auditorium, and this figure included members of the council and school committee.

Elected from the floor, Nicholas Laskosky chaired the meeting, capably directing the discussion through various items on the agenda.

Reeve E. M. Magneson was asked for a comparison between costs of roadbuilding when handled by the county or the provincial government, the question referring to sections of roads in the county reconstructed by each last year. Mr. Magneson pointed out it was hard to compare since conditions are rarely the same from one area to another, and specifications frequently differ; however, he said, he felt there was a slight edge in favor of the county.

Purchase of a $66,000 earth mover was questioned from the floor. It was pointed out such a machine is highly expendable, and a question over its economy was raised, particularly when there are several conventional machines in the area. Mr. Magneson said the machine is working out very satisfactorily. All members of the council wondered about it at first, and arranged to use it only on a lease basis at first. However, he said, it has proved to be a great deal cheaper on long haul dirt.

Several questions were asked concerning the expense of a drainage project in the Round Hill district, and detailed explanations of the work and the background for the project were given. Unanswered was the final question on whose responsibility would be the continuing maintenance of the project, after all government grants and assistance are used in its development.

Secretary J. Olof Monsson was given an excellent report by the municipal inspector, who found only minor flaws in the office routine. The records, the report stated, are very satisfactory, and the financial position of the county is excellent.

Field Supervisor Rex Boyles drew considerable attention with his report, covering a wide range of subjects. Mr. Boyles pointed out crop conditions last year were comparatively poor, and urged farmers to double check their seed grain.

He pointed out the area would be developing into a voluntary Bangs testing area by fall of this year, when compulsory testing or vaccination was eliminated. Answering questions from the floor, he said that from next fall, "it will be strictly up to you" as individual farmers. "If you wish, and contact us", he said, "the service board will gladly try to line up calls to reduce costs by having a vet check several animals on each trip".

Coyotes are down, magpies are up, reported Mr. Boyles, and warned there is a threat of rabies spreading into the district. Specifically, he said, it is being carried into the district by skunks from Saskatchewan.

On the subject of pests, Mr. Boyles pointed out that where the government once urged farmers to use more poisons, they now are strongly urging caution in their use. There are many problems attached to misuse or wrong results, and people these days have developed a "sue complex" he said, pointing out legal action might follow unintendended destruction of animals or humans.

Mr. Boyles covered several other sections, such as clean-up of ditches, tree planting, publicity, civil defence, and so on, including the cost of the agricultural service board. He mentioned there is hope that the Weed Act this year will be revised, making the supervisor and members of the Agricultural Service Board members of the council.

March meeting of council sparks lively interest

A very interesting meeting of the Tofield Town Council was held on March 1st at 8.30 p.m., with Mayor W. H. Freebury and Councillors Boese, Everitt, Jefferson, Patterson and Swift present.

NEW LIGHTS

W. M. Christensen, representing the Calgary Power Ltd., proposed a street lighting program which would replace the existing incandescent street lights by 175-watt mercury vapour street lights. Council accepted the proposed program and the additional $21 billing charge per month.

A letter was read from Mrs. Aurore Landerville requesting Council to allow living quarters to the rear of a building owned by Geo. McFadzean, being Lot 10, Block 11, Plan 5811 S, the front portion of the building to be used for a Beauty Parlor. Council granted permission for this.

INSPECTOR APPOINTED

Only one application was received for Building and Plumbing Inspector for the Town of Tofield, that of Ole Sware, who was appointed to this position at the rate of $1 per inspection.

Correspondence from the Gas Protection Branch was read stating the Branch would be prepared to assume the duties of Gas inspections for the Town providing the existing Bylaw respecting gas installations be rescinded.

It was moved and carried that Bylaw No. 404 be rescinded, and that the Gas Protection Branch be responsible for any future gas inspections.

OPPOSE LIQUOR STORE

Opposition was received from the Lutheran Christian Women of Bardo, Board of Directors of Tofield Co-op Association, Bardo WCTU, Salem Mennonite Church, Tofield Mennonite Church, Mennonite Brethren Church of Tofield and Tofield Baptist Church. These letters were read and filed.

Council was informed that the water and sewer agreement with Ed Hegehr and Mrs. Edna Bowick had been fulfilled. It was Council's decision that the concerned parties should now be billed each month for the use of the water and sewer conveniences.

TAX DISCOUNT

Tax discounts, as brought to the attention of Council at the Annual Meeting, was thoroughly discussed. It was moved and carried that Bylaw No. 464 be repealed, and that an 8% discount be allowed on property and business taxes paid before April 30, 1965, and a 4% discount be allowed on taxes paid on May 1st, 1965, to 30 days following the mailing of the 1965 tax notices. Prepayment of taxes to be accepted on the basis of 1964 amounts. Bylaw No. 570, being a tax discount bylaw, received first, second and third readings, and finally passed on a motion by Clr. Jefferson.

The Secretary-Treasurer was instructed to advertise the Bylaw in the local paper and to mail notices to each taxpayer.

Council approved the purchase of the new Canadian flag.

After discussion, the Secretary-Treasurer was instructed to advertise for a dog-catcher for the Town, asking applicants to quote fee per dog.

Clr. Patterson reported to Council that he had attended the hearing of Agrey versus the Town of Tofield earlier in the day. A settlement of $120 was offered, which Council agreed to accept.

County meet dwells largely on schools

Discussion of school programs and problems took up the largest single part of the time at the annual meeting of the County of Beaver held last Saturday in the Ryley school auditorium. School superintendent H. A. Pike and Councillor J. H. Roddick were called on to answer questions ranging over several topics, ranging from clerical assistance to teacherages, as the interested audience followed intently.

Nicholas Laskosky, elected chairman of the meeting, kept the meeting flowing smoothly and efficiently, but tried to ensure that each question was answered before letting the matter drop.

Asked if he were happy without an assistant Mr. Pike pointed out the move might save money, but it meant he was unable to do as good a job, since too much time was spent on detail work. Wondering if the cost saving balanced the difference in service, the superintendent said no, he was not really happy this way.

Following a question over the request for clerical assistance for principals, Mr. Pike reported the matter had been tabled, and for all practical purposes is now dead. Assistance of this nature is used at Killam, Wainwright, Strathcona and other centres. Mr. Pike expressed his own opinion the assistance should be provided by a teacher selected for this purpose, since many of the records involved are of a confidential nature. The cost, he said, would be partially offset by a grant if a teacher were used.

Several questions were asked regarding dismissal of a bus driver in the southwest area of the county more than a year ago, and answered by both Councillor Roddick and Superintendent Pike. Personal feelings were not involved in the decision, stated Mr. Roddick, several factors were taken into consideration before acting. Mr. Pike pointed out that all information had been presented at the trial required, that he had been called on to testify, and had hoped some of the ratepayers would be present at that time to hear the material. Unfortunately, he said, none were present.

Mr. Roddick presented the school committee report, showing increased accommodation in teacherages, classrooms and bus storage. The County owns 17 teacherages, occupied by 24 families, he reported. Answering an inquiry regarding the county's investment and the return on the investment from teacherages, secretary J. Olof Monsson declared that Beaver is one of the few areas trying to stay with a true rental value for its accommodation. Nevertheless, experience has shown the need for such accommodation in recruitment of new teachers, Mr. Monsson stated.

One ratepayer asked if the county had taken a stand for or against private ownership of buses as compared with the county owning them. Mr. Roddick pointed out that costwise there has not been much difference. If anything, he said, buses owned by the county had operated one or two cents a mile cheaper than privately owned buses. Additionally, it is easier to maintain standards with county owned buses he pointed out.

Mr. Roddick continued with the statement that it is policy to replace private contracts with county owned buses when the situation develops, but pointed out this implies no dissatisfaction with presently-operated private units.

Questioned regarding size of units, he said there is very little difference in cost between a 60-passenger unit and a 42 passenger unit. It has been policy to purchase larger units so that where concentrations of pupils develop it is convenient to handle them all. It has not been policy, he maintained, to extend bus runs in order to fill up the buses. "It is my opinion," said Mr. Roddick that children should not be on the buses before 7:30 a.m. This has not been done with our knowledge he concluded.

such school. It was also mentioned that a non-teacher would not be satisfactory in this position as such a person would not be allowed to handle certain records and documents. The question arose, as had been done at previous meetings, how much good would a travelling assistant be, and it was mentioned by Mr. Pike that the principals no doubt would have to re-arrange their schedules and learn to do a good many things in a different manner.

After some considerable discussion, it was moved and carried that this matter be again tabled to a later meeting.

RECONVENED MEETING

The School Committee convened in regular meeting on Wednesday, Feb 10, at 10.00 a.m.

It was moved and carried that the report of the School Bus Inspection conducted by H. G. Murdock, Inspector Safety Division, Highway Traffic Board, during the month of January, 1965, be received and filed.

The Committee was informed that the furnace at Innisfree No 1 at Tofield had been condemned by the gas company, and that a new furnace complete with pipes and labor could be installed for approximately $285. It was also reported that a new furnace was required in Innisfree No 1 at Holden and had in fact been installed, the cost of the furnace being $50.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and that the two furnaces be purchased.

A.S.T.A. Zone 3

Notice from A.S.T.A. Zone 3 of the regular meeting of Zone 3 at 10.00 a.m. Monday, Feb. 22, and the annual meeting of Zone 1 and 3 joint meeting between Zones 3 and 3 on March 11, 1965, was referred to the Committee. Also minutes of the proceedings of the meeting after the conclusion of the Salary Summary held on Jan. 23, 1965.

The matter of teacher recruitment was mentioned in these minutes. This program had been carried out by Zone 3 in 1964 with some considerable success. The suggestion had been that, possibly Zone 3 and Zone 2 could combine in this program thereby cutting the over all cost. The cost in 1964 in Zone 3 had been $175 per teacher hired. The Recruitment had been carried out by Superintendent M. G. Gault. Mr. Pike was of the opinion that the Recruitment Program should be carried out by each Zone, as, if the two Zones combine the opportunity to obtain teachers might be that much harder

Moved and carried that we recommend that the two Zones work independently and that the report be accepted

It was moved and carried that Mr Simon be appointed to represent the School Committee at the Principals' meeting on Feb. 24th.

Building Program

In the matter of their building program now in progress, the Superintendent reported that at

Ladies visit new hospital at Lamont

(Iris [illegible])

ROSS CREEK — Mrs. [illegible] Bailey invited Mrs. Winnie McLachlan, Mrs. Nellie Malcolm and Mrs. Iris [illegible] with her to Lamont on Wednesday afternoon when she went to visit her mother who is a patient in the Archer Memorial Hospital, and recovering [illegible] satisfactorily after undergoing surgery. Mrs. Mary Ferrel, who is also a patient there, was up and walking a little for the first time [illegible] having surgery on both legs. While there, Neil, Winnie and Iris had a complete tour through the lovely new auxiliary hospital now opened and in full service, visited with [illegible] of the elderly patients [illegible] and were [illegible] coffee in the cheery staff room.

From 1956 to 1963 expenditures on education in Canada increased from $1.2 billion to $2.4 billion.

Community loses valued citizen with passing of T. R. Murray

The recent passing of T. R. Murray has brought a keen [illegible] of loss to the entire Tofield district. His was a [illegible] faceted personality which enriched community life in many areas. In the United Church, in the Masonic Lodge, in musical circles, in community organizations and by his innumerable friends he will be [illegible]ly remembered and sorely missed.

T. Roland Murray was born on August 24th, 1887, in Reinbeck, Iowa. His early education was obtained in Blackhawk County country schools and at Amity Academy. In 1905 he moved to Tarkio, Missouri, and attended Tarkio College until 1908. Here he developed his great musical talent by taking courses in vocal music and by participating in concert work. Here, too, he became proficient in his two favorite sports. Both football and baseball claimed his interest and even in his later years he thoroughly enjoyed radio and television presentations of these sports.

MOVES HERE IN '14

In 1908 he [illegible] Colorado. Here he was a member of the militia at Maryville.

In 1914 he moved to the Tofield area. For [illegible] he lived in the Ross Creek area. In 1916 he moved to the Lakeshore district where he farmed until he [illegible].

In 1921 he married Miss Ethel Irene Hawley who was a primary teacher in Tofield and who had come from Iowa. To this marriage were born three children: Margery (now Mrs. Bill Kenny of Rimbey), Douglas, now of Tofield, and Malcolm, now of Red Deer.

Mr. Murray maintained his early interest in sports. He was the very competent catcher for the Tofield baseball team from 1915 to 1920. He was an enthusiastic curler and played some football in the early days of Tofield.

Mr. Murray devoted much time to community service, and over the years held an impressive number of offices in community organization. He took an informed interest in the conduct of public affairs whether on the local, provincial or federal level. He was a director in the Tofield Co-operation Store, the Co-op Credit Association, the Alberta Livestock Association, and for many years was the secretary-treasurer of the Lakeshore School District.

JUBILEE SPEAKER

Reflecting the community's confidence in his ability, Mr. Murray was chosen as the guest speaker on the occasion of the outdoor church service on the occasion of Alberta's Golden Jubilee in 1955. He was always in great demand as chairman for public meetings where his tact and efficiency in handling complicated agenda were much appreciated.

During the nearly forty years Mr. and Mrs. Murray spent in the Lakeshore district, they took a most active part in community affairs. Out of their busy lives they took time to pass on their musical knowledge to the young people of the district. Their interest in choir work and school festivals was of great benefit to the people concerned. Sports, too, received a helping hand from Mr. Murray; he frequently conveyed the school ball teams to neighboring districts, and also did some valuable coaching.

Mr. Murray was an active member and Past Master of Palestine Lodge No. 46 A.F. and H.M. in which he had been the recipient of a life membership.

Mr. Murray's deep Christian faith and his resulting commitment to the United Church of Canada involved him in church affairs throughout the years. He was an elder in the Tofield United Church and for a period of several years was choir leader. During the years when church services were held in the Lakeshore School, Mr. Murray was a faithful attendant, a Sunday School teacher and a frequent soloist at the services. Mrs. Murray participated with her husband in all church activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray retired from farming and moved to Edmonton in 1956 but after three years, returned to make their home in Tofield among their old friends. Much of Mr. Murray's time since then was spent in hospital and wheelchair but in spite of being so confined his interest in community affairs and in his friends' visits never flagged. His hearty laugh made his visitors enjoy their time with him.

Great as were Mr. Murray's contributions to the organized activities of the Tofield district, he will be remembered even more for the courage and endurance he displayed through the long years of his crippling [illegible]. His indomitable spirit has been an inspiration to all who knew him; it was of such as he that John Milton wrote, "They also serve who only stand and wait."

Mr. Murray died in a Red Deer [illegible] on February 25th and was buried on March 1st from the Tofield United [illegible]. Rev. W. McDannold conducted the service; Mrs. J. E. [illegible] was organist and accompanied the choir who sang "The Lord is My Shepherd", which they had also sung at Mrs. Murray's funeral and which Mr. Murray had requested to be sung at his.

The honorary pallbearers were John Warner, Jim Francis, Lorimer Hunter, T. D. Ferguson, Metro Shupenia, Elmer Goeglein, all friends and neighbors of long standing. The active pallbearers were Dan Dodds, Thomas Jacobs, Neil Phillips, Verlyn Moos, John Moore, all Masonic brethren.

The burial service of the Masonic Order was conducted by Rt. Worshipful Bro. Arnold Swift, P.M. of Palestine Lodge, and interment took place in the family plot in the Tofield cemetery.

Mr. Murray was predeceased by his wife in 1963. Survivors are their daughter, Mrs. Margery Kenney of Rimbey, their sons, Douglas of Tofield, and Malcolm of Red Deer. There are grandchildren: Jean, Delbert, Ralph, Ross, Elva, Harold and Beth Kenney of Rimbey; Dennis and Janice Murray of Tofield; David and Carol Murray of Red Deer.

A brother, Mr. John Murray, also survives.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray were an integral part of Tofield for nearly 50 years and though they are gone, their influence and example will continue to enrich this community.

Pioneer group meets at Ruskenveld home

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The Pioneer Group held their meeting Thursday, Mar. 4th at the home of Mrs. [illegible] with 13 ladies present. [illegible] taken by Mrs. R. Raeder [illegible] the sixth chapter of their study book, "God and His Purpose" was taken, with Mrs. Campbell in charge.

At the conclusion of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Ruskenveld.

Their next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Raeder on April 7th, with Mrs. J. A. Giebelhaus in charge of devotions.

Ted Caney passes at early age of 27 years

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY — Edward George (Ted) Caney passed away in an Edmonton hospital on March 10 at the age of 27 years. He was the agent for the Ryley Wheat Pool elevator, and a Scoutmaster for the Boy Scout troop. He is survived by his loving wife, Margaret and two daughters, Wanda and Brenda; his father, J. L. Caney of Lisburn, Alta.; his mother, Mrs. Ed Veriede of Melita, Man.; four sister, Doris, Mrs. Irvin Ginter, Saskatoon; Muriel Caney, Edmonton; Myrna, Mrs. Richard Cristman; and Colleen Caney, as well as three brothers, Russel, Jack and Brian all of Lisburn.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Mar. 13th, at 2 p.m. from the Calvin United Church with Jim Ruxton officiating. Interment was in the Ryley Cemetery. Lloyd Wickstrom sang a beautiful solo, "Beyond the Sunset".

Pallbearers were Stan Kozdrowski, Harold Hokos, Glen Reil, Glen Knudslien, Ron Kropielnicki, and George Kolodychuk.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from his loving wife and family, friends and relatives, and there were a great number of memorials made to the various churches, funds, and organizations. The Burgar Funeral Home of Camrose was in charge of arrangements.

Heifer survives winter in wilds

Hereford heifer about two years old was found about the middle of February by Government trappers in the wilds of the game preserve east of Ministik Lake. The animal had been all alone in a small pothole in which she had been rustling, until the trappers brought her a little feed on a snow crawler.

The trappers came in from the west side of the preserve with the snow crawler, but couldn't see any brand on the heifer. The game warden also went in on snowshoes with a little feed but couldn't see a brand either. Then Ivan Broen skiied in from the east side of the preserve but couldn't catch the heifer, so Gus Schmidt and Don Mackies went in with horses, changing lead horses every hundred yards or so as a horse soon became exhausted breaking trail in the three feet of crusted snow in the bush.

When the heifer was caught she was found to be wearing the Horricks brand, having escaped from their pasture at roundup time last fall. She had since survived on what feed she could find around one small slough, tramping down the snow to find the grass, until the trappers found her. She was in as good a shape as lots of cattle that have been sheltered and fed all winter, and there was no sign of her having any frostbite.

Edmonton rink wins Grand Challenge

The Tofield Ladies' Curling Club held their bonspiel Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Mar. 12th, 13th and 14th, with 18 rinks participating.

Following is the list of winners:

Grand Challenge: 1, Christensen, Edmonton; 2, McKay, Tofield; 3, Komarnisky, Holden; 4, Swift, Tofield.

Second Event: 1, Dressler, Edmonton; 2, Davison, Tofield; 3, Patterson, Tofield; 4, Worton, Tofield.

Third Event: 1, Scott, Edmonton; 2, Steere, Camrose; 3, Good, Holden; 4, Francis, Tofield.

TROPHY WINNERS

The above winners came in strong during the high school bonspiel held recently and reclaimed the "Killearn" trophy for Tofield, the school that has held the handsome trophy since its donation three years ago. The contributer is the Gallinger Farms. Left to right are Shirley Swift, Allen Everitt, Frances Schultz and Brian McFadzean. Presenting the trophy is Claude Gallinger. - Photo by Peter Nickel.

Sgt. Major J. E. Anderson of Wetaskiwin, now stationed in Germany, explained the features of Canadian small arms to a group of 19 weekly newspapermen touring Germany recently. Shown with him is Ken Patrige of The Tofield Mercury.

Booth wins Father and Son bonspiel

Roland Booth, and his farm [illegible] proved too powerful for local town rinks and won top laurels in the second annual Father and Son bonspiel. Curling with Booth were his nine-year-old son, Bruce, old timer Chris Bugge and 11-year-old Kevin Bugge.

Nine-year-olds may be considered too young to indulge in the game of curling but young Bruce proved otherwise. With both feet in the hack and both hands on the rock he rarely failed to get his rocks in play. And to further prove that curling is a young man's game, Kevin Bugge, playing only the third and fourth games of his career threw third rock while his uncle, Chris played at second.

The Booth foursome scored a total of 40 points out of a possible 44 points when they upset two Treasury Branch rinks skipped by R. G. Fisk and Norm Hogland. Bryce Albrecht, a member of the winning rink last year presented the championship trophy and replicas to the Booth rink.

Placing second in this 'spiel was the Walter Kondrowski rink who had his five-year-old son, Lyle, at lead. Johnny Wong, a newcomer to town, who saw his first curling rock only a month ago, at second, and John Kozdrowski threw third rock for this foursome. Lyle, although only five years old, is an old hand at the game as he spends a good deal of his time at the rink while his grandfather prepares the ice. After 30 years of curling, John won his first trophy and shared the limelight with his grandson who took home his first trophy at the age of five. However, it took Johnny Wong who captured the hearts of the crowd on hand when the trophies were presented by David Powers. He stated he could not take time to express his views on curling because he was in a hurry to get home because his mother was going to bake a cake to celebrate his win.

Immediately prior to the playing of the final game on Tuesday night a banquet was served to the boys and their fathers by members of the Oddfellows Lodge. The interest and enthusiasm shown in this 'spiel is such as to make it the most talked of event of the curling year. Badge bedecked youngsters are now discussing the shots they made or missed rather than indulging in the usual conversation, and the mothers also have a new topic of conversation for their afternoon teas.

To all the 'little people'

"Ireland is a country in which the probable never happens and the impossible always does."

This statement, attributed to an Irishman, has a certain ring of truth to it on the "17th of Ould Ireland" when Irishmen and leprechauns alike, from the Emerald Isle to the Equator, will be toasting each other with the "top o' the marnin'" and the "luck of the Irish" in honour of their patron saint, St. Patrick, and the bright green of the shamrock will be sported in every buttonhole, or blouse.

It's true that as the Scots with Burns Nicht, so the transplanted Irish are far stronger in their observance of the day than those Irish who never left the "ould sod", that memories of that green land far away make it ever greener than it really seems at home. But it brightens the world for many a soul . . . we'd be far poorer without the observance.

So . . . the luck of the Irish to ye.

Does the weather man know?

When St. Patrick's Day comes, it's obvious that Spring can't be far behind at least officially, anyway. This weekend marks the spring solstice, but regardless of what the calendar shows, we're afraid the thermometer won't reflect the same story.

For several weeks the long range forecast has predicted the worst blizzard of the winter should hit on Friday. After all the weather we've seen the past few months, nobody will be looking forward to it . . . even if we should be pretty well practised up for it.

By George!

"Top o' the marnin' (or the evenin', as the case may be) to all the good people who can call the "Emerald Ould" home, or whose parents and grandparents may lay claim to the honor.

This is one of my favorite days of the year, not only because my maternal grandfather was a native son of Ireland, but because most of the music heard over radio and television on the seventeenth of Ireland includes my favorites—good old Irish melodies. Sure, and it warms the cockles of your heart!

o-o-o o-o-o

Can you remember another winter in which so many weekends have been spoiled by blizzards? Around our house we're afraid to plan any kind of weekend activity other than a quiet one at home. Any other plans will wind up in disappointments and cancellations.

Well, Spring is not far behind. It will be ushered in with this Sunday's blizzard!

o-o-o o-o-o

This actually happened in a Camrose home recently. Tom overheard his Mother and Dad bemoaning the fact they could not find the porcelain cement that had been around the house for some time and then disappeared when it was needed. "I could sure use it right now to repair this broken dish," said his Mother.

"I know where the 'plate cement' is," exclaimed Tom helpfully.

"Good. Go get it," he was told.

He disappeared for a minute or two, returned beaming, and handed his Mother a squeeze-type tube. Looking at the instructions, she read "Clean plates thoroughly, then cover liberally with Poli-Grip plate cement . . ."

J. W. Carter passes at 96

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Word was received last week that J. W. Carter of Edmonton, a former Holden and Tofield resident for many years, passed away Tuesday, Mar. 9th at the age of 96 years. Mr. Carter was a well known figure in curling circles and participated for many years in the Northern Alberta Pioneers and Oldtimers Association, and for the past five years had always started off the season by throwing the first rock.

Mr. Carter is survived by two daughters, Mrs. O. P. Thomas of Edmonton, who resided in Holden for several years when her husband taught at the Holden school; and Mrs. W. H. Hayne of Medicine Hat, one son Frank of Edmonton, four grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. His wife predeceased him in 1942. The funeral service was held from Andrews-McLaughlin Chapel Saturday afternoon with burial at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. A number of former Holden residents and friends of the family attended the funeral to pay their last respects.

Holden OORP meets

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — [illegible]day evening, Mar. 9th, the [illegible]olden Lodge OORP held their regular meeting when DDSHRL Edworthy of Hardisty made her official visit and inspection of the lodge. Also making the visit with L. Edworthy was PHRL Pauline Cavanaugh also of Hardisty Lodge. Members were informed that the district meeting of District No. 4 to which they belong, will be held Saturday April 24th, at Killam. DDSRHL Edworthy was presented with a lodge emblem spoon from the members, and at the conclusion of the meeting the lunch hostesses, PHRL Sanderson and Lady Strilchuk served a delicious lunch.

MacDuff Ottawa report

Early budget — early election

OTTAWA — Prime Minister L. B. Pearson has forecast that his Minister of Finance Hon. Walter Gordon will be in a position to bring down the new budget around the end of March or early in April.

While Mr. Pearson made this observation to newspapermen, shortly after he had told the Commons that he hoped it would quickly wind up the business before the old second session and get started on the new third session, he did not make any comments regarding an election. But his prediction that the budget would be soon brought down in the House, aroused election speculation.

The 1965-66 budget is believed to contain some healthy tax cuts. It will be a "sunshine" springtime budget that might well be the forerunner of a June election.

FEELING IS STRONGER

There is a growing conviction in the Commons that this present Parliament has outlived its usefulness. After the Christmas and New Year's recess some members, particularly on the government side, had hoped the House would get on with the business of the country with more co-operation and less acrimony or animosity.

However, several angry sittings have led many MP's to believe that the sooner this parliament is dissolved and an election called the better for the country. It may be that the government has the decision to dissolve taken out of its hands. This would come about if the government is defeated on a vote of confidence in the House.

As soon as the second session of the present 26th Parliament is completed — in mid-March — the third session will be convened. There will be a throne speech and throne speech debate. There will be also the customary motions of non-confidence. If the government survives those motions it will be in a position to bring down its budget. Mr. Pearson pointed out to newsmen that March 31 is the end of the fiscal year for the government. He added he would like to have the budget before the House a day or so ahead of that date but it is highly unlikely that he will achieve that goal.

SUPPORT SHIFTING

Social Credit Leader Robert Thompson said recently that Prime Minister Pearson has a responsibility to the Canadian people to "clean house" in his administration or the Prime Minister would lose the support of the Socreds in the confidence votes. He said that his group would have to vote against the Liberal Minority government if the official opposition in the new session introduced motions of confidence on the political morality question.

Mr. Thompson said he personally did not want to see a Spring election. He believed it would [illegible]

Much better, thank you!

Garnet Bursted, local town secretary and a well known curling enthusiast, has completely recovered from a near serious mishap at a recent bonspiel. Immediately following his painful ordeal it was feared that he would require medical treatment and hospitalization. However after home treatment and a short rest Garnet was back at work in the town office and curling his usual game at district bonspiels. Garnet would like to thank his many friends for their concern over his mishap and assures them that he has completely recovered.

Men who give in if wrong, are wise; men who give in if right—are married.

Ryley and district news briefs

(M. K. Westmacott)

Mr and Mrs Emil Bodnaski and family of Edmonton were visiting relatives in the district over the weekend and spent Sunday with Madeleine's parents, Mr and Mrs Willie Pope.

Mr and Mrs Ralph Cretney and family of Edmonton were Sunday visitors with Mildred's parents, Mr and Mrs S. N. Booth.

Andrew Finseth passed away in the Tofield hospital on Mar. 10th. He was Ryley's oldest citizen, and would have been 90 years of age in July of this year.

Mr and Mrs S Halberg have returned after spending two weeks in Edmonton looking after their daughter Norma's home and family while she and her husband Mr and Mrs Graham Mann accompanied by Mr and Mrs. Monty Becker of Dawson Creek, were vacationing at Las Vegas, U.S.A.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Bett Weiss is once again a patient in the Tofield hospital.

Henry Bekker is a patient in the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Edmonton, where he underwent surgery this week.

The ladies of the auxiliary to the Canadian Legion are planning to repeat their dinner hamper draw that was so well received at Christmas time. This hamper will be made up for Easter.

CARIBBEAN HOLIDAY

Johnny and Marguerite Fish were at the new International Airport at Nisku on Friday night to bid bon voyage to their daughter, Joyce and son-in-law, Mr and Mrs Elmer Patrick of Hinton, when they started off on their Caribbean vacation.

Mrs. Sewel Booth had two of her sisters arrive for a visit this week, namely Mrs. Edna Irwin of Waterloo, Ont., and Mrs. Ina Marshall of Oshawa, Ont. They will be staying for Mr. and Mrs. Booth's golden wedding anniversary celebration on Sunday, March 21st.

Lenten services are being conducted by Pastor Stanley Rude in the Lutheran Church every Wednesday evening at 8 p.m., during Lent. Everyone is welcome.

Dodds - Ryley news briefs

(Mrs. O. Lehman)

The district was saddened by the passing of Ted Caney in the University Hospital, Edmonton. Sympathy of the community is extended to the family.

Sunday guests at the Bert Kirkelund home were Mr and Mrs Ed Deagle and family, and Billy Kirkelund all of Edmonton, Gordon Kirkelund and Mr and Mrs Joseph Helgeland.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Friends and relatives gathered at the Grand Forks Community Centre on Sunday to help Mr and Mrs. Fred Hostler celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The couple was seated at the table with their attendants, Mr and Mrs Clarence Lauber, Kate Lauber and Maynard Stauffer. A fine program was rendered and David Stutzman presented Fred and Ada with gifts and a purse of money from the community. Fred and Ada thanked everyone for coming and making the day one that they will always remember. Lunch was then served by the ladies.

SCHOOL OBSERVES EDUCATION WEEK

On Wednesday evening, parents were invited to attend a meeting held in the Ryley school gym to observe Education Week, March 7th to 14th. Lunch was served after the meeting to the very good attendance present.

Mr and Mrs. Kenneth Zook, Mr and Mrs Oliver Lehman were Thursday dinner guests at the Frank Drasak home in Edmonton. Little Steven Zook is a patient in the Tofield hospital.

Douglas Lehman is being employed at Killam in the bank there.

Mr and Mrs. Oliver Lehman, Lorna and Calvin visited at the Ole Hjelter home on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Whitford hosts Ministik Ladies' Club

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK, March 13th — The March meeting of the Ladies' Club was held at the home of Mrs Les Whitford with 14 members present. Roll call was answered by "a bad habit I should break", and all members had at least one.

It was decided that the ladies should treat themselves to dinner at a well known eating place in Edmonton, followed by attending "My Fair Lady" at the Paramount Theatre. This was to be on Wednesday, March 17th.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs A. Ferguson, Mrs Joe Davenport and Mrs S. George. Entertainment in the form of a contest was supplied by Mrs. Helen Hennessy. It proved very interesting and informative. Winners were Mrs. Dennis Jones, Mrs Albert Herracks and Mrs. Jim Reddick.

Roll call for April will be the exchange of an Easter card, the April meeting to be held at the United Church.

IN MEMORIAM

HJELTER.—In loving memory of Harold James Hjelter, who passed away March 22, 1962:

The golden gates stood open three years ago today,
With farewells left unspoken,
you softly passed away;
You tried so hard to stay with us—your fight was all in vain;
God took you to his home above,
and freed you from all pain.
We loved you, but God loved you best—
Sleep on, dear Harold, and take your rest.
—Sadly missed by Dad, Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

Modern Etiquette

Q. Should a person apologize for the crunching noise he makes while eating hard toast, celery, or something of that nature?

A. This is not necessary, since such a noise is usually unavoidable and any apologies would serve merely to call more attention to it. Try, however, to muffle the noise as much as you can.

Q. Is it proper to mail birth announcements to all one's friends, even to those whom one has already phoned the good news?

A. I think it's rather foolish to mail announcements to those who already know the news -except perhaps when you have an especially "cute" or novel sort of printed announcement.

Q. What are the most popular forms of introducing a man and a woman?

A. Either, "Miss Lake, may I present Mr Ford?" Or, "Miss Lake, Mr. Ford". Observe that in both forms the woman's name is mentioned first.

Q. Just what is expected of the parents of a newly engaged couple?

A. The man's parents should call immediately, within three days if possible, on the girl and her parents. Should they live in another city, a letter, usually from the mother of the son, should be written to the girl to welcome her into their family.

Q. I've been criticized for eating the lettuce, parsley, or watercress that is placed around certain items of food as a garnish. Am I really "a pig" when I do this?

A. Indeed you're NOT! Since the garnish is an intrinsic part of a dish, it is your privilege to eat it.

Q. If you are offered cigarettes in the home of a friend, is it all right to decline in favor of your own brand?

A. This would be rude. Even if it is a brand of cigarette you don't particularly care for, accept the hospitality offered.

This is Good Seed Month

Hon. Harry E. Strom, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, has declared March "Good Seed Month". He examines a sample of pure seed with Elden Kaun, President Canadian Seed Growers' Association, Alberta Branch.

The month of March has been declared Good Seed Month in the Province of Alberta.

Chief purpose of the special month, declared by Alberta's minister of Agriculture, Hon. Harry Strom, is to promote the use of top quality seed by all farmers. And the use of cleaned seed is another prime requisite in the promotion to retain the high standard of all kinds of grains produced in Canada.

TOP QUALITY STRESSED

During Good Seed Month all seed dealers, as well as handlers of seed, are urged to support and stress the use of top quality seed for better crops. While control of weeds is much improved through the use of chemicals, a better methods of control lies in prevention of these problems, and this is possible through the use of good seed.

Farmers are also reminded during this special month to give consideration to the use of the right variety of seed for the particular area in which he operates. Some seeds are better suited to certain soil and climatic conditions than others.

AXIOMS

A few crop selection axioms are listed below.

Plant clean seed. Don't plant weeds—there are too many now.

Plant early ripening crops if farming in a short season area. An extra few days of combining may be worth half the crop.

Plant for yield and quality but don't gamble. It may cost a summer's wages.

Beware of flax after flax, rape after rape, or barley after barley, for if plant diseases don't catch up, weeds will.

Start with pedigreed seed of the kind and variety that best fits your farm business.

Good seed a good buy

Seed cleaning can also reduce the incidence of seed borne diseases. Most notable is the effect that good cleaning and sizing of seed has on the incidence of loose smut in barley.

McFadden and co-workers at Lacombe have shown that by screening barley seed so as to remove all the small seeds, the percentage of infection of loose smut is substantially reduced.

The cost of cleaning commercial seed is usually less than 10 cents per bushel. In terms of barley, an increase in yield of one-quarter of a bushel per acre would more than pay for the cleaning.

Much (the) same may be said for the cost of seed treatment which usually averages about 5 or 6 cents per bushel.

CSGA governs production care of quality seed

Charles Moore, vice-president of the Alberta branch of the Canadian Seed Growers Association recently explained how the CSGA records and governs the care and production of superior varieties and qualities of seeds.

Mr. Moore who lives at Debolt, Alberta says:

"Plant breeders develop new varieties to combat our problems. Disease, pests, drought, even wind resistant plants are now a common thought in our plant scientist's mind. Combined in superior varieties are the characteristics of a crop that meets the approval of the ultimate consumer.

[illegible] seed, called [illegible] seed, is now distributed among carefully select seed growers known as foundation growers and care is taken to avoid [illegible] of the new variety. Three superior qualities of the variety was the only goal in which the plant breeder had so tirelessly strived to obtain and any careless or accidental contamination of this seed anywhere along the line will defeat the entire purpose. This care of production is governed and recorded by the foundation grower and the Canadian Seed Growers Association.

"In this way, the production and distribution of a new variety meets its beginning which in the case of cereal grain is designated as first and second generation seed and in the case of forage seed and grasses the name used is Foundation Seed and these are the parent crops of certified seed.

The general farming public can rest assured, confident that Certified seed sealed in a bag or in bulk will be the true-to-type variety of his choice".

This is Good Seed Month

Hon. Harry E. Strom, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, has declared March "Good Seed Month". He examines a sample of pure seed with Elden Kaun, President Canadian Seed Growers' Association, Alberta Branch.

The month of March has been declared Good Seed Month in the Province of Alberta.

Chief purpose of the special month, declared by Alberta's minister of Agriculture, Hon. Harry Strom, is to promote the use of top quality seed by all farmers. And the use of cleaned seed is another prime requisite in the promotion to retain the high standard of all kinds of grains produced in Canada.

TOP QUALITY STRESSED

During Good Seed Month all seed dealers, as well as handlers of seed, are urged to support and stress the use of top quality seed for better crops. While control of weeds is much improved through the use of chemicals, a better methods of control lies in prevention of these problems, and this is possible through the use of good seed.

Farmers are also reminded during this special month to give consideration to the use of the right variety of seed for the particular area in which he operates. Some seeds are better suited to certain soil and climatic conditions then others.

AXIOMS

A few crop selection axioms are listed below.

Plant clean seed. Don't plant weeds—there are too many now.

Plant early ripening crops if farming in a short season area. An extra few days of combining may be worth half the crop.

Plant for yield and quality but don't gamble. It may cost a summer's wages.

Beware of flax after flax, rape after rape, or barley after barley, for if plant diseases don't catch up, weeds will.

Start with pedigreed seed of the kind and variety that best fits your farm business.

Good seed a good buy

Seed cleaning can also reduce the incidence of seed borne diseases. Most notable is the effect that good cleaning and sizing of seed has on the incidence of loose smut in barley.

McFadden and co-workers at Lacombe have shown that by screening barley seed so as to remove all the small seeds, the percentage of infection of loose smut is substantially reduced.

The cost of cleaning commercial seed is usually less than 10 cents per bushel. In terms of barley, an increase in yield of one-quarter of a bushel per acre would more than pay for the cleaning.

Much tthes ame may be said for the cost of seed treatment which usually averages about 5 or 6 cents per bushel.

Don't start chicks on concentrate

Feed 3 lbs. M-M Crumbles first

On a grain farm, it pays to feed grain and concentrate. But NOT to baby chicks. A tiny chick can't eat more than a teaspoonful a day . . . and you can't mix grain and concentrate with enough accuracy to get the right proportions of energy, protein, vitamins and minerals into every spoonful. For strong, sturdy, even-sized birds, feed 3 lbs. per chick of Money-Maker Chick Starter Crumbles FIRST. They give every chick the right blend of nutrients to grow fast while the "urge to grow" is strongest. Turn to grain and concentrate later. This is the way that pays.

Tofield Hi notes

(Elaine Walker)

On Saturday, Mar. 13th, Betty-Ann Shultz's team of [illegible] Lampitt, Clarice Jacobsen and Ruth-Ellen Sears represented Tofield in Ryley at the County H.S. girls and boys' bonspiel. The students of Tofield school wish to congratulate them on the winning of the county championship.

In the afternoon high school curling, Kevin Pike won the first event and was presented the Arnett trophy on Tuesday.

MOCK COUNCIL

On March 8th, the Grade 10 Social Studies class carried on a mock town council meeting in the school. Dennis Heubert took the position of mayor and Donna Jacobsen was the secretary-treasurer. The councillors were Frances Shultz, Shirley Swift, Val Fleck, Doug Grover, Bernie Wilkie and Jim Kallal. After the meeting, which was carried out extremely well, Mr. Swift commented on different parts of the discussion. The [illegible] would like to thank all those who came to the meeting and it is hoped that the "mock town council" will become an annual event in our school.

UN ASSEMBLY

Representing Tofield at the mock U.N. Assembly held in Edmonton will be Shauna Astley and Florence Stutzman. The assembly will be held during the week of April 24th, 25th and 26th and will include high schools from Northern Alberta. Shauna and Florence will be representing the country of Kenya and we wish them success in their venture.

The Tofield Drama Class is progressing well with their play "Heat Lightning", which will be presented at the Drama Festival on April 2nd. The industrious cast consists of Dennis Hubert, Donna Jacobsen and Walter Johnson.

New books at library

French, Warren — A "Companion" to the Grapes of Wrath. Each year more and more students are reading John Steinbeck's famous work "The Grapes of Wrath". They are reading it not only as literature but as a historical landmark. This companion is designed to supply the context which the original readers of the novel took for granted.

Hailey, Arthur — Hotel. Author of "Final Diagnosis". Through five eventful days we share the fortunes, conflicts and intimacies affecting the hotel, its guests, its echelon of management. Good reading.

Hayes, Joseph — "The Third Day". Author of "The Desperate Hours". An original and powerful novel that combines spine-tingling suspense with a profound exploration of character and a statement of responsibility and human values.

Japrisot, Sebastien — "Trap for Cinderella". A fire, two young girls and the French Riviera makes this mystery novel.

Keyes, Frances — "The Explorer". Story of a Virginia archeologist exploring the mountains of Peru for a "lost city". A well-written and emotional novel.

Knowler, John — "The Trap". Originality of plot gives this book its distinct and subtle flavor.

Montgomery, R. — "The Living Wilderness". Material in this book is painstakingly accurate and most complete. Mr. Montgomery has given shape and identity to our country's wildlife in a manner that is entertaining, witty and thoroughly engrossing.

Sutton, David — "Complete book of model railroading". Both beginner and seasoned veteran will find this big book a richly rewarding guide in know-how and practical ideas of model railroading. The different types of equipment available, secrets of painting and aging techniques, dozens of charts, wiring diagrams and suggested layouts of pikes, illustrate the text.

Young, Leontine — "Wednesday's Children." A study of child neglect and abuse. L. Young examines both rural and urban areas, touches upon all economic and social classes, describing the range of mistreatment.

Book donations have been received from Mrs. L. Theobold, Mrs. A. Dodds, and Rev. McDonald.

Annual Town report reflects steady growth in 1964

The annual meeting of ratepayers of the Town of Tofield was held Monday, Feb. 22nd, at 8 p.m. in the meeting room of the Tofield Community Centre.

On a motion by L. E. Hanson, Mr. J. E. Stinson was appointed chairman, and on a motion by Dr. W. H. Freebury, Mrs. Rita Halverson was appointed recording secretary. The meeting was attended by 25 ratepayers and two visitors. The minutes of the 1963 annual meeting were read and accepted on a motion by Councillor Swift.

STEADY GROWTH

Mrs. Rita Halverson gave the secretary-treasurer's report showing a steady growth of the town had taken placing during 1964. Building permits to the value of $233,810.00 were sold, made up of 13 new dwellings, nine permits for additions and improvements and ten permits for garages including the school bus garage. In turn, the building program had increased the total taxable assessment by $88,000. A new completed January 31st, 1965, showed the population figure at 1,998. The secretaress took this opportunity to thank the ratepayers for their co-operation during the "breaking-in" year and hoped she would be able to do a better job of the administration of town affairs in 1965.

The municipal inspector's report was read by Mrs. Halverson. L. L. Gurel recommended many changes including the payment of petty cash accounts, the instilling of extra pages of minutes by the magrar, the proper procedure in swamping of lots and the cumulance of passing a bylaw to appoint the present secretrea. Mayor Dr. Freebury assured the ratepayers that the report had been dealt with and the necessary steps taken to bring the report up-to-date.

H. G. Keller, manager of the Bank of Montreal, commented on the auditors statement, stating that although an operating surplus of over $5,000.00 was shown in 1964, the cash position of the town was not good. He felt that the metering of water would place the water utility on a self supporting basis barring extra expense such as the town experienced through a shortage of water in 1964.

HOSPITAL REPORT

George McFadzean, town representative on the hospital board, reported that the 1964 deficit of $1,054.40 was due mainly in medical benefits to the hospital staff. The Tofield hospital had operated at an 88.71% capacity in 1964. Comparing the hospital with that of Rocky Mountain House, almost three times the laboratory services were processed here.

NEW "CANADIANA" PANELS installed in the lobby of British American's head office in Toronto are the latest designs executed by company artist Thor Hansen. The 10-foot-high panels, of carved wood and painted linoleum, depict Canada's west coast, central and east coast regions.

Hans Huseby marks 87th birthday

Hans Huseby, prominent Palmer farmer, observed his 87th birthday on Sunday at the Henry Huseby home when all the family were present to enjoy a turkey dinner. Present were: the ill Leierula, Norma Huseby and the Kes Yacharna, all of Edmonton; the Paddy Francours of Camrose; the Wallace Gabelhaus family of Holden; the Conrad Dunns and Dennis Huseby families. Mrs. Inga Alfarth, Oscar Afarth and the Ken Sorgens.

UCW seeks old records

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

LAKESHORE-McKENZIE. — The Lakeshore UCW met at the home of Mrs. Vi Georgiets on Wednesday, Mar. 17th (St. Patrick's Day) with a good attendance of members and visitors despite the bad conditions of the roads. After all business was taken care of, a very delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses, Vi Georgiets and Eleanor Jones. It was requested that your reporter enquire if any one knew of anyone who had any records or books of minutes, clippings or pictures taken of the Lakeshore Ladies' Aid from their beginning. Also any records between 1935 to 1941. If any one knows of any of these, will they please get in touch with Mrs. Ellener (Joe) Jones, president of the Lakeshore UCW. The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. McDannold in Tofield on Wednesday, April 21st, weather and roads permitting.

Williams heads Community Club

(Mrs. Jim Roddick)

MINISTIK, March 22 — At the annual meeting of the Ministik Community Club, the following officers were elected for one year: president, Keith Williams; vice-president, Joe Davenport; secretary, Mrs. Ronald Seabey. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horricks on the 14th.

Municipal Library succeeds Tofield PL

The annual meeting of the Tofield Library was held January 26th in the Council chambers of the Town Hall. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. The financial report and librarian report were read by Mrs. D. Freebury.

A motion was made by Dr. W. H. Freebury to turn over the assets and books to the newly formed Municipal Library.

Ed Watson was nominated as chairman of the Municipal Library Board, and Mrs. Rita Halverson appointed secretary. Mrs. Dorothy Freebury was appointed as librarian and Mrs. Georgina Christensen as assistant librarian.

Terms of office for the board members as appointed by the town council are as follows:

Mr. E. Watson for a three-year term; Mr. Don Hardy for a two-year term; Mrs. C. Patterson for a one-year term; Mr. J. L. Jefferson for a one-year term.

After much discussion it was moved by D. Hardy that the chairman and the librarian be required to sign at the bank, with the librarian acting as the treasurer.

The budget for 1965 was presented by Mrs. Dorothy Freebury, and accepted on a motion by Dr. Freebury.

It was moved by Ed Watson that the board adopt the provincial government per capita grant. The secretary was instructed to write the council of the Town of Tofield regarding their share of the grant.

D. Hardy moved the next meeting of the new board be set for the last Tuesday of January in each year.

The rate of fees and fines were discussed and it was moved by E. Watson they remain the same as for the Tofield Public Library.

Mr. Watson moved that the secretary invite Mr. Wiltshire of the provincial government to attend a meeting in April, a date to be set at his convenience, to answer any questions the board wished to ask.

Dr. Freebury expressed thanks to the previous executive and librarians and expressed the hope that they would continue to serve as friends and patrons of the library under its new form of government.

Baergen at conference

John Baergen of Tofield was among those registered for the annual conference of retail cooperative managers held in Calgary Monday through Wednesday.

The conference, sponsored by Federated Co-operatives Limited, is being attended by managers from all parts of the prairies. Among outstanding speakers on the program are Mrs. A. F. W. Plumptre, Ottawa, president of the Consumers Association of Canada, and Dr. John Deutsch, chairman of the Canada Economic Council.

'Hat seeking trail riders

Horsemen are being sought in order to attempt eight day trail ride from Medicine Hat to Calgary. The Mercury learned this week from L. Eric Hansen of Medicine Hat. Horsemen from the Tofield area are particularly sought.

Last year 81 riders completed the ride, some entries travelling 1,000 miles to enter. Plans are to start June 26th, winding up in Calgary July 3rd, and ride in the Stampede Parade July 5th, followed by the presentation of trophies. Time is allowed for visiting points of interest along the trail, and sightseeing, and the caravan will be accompanied by a stage coach, chuckwagon and other covered wagons.

Complete information is available from Mr. Hansen at Box 943, Medicine Hat. Early entries are sought, closing definitely on May 15th.

TB x-ray at Ministik

The Mobile Chest X-ray Tuberculosis Testing Clinic will be in operation at the Ministik School, Ministik, on Friday, April 2nd, from 1:30 to 5:00 p.m., and from 6:30 to 8:45 p.m.

Mrs. J. D. Patterson is the general chairman. This service is provided by the Alberta Tuberculosis Association and the Alberta department of public health.

Tofield woman passes —funeral tomorrow

Mrs. Matrona Margaret Misiuk, widow of the late Mr. Elias Misiurak of Tofield, passed away Monday, March 22, at the age of 58 years. She leaves one daughter, (Mary) Mrs. Jim Pyper of Hay Lakes; three grandchildren; a brother in Argentina, and a brother and two sisters in the Ukraine.

Funeral services will be held Friday, March 26, at 2:30 p.m., from Tofield United Church, with Rev. W. H. McDonald officiating. Interment at the Tofield Cemetery. Friends wishing to pay their respects may do so at Tofield United Church between 1:00 and 2:15 p.m. on Friday, or prior to that at Andrews - McLaughlin Chapel in Edmonton.

Farmer's worst pest

At the County of Beaver annual meeting recently during a discussion on pest control, one farmer intrigued the meeting when he asked Agriculturist Service Board representative Mrs. Boyce "What are you doing about the worst pest the farmer faces? I mean beer bottles thrown in the fields and ditches?"

The novel question drew a lot of interest, but it also drew a lot of support, coupled with reports of not only bottles, but stones and even garbage being dumped.

Suggested remedies were bear in cans, and stronger pressure on the brewers including one that the deposit on bottles be raised to the point where they would be too expensive to throw away.

One farmer recalled that a recent visitor from Ontario reported there penalties are so high that no-one dares be caught throwing away waste, and suggested the practice be adopted in Alberta.

It was pointed out that one of the problems in Alberta is the tremendous amount of road to patrol, and the comparative safety at present from being caught. However there seems little doubt that brewers, and soft drink bottlers must in the near future, find some satisfactory answer to the problem. Frequently mentioned in the Legislature the opposition to the damage inflicted by broken glass in growing year by year and public indignation will increase to the point where it cannot be denied.

At least tin will rust and erode away over a period of years glass remains sharp and dangerous practically forever.

Same difference

Alberta's Highways Minister Gordon Taylor does an excellent job of handling highways, and we have long lauded his capacity for resisting appeals to share in the construction programs.

If he can resist one appeal, we suppose it's logical he would be able to resist appeals of other natures.

Still we can't fathom his resolute refusal to deliberate denial that any consumer taxes of vehicles is necessary almost over the province. Faced with the evidence of several other areas, where payments due to municipalities have been reduced Mr Taylor this week continued his stand with the incontrovertible claim Alberta's system, the one is not taken off the gravel but that he is responsible every day we venture down out for the safe-ness of its operating condition.

But now does Mr. Taylor reconcile the position with the treatment accorded truckers? They have a responsibility to see they meet requirements every time they go out on the road, too.

Why then is it necessary to continually overtax the government weigh scales on the highways? Surely, if car owners can be expected to keep cars in safe condition, truckers can be expected not to overload, or let their vehicles get run down.

If the latter is a ridiculous proposition, we submit the former is also. And it passes understanding why Mr. Taylor won't at least advance some reasonable arguments for his opposition.

Certainly, administration would be difficult as it was in previous years. And certainly a one-dollar premium as had been suggested in some quarters wouldn't begin to pay costs of a check system. At the same time, a number of mobile units, operated by the government impartially, and touring the province should be able to eliminate many of the bugs previously found in the system where the interests of the serviceman inspecting was the key factor.

Superior highways need superior vehicles, and humans being what they are a servant maybe of new sort or another is already needed to bring about the superior conditions needed.

Mount Elvis Presley next?

What's supposed to our Canadian geographers that they have to run to the U.S. maps to find out what's after? Have we run out of Canadians after whom we can name mountains?

Recently an unnamed peak in the Canadian Rockies was named after an American. John F. Kennedy and another Robert is now busy trying to scale it.

While we started with the world the highest mountain for Mr Kennedy and his achievements as president, we have other peaks we'd like to see him try and have named on the summits of some mountain of these through actions in his own country.

But what if the preservation of our "Canadian nature"? We doubt if any citizen of the United States will be named after Lester Pearson or John Diefenbaker for their contributions we feel they should be. It's indeed questionable if now in this country should be named after Canada.

Still there is a generation growing up which wants to know why Castle Mountain should have been renamed Eisenhower and the same with dozens more for fear in the case of Mount Kennedy.

Where the answer is supplied, isn't it a shame that it couldn't deal with a new builder of Canada."

Don't start chicks on concentrate

Feed 3 lbs. Hi-M Crumbles First

On a grain farm, it pays to feed green and concentrate. But NOT to baby chicks. A baby chick can't eat more than a teaspoonful a day . . . and you can't mix grain and concentrate with enough accuracy to get the right proportions of energy, protein, vitamins and minerals into every spoonful. For strong, sturdy, even-sized birds, feed 3 lbs. per chick of Money-Maker Chick Starter Crumbles FIRST. They give every chick the right blend of nutrients to grow fast when the urge to grow is strongest. Turn to grain and concentrate after. That is the way that pays.

Mrs. Helen Tiedemann was a business visitor in Edmonton a week ago Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Alfred Sorensen. Mrs. Earl Hardy, Mrs. Mary Semchuk and Mrs. Stanley Kemmerly, who spent the time shopping.

HERE FROM B.C.

A recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carlson was Mrs. Tommy Armstrong of Calgary, a sister of Mrs. Carlson. Also visiting at the Carlson home was a brother, Eric Lamb, of Vancouver. The Lamb family were residents of the Holden district before leaving a number of years ago to reside in British Columbia.

Gen. H. Taylor, with Rex Boylen, visited in Viking Thursday of last week on E&O business.

Mrs. Chorney, who was visiting last with her daughter in Vancouver and her son and family in New Westminster, has returned home, spending a short visit en route with her daughter and family in Edmonton.

Cornelius Lien, of the Ryley district, was a caller in Holden on Friday of last week.

Mrs. Hansen returned to Edmonton with Mr. Ruxton Thursday of last week to attend a banquet Mrs. Olaf Smorthe had charge of the children while their parents were away.

Glen Connor, of Alix, was a business caller in Holden Thursday of last week.

Joe Sroka, of Edmonton, was a weekend visitor with his mother, Mrs Tobin Broka.

MALOWANY FUNERAL

The funeral of John Malowany of Edmonton, a former Holden district resident who passed away Monday, March 15th, was held Thursday, March 18th. The service was held at St. Mary's Parish Church, south Holden, with interment in the church cemetery, Rev. Lesyuski being the celebrant. Surviving Mr. Malowany is a brother, Peter, of Holden, and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Cichanis and Mrs. Nancy Lazdowsky, both of Holden, and Mrs. John Bednarz of Strome.

Mrs. N. L. Campbell left for Edmonton Monday morning, driving in with Mr Ruxton, to spend a few days visiting with friends. She was an overnight visitor with Mrs Mamie McAfee, and spent an afternoon with Mrs. Raymond Stewart, then going on to Lashburn to spend a couple of days with her daughter Marjorie and family, the Ken Campbells.

O.O.R.P. MEETS

The Holden Lodge of Order of Royal Purple held their regular meeting on Tuesday, March 9th, when DISTRICT Deputy of Hardisty was present, making her official inspection of the lodge. Also visiting was PHRL Pauline Cavanaugh of Hardisty. The gift of a Lodge emblem spoon was presented to L. Edworthy by HRL Armstrong on behalf of the members. At the conclusion of the meeting, Ladies Bertha Sanderson and Irene Strilchuk served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H Taylor received a clipping in a recent letter from their son Brian, in Holland, to the effect that the first strawberries of the season were auctioned in the Rotterdam market, fetching a price of fl.36 apiece, this being equivalent to 76c Canadian money.

Town council . . .

School representative, Mr J. E. Simon, reported that although he had not been elected as October, he had attended four very interesting meetings and that the school committee is trying to get the dollar value for the ratepayers. The teachers are again asking for salary increases which would raise the school costs but bargaining meetings are slated for the near future.

CRIME INCREASES

Constable J. Wall presented a detailed account of his duties performed by the police department in 1964. The collection of fines was $1,797.00, almost tripled that of 1963. Also, the cases processed were tripled that of the previous year.

William Friesen reported for the fire department. Eleven fire calls were handled by the department in 1964. Mr. Friesen wished to extend a vote of thanks to John Widynowski for painting the fire truck.

Ed Watson, chairman for the newly formed municipal library, reported that the Tofield Library had had a very successful 1964. Besides the growing continuous book lending service, the library had held a very successful "Education Week" program. Mr Watson, on behalf of he community, wished to thank the volunteer librarians and all who helped with the library work during the past year.

Father Scriven, newly appointed EMO representative for the Town of Tofield, commended Mrs M. Boyles on the many services she performed as representative for the town in past years. The recent demonstration sponsored by the EMO on July 1st, 1964, was an example of just one of the organized services and EMO representative must deal with.

The water utility report was given by Clr Swift, who explained that the deficit in the water and sewer department was due to the necessity to pump water into the reservoir. There are now 332 consumers in the town and Clr. Swift felt sure, barring any great unexpected expense, the metering of the water will have a chance to prove its worth this coming year.

VARIED AGENDA

Mayor Dr. Freebury welcomed the boys from the senior high school, Bernie Wilkie and Doug Grover, representing the Grade 10 Social Studies class. Dr. Freebury had received the suggestion that a park area be leading into as a centennial project and asked that the ratepayers give thought to this.

The paving of two blocks on Main Street was another improvement he hoped would receive serious consideration in 1965, and also, plans for a permanent water course must be considered soon. Dr. Freebury felt that the Auxiliary Hospital in Killam was of no use to Tofield because of its distance from Tofield but to date no encouragement had been received from the government to locate a nursing home in Tofield. However, the possibility was still being pondered by local interested parties.

Ed Watson asked that a revision of the tax discount be studied by council so as to lessen the interest charges. Mr. Watson, representing the ratepayers, wished to thank the volunteer firemen for a job well done in 1964. L. E. Hunter asked council if something could be done about the number of dogs running at large in the town.

George McFadzean asked that council implement the paving of two blocks on Main Street.

Mayor Dr. Freebury assured the ratepayers that their suggestions would be dealt with at the regular council meeting.

At 10:30 Clr. Swift adjourned the meeting.

Youth activity

Editor, The Mercury:

Play and games from babyhood until maturity are natural means of developing our abilities both physical and social. In the days of the "little red school-house" everyone of the scholars had to take part in the games to make a team. But with the centralization of our schools and the increase in the number of the pupils in each district only a part of the scholars the better athletes, are able to get positions on the teams, and the remainder are restricted in their physical outlets.

Some elder people remark, "but look at the number of the youth who are taking part in the activities of our generation". I am very pleased that some of the youth can and do adjust themselves to such inactive forms of recreation as even bridge, curling, or checkers. But there are many of the most virile of youth who require and need more active forms of pastime such as hockey or basketball to enable them to expend and control their exuberance; and if they are compelled to seek an outlet for such energy by trial and error" [illegible] at times are non-social in so doing, can we say that we would not have made the same mistakes under similar condition? Can we point our fingers at them and be free from feeling guilt?

I contend that we older ones have a duty and responsibility to assist youth in seeking self-direction and to assist them finding and developing facilities for same. And that if we do not, then, to us is the [illegible] . . . "As ye did it not—ye did it not to me".

—Geo. G. Abernethy.

P.S. I'm not ashamed of my name.

Railroad 'vet' dies at 50 years

Requiem mass was said Thursday in Foster & McGarvey's Chapel in Edmonton for veteran railroader [illegible] Okurily, 50, who died Sunday in Ryley.

Mr. Okurily was a resident of Ryley for 21 years, where he was section foreman for the CNR. He had been ill for the past two years.

He was born in the Ukraine and came to Canada when he was 22 years old. He joined the railroad 29 years ago as section laborer.

Surviving him are his widow, Mary, two sons, Peter of Edmonton and Donald of Edson, and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Chubey of Edmonton.

Road Complaint

In regards to the road complaint lodged by Mrs Gordon Lancaster Cr. Johnston stated that he had investigated the complaint and had found that there were bowsers in the grade in question and that he would look after the situation in the spring. Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

County Handling Grass and Clover Seed

In regards to the County handling grass and clover seed, motion 59/65, the recommendation from the Agricultural Service Board that the County does not handle the type of seed was noted by the Council and it was moved and carried that no arrangements be made for the handling of grass and clovers seeds by the County

Recreational Facilities Grant Program

In the matter of the Recreational Facilities Grant Program the Secretary-Treasurer report ed that he had received applications from Kinsella Rod & Gun Lodge No 364 Splsted Ladies Society and Ranfly Recreational Association for this grant Moved and carried that the applications be approved by the Council and that the Reeve and Secretary Treasurer be authorized to deal with these applications.

TOFIELD HOSPITAL

In regards to the Tofield Hospital motion 46 65 the Secretary-Treasurer stated that he had no instructed at the January 13th meeting, written to the Director of Hospitals Division, Department of Public Health and the reply to the letter was received by the Council at this time

Moved and carried that the letter be received and filed.

In the matter of the suggested sale of Pit No. 2 to the Councillors at this time unsure of the necessary information as to where the various aerators were located and their condition

Moved and carried that the BG Scrapers be advertised for sale by tender

Complaint Re Snow Plowing

A letter from Norman R. Ehlert Secretary-Treasurer of the Alice Hill Local 854, complaining of the snowplow operators leaving a bank of snow in the farmers' drive ways referred to the Council.

Moved and carried that Cr. Reddick investigate this complaint and take the necessary action

It was moved and carried that Crop Insurance Corporation, advising that parts of Townships 49, 50 51 and 52 in Ranges 10, and 11 and 12 within the County were included in the Minburn Test Area be received and filed

FEBRUARY 11th

RECONVENED MEETING

The proposal of sub-division of S.E. 5-46-12-W. 4th into two 80 acre parcels submitted by the Provincial Planning Director was referred to the Council

Moved and carried that we have no objections to sub-division, providing the County shall not be called upon for any road or other improvements in or to the sub-division.

Notice of Hearing from the Board of Transport Commissioners for Canada in respect to Canadian National Railways application to close certain stations due to the proposal of putting the mosaic agency plan into operation was referred to the Council.

Moved and carried that the notice and attached correspondence be received and filed

Correspondence from Canadian National Railways, requesting approval of the Railway Company's proposal to exempt the company from maintaining the right of way fence between the highway and the railway lines the eastern County boundary west to mileage 170 at Kinsella, was referred to the Council.

Moved and carried that the request be granted.

Information from Alberta Government Telephones re Rural Buried Cable System-Sedgewick Estimate #7393-Project #277 was referred to the Council. The plan of this system submitted indicated that the cable would be buried along the road from the S.W. at 5-46-12- and 7 miles, this being the road that is being surveyed at the present time for road-widening and straightening.

Moved and carried that the Alberta Government Telephones be informed that the Council has conformed for the 6 road allowance along this stretch of road and that if the cable is buried before the road is fully constructed, which may take two or three years, the Council of the opinion it should not be required to pay the charge for rerouting the cable.

The Secretary-Treasurer reported that Mr R C Bailey of Kinsella had inquired if township 47 11 would be inspected under the P F A A As this too had been deleted at the Council meeting on November 12th from inspecting the Secretary Treasurer had contacted Mr A M Geddes P F A A., Supervisor at Alliance, requesting that he look into the situation and a memo from Mr Geddes indicated that he was having an inspector check this too and if the yield warrants he would complete the inspection of the full township

Moved and carried that the request be accepted and the Secretary Treasurer's actions be confirmed in

The Secretary-Treasurer reported that only two tenders for the truck for the Public Works Foreman had been received. One from Tofield Motor Garage in the net amount of $2240.00 and the second from Goka Motor Ltd in Viking in the net amount of $1,526.00 The tenders were identical the difference in price being on the trade-in allowed

Moved and carried that the tender submitted by Goka Motor Garage Ltd be accepted

Road Ban

The Secretary-Treasure inquired if the Council felt that provisions should be made for road ban this year due to the great amount of snow however, it was felt that this was not necessary and no action was taken

In view of the fact that the Local A.S.T.A. had scheduled for March 11, it was necessary to change the date for the March Council meeting which would also be held on that date

Moved and carried that the March Council meeting be held on Wednesday, March 10th

Court of Revision

Moved and carried that the Court of Revision to hear appeals against the annual assessment be held on March 4th commencing at 2.00 p.m.

Mr Mike Senish, Secretary of the Beaver Livestock Co-Op Ltd and Mr. Charles Hays of the Alberta Livestock Co-Op attended the meeting at this time in connection with the request of the Beaver Livestock Co-Op Ltd for a remission of certain taxes in Pt. S E. 16-49-16-W. 4th. M M Verigin Backyards. Mr Senish inquired why the request for cancellation of part of the taxes had not been accepted and Mr Hays stated that the Alberta Livestock Co-Op. was not all interested in the station at Holden only having agreed to assist financially the local organization to purchase the yard. He stated that the yard was entirely too elaborate for what it would be used for. If taxes could not be cancelled the purchase should not be considered in Mr. Hays' opinion The Beaver Livestock Co-Op Ltd had apparently made an offer to the Public Trustee for the bankrupt firm with a payment for cash on the plant. It was also stated that Assoc was paying approximately $100.00 per month rent to the Public Trustee, payment being based on a flat per head, mostly hogs, being shipped After Mr Senish and Mr Hays had retired, the situation was fully discussed and it was felt that even if the County had to take possession through tax recovery proceedings they should be able to realize the taxes in full and it was finally, moved and carried that no compromise settlement on the taxes on Pt. S E. 16-49-16-W. 4th be considered.

Centennial Hall

In regards to the Centennial Hall the Secretary Treasurer stated that he had been advised by the Centennial Director that the County proceed to receive the grant for further improvements of the Council's proposal to use the grant for further improvements of the existing parks at Nuggat Lake and Camp Lake did not appear to be acceptable for the Centennial grant. The Secretary-Treasurer further reported that he had at the request of Cr Reddick inquired from the Centennial Program Director if, should the County make available to the Town of Viking a portion of the Counties grant, the Town of Viking then could add the $1.00 per capita instead of the County The reply indicated that, providing the County of Beaver waived its right to a certain portion in favour of the Town of Viking, the Town of

Tofield Hi notes

The afternoon curling trophies were presented last Tuesday with first going to Kevin Pike's team of Sam Everist, Jim Kalbfl, Laurie Weatherill, Pat MacAdoo and Colleen Wyllie.

Second went to Greg Wyrie's team of Clarice Jacobsen, Graham Wyllie, Linda Erickson and Donna Jacobsen. While the "skunk" awards went to Robert Wall's team of Ruth-Ellen Sears, June Christensen, Leslie Appleby and Frances Shultz.

A wonderful evening was enjoyed by everyone who attended the concert given by the PPCLI Band Tuesday. We hope we shall be able to have them back again soon.

DRAMA CLASS

TO PRESENT PLAY

The high school drama class will be presenting their one-act play "Heat Lightning". The exciting play tells of a hysterical young girl who has just seen a murder committed. She tells her frightening story to a stranger. Later, her suspicions grow and she has to decide whom to trust Her decision is the outcome of the play. The students wish to commend the class on their fine job they are doing in preparing this play.

Around town . . .

Mr and Mrs. J W. Robinson attended the Allendale Junior High operetta in two acts which was presented on Thursday and Friday evenings last week. The operetta was entitled "Mississippi Melody" and was based on the adventures of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. Four girls and eight boys formed the cast of the operetta which consisted of dialogue and singing either separately or in unison. Then in addition there was a chorus consisting of 18 girls and six boys who at various times throughout the evening sang with the operetta members. The scenery, costumes and singing were excellent. Incidentally Edith Mary Smith as Mrs. Sercy Harper had one of the leading parts

Mrs. J. W. Robinson visited with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. L. Smith for a few days, returning to Tofield on Sunday evening. Mar 21st.

A large crowd attended the PPCLI band concert held Tuesday night, Mar 23rd in the Community Hall The band, directed by Lt Naylor, and sponsored by the Tofield Community League, was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Mrs. Ole Hjelter is a patient in the Tofield hospital.

TO CURL IN B.C.

Irma and Art Francis left on Wednesday for a holiday in Penticton, B C., where they will visit with Muriel and Bill Finn. They also plan to curl in the mixed bonspiel while there.

Frances and Joan Campbell and girls from Edmonton spent the weekend at the Campbell and Osland homes

Findley Dunlop, who is employed at Cadomin, spent the weekend with his wife and family. Also at the Dunlop home were Jean and Ray Majeo and girls from Edmonton.

Mary Healer from Edmonton and her daughter, Mrs. Bob Perry from Dauphin, Man., were Saturday visitors in town.

ALBERTA JUNIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR BULLETIN:

Who to nominate for the special Junior Citizen GROUP AWARD (and why)

There are two ways to nominate enterprising youngsters you know for Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year Awards. You can nominate either an individual or a whole group.

Last year, your weekly newspaper editors received an increased number of individual nominations. However, the number of group nominations received was disappointing.

We know that there are scores of enterprising groups of young people around our province who deserve recognition, and adults who wish to see them get it. So please don't hesitate to nominate!

Who to nominate? That's easy! It may be a cub, scout or guide troop, or similar organized group. Or simply two or more youngsters who have performed an act of heroism or initiative on their own. Good citizenship takes endless forms. If you feel that a group of young people between the ages of 6 and 16 years deserves special recognition for any act of merit since August 1964, please give the details to the editor of this newspaper. Remember - all groups nominated will receive a certificate of recognition.

The Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year Program is sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies, with the co-operation of Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors.

Water Lines at Holden School

In regards to the water lines at Holden School motion 31/65 two tenders be the supposed work was referred to the Committee one submitted by A. O. Ineos, Tofield and the other by McLaren Construction Ltd Ltd of Viking

Discussion on the tender submitted by McLaren Construction Co Ltd was somewhat ambiguous. It was moved and carried that the tenders be tabled and that C. Hesbitch interview Mc Laren Construction Co Ltd to have their tender clarified.

Concerning the purchase financing of school buses the secretary treasurer reported that the request for a five-year loan had been approved by the Department of Education.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted

In the matter of advertising for an apprentice mechanic, motion 66 65 the secretary treasurer reported that he had not done this so in time for the March meeting but that the advertising would be done so that applications could be dealt with at the April meeting

CORRESPONDENCE

A letter from Mrs. Ethel Arbun of Tofield complaining of thefts from her son's locker at school She mentioned that three mathematical instrument sets as well as a pad of typewriter paper had been stolen She suggested that locks should be put on all the lockers (T. Weatherill stated that he had had other complaints as well. The Superintendent stated that he had discussed the matter with Mrs Arbun and with Mr C. Annis, the principal of Tofield School In his opinion locks were not a satisfactory solution, as students were continually losing the keys. It was suggested that the lockers were intended for storage of clothing and shoes only.

...cerned and carried that the letter be received and filed, and a letter outlining the Committee's opinion be forwarded to Mrs. Arbun.

A letter from Milburn H. Jeffrey of Bruce, applying for the position of spare school bus driver, was referred to the School Committee.

After some discussion, it was moved and carried that Mr Jeffrey be advised that there is no opening for a spare bus driver at Bruce at the present time

An application from Larry Degen of Tofield for the position of a spare bus driver at Tofield was referred to the Committee, and it was decided to defer this application until the bus supervisor was in attendance.

Moved and carried that the Bus Supervisor's report be accepted and his account in the amount of $18.81 for mileage be paid

Inspection reports from the Fire Commissioner's office concerning the Tofield School and part of Ryley School was referred to the Committee The secretary-treasurer informed the Committee that the reports had been referred to the Maintenance Foreman for attention

Moved and carried that the reports be received and filed

Moved and carried that J. C. Nord be appointed to attend the Principals' meeting on March 31

The minutes of the Salary Negotiations meetings held to date were referred to the School Committee at this time, and the teachers' requests and the County's offer were discussed quite extensively.

It was finally moved and carried that the County's Salary Negotiation Committee be instructed to stay with the offer made at the Negotiation meeting on February 19th, and that the Teachers' Negotiating Committee be invited for further discussions on March 23rd, at 7.30 p.m.

The Superintendent advised that the Department of Agriculture was making available to the County 200 white spruce and 100 Manitoba maples, which he intended to use for the beautification and the spruce especially for replacement at the schools. He suggested that the Committee members should ascertain what they would require at each point.

The Bus Supervisor, Neil Reid, attended the meeting at this time and the application from Larry Degen of Tofield for position as spare bus driver was discussed. It was then moved and carried that Larry Regen be appointed spare bus driver, providing he obtains his Class A License, and that the appointment be reviewed ...

Some discussion took place as to whether or not the County's tow truck should be used for anything but the County-owned vehicles and what might happen if the tow truck should be involved in further difficulties.

Moved and carried that the County's tow truck be used for County purposes only.

Lars Olson attended the meeting at this time and mentioned the difficulty in keeping track of the bus driver's during storms, etc He felt that the drivers should contact the principals at the various schools reporting whether or not they had been able to complete their route The Principals at the present time had much difficulty in finding out whether or not the pupils had arrived home safely The Bus Supervisor was instructed to inform the drivers that they should contact the school principals if they were held up for any reason on the road, and also report when they arrive back from their runs during stormy conditions

Mr. Olson also brought up the matter of office assistance and requested that some action be taken in this matter. He also inquired if work had been started on the Policy Handbook for the County, and was informed that this work was under way.

It was suggested that a member from the Bus Committee should be on the Committee dealing with the Policy Handbook, and it was moved and carried that Cy Reddish be appointed a member on this Committee.

After Mr Olson retired, further discussion took place in regards to office assistance for School Principals, last dealt with by motion 66 65, and after some considerable discussion it was moved and carried that no consideration be given to the proposal for the assistance to the school principals

It was also moved and carried that Mrs. Margaret Wilkinson be appointed to the teaching staff in Ryley as from March 1st, 1965, and that Dale Lauber be appointed to the Holden teaching staff as from May 1st, 1965.

In the matter of the building programs at Tofield and Holden, Mr. Pike reported that the work at Holden was almost completed and that only some minor problems had to be rectified, the program at Tofield was coming along very well and was also in the finishing stages. Both additions should be completely occupied early in April. Mr. Pike stated that the Western Construction Consultants Ltd., had proved very unsatisfactory in the matter of supervising the work that he had had to do most of the supervising and he suggested that the architect, Mr Bruce Calvig, should be appointed for the Viking school addition rather than using the Western Construction Consultants Ltd.

It was moved and carried that the reported be accepted.

It was also moved and carried that Wester Construction Consultants Ltd be advised that we no longer require their services and that Mr Bruce Calvig be appointed architect for the County for the Viking school addition

The question arose as to whether or not the buses transporting the high school students from Kinsella and Bruce to Viking and Holden should operate during snow storms. when the other buses had been cancelled due to weather and road conditions. It was remembered that where some high school pupils had been able to, by their own or supportunities, get by to Bruce and Kinsella it would be quite in order for the bus at Kinsella to go to Viking and to Holden from Bruce and that the principals at the Kinsella and Bruce schools could decide whether or not it was safe to let the buses go However, after some considerable discussion make the $1.65 contribution. Under the circumstances it appeared to the Council that the original proposal to allow the Vermilion Villages within the County would be the only feasible solution to what has turned into a considerable problem.

Difficulty in allocating the grant to the four Towns and Villages would be in connection with the Hamlets of Bruce and Kinsella where the residents in Hamlets and surrounding area might want to make use of the grant themselves and it was suggested that the Councillors concerned should make some further inquiries in this regard.

Moved and carried that we approve in principle the allocation of the County's Centennial Grant to the urban areas within the County.

Cr Reddish mentioned the forthcoming Convention of the Fire Protection Association which was supposed to be held during the month of March At Cr. Reddish was very interested in getting a Rural Fire Protection Assoc. started in the Viking area, he stated that he would be interested in attending this convention and it was moved and carried that Cr Reddish be appointed representative from the Council to the 1965 Convention of the Alberta Fire Protection Assoc.

MR. AND MRS. CLAUDE ... MINISTIK, March 23 — The family of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leach entertained friends and neighbors at an "open house" on Sunday, March 21st in Ministik Hall to honor them on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. Stanley Williams was master of ceremonies for the occasion and Roger Parker, a councillor, presented the couple with a picture from the County of Beaver Floyd Baker, M.L.A., presented scrolls from Hon J. Percy Page, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, and from Premier Ernest Manning

Mr Williams gave the couple's history and Mrs. S George read a poem about the couple, composed by Mrs. Norman Willmore Many messages of congratulations were received as were also flowers and gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach, with sons Chester and Ralph came from Edmonton to Ministik in 1925 to settle on the farm once owned by Billie Young. They have taken an active interest and part in their community. Mr. Leach being at present secretary of the Ministik Mutual Telephone Co and a member of the United Church Their two sons still reside in the district and were present for the occasion. They also have two grandchildren, Donna and Brian Leach, and several nieces and nephews.

The family's gifts to the bride and groom of 50 years ago were two tickets to the west coast, to be used at their leisure. Brian Leach was in charge of the guest book.

Gotta green thumb?

EVEN WHERE YOU'RE GOING It's possible, of course, to do without a garden or build a house without some sort of a plan, but there will be more satisfaction and pleasure if we do have one and those garden plans can be as simple or as elaborate as we desire. Some people even go so far as to draw the whole thing to scale, fit plants into that layout according to their mature height and width, match up colors, keep a precise record of planning, blooming and in a variety dates from year to year, and they can string off variety names just like a good political speaker can reel off statistics. That is fine for those who like it. But the new gardener doesn't have to bother with such voluminous data. All that he needs to know is whether a flower is hardy or tender, and whether it grows a few inches or a few feet. The rest he can learn pleasantly as he goes along.

To Brighten Shady Places

One of the most satisfactory flowers for brightening up dark corners is the laborious rooted begonia and for a lot of really magnificent bloom the bulbs should be bought and started now. These bulbs are fairly expensive, but with a little care they can be used over and over again.

For the average householder the best way to start is in a flat box about three inches deep or shallow four inch pots. Fill these with damp peat moss and keep damp and place bulbs root side down covering almost but not quite completely. If one is not sure which is right side up for those bulbs he had better ask when buying. Keep the flat in a moderately lighted window, one facing the east is best, and when new sprouts are well started transplant to individual five or six inch pots filled with good soil, and keep in those until transplanted outside after all danger of frost is over, which means June 1st in most of Canada. Care must be exercised in handling as the stems are very brittle. The flowers are of brilliant coloring and they face the same direction as the first permanent leaves point.

Begonias will brown or burn if given too much direct sunshine. They do best in a sheltered place that gets direct sun no more than four or five hours a day. Along an east wall or hedge is ideal, but they will do well with a western or even northern exposures and under trees.

After the first frost, the bulbs should be dug up, brought indoors and spread out somewhere to dry. After cleaning of stems and roots they should be packed in vermiculite or dry peat moss moistened very slightly and stored in a cool part of the basement.

TIMELY HINTS

An interesting and very useful way of spending a late winter's evening is to get a pencil, paper, and a Canadian seed catalogue and plan the garden we are going to have just as soon as spring really arrives. Such plans will be a big help, and anyway in gardening planning is almost as good fun as planting.

While waiting for the snow to go and the ground to dry, one can clean up and oil the garden tools that were neglected last fall, can make sure the power mower is working and that the garden duster and sprayer are ready for action.

One of the earliest jobs is pruning. Most trees, shrubbery and vines can be trimmed anytime from February to June, though early blooming shrubs like Forsythia are best left until after flowering.

Nursery stock, that is trees, shrubs, trees and vines are best planted as early in the spring as the ground can be dug, if this is impossible when they arrive, store in some cool, moist place and if possible cover the roots.

ARE YOU EVER BAITS

Have you ever wondered how mosquitoes can zero in on you so quickly when you step outside on a summer evening? The simple truth is that they smell you. Researchers have found that mosquitoes in search of a blood meal are attracted to chemicals in sweat, such as lysine and other amino acids. Other factors which guide the mosquito to you are body temperature, moisture, lactic acid and carbon dioxide. Some people attract mosquitoes more than others. This can be explained, the researchers say, by differences in temperature, color of the skin, age, sex and physiological condition.

Miss Peggie Rowland was a weekend guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rowland.

IN HOSPITAL

Eddie Wayne Kleinschrodt is a patient in Tofield hospital, having undergone an appendectomy. This is most unusual as young Wayne is less than two years old. A speedy recovery is wished him by all who know him.

Matthew Ferguson, who has a broken wrist, visited his doctor on Monday to have his cast changed.

Dick Nelson is a patient in Tofield hospital having had a tonsilectomy.

Miss Bella Boss returned to her home on Friday afternoon after having spent three months in an Edmonton hospital. Her friends all welcome her home.

LADIES VISIT VEGREVILLE

Thirteen members of the Minstik Ladies Club enjoyed dinner at the Viking smorgasbord on Wednesday, followed by attending the movie "My Fair Lady" at the Paramount Theatre. All who attended remarked it was a most enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hoddle joined several friends at a gathering in Tofield at the home of Mr and Mrs Norman Anderson to honor Mrs Norman Willmore on her birthday.

SIGNS OF SPRING!

There are more signs of spring, although the season itself is very reluctant to appear. Little lambs are being welcomed daily at the Andrew Ferguson farm.

Russell Rowland attended the rodeo in Edmonton on Monday evening.

A family dinner was held in honor of Mr and Mrs Claude Leach at the home of Mr and Mrs. Stanley Williams in Edmonton on Saturday.

'Alarm' salesmen alarm merchants

Small town merchants, particularly jewelers, may be the target of two salesmen working their way west on the pretext of representing a burglar alarm company, reports the Better Business Bureau. Usually, the report states, offers are made to install the equipment at a ridiculously low price, with only a small down payment.

This may be BAIT to "case" the premises, suggests the BBB, which points out they may even offer to install an alarm panel in the local police office, presumably as an avenue to ascertain the strength of local police force.

Don't let strangers check your security measures, warns the BBB. People will seldom allow themselves to be swindled by people they know, and do not trust just any day after day, they allow themselves to be swindled by strangers. The Bureau suggests dealing only with firms and people whose reputation is well known, and who have been thoroughly checked by the chief of police of their own town.

(Partially Convertible into Shares of the Company)

To be dated May 15, 1965 To mature May 15, 1975

Debentures under this offering will be in fully registered form and initially in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000 and other authorized multiples of $100.

Of each $100 debenture, $32 is convertible after May 15, 1968 and before May 1, 1975 into shares of Great Canadian Oil Sands Limited as follows:

4 shares if converted after May 15, 1968 and before May 16, 1970
3 shares if converted after May 15, 1970 and before May 16, 1973
2 shares if converted after May 15, 1973 and before May 1, 1975

Upon conversion a $68 non-convertible debenture will be issued for the $68 remaining principal amount of the debenture.

Sun Oil Company Limited will agree, subject to certain terms and conditions, to purchase before April 1, 1975, at par plus accrued and unpaid interest, any debenture held by an Alberta resident, provided that the conversion right has not been exercised.

This offer is made, subject to the terms and conditions set out in the prospectus, only to individuals who are bona fide residents of the Province of Alberta, twenty-one years of age and over. The limit to any one individual is $10,000. Applications must be received by one p.m. Mountain Standard Time, April 12, 1965. In no event will more than $12,500,000 of debentures be allowed.

PRICE: 100 FLAT

Trustee: The Canada Trust Company

A prospectus, a copy of which has been filed under the provisions of the Companies Act (Canada), will be promptly furnished, on request, by any Province of Alberta Treasury Branch, any Alberta branch of a Canadian chartered bank or trust company, or any Alberta office of an investment dealer or broker (other than one having restricted registration) or of a member of a recognized Canadian Stock Exchange.

School committee meets March 9th

it was moved and carried that if an order is issued by the superintendent of school that buses are not to travel, this includes the buses from Kinsella to Viking and from Bruce to Holden.

The superintendent stated that in connection with the proposed addition to the Viking school certain alterations would be required in the older sections and it was moved and carried that the maintenance foreman, Nick Shkinski be authorized to plan the required alterations.

Mr Pike informed the committee that the flashing lights were now in operation at the Tofield railway crossing and he suggested that a letter of appreciation should be forwarded to the Canadian National Railways and the Board of Transport Commissioners. It was moved and carried that a letter of appreciation be forwarded to the CNR and to the Board of Transport Commissioners of Canada.

Mr. Pike stated that it will be necessary to purchase some 120 library chairs this year.

Mr Pike suggested that the gymnasium windows on the north side of the Holden auditorium should be closed in at an approximate cost of $400.00 to $500.00.

It was moved and carried that the maintenance foreman submit an estimate of the cost for this work.

Cr. Weatherill reported that John Maurer, bus driver at Tofield, had left his bus at home the previous night rather than bringing it back to the bus garage at Tofield and he was of the opinion that, except in last winter time, it would not seriously affect the buses if the drivers were to leave them at home. However, it was felt that a garage space had been provided for all buses in Tofield they should be brought back and kept in the garage over night. It was moved and carried that no bus driver be allowed to keep the buses at home where garage space is available.

Cr. Magneson mentioned the vote of thanks that had been extended to the snowplow operators at the annual meeting of the County and he suggested that the school committee might also show its appreciation for the splendid work that these operators had done during very trying conditions and it was moved and carried that a letter of appreciation for the good work done during the past winter be forwarded to the snowplow operators in the County.

Drainage District has annual meeting

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, March 20th. — The Holden Drainage District held their annual meeting on Wednesday, March 17th, in the Glasalone Curling Rink, with all trustees and the sec.-treas. Ray Haviand present. The attendance was small, with only 15 ratepayers present. J. Krajcir was chairman for the meeting.

The financial statement and auditor's report were read and approved.

One nomination was received for trustee, this being Hans Huseby who has served previously in this capacity for many years.

Hastings Lake

(Mrs. B. Gladue)

Last call for parcel post military whist and home baker sale on Friday, Mar. 26th, sponsored by the Ladies' Club at the hall.

Despite the stormy evening, six tables were played at the Social Credit whist drive Saturday, Mar. 18th. Winners were: ladies' high, Barbara Locktie, low Barbara Gladue; gents' high, Henry Heilman and Ron Ferguson low.

Due to the fact the Ministik ladies' club is sponsoring a whist drive on Saturday, Mar. 27th, the Social Credit party scheduled for March 27th has been postponed to April 3rd.

Chemical schools to be held throughout county

Rex Boyles, field supervisor with the County of Beaver, has announced that a series of chemical and fertilizer schools will be held at various points throughout the county.

The first of the series will be held in Kinsella on the afternoon of April 5th, with a similar meeting in Viking on the evening of the same day. The Bruce Community Hall will be the site for the third school on Tuesday, April 6th, at 1:30 p.m. This will be followed by a school in Ryley on the afternoon of Wednesday, April 7th. The last meeting during this week will be held at Prosser Hall on Thursday, April 8th, at 8:00 p.m.

The schools will deal with all the newer chemicals which have come on the farm scene in the past few years, Mr. Boyles stated that there are a large number of new chemicals which are presently on the market but are not being used due to lack of information on their proper use. He stressed the fact that many of these chemicals are considerably more selective and must be used with much more caution than is the case with the old standby 2-4-D. The purpose of these schools is to bring this latest information on these chemicals to the attention of the farmer.

Dr. R. R. Cairns of the Vegreville Soils Research Station, will speak at the Bruce and Ryley schools and will deal with fertilizer use as it applies to the hard pan soils which are so common to these areas. Attending all schools will be Silas Powers, district agriculturist, and Bert Boyles, field supervisor, as well as representatives of chemical and fertilizer companies.

Similar schools will be held in Tofield and Holden and Bocahnie Hall during the following week, however complete arrangements were not completed at press time

All farmers are invited to attend the school at the point most convenient to them.

To play Carmen

"Joyce Blackburn had the merit of looking like Lobelgida and was as worthy a Carmen as one could hope for . . ." praised The Edinburgh Scotsman, of the singer who plays the title role in an Edmonton opera production shortly.

The presentation will be in the Jubilee Auditorium, April 21, 23 and 24, and will be conducted by Brian Priestman of the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. Only one other singer, Raymond Chiarello who plays the demanding role of Don Jose, is being imported for the performance, all other roles being filled by members of the Edmonton Professional Opera Association. Hall known in Camrose, Ernest Chrustawka will play the role of Morales.

The performance is the group's fifth major endeavor. Previous presentations include Madam Butterfly, Cavalleria Rusticana, Pagliacci and Rigoletto. Tentatively planned for next year are La Traviata and La Boheme.

Not a hut

Presumably an 80 - year - old telegraph line insulator, the item shown above is made of dark green glass and was found by Robert Mickelson on the farm near Kingman. It is the opinion of several Kingman and Hay Lakes citizens this was used on the telegraph line that ran from Winnipeg to Hay Lakes in 1876. It's similar to others found along the route of the old telegraph line that was strung from trees and poles. Hay Lakes was on the western end of the line for a few years before it was extended to Lodge and in 1879 to Edmonton.

CANNED SMOKE SHARK NEXT

Shark - fishing on an experimental basis is under way between Prince Edward Island and the Magdalen Islands, and early indications point to success. Provincial Fisheries Minister Elie Rossiter says the experiment is being conducted in co-operation with the Island's Canadian - Norwegian fish processing venture, Gulf Garden Foods Ltd., Georgetown.

ATA meeting held Mar. 10th

The A.T.A. Sub-local held its meeting on Wednesday, March 10 Following the business meeting, Dr. Harper from the psychology department of the University gave a very informative and timely talk on "mental health". After the interesting and stimulating discussion a lunch was enjoyed by all.

The teachers' hospiel, held on March 20th in Viking, was a huge success. There was a large turnout of curlers, and all had a most enjoyable time

Cars collide in snowstorm

(Mrs. Jos Knudsen)

PALMER-EARLING, Mar. 26 —The H. Christians, coming home from Camrose, and the Carl Sorensons, who were going to Camrose, were involved in a car accident just west of Mike Chrystian's home during Sunday morning's blustery storm. The high banks of snow on either side made it a one-way road, impossible for cars to pass. The occupants of the two vehicles, Mike, Kost and Darlene Chrystian, and Carl Sorenson, David, Eldon and Denise, were not injured other than shock. Both cars were damaged somewhat.

Shower honors recent bride

On Friday evening, a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary Moore for a bridal shower for Mrs. Ken Konishka, the former Joan Hoover, who was married recently in Edmonton Games were led by Louise Moore, after which Joan was assisted by her sister, Diane, in opening her gifts. She expressed her appreciation for the gifts and good wishes. A delicious lunch was served.

Second parent - teacher interviews April 9th

The second parent-teacher conference of the Tofield school will be held Friday, April 9th. from 8 to 9 p.m. This conference will follow the format of the first interview day and will be as follows: Within the next few days parents will receive a slip on which the time of appointments are listed (these will be the same time as were allotted for the first conference). If it is absolutely impossible for any parent to meet his appointment time please advise the principal or vice-principal and a special time on another day will be arranged.

All parents are urged to take this opportunity to come to the school and meet with the staff regarding the progress of your children.

The annual H.S. drama festival will be held this Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd in the Tofield Community Hall. Everyone is welcome to come to see the fine performances which will be put on by the young actors and actresses of local schools.

Cancer campaign begins Sunday

Sunday, April 4th, is Cancer Sunday, and in the week following the local campaign canvassers will be out in full force to call on homes and business places for your donations. Mrs Hazel Patterson is the campaign manager, and she and her crew are looking for the generous support of the public that they have had in past campaigns Tofield has always come through nobly and it is hoped the fine record will continue, and that the quota for this area will be met.

Sins of the fathers

The Bible reports the sins of the fathers are visited unto the sons for a number of generations . . . and that is probably precisely how our sons and grandsons will view the Canada Pension Plan foisted on the country this week by the Pearson government.

It seemed the pension faction in the party was intent on rushing headlong into legislation before heading into an election. It seems they were not quite, but almost, heedless of the warnings the plan should be amended because in its present form it is building up massive problems for the future. And unfortunately for democracy, the opposition members who strongly objected during debate to the detailed provisions of the pension plan couldn't bring themselves to vote against Santa Claus when the actual voting took place.

To his credit personally, our district's own member, Cliff Smallwood, had the gumption to vote against the proposal as it was presented. By contrast, his leader, John Diefenbaker, and Socred leader Robert Thompson, found it convenient not to be present when the vote was taken, the only time, it might be said, when their widely heralded opposition could count. On the other hand, we [illegible] a sense of political realities, maybe they were wiser to accept resignedly the inevitable: they had effected all the changes and modifications they were capable of during [illegible], and their role was thus played out. It could be.

Regardless of all this, the plan will work hardships on two major [illegible] in the country's workers, as has been [illegible]ted many times during the debate, those over 60 years now, and those in the younger age groups. While workers of 55 are at the level for optimum returns right now, gaining back far more than they will ever pay into the fund, those of the other two groups will get back only a small portion of their payments.

And the younger worker, too, faces a dismal prospect of having his contributions increased over the years, as the cost of living increases, and requires great payments from the fund. The Unemployment Insurance Fund will look like a piker compared to the politics that can be played with this new one.

Pope Paul urging change?

Latest announcement from Pope Paul would almost certainly indicate his backing of progressive thinking in the Roman Catholic approach to birth control, as he urged members of a committee considering the matter to iron out their differences, in order to relieve apprehensions faced by many members of the church.

There seems to be little reason why the committee may not come up with principles acceptable both to the church and to millions of its faithful, who, up to now have been forced to rely only on the so-called rhythm method of control or abstinence, neither of which have been found to be fully acceptable. If prevention of conception by any means whatever can be justified, surely an extension of the means is just as defensible.

The committee can almost be counted on to come up with the finding that snuffing out a life is one thing; preventing development of a life is quite another.

Hard to read

Results in Monday's bye-election at Edson were so close it's almost impossible to read anything conclusive out of them, having regard to all the circumstances. Naturally each party, except the Conservatives, will try to command as much comfort as they can from the situation, but this may not be too satisfying either.

It's almost certain that Social Crediter Art Leonard lost the majority because of great dissatisfaction in the east end of the constituency particularly over treatment of the Niton school matter by the school board, and Leonard has been a school trustee for years. It's almost equally as certain that NDP leader Neil Reimer could be charged with losing because he wasn't a resident of the constituency.

Actually, only a swing of 46 votes from the Liberal winner to the NDP candidate could have spelled victory for Reimer. Leonard obviously needed more swing than that, but not such a big swing as to be out of the question.

And if you could discount the natural and expected lead piled up by the other two candidates in their home towns, we think Reimer can be shown to have outpolled them elsewhere in the constituency.

Under the circumstances, loss of any seat in a bye-election, (which is usually pretty safe) cannot be anything but a blow to Premier Manning, who may, nonetheless use it to advantage in pointing the hazards of the hustings to some others of his supporters. While he is always looking for strong candidates to reinforce the ranks, the loss of one seat can hardly be counted a serious loss. On the other hand, it will be hailed as a tremendous boon by the three opposition members, who thus gain additional support in their role of inquisitors. It will also be hailed by the Liberal party, who may be able to see in it the springboard from which they can again start building up their forces . . . to an eventual government.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

With the coming of a little nicer weather, the attendance at the United Church is coming back to normal. Les Smith of Edmonton has only four more Sundays, when the summer student takes over parish duties.

Don't forget the T.B. Chest X-ray Unit will be at Ministik School on Friday, April [illegible], from 1:30 - 5:00 p.m. and [illegible] 6:30 - 8:45 p.m. A good attendance is urged.

The [illegible] CWL are sponsoring their annual ham bingo on Friday, April 9th, at 8:30 p.m. in the hall. Lunch will be served and a good time is assured all.

The whist drive sponsored by the Ministik Ladies' Club was very successful, and a good job was done by conveners Mrs. [illegible] and Mrs. Andrew Ferguson. Winners were: Ladies' first, Mrs. Albert Horricks; ladies' consolation, A. Bens (playing as a lady); men's first, Ralph Dunham; men's consolation, Carl Schwuchow.

Donald Grummett entertained a few of his friends on Saturday evening, before his departure for the south country.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McSporran were Edmonton shoppers on Monday.

Marilyn Partas of Fultonvale was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grummett.

Margaret and Edna Roddick of Edmonton were weekend guests with their parents, Dolly and Jim Roddick.

Several ratepayers from this end of the County of Strathcona attended court of revision on Monday, held at the County office.

VICTOR WRIGHT ON TV

Friends of Victor Wright would be thrilled [illegible] him on T.V. Wednesday afternoon, as a guest of [illegible] Lindsay. Victor is apprenticing as a chef at the Mayfair Golf and Country Club and will graduate in September. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Wright of Mayerthorpe, former residents of this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grummett, Pat Paterson, Ronald Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roddick and Mrs. S. George attended the military whist drive at Hastings Lake on Friday evening.

Glenn Ferguson enjoyed the Rodeo in Edmonton on Saturday evening. Russell Rowland and Jean were rodeo visitors Friday evening.

Don't forget the Easter ham bingo on Friday, April 9th, at Ministik Hall.

WAITS FOR LUCIEN. Marie Rivard, wife of Lucien Rivard, Canada's most-wanted fugitive since his escape from Montreal's Bordeaux jail, sits with her pet Doberman, waiting word on her husband. She hoped Lucien might telephone her, but now he can't, since she took an unlisted number to end obscene and threatening calls on the phone. "I will be with him again. I am not sure when, or how," she said.

Curling wind-up Saturday, April 3rd

Farmers' curling in Tofield will climax the end of another year of curling on Saturday evening, April 3rd, when the finals in all events of the closed bonspiel will be run off in the Grand Challenge.

Battling it out for the Woodland Dairy trophy in the First Event will be George McLaughlin and Phillip Anderson rinks. In the Second Event Coykendahl will be pitted against Richard Foshaug. Carl Johnson goes against Heiberg in the Third Event, while the Fourth Event features Wiley and Rose, two veteran curlers, in battle.

Curling begins at 7 o'clock, and on completion of the games, curlers and their wives, husbands and friends will retire to the Legion Hall for lunch and a social hour, marking the end of another successful year for the club.

Ross Creek news

Dick and Ruth Moore of Bruderheim were visitors at the home of Ivan and Florence Malcolm on Sunday, while Florence's brother Morley Haggerty and girl friend visited with Ivan and Florence Saturday, staying overnight.

Raymond and Frances McLachlan and Howard and Nell Malcolm took part in the Tofield Legion one-day curling bonspiel held on Sunday, also partaking of a lovely pot luck [illegible] after the 'spiel.

Howard and Nell Malcolm attended the golden wedding of Nell's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Spreakman of Edmonton on Tuesday.

Visitors with Kenneth and Betty Pederson from Sunday to Tuesday were Betty's sister, Joyce, and her husband, Jim Third of Goodfair.

George McLachlan, Niel Bailey, Howard Malcolm and Lester Ferrel were entered in the Vegreville farmers' bonspiel, taking third in the fourth event. Their prizes were a stock whip and an n paint.

District news items from Ryley

M. K. Westmancoat

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fish were in Hinton for the weekend visiting with their grandchildren Donna and Darcy, while their parents are away on vacation.

Home for the weekend from the Union College at Lacombe, for their grandparents' golden wedding celebration, were the three sons of Roland and Margaret Booth, Lorne, Douglas and Johnny, and their cousin Dwayne.

Lester Pepper, Pete Dueck, and Anton Knudslien all made purchases last week at the Edmonton Bull Sale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Lindstrom celebrated their Silver Wedding anniversary with relatives, friends and neighbors in the Legion Hall on Saturday evening, March 27th.

The United Church Women will sponsor the annual Amateur Hour in the Community Hall on Saturday evening, April 10th.

Mr and Mrs. Fred Loades attended the Silver Wedding celebrations for his brother Albert and his wife at Kinsella on Sunday, March 21st. Mrs. Annie Loades of North Battleford, who was visiting with her father, Bob Greig, accompanied them.

A SON IS BORN

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Munkedahl on the birth of a son.

Mrs. Heppner (nee Erna Penner) of Chilliwack, B.C., has been visiting with relatives and friends in the district.

Mr and Mrs. O Hagen were guests Tuesday evening, March 16th, at the Scandinavian Centre in Edmonton.

David Harris is a patient in the Tofield Hospital.

Visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs. Hans Hillerud last week were Ingward Haugseth and his son Morley of La Glace.

Mrs. Tillie Branes spent a week in Edmonton with Berniece and Odin Eikeland and family.

Mrs. Willie Pope was in Calgary for the weekend, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hostland, and her two sisters and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Booth mark golden anniversary

M. K. Westmancoat

RYLEY, Apr. 1.—The Legion Hall was filled to capacity Sunday afternoon, March 21st with relatives, friends and neighbors when the family of Mr. and Mrs. Sewell N. Booth held an "open house" to honor their parents' 50th wedding anniversary. All seven children were home for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs Booth were married at West Bolton, Quebec on March 17, 1915, coming west to Ryley the same year, where they have resided ever since.

Three sisters of Mrs. Booth were present, and two sisters of Mr. Booth. Together the five sisters sang a parody on "The Old Grey Mare" which must have recalled many happy memories. Some of the grandchildren played a number on their band instruments, "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver"; Mrs. Margaret Harris read a verse, "Our Golden Wedding", and Arnold Bugge and Willie Maaren sang a duet, "In the Garden".

Ed Magneson, the reeve for the County, brought greetings and congratulations from the M.D. of Beaver. J. L. Hay made the presentation, on behalf of the community, of a beautiful "Heirloom" walnut coffee table. Roland Booth introduced the visiting relatives, some of whom came from as far away as California, and Bob Westmancoat acted as master of ceremonies.

A buffet lunch was enjoyed by all present, and the tables were centered with a beautifully decorated gold and white 3-tiered wedding cake. Pouring tea and coffee at intervals were Mrs M Fergusen, Mrs E Pepper, Mrs. A Manderson, Mrs. M Bugge, Mrs. C Bendiksen and Mrs. M. Westmancoat.

Many old friendships were renewed during the pleasant afternoon.

MAY RUN. Dalton K. Camp, above, national president of the Progressive Conservative Association, has indicated he is considering requests from party officials to run as a candidate in the next Federal election.

Holden news

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mrs. Harry Shebinski and Mrs. William Umrysh spent two days in Edmonton this past week visiting and shopping.

Gordon Ash of Whitecourt a former Holden resident, and a friend, Bill James, were visiting in Holden Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Lefty Clark of the Ryley district, who is presently working at Edson, was home over the weekend and visited around Holden. Lefty said that he had met with several former Holden residents who now reside around Edson district, Bill Adams, Lefty Phlishka and Dick Shlakter.

Eddie Chapell of Ryley was a business visitor Monday of last week in Holden.

Ernie Good, Tony Basaraba and Joe Alexander were business visitors in Camrose a week ago Saturday. They were accompanied by Ernie's daughter, Terry and Lana Black.

HERE FROM B.C.

Con Giebelhaus of Fort St. John, a former Holden resident, spent several days visiting with relatives and friends around Holden and district this past week. Leo Giebelhaus, who is also employed at Fort St. John, came along with him and is visiting with his family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nordstrom. Con was saying that most of the snow around that area has just about disappeared.

Bobbie Carlson of Red Deer was visiting with his family, Mr. and Mrs Melvin Carlson for three days a week ago. A friend of Bob, Gene Hansen, who also works at the Alberta School Hospital at Red Deer, came with him.

Mr. Samuels and Mr. Nicholson of Associated Engineers, Edmonton, were business callers in Holden Tuesday evening of last week.

Quality has everything in its favor including the price.

Lions meet March 23rd

Tofield Lions Club held their last meeting in the Tofield Community League meeting room on Tuesday, Mar. 23rd, with nearly perfect attendance

Matters for attention were closing of skating rink, which had not been too well supported, and for which a vote of appreciation was given Lion Dave Duguid for his untiring work.

Club services still include gathering old glasses for India. It was decided the club was not in favor of taking on yearly soliciting and canvassing for the Red Cross, as they feel that the CNIB is sufficient effort. Arrangements were made for reservations for the district convention to be held in Edmonton in June, and for a ladies' night in April when new members and wives will be welcome to the club. Arranging nomination of officers was also taken care of.

Lakeshore -

Alice and Ralph Cossey and family of Ross Creek were Sunday dinner guests and afternoon visitors at the home of Alice's sister, Irene and John Warner Jr.

County council meets March 10th

Following are the minutes (in part) of the regular meeting of Council of the County of Beaver, No. 9, held Wednesday, March 10th. Present were Crs. W. A. Davis, A. L. Gibson, W. D. Johnson, W. Krupniansky, E. M. Magnuson, J. H. Reddoch and H. Wasylkiw.

In connection with the Natural Resources Road Grant, motion 105-65, the Secretary-Treasurer referred to the Council a letter from the District Engineer stating that, if the County wished to have District Highway 34SE from the S.W. corner 7-49-18-4, north 2 1/4 miles to Highway 14 declared a Natural Resources Road it would be necessary for the County to show by traffic count the number of vehicles which were using it for hauling coal. The Council was of the opinion that at the present time a traffic count would be of little value, and it was moved and carried that application be made for the completion of the present Natural Resources Road for this year.

In regards to the Union Tractor Technical School for Municipal Shop Foreman to be held March 15 and 16 with motion 117-65, the Council moved and carried that Road Foreman Ralph Hilsey attend school.

Moved and carried that Ralph Hisey be appointed to attend the Union Tractor Ltd. Technical School for shop foreman.

In regards to the AGT Cable System, dealt with by motion 123-65, the Secretary - Treasurer stated that he had, as directed by Council, informed the AGT of proposed road building program on the road from S.W. 5-49-19-4 west 7 miles with the request that, if possible, the burying of the cable be deferred. The reply from AGT indicated that this could not be done unless the County was prepared to purchase and clear the extra right-of-way needed on the south side of the road for this cable. The Council was of the opinion that as the country is quite hilly in this area one rod would not be sufficient in all instances and that the cable would have to be moved under all circumstances. Cr. Johnston was of the opinion that the cost of acquiring the extra right-of-way and clearing the land would not be much less than the charge of $200 per mile for the moving of the cable when the need arose. Moved and carried that the correspondence be received and filed.

In regards to the taxes on Pt. S.E. 14-49-16-W4, M. M. Yarwich Stockyards Ltd. (Bankrupt), the secretary-treasurer reported that on February 13 he had been informed the Official Trustee, H. G. Thomson that, as provided in Sec. 39a of the MD Act, the County intended to issue a Notice to Pay Rent to Beaver Livestock Co-Op Ltd., such rent to be applied on taxes owing on the property, and that on February 26 Notice had been issued to the secretary of the Beaver Livestock Co-Op Ltd. No payment had been received nor had any replies been received from Mr. Thompson or Mr. Senisk.

Moved and carried that the secretary-treasurer's actions be confirmed and that he continues to endeavor to collect rent for this property.

In regards to the Fire Protection Association Convention in Red Deer, March 2, 3, 4 and 5, dealt with by motion 149/65, Cr. Reddoch suggested that he had attended this convention on Mar. 4th and had found it very informative and interesting.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

Centennial

In regards to the Centennial 1967, motion 148/65, Cr. Davis stated that the rest-rooms could be an appropriate Centennial project in the Hamlet of Bruce, and Cr. Johnston stated that the same would apply in Kinsella. After some further discussion, it was moved and carried that, as the Council does not intend to make use of the centennial grant in the rural areas, the grant be offered to the Towns, Villages and Hamlets within the County. The grant to be allocated on the basis of the combined population of the Towns, Villages and Hamlets in relation to each point's population and the grant available. Town or Village that wishes to make use of this grant to add the amount required to earn the grant.

Messrs. H. Place and D. Hayden from Viking attended the meeting at this time in regard to fire protection for the Viking rural area for the considerable discussion took place. A special area would have to be set up, and it might be necessary to hold a plebescite within the proposed area and nothing could be done prior to 1966. The delegation reported that they had tried to start a Rural Fire Protection Association and had some $1,000 pledged and of a required $2,100; however, this was as far as the association had proceeded. They were informed that if an Association was formed in the Viking area the County would give a grant of $2,000 towards the equipment. They were also advised that the Council would prefer to see Rural Protection Associations established on a voluntary basis throughout the County.

Moved and carried that it be recommended a Rural Fire Protection Organization be set up in the Viking area, if at all possible, so as all likelihood the area would receive fire protection much sooner, and that a grant of $2,000 would be given by the County to such an organization.

Correspondence

Notice of Annual Meeting of the Alberta Municipal Purchasing Corporation to be held on Monday, March 15th was addressed to the Council. Also received from the Provincial Auditor's Balance Sheet, Statement of Revenue Expenditures of the Corporation for the year ending December 31, 1964, and Statement showing the schedule of debentures purchased in 1964.

Moved and carried that Cr. J. Reddoch be appointed as representative from the County of Beaver No. 9 to attend the annual meeting of the A.M.P.C. on Monday, March 15th with authority to cast votes for a Director in Class "B" category.

Letter from Calgary Power Ltd advising of reduction in the rates for 250 watt mercury vapor street lights was referred to the council. In this connection the sec-treas. reported that Herb Hunter, Calgary Power Ltd. in Camrose, had informed him that the Calgary Power Ltd would be prepared to change the present incandescent lights in the hamlets within the county without cost to mercury vapor street lights and that the additional costs for operation of these light would be $4.00 per light per year. The council felt that the mercury vapor lights would be an improvement and it was moved and carried that we change all the street lights within the county to mercury vapor lights.

A letter from AAMD advising that a general meeting would be held on Tuesday, Mar 30th, at 10:00 a.m. at the Macdonald Hotel was referred to the council. It was moved and carried that the council as a whole attends this meeting and that the letter be received and filed.

Letters from Beaver Motors Ltd. of Holden complaining of the fact that when the county asked for tenders for the truck for the foreman it had been specified GM or Chev chasis. Beaver Motors felt that this was unfair in that it excluded other units that might begin a position to tend and save the council money.

It was moved and carried that the letter be received and filed and that from now on tenders be called for without specification as to chasis preferred except in regard to school buses.

A letter from Gerald H. Thibert of Edmonton applying for a job as grader operator was read to the council. The sec-treas informed the council that he had advised Mr. Thibert that at the present time the county did not require any grader operators but that his letter would be kept on file for possible later attention. It was moved and carried that the letter be received and filed.

A letter from the constable of the town of Tofield, John Wall,

Modern etiquette

Q. What color of personal stationery is in best taste?

A. You can never be wrong if you stick to plain white, since this is correct for ANY kind of correspondence. Colored paper, for instance, should so var be used for really formal correspondence, and this includes letters of condolence appreciation, applications for employment, and the acknowledgments of formal invitations.

Q. Is it proper to leave the gloves' cards on wedding gifts when displaying them?

A. Never! Always remove the cards, making sure of course that you have recorded the gift and its giver for your thank you note

Q. Is the napkin always used at the dinner table before drinking from the water glass?

A. Yes. This is one of the napkin's main functions, the idea being that you can avoid any chance of smearing the edge of your glass.

Q. Would it be proper to mail announcements of the adoption of our baby?

A. Quite proper. A small card on which is engraved the following would be in good taste: "Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Pullen have the happiness to announce the adoption of Mary Sue, aged six months."

Q. When a business person cancerns after a meal in her home, is it permissible for a guest to refuse them and smoke his own if he prefers to do so?

A. No; he should accept the cigarette offered by his hostess.

Q. Whose duty is it to see that the bride and bridegroom's car is ready and waiting for them at the reception?

A. This is one of the duties of the best man.

Q. Should each guest send him-self at the dinner table to a hostess as soon as he arrives there?

A. No; until the hostess nods herself, everyone should stand quietly at his place.

County council meets March 10th

applying to the council to be sworn in and grossed authority as county police was referred to the council. The letter outlined the benefits that might be derived from such an appointment. After some considerable discussion it was moved and carried that Councillor John Will be advised that the council does not consider such an appointment at the present time.

It was moved and carried that report from the PFA, concerning inspection of Township 48-14-W 4th, indicating that, except for Sections 5, 7, 30, and 32, payment until be made in this township in the category 1 to 4 bushels per acre, be received and filed.

It was moved and carried that advice from Alberta Assessment Equalization Board that the equalization assessment in the county had been determined in the amount of $12,505,138.00 be received and filed.

It was also moved and carried that applications for recreational facilities grant from Lindbrook Hall Assoc. and from the Beaver Hills Community Hall be approved and that the reeve and secretrea. be authorized to complete the applications.

Cr. Reddick stated that he wished to regrade the road from the NW corner of NW 19-49-12 and three miles on Sec 18, road allowance. It was moved and carried that a survey of this road be arranged for under the winter works program and that authorization for purchase of land and payment for fence moving as well as telephone and power poles be given at this time.

MACHINE SHEDS

The council discussed the necessity of a new machine shed at Tofield and the remodelling of the machine shed at Viking. Cr. Weatherill thought that the town of Tofield might purchase the old machine shed and provide bits in other location for a new shed for the county. It was moved and carried that provision be made in the current year's budget for a machine shed large enough for two graders in the Tofield, and that provision be made for the remodelling of the Viking machine shed

It was also moved and carried that Cr Weatherill interview the council of the town of Tofield concerning exchange of bits for the proposed machine shed.

Anders Finseth passes in 90th year

ANDERS FINSETH

Anders Finseth was born July 10, 1874, in Sarpsborg, Norway. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Church in Norway. He immigrated to the U.S.A., to the Crookston, Minn., district, and immigrated from there in 1902 and was in the dairy business at Sardis until the railroad came, when he moved to Ryley, Alberta, where he started a road building business, which he continued until his passing.

He was married to Marie Kristiansen on January 5, 1907. To this union three children were born, Martin, Cora and Juliette. Both Martin and Cora predeceased him, and also his wife, Marie. He died Monday, March 15, 1965, in the Tofield Hospital, at the age of 90 years, 8 months and 4 days. He leaves to mourn, one daughter, Juliette, at Deer Home in Red Deer, Alta.; two brothers, Hannie and Halvard, and Edmund, and one sister, Mrs. Alma Pedseng, of Tofield; three grandchildren, Barry, Kevin and Karen, as well as other relatives and a host of friends. May God bless his memory.

Funeral services were held on March 19 from Bethel Lutheran Church, Ryley, Rev. Stanley Bank officiating. Sermon text was from John 14:1-6, "Jesus Christ, The Way". Hymns sung were "Near, or My God To Thee", "Asleep In Jesus, Blessed Sleep" and "Abide With Me". Interment followed in the Ryley Cemetery. Pallbearers were O. Hagen, A. Berger, J. Kristofferson, W. Maurer, M. Ouellette and Glen Hillerud. Mevoland Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Holden Grade 9-ers have 'Science Night'

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Tuesday evening, Mar 30th the grade nine class at Holden school held a "Science Night" under the direction of their teacher, Karl Hardy. Experiments were shown in the field of chemistry in which they made and tested for various gases such as hydrogen, oxygen and carbon dioxide. A fumite fire extinguisher was also made. In physics the heat of expansion was demonstrated by the use of a bimetal strip and ball and ring.

The parents and guests were also taken on a tour of grade nine rooms where the students' art work was displayed. At the conclusion of the evening, they were served coffee, ending a very interesting event.

Modern etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When having a very large house party, must the host or hostess greet each guest at the door, or is it all right to have the door ajar so the guests can walk in?

A. At an exceptionally large party, it is all right to leave the door open for guests, but this is not normally done. A host or hostess should really admit and greet each guest personally.

Q. My sister and I were criticized sharply for wearing Ugstick at the funeral of our father. Was this really in bad taste?

A. Only if you were too much insulted. Otherwise, the addition of a little color to the lips was not wrong at all.

A big help

In planning a garden, a good catalogue, and a good government bulletin or two, will be indispensable. Newspaper columnists who are usually hard up for something to write about at this season, like to poke fun at the seed catalogues. They like to pretend that the pictures are exaggerated, but they know as any gardener with a year's experience will confirm, that the pictures never do justice to the real colour of the flowers and, as photo, or even painting, can depict the freshness of peas or corn as they come right from the garden at the door.

In the catalogue, there are two or three points which one should note and remember. These are heights of plants when full grown, colors, and time of blooming. If it is a flower garden we are planning, or with vegetables, maturity, which is just another way of saying "when ready to eat".

We should have a good idea of —how big a zinnia or tomato plant will be when fully grown before we plan the bed or row at which to put it. If we don't we may find tiny things like alyssum, portulaca and verbenas completely hidden by giant marigolds or dahlias or lettuce crowded out by corn. And we may have a jungle on our hands instead of tidy and beautiful garden.

Time of blooming and maturity are important points because when we know these, then we can plan to have something always in bloom and a succession of the freshest vegetables coming along for the table. It is also a good thing to know whether a certain flower or vegetable we would like to try is hardy enough for our particular corner of Canada, or whether it will like our kind of soil, or slope. It is well, too, to take into consideration the color of the flowers we plan to grow. Nature does not permit much clashing of color but we can get more interesting and more beautiful blending if we help by planning.

SUPPORT

Nothing is quite so forlorn and untidy as an otherwise beautiful garden, marred by unpainted stakes of various heights and broken and twisted foliage tied to them. But tall, tender stemmed flowers like delphinium, peonies and many of the bigger annuals are bound to be injured in high winds and rains, unless they are supported. The experienced gardeners, however, supplies this support before it is needed, sometimes using uniform painted stakes and sometimes more natural brush from tree prunings around which the flowers grow naturally and create their own support. With perennials like peonies and delphiniums this support is put in place while the plants are still less than a foot high. With the peony the surrounding stakes can be joined with some plastic coated clothes line wire, which comes in various colors. This is taken right around the outside of the plant or bed at a height of about 12-18 inches with one or two strands criss-crossing through the centre of the plant. With delphiniums the best procedure, where the flowers are allowed to grow naturally is to insert some brush firmly to the ground right up close and allow the plant to grow through. In a week or so this support and also that around the peonies will be completely hidden by foliage.

If stakes are stained green or brown and are more or less uniform in height they, too, will become inconspicuous, and if all support is placed before it is really needed and the plants tied loosely, they will grow through even a heavy wind or rain storm without serious and disfiguring damage.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE

It's really too bad that so many of us seem to have some of our enthusiasm for plants, shrubs and trees after we have purchased them but before we get them planted. We pay out good money for roses, shrubbery, trees and vines, then plant them in holes that are too small, in soil that is too hard and poor, and we forget to give them support or the water that they should have almost daily until they get established. Is it any wonder that some of these things fail to produce either the foliage, bloom or fruit that so attracted us the first time we saw them illustrated in catalogues or magazines? There is no secret of planting or transplanting either trees or petunias. They need moisture, good soil firmly pressed around the roots and, if big, support to keep the wind from whipping them about and letting air in around their roots.

ALBERTA BAKE-OFF CHAMPION

Wanda Jacques, 17-year-old student from Ardrossan, Alberta, has been judged Alberta Baking Champion of 1965 at the Five Roses Young Canada Bake-Off. Here she is presented with her trophy by Laura Lindsey of CFRN-TV. Miss Jacques, a student at Ardrossan High School, was declared winner over nine other girls. She will now go on to Toronto and represent Alberta in the national championships on May 8th where she will compete against winners from the nine other provinces.

Walker wins Grand Aggregate

A successful curling season from start to finish has ended for the afternoon curlers. From when the first rock was thrown in November until the women put on the sumptuous lunch after the closed 'spiel which ended Saturday evening, the curlers had the best season ever.

The Afternoon Curling Club, a club consisting of 14 teams, primarily farmers, but also with a sprinkling of business men, housewives and ministers, have been curling every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon throughout the winter, with each team curling at least one game a week.

During the year's curling, both Vern Walker and Louis Shewchuk compiled identical records of 9 wins and two losses each, so on Friday evening they clashed head on in a special play-off to decide the Grand Aggregate winner, with Walker emerging victorious. Supporting Walker were Martin Larson third, Bill Simonsen second, and holding down the anchor position, Vern's good wife, Kay.

McLACHLAN WINS GRAND CHALLENGE

The local closed 'spiel, which always commands a lot of interest in local curling activities, wound up on Saturday evening with the George McLachlan rink winning the Grand Challenge and the Woodlawn Dairy Trophy by defeating Phillip Anderson in the finals. With George were Hassell Schultz third, Ross Flemming second and Dave Heidebrecht lead. Third and fourth places in the Grand Challenge event were won by R. Gongleio and P. McGinlis, respectively.

The Second Event was taken by the four bachelors, all from Kingman, Les Czykendall skip, Ken Simonsen third, and the Gold Dust Twins, Eddie and Tony Kuzack, juggling between second and lead for the foursome defeated the Richard Foshaug rink. In this event L. Rude took third and L. Shewchuk fourth.

The Third Event was taken by A. Hatbery, who defeated Carl Jacobson in the finals. Giving Hatbery valuable support were C. McLeod third, G. Francis second and John Koop lead. Walker took third and Joe McLachlan fourth in this event.

In the last event, President Bob Wyllie emerged victorious by defeating his arch rival, Vice-President Earl Rose. Bob and his bubbles curlers of Lv. Glover Hassel Ferguson and Emil Goubault had to call on all their resources to pull this game out. They were last coming home with last rock counted Wyllie. However, Rose was just a shade heavy with his last rock, leaving Wyllie counting one in win the game This was the only real close game of the

Drama festival is big success

(Elaine Walker)

Last Friday afternoon the annual high school drama festival began with performances that continued throughout the program. Ryley started the succession of excellent plays followed by Salisbury and Lamont. That evening a large crowd thrilled to the plays of Tofield Wetaskiwin and Vegreville.

Saturday afternoon, the audience enjoyed the fine jobs done by Mowbrayne and Monnville high school, followed by equally well-done productions by Vermilion, Lloydminster and Fort Saskatchewan.

The grand climax came with the presentation of the awards. Mr. J. Macrath, adjudicator for the plays, presented the awards which had been on display in the Crown Lounge. The hard-earned trophies for best supporting actor and actress went to Robert Fedyna of Vegreville and Barbara Hartko of Vegreville. Then the best actor award went to Bryan Ronsai of Lamont and the best actress awards went to Donna Jacobson of Tofield and a girl from Fort Saskatchewan also won the coveted best-player award.

Congratulations to all the actors an actresses on a job well done. Also, thanks to the Tofield community for making the festival such a wonderful success

Vaccination program is discussed at ASB meet

The Brucellosis vaccination program was discussed at the recent meeting of the County of Beaver Agricultural Service Board. Rex Boyles noted that Dr Stiles had left Tofield and it would be necessary to get someone to complete the winter vaccination program. It was moved by Cr. Magnuson that the Board approach the Miley Clinic in Vegreville and ask them to establish an office in Ryley or Holden on the same basis as the one in Viking.

Rex Boyles brought up the question of weed inspection. He thought he would be able to get Charles Sears to assist again this year, and that it was possible he would require an additional assistant for a short period.

Backsloping was also discussed. The meeting was in favor of backsloping generally but the cost was a factor. Cr. Magnuson said there were some areas of the County where it was not practical, particularly through hilly country.

Rex Boyles said he would like to combine the weed and brush spraying on road allowances this year. He thought by combining the two the cost would be about $5 per mile He thought this would be more practical as so many of the roads have now been sprayed for brush He requested direction from the council as to whether he should organize the roadside spraying as this is generally a public works program, and it was agreed that he organize the roadside spraying.

The Secretary said he would like to see the brush spraying be removed from a divisional basis as it is very difficult to account for. The practice now is to take one road through the County and it is almost impossible to account for the time and chemical for each division, and the board agreed to this.

The Field Supervisor's Report revealed that several programs have been carried out.

Bangs vaccination was completed in the Western area. A total of 18 calves were done by Dr. Riddell of Viking. It was necessary to get an outside veterinarian as Dr. Stiles has left Tofield and is associated with the Camrose Veterinary Clinic.

A total of 110 coyote pelts have been released in four farmer. Fourteen complaints of magpie damage have been reported and 32 poison baits have been released. There have been 15 requests for magpie traps. "We could use another six or eight of these traps", said Mr. Boyles.

Twenty-two samples of seed grain have been picked up at the County Seed Cleaning Plant. All samples have graded No. 1, and indicated that the Plant is doing a very good job.

The chemical dealers meeting was attended at Vegreville. Attendance was very good at this meeting, and it was noted that several farmers from this area attended.

Farmers have been warned regarding purchasing feed and straw from areas where persistent perennial weeds are present. Marywood and White Cockle infestations are involved in several instances.

'Fashions in Food' to be staged in Tofield

Ladies, the time is coming for you to have a night out on the town. An evening of fun and facts combined in such a way that you can't help but enjoy yourselves. If the man of the house wants to join you, he is more than welcome.

The Ionic Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, invites pleasure in presenting "Fashions in Food", a cooking school using small electrical appliances The time and for starting at the Community Centre is 8:00 p.m., April 22nd.

Three members of the Home Service Department of Calgary Power Ltd will be here to meet you. Miss Diane Brown, Home Economist, and Mrs Mary Ellen Ironside, Food Technician, will prepare a variety of recipes with a foreign flavor and talk to you about the small electrical appliances they are using

You have a chance to join the activity when Mr. Ray Davidson, master of ceremonies, leads in a lively sing-a-long. He will also delight you with his renditions of songs, old and new.

Prizes and fun for all who attend this performance in Tofield.

FROM THE SCRAP BOOK

Today is my birthday. I notice time is catching up with me. Time has silvered my hair, dulled my eyes and slowed up my footsteps. Looking back I have had a full and wonderful life with a glorious sunrise, a lovely childhood and a busy day, a golden sunset and as the evening shadows fall, the twilight deepens into the darkness of another night, and as I look into the great beyond, I see the dawn of a brighter day.

Abolish the legislature

Let's abolish Alberta's Legislature. Really, it wouldn't make much difference to the government we're getting, and just think of all the money that would be saved from sessional indemnities, not to count the other costs of running the show.

Government . . . that is, the really important items of government, . . . are not being handled by the Legislature anyway. Take Monday's announcement from the Hon. Mr. Reierson, for instance. Minister of Labor, he has proudly announced to the members that Alberta's minimum wage rates, hours of labor and paid statutory holidays were being upgraded

Not after considerable argument by the elected representatives of the people . . . who will, of course, be paying the shot

Not after serious discussion by the cabinet, who have more weighty problems than the wages of every worker in the province to consider.

The decision was reached after a survey was conducted by the Board of Industrial Relations . . . and the changes have already been made by their order.

Similarly when a long-standing order forbidding liquor advertising was to be revoked, the question was not turned over to the members for debate . . . the decision was announced by the premier in a speaking engagement outside the house

Yet such tremendously important items as audits of charitable organizations and pheasant farms are turned over to the house to tear apart tooth and nail

Assumption of such authority, or delegation of it, when the house has been adjourned for months may be inescapable, yet the contempt for the Legislative Assembly is intolerable when these decisions are reached without reference to the members, even during the actual sitting of the members. The snub indicates the strong feeling the membership generally contributes little if anything, and constitutes only a drag.

If this is the case, why not let's be realistic? Abolish the sittings of the Assembly, and let's get down to business, unhampered.

Back to reality

The St. John Cadets deserve highest points for realism in their recently proposed Centennial project. A brief has been sent to the Canadian Centennial Commission, they report, asking approval of financial assistance of approximately $10,000 to permit more than 100 cadets to exchange visits with cadets in other parts of the country. For example, two cadets from Alberta might travel to Ontario, spend a week as guests in the homes of two Ontario cadets, then return to Alberta with the Ontario cadets as guests in Alberta for a week.

The St. John group deserves credit for bringing some semblance of perspective back into this business of sending young people off to other parts of the world.

Camrose people are justly proud of their young people selected in recent years for trips to international or to Canadian youth gatherings, yet in many instances they have breathed deeply over the somewhat staggering costs of these jaunts. The situation is thrown into sharp focus with a recent prediction from the Boy Scouts that during the next three-year period 1,000 boys from Alberta will take part in jamborees across the dominion, as well as world jamborees.

Surely it is reasonable to expect some form of economy or "roughing it" from Boy Scouts and similar youth groups, rather than the somewhat luxury standards indicated so often by these groups. It seems not at all unreasonable to suggest that costs may be lowered, for at least three reasons: to make it easier for sponsoring groups, to make more trips possible, and to develop a more reasonable perspective in our young people, who don't establish the standards, but only accept the program developed for them.

A week ago when Overture brought the Central College singers to Camrose, we talked with a youth who last summer spent three months touring Europe with less than a total outlay of $1,000. And very nearly exactly half of this amount was for air fare overseas. Many people will remember the group of students from this district who three years ago spent seven weeks abroad on an expenditure of $880, which encompassed everything, including exchange on the devalued Canadian dollar, a group identifying "uniform" and even spending money.

Being able to pay for things is one thing . . . getting value for the expenditure is another.

Don't start chicks on concentrate

Feed 3 lbs. M-M Crumbles first

On a grain farm, it pays to feed grain and concentrate. But NOT to baby chicks. A tiny chick can't eat more than a teaspoonful a day . . . and you can't mix grain and concentrate with enough accuracy to get the right proportions of energy, protein, vitamins and minerals into every spoonful. For strong, sturdy, even sized birds, feed 3 lbs. per chick of Money Maker Chick Starter Crumbles FIRST. They give every chick the right blend of nutrients to grow fast while the "urge to grow" is strongest. Turn to grain and concentrate later. This is the way that pays.

Gotta green thumb?

(By Gordon Lindsay Smith)

Curb that urge

Despite the [illegible] urge to get out with a spade or rake the first time the sun is warm, when it comes to real gardening, there is no need to rush. Most plants prefer warm air and warm soil and will only lie dormant until these conditions are met. Very often things planted several days or even a week or so later will catch up and do better than those rushed into the ground while the soil is still cold and damp. There are a few exceptions of course, such as grass seed, sweet peas and nursery stock, but generally speaking, in actual planting, it is best to err on the late than the early side

And we can't do much in any case until the soil is really ready and safe to work. How can we tell that? Simply by walking over it. If it muddies our shoes then it is still much too wet. Soil ready for seeding should crumble when squeezed and when released should be moist not wet, and for most garden seeds it should be warm with the new sun, too.

Revolution In Lawns

Multiple-lane super-highways, airfields that cover three or four square miles, golf courses and bowling greens have revolutionized the turf-grass industry in Canada as elsewhere in North America and Europe. Back in the old days lawn grass was pretty standard and the average man bought only a few pounds in his entire lifetime The bulk of the seed came from a relatively small area and only a few varieties of grass were considered necessary for most mixtures. That's not the case today, with millions of pounds of turf grass seed grown and used in Canada each year and thousands of pounds of special grasses imported for well balanced mixtures and uses There are special mixtures for putting greens, paths, drought resistance, and holding soil along steep cuttings, and for making extra luxuriant lawns along side patios that are as soft, green and uniform as the finest broadloom.

By getting high class seed and a mixture specially blended for his part of Canada and his particular location even the amateur gardener today can build a lawn that his grandfather only dreamed about. But he doesn't just sow any old type of grass seed and he doesn't sow the grass seed first and attempt to build up the soil and levels afterwards. And still more important, he doesn't sow the grass seed and forget all about it, letting it [illegible] as best it can. The gardener who wants a lawn that both he and his neighbours will admire, gets his soil [illegible] cultivated and levelled before any seed is sown. And after that he expects to keep the lawn mowed regularly, watered when necessary, [illegible] annually with a [illegible] killer, and with a [illegible] of fertilizer either chemical or natural at least once a season. And, of course, he sows while the weather is still cool and moist, and if he wants a quick and even catch he keeps the soil moist, by sprinkling every day if necessary, until the seed has germinated.

You Can't Buy [illegible] Kind

"Why should I bother to grow vegetables when I can buy them cheaply?" How often do you hear that from the man who has never grown any vegetables and certainly who has never eaten any just out of the garden. The vegetables one buys are not at all the same as the vegetables one grows. There is nothing quite so perishable as garden freshness, and especially when it comes to things like garden corn, peas, lettuce, baby carrots and so on. For the best quality they should be picked just when they are at their tender best, cooked lightly, if they have to be cooked, and eaten immediately That's impossible, of course, when they have to be transported hundreds of miles. Experienced gardeners, even in the suburbs of the big cities, grow a few rows of vegetables for really fresh eating.

Timely Hints

Good garden seeds cost but a few cents per packet, out of all the factors that go to produce a successful garden it is the most essential. Soil, fertilizer, weather and care may be perfect, but without good seed, true to variety and specially selected for Canada, failure is certain.

Don't wait [illegible] ordering seed, [illegible] of the new All-America [illegible]. The stock of these is limited the first year or so until enough seed can be harvested to meet [illegible]. As soon as your decisions have been made as to colour and quantity, [illegible] the orders.

(M. E. Wastmanmel)

The Ryley badminton club played host on Tuesday, Mar 31st, to 24 visitors from the Viking club. After a good evening of play, the home club served lunch.

Cyril Freeman, who for many years operated a hardware store in Ryley, has passed away at Chilliwack, B.C.

Marguerite and Johnny Fish and Mrs. Amy Pope were in Edmonton on Sunday, for a family dinner at the home of Jim and Susan Fish. Elmer and Joyce Patrick were there, too, just back from their Caribbean holiday.

Memorial service for Mrs. McLachlan

Members of the family of the late Mrs. Susan McLachlan, who passed away in April of last year, are planning to hold a memorial service at the Paramount Theatre in Edmonton on Easter Sunday (April 18th).

The service will start at 2.00 o'clock in the afternoon.

OUR CHILDREN'S LEGACY? Canada is a beautiful country, but with poor management of land, ignoring the laws of soil and water conservation, we will reduce our scenic countryside to the desolation of this old deserted farm above. Which will our children inherit? Dusty fields where grass cannot grow, and dried gullies where streams will never flow? Or a land we can be proud of? The choice is ours.

Ryley 4-H Beef Club has March meeting

By Garry Krepielnicki

The Ryley 4-H Beef Club held its meeting on Thursday, Mar 25th. The meeting began with the 4-H pledge led by Barry Senuik. Following the pledge was a roll call with each member stating if calf leads. An Easter tour is to be held on April 22nd. On this tour the members will get [illegible] to see each others calves. A public speaking contest was held with judges Mrs. B. Ruby and Mrs. J. Pepper.

Speakers were Richard Mathews, Gary Wiens, Barry Senuik, Garry Krepielnicki, Dwayne Kubin, Eldon Hammer, Lyle Hodge and Darryl Lyons.

Winners were Lyle Hodge and Barry Senuik, first and second, respectively.

Lyle Hodge will be going to Holden on April 9th to compete against other winners.

THE RYLEY TIMES

Ryley news

(M. K. Westmacott)

The Ryley badminton club played host on Tuesday, Mar 31st, to 34 visitors from the Viking club. After a good evening of play the home club served lunch.

Cyril Freeman, who for many years operated a hardware store in Ryley, has passed away at Chilliwack, B.C.

Marguerite and Johnny Fish and Mrs Amy Pope were in Edmonton on Sunday, for a family dinner at the home of Jim and Susan Fish. Elmer and Joyce Patrick were there, [illegible] back from [illegible] holiday.

Memorial service for Mrs. McLachlan

Members of the family of the late Mrs. Susan McLachlan, who passed away in April of last year, are planning to hold a memorial service at the Paramount Theatre in Edmonton on Easter Sunday (April 18th).

The service will start at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

OUR CHILDREN'S LEGACY" Canada is a beautiful country, but with poor management of land, ignoring the laws of soil and water conservation, we will reduce our scenic countryside to the desolation of this old deserted farm above. Which will our children inherit? Dusty fields where grass cannot grow, and dried gullies where streams will never flow? Or a land we can be proud of? The choice is ours.

Ryley 4-H Beef Club has March meeting

By Garry Krepelnicki

The Ryley 4-H Beef Club held its meeting on Thursday, Mar 25th. The meeting began with the 4-H pledge led by Barry Semuik. Following the pledge was a roll call with each member stating if calf leads. An Easter tour is to be held on April 22nd. On this tour the members will get together to see each others calves. A public speaking contest was held with judges Mrs. B Ruby and Mrs J Pepper.

Speakers were Richard Mathews, Gary Wiens, Barry Semuik, Garry Krepelnicki, Dwayne Kubin, Eldon Hammer, Lyle Hodge and Darryl Lyons.

Winners were Lyle Hodge and Barry Semuik, first and second, respectively.

Lyle Hodge will be going to Holden on April 9th to compete against other winners.

Lakeshore-McKenzie news briefs

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

Elmer and Vi Geoglein spent Sunday in Edmonton as guests at the home of Mrs. Bertha Seale.

Doug and Vivian Murray of Tofield and Carl and Mavis Jacobsen were Thursday evening callers at the home of Ronnie and Barbara Geoglein. Later they were evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Stanley and Lizzie Schacher.

DRAMA WINNER

Congratulations go to Donna Jacobsen, daughter of Carl and Mavis Jacobsen, who won top honors for the best Actress in the Drama Festival which was held in Tofield on Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd.

Howard Ferguson accompanied his daughter, Donna and Frank Edwards of Edmonton, to Elk Point on Saturday, where Frank has purchased a garage and filling station. Donna and Frank will be moving there soon.

Mrs. Loretta Weir and daughter Wanda, of Edmonton, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Howard and Mae Ferguson.

Yvonne and Peter Brown, of Ketchamoot, accompanied Yvonne's parents, Emil and Martha Tiedemann, and family, to Edmonton on Sunday, where they were all dinners guests and afternoon visitors and luncheon guests at the home of Martha's sister, Adele and Cliff Gossel and son Kenneth.

Herb and Carol Warner and two children, of Edmonton, John Jr. and Irene Warner and son, Bruce, and Alan and Joan Warner and three children were all Sunday dinner guests and afternoon visitors at the home of their parents, John and Alice Warner, in Tofield, helping them celebrate their wedding anniversary.

Larry and Gwen Murray and Glen Winder, all of Edmonton, were Saturday supper guests and evening visitors at the home of Larry's parents, Joe and Helen Murray. Irlene and Art Trent and son, Tommy, were also Saturday evening visitors and coffee guests with Helen and Joe.

Sunday visitors and dinner guests at the home of Joe and Ellenor Jones were their daughter, Marjorie and Mosey Jacobsen and three children, also Ellenor's sister, Bessie and Tom Jones, and Mr and Mrs B Nimchuk and daughter, Shari, all of Edmonton.

Monday evening visitors and overnight guests at the home of Joe and Ellenor Jones were Ellenor's brother and wife, Mr and Mrs L. McLachlan, of Lacombe. They left for their home again shortly after dinner on Tuesday.

Ellen Eaton was a Sunday supper guest at the home of Roe and Bertha Phillips. Later in the evening Bertha and Ellen visited patients in the Tofield Hospital.

There are several patients in the Tofield Hospital from Tofield and the districts around, and we wish all a speedy recovery and hope they will soon be able to be out and enjoy the spring weather.

Jack Johnston came back to his farm on Sunday, after having spent the winter in Edmonton with his daughters. Welcome back Jack.

Wayne Rodway and friend from Edmonton were Sunday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Mrs. Ethel Wood and son Donald.

Landmark disappears

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The Kennie James garage, one of the old landmarks in Holden, is rapidly being torn down. Mr James operated this for many years before passing away several years ago, and for the past two years it has been unoccupied. A couple of district farmers have been busy razing the building these past two weeks and it should soon be completed.

IN MEMORIAM

McLACHLAN — In loving memory of mother, Mrs. Susan McLachlan who passed away in April 1964.

God hath not promised — skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways—all our lives through,
God hath not promised — sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.
God hath not promised—we shall not know
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe;
He hath not told us—we shall bear no
Many a burden, many a care.
But God hath promised—strength for the day,
Rest for the laborer, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

—Ever remembered and sadly missed by her daughter, Bessie Pederson.

Reading is 'key' to continuing education

April 10th to 17th is Canadian Library Week. In the fall of the year we think of Young Canada Book Week for stress on youth Canadian Library Week stresses the importance of reading and the corresponding importance of libraries in Canadian life, especially in an age which demands so much knowledge and so many skills Today Canada's vitality and indeed the very existence of the world depends on the degree to which its people form the habit of reading to discover, to intelligently interpret and weigh ideas, and to reflect on the history, civilization and history of past ages.

Visit your local library (any Friday in Tofield—except when a holiday falls on that day, then it is open the previous Thursday—eg. Thursday before Good Friday) Its a friendly place—especially during Canadian Library Week.

Q What do you think about women's smoking on the street?

A. I don't like it I can't explain just WHY this is considered improper or unattractive, but it is. Ask any man his opinion of women who walk along the streets puffing on cigarettes, and you'll see what I mean.

Modern etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. Just what are the functions of the spoon when served with coffee or tea?

A. The spoon is for the purpose of stirring the beverage, and NOT for conveying the liquid to you mouth. It should never be used to sip the beverage spoonful by spoonful. After stirring, the spoon should be placed on one side of the saucer—never, of course, left in the cup.

Q. How many attendants does the bride usually have at a home wedding?

A. The most fashionable home weddings include but two bridesmaids and a maid-of-honor—and many of them have no bridesmaids at all.

Q. Should birth announcements be mailed to near relatives, as well as to friends who might not otherwise know of the baby's arrival?

A. Usually announcements to one's own family and to close friends are phoned soon after the baby's arrival. However, if one has some especially attractive or unusual cards, the recipients might like to have them as keepsakes.

Q. Is it considered more proper, when setting the dinner table, to put the butter on one plate and pass it around—or to put it on individual bread-and-butter plates?

A. Either way is correct. This is more a matter of convenience than of propriety.

AN EASY CATCH. Pretty Sandy Leigh had no trouble at all landing this big beauty of a salmon. But then, who can blame the fish for getting caught? Look at the eye-appealing bait Sandy is using.

Elmer and Alice Lindstrom mark silver anniversary

(Mr. K. Westmacott)

RYLEY — A memorable 25th wedding anniversary celebration for Alice and Elmer Lindstrom was held in the Ryley Legion Hall on Saturday, Mar 27th.

The bride and groom of 25 years entered the hall to the wedding march, played by their son-in-law, Victor Lillo and Ken Lindstrom. They were followed by their attendants, Ina and Jim Easton of Pueska. Mrs Lindstrom wore a pale blue color dress, decked with pink sweetheart roses. Mrs Easton of Lindstrom's sister wore a darker shade of blue dress also matched with pink sweetheart roses.

Vic Lillo introduced Mr Easton, the emcee of the evening and opening number was a song by five-year-old Corinne Lillo, "I Love Them Truly". Corinne is Mr and Mrs Lindstrom's granddaughter.

Mrs Mildred Haugen of Camrose read a monologue on Mr and Mrs. Lindstrom; Randy and Audrey Anderson and Gary Johnson sang "Love Me Tender"; Donna and Linda Nordstrom played Anniversary Waltz on the piano and Grace Veale gave a reading strictly about the groom. Ken Lindstrom, Victor Lillo and Larry Crayton played a couple numbers Corinne Lillo sang the "Peppermint Twist". Ronald Veale played a rhumba on the piano, and Albin Anderson of Kingman gave a talk about the happy couple.

PRESENTATIONS

A presentation of 25 silver dollars was received from the King man community, and a purse of $87 was received from the Ryley community. Mrs Victor Lillo presented her parents with a coffee table from the family. Ken Lindstrom presented a $25 money tree from the Lindstrom family. Norrman Nordstrom presented a mantel clock from the Nordstrom family, and other gifts were received from friends, Friends and relatives from Calgary, Kvansberg, Edmonton Pueska, Kingman and Camrose were present. A telegram from Salmo, B.C., was received from their son, Garry, and Trudy Lindstrom.

A delicious lunch was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrom passed the wedding cake, which was made by Mrs. Grace Veale of Camrose. The sister of the bride, Mrs. Veale, also made the cake 25 years ago.

A dance followed with the music supplied by Ken Lindstrom, Victor Lillo, Milton Lillo, Marthn Lillo, Larry Crayton and Sig Sorenson. It may well be noted that the old orchestra of 26 years ago, consisting only of Elmer and Ken Lindstrom and Sig Sorenson, played a few numbers. There were bingo dancers, spot dances, etc., and prizes were given out to the lucky winners.

A large crowd of about 175 people were at the program.

Walker wins . . .

evening Larry Fossang and Jim Ingram beat Baird and Smith in this event.

At the conclusion of curling, the ladies served lunch in the Legion Hall to over 125 curlers and their friends. After everyone had eaten their fill of turkey, buns and ice cream, distribution of prizes took place.

President B. Wyllie called on Henry Paupe, manager of the Woodlawn Dairy, who presented their trophy to the G. McLachlan rink. Ed. Hagber of Premier Meats presented the Grand Aggregate Trophy to the Vern Walker rink. The President then called on the rest of the teams to come forward and receive their prizes.

Bob Wyllie thanked all the curlers for their tremendous cooperation during the season, and invited them all to be sure to come back next year. He also reminded them to take more interest in the business meeting in the fall, as it is at this meeting when plans are drawn up for the coming year.

Icemaker Bob Haycock was given a good hand for his work during the year.

The ladies who had planned and prepared for the get-together at the Legion Hall were singled out for special praise and a warm thank-you.

Everyone went home satisfied and happy, and with a determination that next year they would not miss the broom by quite as much.

Grade Eight Class has Edmonton tour

(By Leona Thiessen)

On Tuesday, April 6th, the grade eight classes of Tofield enjoyed a trip to Edmonton. First, we visited the Queen Elizabeth Planetarium where we saw many interesting proceedings in space. Since we are presently studying about the solar system in science, this was very appropriate. From the Planetarium we went to Lister Hall where we received delicious food. The last place we visited was the Jubilee Auditorium. A guide took us on a tour of this spacious and beautiful building. We as grade eights, would like to thank our teachers, Mrs. Phillips and Mr. Dennison for making this trip possible for us. We would also like to thank the bus drivers, Mr. Charlie Sears and Johnny Bourgon for taking us. We all enjoyed it very much.

April 7 Is World Health Day

"Smallpox — Constant Alert"
Theme for 1965

The concern this Colombian mother shows for her daughter certainly is expressed aptly in the words — constant alert.

Displaying just this vigilance, she watches intently as her pony-tailed child receives vaccination against smallpox.

The vaccine that thwarts death and disfigurement has been around for a long time. Yet, despite its development in 1796, smallpox killed 15,000 and afflicted 100,000 around the world during 1964 alone — some 179 years later.

Not only in countries burdened with disease, but as well, in countries cleaned of it does smallpox endanger health still. A few hard facts show why:

● Often a country beset by smallpox lacks enough vaccines to immunize all of its citizens.

● Two, many-primitive groups frequently refuse vaccinations offered, either through fear of it, or because long held belief in fate, bid it. About 12 000 Kunderia Quechuna, a mountain-dwelling Indian, so resisted vaccinators recently.

● So long as smallpox exists anywhere, a country even though free is not safe. Wiped-out in the United States and Canada, it still penetrated New York and Toronto — in each instance reintroduced by a traveller.

● Also in such countries, few are the MD's whose scan an actual smallpox case. Added to this, the disease's tricky to diagnose. Often, a mild case is taken for chickenpox, and a severe one for acute leukemia or meningitis or even pneumonia.

To call public attention to such problems, the World Health Organization chose "Smallpox — Constant Alert" as the theme April 7, World Health Day, in observing the 17th anniversary of its founding.

Much has already been done to eradicate smallpox. A global campaign begun in 1959 has cut the number of reported cases by one-fifth — from a high half million of a dozen years ago.

According to WHO Director-General, Dr. M G Candau: "The complete eradication of smallpox would not only rid the world of a disease which is a constant menace, but would also show what international co-operation can achieve.

"In the meantime, a 'constant alert' against smallpox will have to be maintained."

Holden woman passes suddenly in 69th year

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Resident of this district for over 60 years, Mrs Mary Chubaka passed away suddenly Saturday, Mar 27th, at the age of 68 years ten months and seven days. Mrs. Cwhuka became ill on the Friday evening and was taken to Tofield hospital where she passed away next day. Born in Chervchuki, Ukraine, May 20th, 1896, Mrs Cwhuka came to Canada as a young child with her parents Tymko and Tillie Makowany in 1902, settling in the Senna district south of Holden.

In 1913 she married Mike Cwhuka and this union was blessed with five sons. Her husband predeceased her in 1938, also two sons, Dmetro at the age of one year in 1918, and Nick in Italy during World War II, two brothers, Steve Makowany in 1955, and John, March 19th, 1965.

She is survived by three sons, John and Paul of Holden and Mike of Winnipeg; two sisters, Mrs. Nancy Lashuski of Holden, Mrs. Annie Bestmaz of Strome; one brother, Peter Makowany of Holden; and three grandchildren.

Prayer services were held at the Holden Greek Catholic Church Tuesday Mar 30th, and mass was celebrated at the South Holden Greek Catholic Church Wednesday morning March 31st with Rev Father R. Loryuski the celebrant.

Pallbearers were John, Paul and Mike Cwhuka, Joe and Mike Makowany and Leo Lashuski; with Hoveland Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mike Pozerniuk passes March 28th

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Mike Pozerniuk passed away Sunday, Mar 28th after being in poor health for some time. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife Annie, and son Harry of Holden and two daughters, Mrs L. Vihh of Viking and Mrs. Mike Pashuski of Edmonton, and seven grandchildren. Prayer service was held Wednesday evening, Mar. 31st, and Requiem Mass Thursday morning, Apr. 1st, at the Ukrainian Catholic Church, Holden, with Rev. B. Lesynsky being the celebrant and interment was in the Holden cemetery. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family.

Kingman pair wed 25 years

(Mrs. J. Anderson)

KINGMAN, April 8th — Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson were honored on Sunday afternoon when friends and relatives gathered at the Community Hall to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. Elwood Flemming very ably emcee'd the program which consisted of a duet by Randy and Audrey Anderson, poem by Gail Gibson, piano solo by Peggy Davidson, solo selections by Alf Myhre, Mrs. Lloyd Bjorgan, duet by Mrs. Lloyd Bjorgan, duet by Piers and Paul Bjorgan. Alma Anderson read a poem and made the presentation to the Petersons from the community. Vernon Peterson made the presentation of an electric fry pan from their family.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson have three sons who were all present and seated at the table with their parents during lunch. A lovely three-tiered wedding cake formed the table motif, the full was suitably decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson both expressed their thanks. A lovely lunch was served to the ladies.

Ladies' Society has meeting in Edmonton

(Mrs. Gertie Fairbrother)

SPILSTEAD — The regular meeting of the Spilstead Ladies' Society was held in Edmonton on April 1st at the home of Mrs. Grace L'orandelle. Ten members and one visitor were present. The ladies were pleased to have a former member, Mrs Jack Bradley visit them during this meeting, and rejoin the group as a paid member. The next meeting will be held in May at the home Hazel Ray.

the Joys of Easter

It only takes a moment in this busy life to praise a husband or thank a mother — adding a special glow to their enjoyment of Easter. Isn't there a favorite relative who would like to be wished a "Happy Easter"? Isn't there a friend who would enjoy a card that says "thinking of you"? Isn't there a child who would be thrilled receiving mail all his own?

That's one of the special joys of the season. And all it takes is a little thoughtfulness, a stamp and a Coutts Hallmark Easter card from our collection.

Colleen Wyllie wins 4-H speaking contest

Colleen Wyllie of the Tofield 4-H Beef Club walked away with top honors in the district 4-H speaking competitions held in Holden on Friday. Colleen was the unanimous choice of the judges who were highly impressed with her speaking ability. Miss Wyllie spoke about Canada's north country on her topic "The Last Frontier". She outlined the beauties and rigors of the north, as well as the huge potential for development and suggested it was the last frontier which presented a challenge to those who were seeking new fields to conquer.

Miss Wyllie was presented the Harold V. Harvey trophy by District Agriculturist, S. C. Powers, for placing at the top of the class of speakers. She will now represent the county at the regional finals which will be held in Vegreville on April 30th.

Second place in the judging went to Eileen Stuart of the Holden 4-H Beef Club who spoke on "Specialization versus Diversification in Farming". Eileen will also compete in the regional finals with Colleen.

James Bigsby representing the Spring Boy's and Girl's Calf Club placed third with his speech on "Beef Cattle Management". The Winter Fair Grand Champion Steer and Reserve Champion Steer were also shown by members of the Spring Boy's and Girl's Calf Club.

Ten boys and girls participated in the competitions which were held in the Holden Community Hall. Each contestant was required to give a speech of from five to seven minutes duration. Judges for the competitions were Miss Glenna Robins, associate supervisor of 4-H clubs for Alberta, and E. H. Brown of Ryley. In announcing the winners, Mr. Brown stated that he was amazed at the high calibre of the talks given by all contestants and really admired the way they were able to express themselves. He urged each contestant to continue developing their talents in the art of speaking because each one had not only much to offer his fellowman but the things he also much to gain.

The 4-H'ers throughout the district will be waiting with keen anticipation to see if one of their members will be a Wyllie as the winners there will participate in the Edmonton competitions. They are hopeful that a member from this county can again win that competition.

Parent-Teacher Day held in Tofield

A "thank-you" has been extended to all the parents of the Tofield community who made the parent-teacher day on April 8th a success.

There were members in attendance from Holden to Bawlf, Viking and Camrose. Many professionals and personnel from the Tofield community were also present.

School principal speaks at 4-H meet

Tofield 4-H club met recently when they decided to have a car-wash April 24th, to be held at the Tofield Service Garage. An April 21st, the club will go on a tour to see all the club calves. A few of the members gave interesting talks.

Guest speaker, Mr. Annis, principal of the Tofield school, gave a very interesting talk on how important the 4-H program is in bringing up today's rural youth.

Chemical School to be held in Tofield

As stated in a previous issue of this paper, a chemical school will be held in Tofield. Ron Boyles, field supervisor with the County of Beaver, has announced that arrangements have been completed and the school will be held at the Tofield Legion Hall on Wednesday, April 21st, at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. Boyles indicated that the program will consist of speakers and films on farm chemicals and fertilizers. All farmers in the Tofield area are cordially invited to attend.

Cooking school Thursday

Ladies of Tofield and district are invited to attend a cooking school in the Community Centre next Thursday.

The cooking school is being sponsored by the Ionic Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and all proceeds will go to benevolent work. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Refreshments will be served during intermission.

Tickets can be obtained from any member of the Ionic Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, or at the door.

More details on the cooking school will be found in a full-page advertisement in this issue of The Mercury.

Doctor leaves Holden

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — It is with regret we hear that Dr. Dhaveni, who has been attending and looking after in Holden since the middle of January has decided to leave Holden and closed his office last weekend. This leaves Holden without the services of a medical doctor again, the previous doctor, Dr. Gale, with his family, leaving June of last year. We understand that Dr. Heeraad has applied for the position at Breton hospital. We wish him every success in his new venture.

And Jesus cried with a loud voice "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit," and . . . gave up the ghost. Luke 24

Varied agenda sparks council

The Tofield Town Council meeting was held on Monday, Apr. 5th at 8 p.m., with Deputy Mayor Swift, Councillors Allan, Eyvindson, Jones, Jefferson and Patterson, Mr. H. Weatherill and Const. J. Wall present.

MUNICIPAL GARAGE

Mr. H Weatherill, councillor to the County of Beaver No. 9 desired information regarding available building lots should the county decide to erect a municipal garage in Tofield. It was council's unanimous decision that three lots in Block 7 on First Avenue would be exchanged for lots 18 and 17, Block 11, Plan 2302 now occupied by the county, with the understanding that should a garage be erected on this site, the fuel tank must be placed underground. Council informed Mr. Weatherill that the town would be interested in purchasing the present municipal garage when and if it is offered for sale.

CEMETERY

After much discussion, council decided the cost of cemetery plots be set at $40.00 for a whole plot, $20.00 for a half plot and $10.00 for a single plot, with the rate of care remaining at $3.00 per full plot and $1.50 per year for lesser plots.

Two applications were received for caretaker of the cemetery for 1965, one from William Kennedy and one from H. McAdoo. Council decided to accept the application from H McAdoo at a rate of $1.50 per hour including the use of his own machinery and tools.

The application for dog catcher for the town received from Walter Krystal for $2.00 per dog was accepted by council.

Order No. 1780 from the Local Authorities Board, being an order authorizing separation from the Town of Tofield of approximately 80 acres in the S.E. ¼ of Section 1, Twp. 51, Range 20, W4M, and registered in the names of A. J. Pravda was read and accepted.

An application from Leo Surka for the erection and operation of dog kennels on part of Section 36, Twp. 50, Range 19, W4M (Beige Regor's) was granted.

Walter Smith asked for an estimate of the cost of a water line to his property. Council agreed that this was economically impossible due to the distance involved.

Application from A C Francis for the cancellation of the improvement tax arrears on Lot. 2,

CEMETERY

After much discussion, council decided the cost of cemetery plots be set at $40.00 for a whole plot, $25.00 for a half plot and $10.00 for a single plot, with the rate of care remaining at $5.00 per full plot and $1.50 per year for lesser plots.

Two applications were received for caretaker of the cemetery for 1965, one from William Kennedy and one from H McAdoo. Council decided to accept the application from H McAdoo at a rate of $1.85 per hour including the use of his own machinery and tools.

The application for dog catcher for the town received from Walter Krystal for $2.00 per dog was accepted by council.

Order No. 1790 from the Local Authorities Board, being an order authorizing separation from the Town of Tofield of approximately 80 acres in the SE¼ of Section 2, Twp. 51, Range 18, W4M, and registered in the name of A. Fraser was read and accepted.

An application from Lee Rurka for the erection and operation of dog kennels on part of NW¼ of Section 36, Twp. 50, Range 19, W4M (Helge Reger's) was granted.

Walter Smith asked for an estimate of the cost of a water line to his property. Council agreed that this was economically impossible due to the distance involved.

Application from A. C. Francis for the cancellation of the improvement tax arrears on Lot. 5,

Stout-hearted men

Our community is this week marking the greatest festival of the Christian church. Victory over death, in the form of the Resurrection, is Easter's greatest message, and the greatest distinguishing mark between Christianity and other religions.

What struck our mind was that we wouldn't now be marking Easter . . . even after Jesus . . . were it not for the work of twelve men. Or thirteen, maybe.

Many of us do not know that after the elimination of Judas, another apostle was named to round out the twelve. Then, of course, the dramatic conversion of Saul . . . Paul . . . enlarged the number, even though many of us could name Paul, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, and then start to falter somewhat.

The untiring and inspired work of these men left a movement which has carried on for nearly two thousand years, and probably will [illegible] for two thousand more, Pierre Berton notwithstanding.

Yet think how easily the work of only twelve men might have fallen by the wayside. Think of how easily they might have become dispirited, have been sidetracked, bought off, or simply eliminated. Think, too, of how the history of the world might have been altered had they not continued steadfast in the faith.

Not quite, though very nearly, all of the wonderful story of Easter we have inherited is the legacy of these twelve stouthearted men. As we take time to pause over this Easter holiday, it might be fitting to reflect briefly whether the interest we show in the matter would warrant the effort put forth by these twelve.

Speculation interesting

Suggestions that the Hon. A. J. Hooke may step down as a cabinet minister in Alberta have been coming with increasing frequency, partly because of his somewhat bothersome health, partly because of his long tenure, his age, and probably, partly, because there's nothing better to occupy the time.

There's no question that his resignation would be a serious loss to the cabinet. Alf Hooke has served in several portfolios, and has been warmly regarded in each. There is no secret that he has been widely considered to be the strongest minister Manning has. In fact, the view has been tossed out several times that Hooke has been the party strategist, and is the strong man to reckon with.

Whatever history may show, Albertans will hope that Mr. Hooke will be able to continue in office. There are other posts which younger and able men might fill with more benefit to the province, though unfortunately, these posts do not seem to come open. Even with as many members as Mr. Manning racks up in general elections, it is hard to find sufficient members of cabinet stature: with a house more evenly divided, it would be a great deal more difficult.

This, possibly, is one of the strongest arguments against often-heard suggestions that the number of ridings and members be cut, say, in half. Were there only 30 constituencies, say, a party might be elected with a slim majority, and find nearly every one of its members had to accept a cabinet post. Obviously, we don't nominate that many good men.

Similarly, the finding of representatives of cabinet stature is one of the most difficult problems facing the "other parties", for unless they can do so, they have little chance of ever becoming really effective. It has been wisely said 'the voters never set out to elect an Opposition. They vote to form a government!'.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

We would like to take this opportunity of wishing The Mercury staff, correspondents and all our friends far and wide a very Happy Easter.

With the lovely spring weather, attendance at the United Church is climbing each Sunday. Les [illegible] conducts the services.

ONTARIO GIRL TO SERVE PARISH

The church boards of Ministik, Hastings Lake and South Cooking Lake met at the South Cooking Lake United Church on Monday evening to make plans for the summer student. This year the student will be a girl who comes from near Toronto, Ontario, and church members are looking forward to her arrival here the end of April.

At their meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horricks on Tuesday evening, the Ministik Community Club [illegible] plans for an Easter dance to be held Monday evening, April 19th. Everyone welcome. A cash bingo, to be held Friday, May 7th, was planned by the Community Club. Their next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Jeske, in May.

The Easter ham bingo, sponsored by the CWL and held at the hall on April 9th was a huge success. Many patrons went home with luscious hams for their Easter dinner. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies, following the bingo. A capacity crowd was in attendance.

SPRING IS HERE!

Andrew and Ronald Ferguson attended an auction sale at Uncas on Wednesday. Another sign of spring when auction sales are held.

Mrs. Helen Hennessy was an Edmonton shopper on Monday. She also had an appointment with a chiropractor.

NEW RESIDENTS HERE

The Morris Patersons of Lonma moved to their new home on the Matthew Ferguson farm on Sunday and Monday. We welcome them to our community. Morris is a younger brother of Pat Paterson.

Alex Kleinachruth who has been working in Edmonton, has now finished the house he was helping to build.

Friends regret to hear that Walter Barnes is a patient in the Tofield Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams and family of Edmonton, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leach and Chester.

Driver backs into brother

(Heather McLeod)

HAY LAKES, April 12 — Hay Lakes was the scene of an unfortunate accident about 1:30 a.m. Saturday, April 10 in which 20-year-old Donald Bradley of Edmonton was seriously injured when struck by a car driven by his brother, Bill Bradley. Donald was standing behind the vehicle when the accident occurred.

An ambulance from Camrose took the injured youth to St. Mary's Hospital, where he is reported to be suffering from a severe concussion and several broken ribs plus multiple bruises.

Don was a resident of the king man district before moving to Edmonton last summer.

90TH BIRTHDAY

On April 4th, Annie Hunley and her three boys drove to Rocky Mountain House to be with other members of the family to celebrate Grandma Hunley's 90th birthday, which was on April 3rd. Those present numbered 41. There were, however, two daughters and their families who were unable to attend, and a granddaughter who is teaching in Australia.

* * *

Tuesday morning, Annie Hunley was pleasantly surprised to learn friends from Hudson Hope, B.C., were in town for a short while and she visited with them at Jim Fisher's residence. Noel and Alice Verville were in the Arctic with Annie and her sister, in 1937-38-39.

To broadcast midnight mass

This Saturday, at midnight, Mass will be broadcast over radio station CFCW from St Francis Xavier Church. Recently many changes have become effective in the Catholic Church liturgy. Several of these changes will be used in this Easter Mass. All parts sung by the choir will be in English.

Dr Frank MacInnis is in charge of the commentary, Dr Joseph Clearee, lector, and the pastor, Rev. Finlay MacDonald, celebrant. Once again the chief organist, Mrs. Fred Duggan, will be in charge of the choir.

At 10 minutes before midnight Dr. MacInnis will review the liturgical ceremonies of the past week and introduce the culminating action of the entire week, "the Mass of the Resurrection".

Those unable to attend may follow on radio, to celebrate the Resurrection, the most important in the Christian Faith.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leach mark golden anniversary

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK, April 10.—The family of Mr and Mrs. Claude Leach entertained friends and neighbors at an "open house" reception on Sunday, March 21st, in Ministik Hall, to honor them on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a golden bell centred the head table, flanked by golden tapers and golden-tinted spring flowers.

[illegible] Williams was master of ceremonies for the occasion and gave the couple's history, and Mrs. S. George read a [illegible] about the couple, composed by Mrs. Norman Willmore.

[illegible] Parker, councillor, presented the couple with a picture from the County of Strathcona. Floyd Baker, M.L.A., presented scrolls from Hon. J. Percy Page, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, and from Premier E. C. Manning. Many messages of congratulations were received, and also many gifts and flowers.

Mr and Mrs Leach with sons Chester and Ralph came from Edmonton to Ministik in 1925 to settle on the farm once owned by Billie Young. They have taken an active interest and part in their community throughout the years. Mr Leach at present is secretary of the Ministik Mutual Telephone Company, and Mrs Leach is an active member of the Ministik Ladies' Club. Both are members of the United Church. Their two sons still reside in the district and were present for the occasion. They also have two grandchildren, Donna and Brian Leach, and several nieces and nephews.

The family's gift to the bride and groom of fifty years was two tickets to the West Coast, to be used at their leisure.

Their son Ralph and two nephews, Frank and Ronald Swabey, received the guests. Several nieces served, and Brian Leach was in charge of the guest book.

Ryley news

(M. K. Westmancoat)

Sympathy of the district is extended to Mary Oslund and Lorraine Davick on the loss of their mother, Mrs. Ellen Gossman, who passed away this week at Rosehaven in Camrose.

Bill Wood has his brother, Louis, his wife and two children visiting with him from Delisle, Sask.

Brian and Marie Westmancoat and boys were Sunday visitors with Roy and Myrtle Hutchinson and family in Kingman.

Ryley Dairy Club members were among the invited guests in Vegreville on Saturday, April 10th, to a social evening sponsored by the Vegreville 4-H Dairy Club.

Baseball clinic is planned

The snow is melting, the sky is clearing and the flowers are blooming, well almost, anyway. The Holden Recreation Board is getting an early start in this year's baseball season by co-sponsoring a regional one-day baseball clinic.

The Alberta Baseball Umpires Association along with the recreation and cultural development branch of the provincial government are the co-sponsors of this clinic and through the efforts of Don Coutu, the Holden Recreation Board will host the clinic.

Sunday, May 9th, is the day set for the clinic. It will commence at 10 a.m. and continue through 5 p.m. with a break for meals. The meeting hall is the Canadian Legion, next door to the Curling Club building in Holden.

The school is open to anyone 16 years and over, interested in improving their knowledge of baseball and baseball rules. The course will cover such things as philosophy of umpiring, leadership, rules and rule changes, deportment and positional techniques. The instruction will be provided by competent officials of the Alberta Baseball Umpires Association.

Applicants will be responsible for their own room and board and transportation expenses. The [illegible] line [illegible] applications and registration fees of $1.00 will be Saturday, May 1st, and they are to be left with or sent to Don Coutu of Holden. Don may be [illegible] at 122 or 75.

Palmer - Earling news items

(Mrs. J. Knudsen)

PALMER-EARLING, April 9— Crows were reported seen April 2nd, and a robin was seen April 7th. There is much snow but the spring thaw is on.

Mr and Mrs Allan Owens, Edmonton, were recent visitors at the Conrad Huseby home.

Mrs. Inga Afseth, Mrs. Martin Mendahl and Mr and Mrs. Carl Sorensen, David, Denise and Eldon were Sunday dinner guests at the Dennis Pedersen home, Camrose South.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Carlson, March 23rd, their first baby, a daughter, Rhonda Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knudsen, Tim, Allan and JoAnn were Sunday guests with the Chester Throndsons in the Dinant West district.

Bob Goldnick of Woolbeck was a Wednesday visitor with the Jack Vansbergs.

Ernest Forre, Camrose, called locally on Wednesday.

Gennave Bruce and his friend, Edmonton, and the Leroy Forres of Camrose were Sunday visitors with the Bruce Bros. and E. Aspenson.

Peter Sorensen left by plane Thursday to visit his native land, Denmark. This is his first trip back.

IN HOSPITAL

Hans Huseby is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, Camrose.

Mrs. Mary Dragon and Clayton and Mrs. Allan Stefan were Wednesday supper guests with the Edof Wikkens.

HOME FROM INDIA

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Bray of Ryley spent last week in Edmonton with the Allan Brays, the home of their son. While there, Mrs. Orval Bray's sister, Mrs. Farley returned to her home in the city by plane from India, having gone there in November. Mrs. Farley had also visited Dr and Mrs. Billy Bray and three sons at Beruit, Lebanon, and friends in London, England.

BEST POSTMASTER

Mrs. Orval Bray just received news that her brother, Jack Watson has won the nation-wide written competition as postmaster of the new post office in Calgary. Mr. Watson has been employed with the post office for the past 30 years.

The Bob Beatties were Tofield callers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Holte, Lethbridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hilland, Calgary, are motoring up to attend the 40th wedding anniversary Sunday at the Skudesnes Church.

To broadcast midnight mass

This Saturday, at midnight, Mass will be broadcast over radio station CFCW from St. Francis Xavier Church. Recently many changes have become effective in the Catholic Church liturgy. Several of these changes will be used in this Easter Mass. All parts sung by the choir will be in English.

Dr Frank MacInnis is in charge of the commentary, Dr Joseph Cloarec, lector, and the pastor Rev Finlay MacDonald, celebrant. Once again the chief organist Mrs Fred Duggan, will be in charge of the choir.

At 10 minutes before midnight Dr. MacInnis will review the liturgical ceremonies of the past week and introduce the culminating action of the entire week, "the Mass of the Resurrection".

Those unable to attend may follow on radio, to celebrate the Resurrection, the most important in the Christian Faith.

Free map kits for schools

OTTAWA. — Public schools where geography is a part of the regular curriculum, may obtain free from the department of mines and technical surveys, Ottawa, a kit of up-to-date maps selected particularly for use in the classroom.

The kit includes one map of Canada at a scale of 1 inch to 100 miles, a special map showing the country's natural resources, a copy of the department's immensely popular new map of the world and a topographical map showing the particular school district at the largest scale available. All maps are in color.

One kit will be forwarded free upon request from the school principal or board of trustees. Additional copies may be purchased at a discount of 40 per cent. Teachers and students will be given the same discount provided the principal certifies that the maps are to be used in school studies. Money orders, payable to the Receiver General of Canada, should be sent to the Map Distribution Office, 615 Booth St., Ottawa 4, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leach mark golden anniversary

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK, April 10.—The family of Mr and Mrs. Claude Leach entertained friends and neighbors at an "open house" reception on Sunday, March 21st, in Ministik Hall, to honor them on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a golden bell centred the head table, flanked by golden tapers and golden-tinted spring flowers.

Stanley Williams was master of ceremonies for the occasion and gave the couple's history, and Mrs. S. George read a poem about the couple, composed by Mrs. Norman Willmore.

Roger Parker, councillor, presented the couple with a picture from the County of Strathcona. Floyd Baker, M.L.A., presented scrolls from Hon. J. Percy Page, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, and from Premier E. C. Manning. Many messages of congratulations were received, and also many gifts and flowers.

Mr and Mrs Leach with sons Chester and Ralph came from Edmonton to Ministik in 1925 to settle on the farm once owned by Billie Young. They have taken an active interest and part in their community throughout the years. Mr Leach at present is secretary of the Ministik Mutual Telephone Company, and Mrs Leach is an active member of the Ministik Ladies' Club. Both are members of the United Church. Their two sons still reside in the district and were present for the occasion. They also have two grandchildren, Donna and Brian Leach, and several nieces and nephews.

The family's gift to the bride and groom of fifty years was two tickets to the West Coast, to be used at their leisure.

Their son Ralph and two nephews, Frank and Ronald Swabey, received the guests. Several nieces served, and Brian Leach was in charge of the guest book.

Ryley news

(M. K. Westmoreland)

Sympathy of the district is extended to Mary Oslund and Lorraine Davich on the loss of their mother, Mrs. Ellen Gessman, who passed away this week at Rosehaven in Camrose.

Bill Wood has his brother, Louis, his wife and two children visiting with him from Dalhide, Sask.

Brian and Marie Westmoreland and boys were Sunday visitors with Ray and Myrtle Hutchinson and family in Kingman.

Ryley Dairy Club members were among the invited guests in Vegreville on Saturday, April 10th, to a social evening sponsored by the Vegreville 4-H Dairy Club.

Baseball clinic is planned

The snow is melting, the sky is clearing and the flowers are blooming, well almost, anyway. The Holden Recreation Board is getting an early start in this year's baseball season by co-sponsoring a regional one-day baseball clinic.

The Alberta Baseball Umpires Association along with the recreation and cultural development branch of the provincial government are the co-sponsors of this clinic and through the efforts of Don Coutu, the Holden Recreation Board will host the clinic.

Sunday, May 9th, is the day set for the clinic. It will commence at 10 a.m. and continue through 5 p.m. with a break for meals. The meeting hall is the Canadian Legion, next door to the Curling Club building in Holden.

The school is open to anyone 16 years and over, interested in improving their knowledge of baseball and baseball rules. The course will cover such things as philosophy of umpiring, leadership, rules and rule changes, deportment and positional techniques. The instruction will be provided by competent officials of the Alberta Baseball Umpires Association.

Applicants will be responsible for their own room and board and transportation expenses. The deadline for applications and registration fees of $1.00 will be Saturday, May 1st, and they are to be left with or sent to Don Coutu of Holden. Don may be phoned at 122 or 75.

Canadian Heart Foundation

The Canadian Heart Foundation is a federation of Provincial Heart Foundations in British, Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Qubec. There is an Atlantic Provinces Division

This Foundation is the sole voluntary health agency in Canada dedicated to the control and conquest of heart disease through the support of medical research. It is an effective partnership of medical and lay persons with common goals. The programme of the Foundation are financed by public contributions to the Heart Fund Research support is in the form of Fellowships which provide for the full-time research work of highly qualified scientists, and Grants-in-Aid of research which are made on the recommendations of a national medical advisory committee whose members represent all provincial areas The committee selects on the basis of excellence and potential Research is done in all twelve Canadian medical schools and their affiliated teaching hospitals. A total of 151 projects are being supported ed to determine the cause of hardening of the arteries, the underlying cause of most heart attacks and strokes. Improved treatment for the control of high blood pressure is developed and knowledge as to the causes of this malady promises early success. Heart surgery, which can now cure 80% of congenital heart defects, is being assisted through the development of new techniques and instruments which lead to new modern miracles. Most important, these research activities create a climate which attracts the most highly qualified teachers and the best graduate students. The Heart Foundations have contributed almost $4,000,000.00 to research during the past six years.

The results of research are made available to the practicing physician through films, demonstrations and publications. Similar materials are offered to the public to meet the demand for practical and authentic information on heart disease and its effects

It is a source of pride to the Heart Foundations that more than 85% of its expenditures are made for research and education.

Signing debentures worth $10,000,000, Alberta's telephones minister Hon. Raymond Reierson is seen commencing the job of validating some 2,000 separate debentures issued recently by the Alberta Government Telephones. Offered March 17, the issue yielding 5.37% was fully subscribed in a fairly short period. It was made available to Albertans through brokers, banks and treasury branches. About twice as much again will be needed by the crown utility during this fiscal year.

J. U. Ericksons honored at district 'farewell'

(Mrs. J. A. Anderson)

KINGMAN, April 13th — A capacity crowd of friends and neighbors filled the Wilhelmina Church on Sunday when open house and a farewell party was held for Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Erickson and Karen. Well-known farmers in the East Hay Lakes district, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson will be leaving shortly for Lethbridge to reside. The Ericksons have lived in the district for 30 years and will be greatly missed by all.

Pastor P. Swedberg was in charge of the program which featured a solo by Mrs. Swedberg, and two songs by the Sunday School children. Pastor O. Eklund, a former pastor of the church, expressed his best wishes for their future success and happiness but regrets that the church and community would be losing such a staunch family. The Ericksons have been ardent and faithful church workers throughout the years.

Audrey and Barbara Grue sang a duet and Verner Johnson a solo.

John Holmberg, on behalf of the FUA, presented the Ericksons with a silver engraved tray. Pastor Swedberg made the presentation of a mantel clock (also engraved) from the Wilhelmina [illegible] and Ingvald Ness presented a purse of money from friends. Mr. Erickson, on behalf of Mrs. Erickson and Karen and himself, expressed his heartfelt thanks. The Ladies' Aid served a very delicious lunch to all who called.

specially formulated dust seed dressing. Before you even start worrying about the problem, flea beetles are at work destroying rape and mustard seedlings. Often, poor stands are blamed on the wind or on low germination . . . but well-fed flea beetles did the damage.

A small purchase of NIAGARA'S THIRALIN seed dressing, just ½ oz. per lb. of seed, protects against flea beetles and against the other soil borne enemies of rape and mustard: "damping off", seed decay, and seedling blight. Application is easy, because free flowing THIRALIN sticks to the seed.

For higher yields, greater profit, treat rape and mustard seed with THIRALIN.

Tofield Mercury.

Dear Sir:

The other day I heard the usual familiar remark, "We baby our youth too much today; look at the wonderful recreational facilities they have today that we did not have in our times"; and repeatedly hearing and seeing Canada's national apart over the air, I decided on Ad-hoc-day to see what the arm tours were doing in town. In looking over the hockey rink, I found it of truly nineteenth century style—with no roof, no ice in sight and apparently had not been since the last snow-storm. It left me wondering where the "wonderful facilities" were? It took no flight of imagination to visualize the youth winter recreational problems, for if it there was a warm run the ice would be soft and heavy, if it was cold and/or windy, or the ice uncleaned, surely no skating or hockey.

And as I stood there I thought back and remembered that, some years ago a youth came to me in the post-hall and begged me to assist in organizing a hockey team to give he and others something to do. I was unable at the time to give adequate assistance to get it going; and the next I knew of him he was raiding a nearby barn yard for a thrill, or relief from boredom. A few months later he joined those to whom the province furnishes "free board and lodging". Could that Hockey Team have prevented his getting into trouble

And then I crossed the road, and lo . . . I was in a nice warm twentieth century room, and saw several lovely sheets of artificial ice, with dads, uncles, moms, aunts and other adults enjoying the Bourin' Game, and I heard plans of a rip-roaring banquet to close the season. And I was very glad that I had lived to "see the day" when we elders were supplied with ample recreational facilities to keep us out of trouble, with no excuse for setting bad examples for our youth. But I could hear Ezekial saying, "Ye 'entertain' yourselves, but ye 'entertain' not the flock.—as they are scattered".

Geo. G. Abernethy.

Important Message from H. G. Meyer of The Tofield Mercury

How you can help to give enterprising young Albertans the credit they deserve

I'm proud to be one of the many weekly newspaper editors who, every year, receive nominations from readers, for Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year Awards. After all, isn't it true that meritorious conduct on the part of our youngsters deserves to be recognized? This is why I'm glad to hear about young people who you - my readers - believe deserve these Junior Citizen Awards. It may be an individual, or it may be a group of two or more (don't forget, there's a special award for groups).

How do our young people qualify? Well, good citizenship takes endless forms! Physical heroism. Community work. Undertaking exceptional responsibilities in the home. Church work. Going out of one's way to help someone in difficulty. I could go on for several columns! The important thing is, if you know of enterprising youngsters between 6 and 16 years, who have done something worthwhile since August 1964 . . .

Just tell me about them

Be sure to include your own name and address. Nominators of winners are entitled to nominator certificates. Remember, too, all youngsters nominated will receive certificates of recognition. Contest me by letter, phone, or in person!

Surprise 'farewell' honors Holden couple

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — A suprise "farewell party" for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shehinski was held Thursday evening at the home of Chris [illegible] and sons, [illegible] and Reuben. Approximately 30 friends and neighbors gathered to wish Annie and Harry happiness in their new home in Edmonton. Various card games were played during the evening and Nick Fedruk spoke briefly on the achievements of the couple while living in the district, and on behalf of all, presented the guests of honor with an electric percolator. Mr. and Mrs. Shehinski thanked all their friends for the lovely gift, the party and good wishes. A delicious lunch was then served, bringing to a close a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Shehinski are leaving Sunday for Edmonton. Last year, Harry had the misfortune to injure his hand quite badly making it impossible to do farm work. Mrs. Shehinski will be employed in a store in Edmonton, and Harry is hopeful of obtaining a light job that he is able to do.

Local 4-H Club among program winners

This has been 4-H Radio Week at CFCW in Camrose. Tofield 4-H Beef Club was one of many that took part in a program sponsored by CFCW. They put on a short radio program (5 - 10 minutes) stressing the three main beef breeds of cattle, their origin, and farm management.

Each club contesting put on a similar program, about 30 clubs taking part. Tofield was one of nine winners. The final winner of these nine clubs will be announced Friday, April 23rd.

Laurie Weatherill, Phyllis Rose, Marjorie Moore and Colleen Wyllie made up Tofield's program and put it on. As a member of this group, Laurie Weatherill is attending a five-day trip in the city of Camrose this week. The local 4-H Beef Club is very proud of these four members for doing such a good job.

CAR WASH

This Saturday is 4-H Day in Tofield, when the [illegible] members will be washing cars at Jim Fisher's, holding a [illegible] sale at the Crown Lumber Co., with the Pee-Wee Beef Club participating by selling popcorn and operating a shoe-shine stand. It is hoped that everyone will help to make the day a success by patronizing these efforts. The club plans to make this an annual event.

A LONG WAIT. Ever wonder, as this young fisherman is doing, why your line sometimes doesn't even get a nibble? Well, naturalists have come up with the reason why northern pike rarely go for a hook . . . it's because of slow digestion. Pike take 50 hours to fully digest food, and during that time it's unlikely to be tempted by even the fattest worm!

Lions report shows deficit

Tofield Lions Club held their first April supper meeting on Tuesday, April 13th in the Community Hall meeting room.

The nominating committee reported on the slate of officers for next year. It has been proposed to have suitable nicknames for members, some of which were acceptable to those referred to.

The matter of a club token was left until later, a report on bingo was made and the financial report given, showing the skating rink had operated at a loss of over $450.00, exclusive of buying a snow blower at under $400.00.

A ladies night will be the highlight of the last meeting of the month.

W. Toderovich gets lumber yard transfer

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — William Toderovich, manager of the Revelstoke Building Materials lumber yard for the past year and a half, is being transferred to the branch at Vegreville. They have been busy this past week taking stock, and Mr. and Mrs. Toderovich will be leaving for Vegreville in the near future. We understand that Milton Malick, presently in charge of the branch at Daysland, will be returning from there to take over the lumber yards, and moving here with his wife and family.

Ladies' Club has April meet

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK — The April meeting of the Ministik Ladies' Club was held at the United Church on Wednesday with 14 members and two guests present.

Roll call was the exchange of an Easter card and many lovely ones were received. May roll call will be "A Bible verse that means a lot to me".

Plans were made for the annual strawberry tea to be held on June 5th with Mrs. Andrew Ferguson as convener. A lamp will be raffled that day. As the secretary, Mrs. Dennis Jones will be leaving the district soon, a pendant and earrings were presented to her by the president, Mrs. Pat Paterson, a gift from the club. Mrs. Frank Swabey was chosen president to complete Mrs. Jones' term. Plans for a whist drive in aid of the community picnic fund were made, this to be held on May 14th. Mrs. Andrew Ferguson will also be the convener with Mrs. Claude Leach assisting.

Mrs. Frank Swabey, Mrs. Joe Davenport and Mrs. Alex Kleinschroth celebrated birthdays in April and were recipients of boxes of chocolates and birthday cards. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Helen Hennessey, Mrs. Tom Jones and Mrs. Albert Horricks.

C. J. Kallals observe 50th anniversary

A Tofield district couple, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Kallal celebrated their golden anniversary Sunday at their home.

Attending the family celebration were their nine children and 33 grandchildren.

Married April 13th, 1915, at St. Joachim's Catholic Church, in Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Kallal lived for many years at their home at the Kallal Hereford Rranch Ltd., a few miles from Tofield. For the past few years, the couple have made their home in the town.

Mrs. E. J. Hatherton of Vancouver, B.C., was present at the family home for the celebration.

Friendship group meets at Ruskenveld home

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The regular monthly meeting of the Friendship group was held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Ruskenveld Thursday, April 15th. Mrs. Mary James, president, opened the meeting reading an Easter prayer, which was followed by the hymn "Near the Cross". The devotions were taken by Mrs. James, the scripture being from John, chapters 17 and 18, on betrayal of Jesus before the crucifixion. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. James took the roll call, with members responding with an appropriate Bible verse. Mrs. James read a short story on "Mary and Martha".

Mrs. Campbell had received a letter from Miss McLeod in Hong Kong, thanking the ladies for their donation of money towards the adopted boy. They were advised that he had been transferred to another part of China and their future donations would go towards the education of a ten-year-old girl, Lai Ping. Her parents were extremely poor, the father unable to earn enough to take care of his family's needs.

The meeting closed with a hymn, followed by the benediction after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edna Ruskenveld, served a delicious lunch.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Giebelhaus.

PTR Mission here in June

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hurum, Mr. and Mrs. Algot Hultholm, Mrs. Hilmer Olsen, Miss Margaret Grube, and Ralph Mason, members of the Holden Lutheran Church, attended a recent meeting in Camrose regarding the future PTR Mission. The mission will be held June 6th to 9th in the Lutheran church at which a special guest speaker from Minneapolis, U.S., will be present. The group attending the meeting found it to be very instructive and informative on the briefing to be given to all members re-

24 karat gold

Last week under the heading "That's gold in them thar hills" this column referred to the amount of money available in this country to finance this country's development.

Premier Manning won't looking over our shoulder when we wrote the article, and it's certain we didn't have the opportunity to peek beforehand at his speech on Thursday to the Canadian Petroleum Association, so it's fascinating to see how similar were the two ideas.

The only difference, of course, is that Premier Manning's it authentic, based on factual and privileged information. Ours had to be based on such information as is permitted to be known.

However, he highlighted our idea.

The gold we talked about turns out to be pure 24 karat stuff, not just traces. And to hear Mr. Manning talk, you'd think we were sitting on top of the Mother Lode.

We knew the recent Alberta Government Telephones $10,000,000 debenture was rapidly oversubscribed . . . we didn't know until Mr. Manning reported on the matter that the entire issue was sold out in only two or three hours after it went on sale.

We knew, too, the recent issue of Great Canadian Oil Sands would be oversubscribed several times over. That didn't take any crystal ball to figure out. But who could have guessed the issue, for $12,500,000 . . . twelve and a half million dollars . . . would be oversubscribed one hundred times, in the premier's words.

His point in making all these statements is that the money is here, without question. He was making a plea for an opportunity for Albertans, especially, as well as other Canadians, to share in the returns, as well as the risks, of development of our own natural resources. He was making his plea to members of the oil industry, yet it is certain it would be heard by other segments of the industrial economy.

Let's hope that Ottawa hears the plea, too, and amends a point or two in the tax laws here and there, giving Canadians an equitable an opportunity to profit from the wealth and development of our country as is given to our neighbors who move in and help to develop us.

Who cares?

Farmers particularly should be interested in the article in a recent issue of Maclean's Magazine pointing out that Britons are most unhappy with the shilly reception their manufacturers are given in this country, especially when it comes to the taxation basis.

Probably by now thousands of Canadians have read the item, which points out how . . . in spite of election promises both by the Diefenbaker and the Pearson parties, . . . customs laws have not lessened, and in fact have grown more stringent in recent years.

Farmers particularly, and indeed all Westerners, must be concerned with the situation because one of the greatest commodities we export to Britain is grain. If Britain decides she can no longer buy from us unless we buy from her, the Western farmer would be one of the first to feel the restrictions, and the Western economy would be one of the first to object to Whitehall's 'discrimination'.

Probably some imbalance is to be expected, but the British point out with some concern that their purchases from us have been roughly double their sales for years, and that fully a third of their deficit trade balance can be chalked up to their purchases from Canada.

So the farmers in this region are entitled to ask what their own representative at Ottawa, Cliff Smallwood, has been doing on their behalf. Indeed, they're entitled to ask what any Western MP has been doing to improve their chances of continued wheat sales to Britain . . . and since nearly every Western MP is Conservative, what has the party been doing for them? On the other side of the political fence, the Minister of Agriculture is from Alberta. What has he been doing to soften trade restrictions for Britain, to ensure an open door for Canadian tradesmen?

The questions need to be answered. The chill wind might otherwise blow the door shut.

Voice of experience

Proponents of publicly owned utilities . . . and they've been heard several times recently . . . might do well to spend a moment or more reflecting on the comment of the Fort Erie, Ontario, Letter Review, which commented recently: "Thorold Township is a highly industrialized area that gets its electric power from the Ontario Hydro. Ontario Hydro charges its rates whenever it feels like it without more than a cursory explanation to the legislature or the public. Most utilities in the private investor area have to make elaborate presentations of their case. Most utilities in the public area are as free as the birds".

It's funny how easy it can be to ignore the voice of experience, and insist on making all the mistakes for ourselves.

By George!

Although it is fully sympathetic to the U.S. balance-of-payments problem, the Canadian government, The Financial Post says, sincerely hopes President Johnson's "See America First" program is a flop—at least to the extent that it doesn't inhibit U.S. visitors coming here. The travel industry is confidently betting that tourists will earn Canada more than $700 million this year, and that more than nine million of it will be in $U.S. It is a little early in the year for firm predictions — the flow of tourists usually begins to be heavy in mid-May—but indications so far are all favorable. "Revenue from tourism have increased on average 8% - 10% each year". Canadian Government Travel Bureau director Allen Field told The Financial Post. "There is every indication this trend is going to continue". Tourists earned $661 million in 1964, $32 million more than in 1963. Of that total, millions come from U.S. visitors. Canada still had a net loss, on travel, because Canadians spent $713 million abroad—the great bulk of it in the U.S.

The judgment of the slogan "See America First" is worthy of note, for it is similar to one that has been dropped by the Alberta Tourist Bureau long since . . . "Stay Alberta First". It was felt by our provincial bureau that this slogan might be distasteful to our American neighbors, and other provinces, and so now the slogan is "Know Alberta Better".

Indications are that President Johnson is far behind Alberta in his thinking, or that he just doesn't care about the feelings of Canadian tourists, or those from other countries either.

THE CLIP SHEET

RCMP In the Front Line

(By C. J. Morris)

The public attitude toward the Police, states RCMP Commissioner George B McClellan, is contributing to the increase in crime, is making it more difficult for the police to do the job for which they are paid, is making it more difficult to attract good men into police work.

"There has never been a time in the history of law enforcement in the Western world", Commissioner McClellan said in a Toronto speech, "when those of us whom you have retained to protect you were more in need of the backing and support of the courts, the legal profession, the teaching profession and, above all, the general public. But there has hardly been a time when police have been subjected to more criticism, more abuse, or more frustration than at present".

Two examples of harmful public attitudes were cited by the commissioner. One concerned those citizens who refuse to help the police because they don't want to get involved, or don't want to be bothered—as in the case of the witness to a crime who was reluctant to testify because, "after all, the police get paid to find out these things without bothering innocent people". The other concerned those citizens who downgrade the police even when they need their help—as in the case of the woman who is reporting that her home had been ransacked, told the police: "If you are coming in uniform, don't bother to call".

Even more damaging to society is the common practice of publicizing and glamorizing the criminal, as in the recent Montreal jailbreak of suspected gang smuggler Lucien Rivard. The contrast, the commissioner commented, there was almost publicity of the fate of 24-year-old Constable Amery of the RCMP, who was shot and killed on a Newfoundland street while endeavoring to arrest four prisoners, who had escaped from penitentiary.

"The police", said Commissioner McLellan, "are in the front line in the war against crime. They know what they are up against and they are not encouraged when they find so frequently that they, rather than the criminal, are regarded in some quarters as the enemy of society". Nor is the policeman a person apart. He is society. "When he is assaulted, society as a whole is assaulted. When he dies on some dark street, society is sorrowed down there on the dirty pavement with him. When he succeeds his authority, his standing short. But when he is doing, as most of us are enough, thankless and frequently dangerous job for you and all you hold dear, for God's sake we get his back".

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

Henry Kroger, one of the city's millionaire businessmen, has been found in his study at home, killed by a bullet from an unknown assassin's gun. During your examination of the study, after the body had been removed, you have come across a memo pad next to the telephone, and written in pencil on this pad are five names and phone numbers.

You decide to begin your investigation with the five persons whose names are on the list. You dial the first number, find it to be that of the Woodland Motel, wherefrom you ask for Frank Adams. When his voice comes over the wire, you explain to him that you are at the home of Henry Kroger, who has just been found murdered, and that you would appreciate his coming over immediately for a few routine questions. After expressing his great shock over the tragic news, Adams tells you he'll be there within a half hour. Then you proceed to call the other four numbers, two of which are women. Within an hour, the five persons are sitting in Kroger's living room, and you begin questioning each one of them separately in the study. Three of them have no alibi as to their whereabouts at the time of the murder.

Arlene Ludlow, an attractive young blonde fails to produce a very strong alibi. "I was attending a movie . . . I don't know, I know that's an old one, hard to prove or disprove . . . but it's true. And certainly I would have had no reason in the world for killing Henry. He was always the best of friends".

The final one of the five persons to face you in the study is Frank Adams. "You say you knew Kroger only slightly?"

"Yes", replies Adams, removing the half-smoked cigar from the corner of his mouth. "I've seen him only twice in my life . . . earlier this year when I came into this city on business. We met on both of those occasions at his office, and in fact I didn't even know where he lived until you phoned me this evening. His phone number, as you know, is unlisted. I just arrived in town early this afternoon on another business trip . . . I'm a salesman . . . and I was scheduled to see Kroger in his office tomorrow morning. We had another deal pending, and that means a lot of money to me . . . I was certainly I had no motive for killing him!"

"Are you positive about that last statement?" you ask abruptly. "Maybe one of those 'business deals' backfired, and made you angry enough to kill Henry Kroger."

"Why . . . I don't know what you mean" . . . stammers Frank Adams.

SOLUTION

Three items have added up to: 1) Henry Kroger's name is unlisted in the telephone directory; 2) Frank Adams told you he didn't know where Kroger lived until you phoned him this evening; 3) You made no mention of Kroger's address when you spoke to Adams over the phone. Despite these facts, Frank Adams came to Kroger's home in response to you request.

23 children contest WCTU public speaking

BARDO, April 12th — A fair crowd was present at the Tofield Baptist Church for the speech contest on Friday evening, sponsored by the Bardo WCTU.

Mrs. Andy Hedburg was the pianist for the hymns and Rev. McDonald of the United Church led in scripture reading and prayer. Mrs. Carl Nelson, president of the union, welcomed the audience and expressed her delight in so many children taking part in the contest. Mrs. John Wall favored the audience with a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Stinson at the piano.

Mrs. Glenn Francis was in charge of the contest in which 23 children took part. The bronze pin was won by Lorna McMann from the Baptist Church in Tofield. Other contestants in that class were Linda Rude, Garry Nelson, Lorna Rude, Bonnie Rude and Grace Hedberg.

There were too many children for one contest for the silverpin, so it was divided into two contests. Aaniet Murray from Tofield was the recipient of the coveted pin in this class and other contestants were Randy Rude, Sandra Anderson, Douglas Emseth, Garry Law, Judy Moore and Kevin Majeski. In the second class, Dale McMann was winner of the pin and others taking part were Lyle Hedberg, Annis Ingram, Dale Burnstad, Troy Anderson and Bobby Law.

In the 6 to 7 age group, a contest could not be run as there were only four contestants and it requires five, but four little girls, Colleen Burnstad, Brenda Rude, Carol Anne Francis and Elsa Hedberg said their pieces and each were given a maple leaf pin.

The judges, who had a difficult job as all the children did so well, were Mrs. Stinson, Mrs. Prosbury and Mrs. Ashdown of Tofield. Mr. Grainger, Keith Hostetler and Carl Nelson, all from Bardo.

A social hour was enjoyed in the church parlors when the WCTU members served lunch.

Revisions needed

by C. J. Harris

Sharply increased revenues having raised the possibility of tax cuts in the federal budget now in preparation, the estate tax is the levy that could profitably be revised and reformed. It is a source that provides relatively little revenue — less than 1.5 per cent of Ottawa's tax income in the current fiscal year — but it could be costing the country a good deal in terms of Canadian money sent elsewhere for investment and in terms of ownership of Canadian business passing into foreign hands.

The Montreal Gazette recently summed up the situation. "No one can reckon the huge amount a country like Canada has lost from the number of Canadians who have moved out of this country because it was a bad country to die in, and have spent their last years elsewhere for the sake of better tax conditions."

"And no one can estimate the number of companies that have had to be sold at the death of their owners because the double impact of income taxes and death duties created a sudden debt that reduced the value of the company to a nominal figure. A non-resident purchaser is in a far better position to buy the company because of the low 15 per cent non-resident tax. It is odd to complain about foreign ownership and yet have laws that help to expand it."

Since there is no public record of the movement of private funds or the sale of privately-owned businesses, these losses would be difficult to catalogue, but there is no doubt they have been substantial. Small family-owned businesses in particular, according to lawyers and accountants, are particularly vulnerable to the demands of the estate tax. It would seem only sensible to revise the act so as to permit instalment payment of succession duties, and also to reduce the rates.

Other changes, sought by many women's groups, concern the law's unfairness to widows. Though wives normally share in the building of a family's possessions, the law counts the entire estate of a family as a taxable property of the husband. Further, the act should provide a more just treatment of life insurance annuities or pensions bequeathed to a widow; such an inheritance is now taxed at its capitalized value, and then the later benefits are taxed again as income.

The estate tax is illogical and unfair in many ways. Revisions are overdue.

Mrs. Rude hosts WCTU meeting

(Mrs. C. M. Rude)

BARDO, April 19th — "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung in opening the meeting of the WCTU which was held at the home of Mrs. Pauline Rude on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Nora Anderson read from Ephesians for devotion followed by a poem and prayer. Twelve members and the visitor, Mrs. McGinitie, answered the roll call with a Bible passage.

Mrs. Mary Finseth, Mrs. Alma Marie Nelson and Mrs. Nora Anderson were elected to present the petition to the Alberta Liquor Control Board, opposing the proposed liquor store in Tofield. Mrs. Berghild Rude, with Mrs. Marie Francis as substitute will represent this union at the district convention in United Church in Wetaskiwin on April 23rd and 24th.

A clip sheet, "The Political and Legal Status of Canadian Women", was most informative. Canadian women on the whole are becoming more aware of the need of giving themselves stronger leadership, in all aspects of community life and the importance of studying succession duties, pension plans, wills, and banking with a view to safeguarding their economic position. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

IN MEMORIAM

ANNEBO — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Roy (Tom) Annebo, who passed away April 27 1964

One long and lonely year has passed

Since our great sorrow fell;
The shock that we received that day
Only those who have lost can tell.
Time may heal the broken hearted,
Years may make the wound less sore
But it cannot fill the longing
For the loved one gone before.
To hear his voice and see his smile,
To sit with him and talk awhile;
To be together in the same old way
Would be our fondest wish today.

—Lovingly remembered, and deeply missed by his wife, Gladys, and sons, Tommy and Kenneth. 34c-2357

5 CARDS OF THANKS

We would like to extend our sincere thanks to our kind friends, neighbors and relatives for the beautiful floral tributes, messages of sympathy and help extended to us in the loss of our husband and father.

Successful banking begins with a savings account

Like almost everyone else, you use your local chartered bank as a safe and handy place to build the savings reserve that is so important to your financial future. In doing so, you do more than build a solid foundation for financial plans. You are building a valuable banking relationship and helping to establish your credit. And as you get to know the manager and staff — as you use other banking services to meet personal or business needs — your banking contacts become even more useful to you. And it all starts with a savings account!

THE CHARTERED BANKS SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY

Through 5,650 branches, all across Canada, the chartered banks bring full-range banking within the reach of everyone.

THE CANADIAN MOOD

These scenes from the Yukon (lower) and the Atlantic coast were shot during an extensive tour of the nation by some of the country's top writer-broadcasters. They were on assignment for the important new CBC radio network series, The Canadian Mood, which started Sunday, April 11. The idea of the radio series is to record the personal views and feelings of Canadians in all parts of the country - to capture on recording tape the invisible factors that bind Canadians together to make a nation. The series will continue on CBC radio for 12 weeks.

Variety program nets $90

KINGMAN, April 10th — Approximately $90.00 was realized at the very successful program held Friday evening in the Kingman Hall. A capacity crowd was present. # Otto John Litwin passes at 74 years

OTTO JOHN LITWIN

Born in Poland on August 14, 1891, Otto John Litwin passed away quietly on Tuesday, April 13th, at the age of 74 years. Coming to Canada as a young child with his parents, he spent the greater part of his life at Nokomis, Saskatchewan.

On February 28, 1921, he was united in marriage to Katy Stuckert. To this union were born three children—two sons, Harold and Donald, and a daughter, Gladys who predeceased him in 1924. He was converted and baptized as a young man, and became a member of the Nokomis Baptist Church. He attended church faithfully until the time of his passing.

In 1949 the family moved to Alberta and since 1950 have resided in the Tofield district.

He leaves to mourn his passing his loving wife, Katy, two sons, Harold and Donald of Tofield, two daughters-in-law, Mildred and Patricia, three grandchildren, Brian, Lynne and Gregory, three brothers, four sisters, and a host of relatives and friends.

He will be remembered for his good deeds. He had an abiding loyalty to the One who went before to prepare a place for us. He was faithful to the end of this present life, and will be there to receive us when we come. With gratitude and inspiration we will remember him.

Funeral service was held Saturday, April 17, in the Tofield Baptist Church. Service was as follows: Prayer, Hymn, "Nearer My God To Thee", Scripture reading and prayer, from Psalm 116, quartet, "We Shall Walk Through The Valley Of Peace", by Mennonite Male Quartette; obituary read, sermon, "Thou Has Delivered My Soul", prayer; quarette, "There Will Be No More Sorrow There", hymn, "Rock Of Ages", benediction.

Pallbearers were Ingolf Brekkan, Herb McAdoo, George McMann, W. Weins, G. Tackema and Bert McAdoo. Interment in the church cemetery. Hoveland Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Silent riding, total performing...
This is the way to drive into Summer!

We've put a whole lot of spirit into the new FORDs. There's a new 240 cu. in. Big Six, standard on all Custom, Custom 500 and Galaxie 500 models —more powerful than any other Six in FORD's class. (And even more economical than last year's Six.) The exciting 352 cu. in. V-8 is standard on sporty Galaxie 500 XL's and luxurious LTD Hardtops - optional on other models. FORD's ride is right in the thoroughbred class. Owners call it the sweetest-riding FORD ever. The 3-speed Cruise-O-Matic is FORD's very own. The middle gear gives you better passing acceleration. The Second Driving Range starts you in middle gear for surer take-off on slippery surfaces. We haven't forgotten your comfort. There's more room, softer cushioned seats and Silent-Flo ventilation on 4-door hardtops. Test drive a new FORD soon.

Test drive and compare Ford's new quietness

FORD
Quietly takes your breath away!

Tofield Co-op has winner in talent show

The finals for the Northern Alberta Co-op Junior Shows were held last Friday at the Colonel Mawhurn Pavilion, with sixteen locals competing. Rita Schmidt entered on behalf of the Tofield Co-op, placed second in the Captain Jefferys, Tofield band master, was one of the judges, and in awarding the champion ships commented on the high calibre of talent and the difficult task of naming winners.

The four top winners were awarded an expense - free trip which will take them from Edmonton to Saskatoon, Regina, Swift Current, Moose Jaw, Medicine Hat, Calgary and Red Deer On this tour they will be taken to points of interest in these cities as well as appearing on T V and Radio

The Tofield Co-op is very proud to have placed a winner in this competition, and extends congratulations to Rita on her grand performance.

Modern Etiquette

Q When faced with the embarrassing problem of introducing someone whose name you cannot recall, what do you do?

A Face up to it honestly Mumbling something incomprehensibly is more of an affront to the forgotten person than it is frankly to admit, "I'm sorry, but I have forgotten your name" Remember, we all experience this at one time or another

Q How should you greet an acquaintance whom you haven't seen for a long time, and who you suspect does not remember you?

A Be kind. Assume your name has been forgotten and say "How do you do? I'm Mary Sanders Remember me?" The other person will bless you for this if he really has forgotten your name.

Q Should a dinner guest, who has finished eating in a private home, immediately place his napkin on the table?

A Not until his hostess has placed her plate on the table.

Q. Just what is the proper technique for "operating" on a fish at the dinner table for removal of its bones?

A. Lift the end of the bone it between the fork and knife. with the fork, and then pinching lift it all the way out. In some cases you may have to use the fingers, and this is quite all right if you can avoid handling the fish itself with your fingers.

Q. I have been invited to a bridal shower, but a previous commitment will prevent my attending. Should I send a gift to the shower?

A. Since as an invited guest you must be a very good friend of the bride-elect, you most certainly should want to send a gift to the shower.

Q. When an invitation written on an informal card is received, and a reply is requested, is it all right to make this reply by phone?

A. It is quite all right to reply to an informal invitation by phone.

Q. Just what are the proper uses of the napkin at the dinner table?

A. For wiping the lips and the fingers. It is NOT for the cheeks, perspiration, or the nose. The napkin should be lifted as inconspicuously as possible, lightly brushed across the lips or the fingers, and then returned to the lap.

Q When a man is driving his car with his wife and another woman in the front seat with him, does his wife sit next to him or does the other woman?

A. Makes no difference. They sit as they happen to get in.

Q. Is it all right to use one's visiting card on which to write regrets for being unable to accept an invitation?

A. No, your personal stationery should be used for this.

Beaver Co-op purchases Veregin Stockyards

WINS 4-H WEEK TROPHY

Group winner at the CFCW-sponsored 4-H Week in Camrose during the Easter holiday was a Tofield youth, Laurie Weatherill. He is presented with his trophy by Larry Ross, staff, right, farm director for CFCW. Laurie competed with nine other 4-H'ers in winning the honor. --Mercury Photo.

Mike Seniuk, secretary of the Beaver Livestock Co-op Association Limited, recently announced that arrangements had been completed to purchase the Holden yards of the bankrupt firm, M. M. Veregin Stockyards Limited A GOOD BUY

Mr Seniuk indicated that the purchase was finally made after months of negotiating with the trustee of the bankrupt firm. Although the price paid has not yet been disclosed, it is believed that the negotiating committee of the Beaver Co-op made an excellent buy. The board of directors will report on the purchase to the shareholders at the annual meeting of the Co-op which will be held in the Holden Community Hall on Thursday, May 6th, at 8.00 p.m.

For the past year, the Co-op has been operating the yards on a rental arrangement with the trustee. Now that the yards have been purchased the Co-op hopes that patronage will increase with the knowledge that it is permanently established.

When asked what the Co-op intended to do with the old Auction Mart and the sales building, Mr. Senisuk advised that the portions of the building not required for the livestock buying operation would be leased to other Co-ops or private business firms. It is their intention to have the entire building put to some useful purpose in the next few months. He added that there were several enquiries regarding the leasing of the building to date but no decision has yet been made, and would not be made until the Co-op was in a position to advertise the property for lease. He said that the board of directors was hopeful that the property could be developed into a mass supply centre which would provide services not presently available in the area.

Lions Club has Ladies' Night

Tofield Lions Club held a Ladies' Night supper meeting the last Tuesday of April in the meeting room of the Tofield Community League.

Chinese food was very acceptable to all the guests but there was were provided with roast beef. A short program, "It's Your Move", was enjoyed, after which card games finished off the enjoyable evening.

Fiddlers' contest at Lakeview Friday

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

MINISTIK -- Plans are completed for the annual "Fiddlers' Contest" with Carley Garlick of Camrose as emcee to be held at Lakeview Pavilion on Friday, April 30th at 8 p.m. Prize winners from there will be eligible to compete in the Dominion finals held at Shelburne, Ont. This is an evening to look forward to when fiddlers from all parts of Alberta will compete.

Co-op annual meeting held here April 7th

The Tofield Co-op Association held their annual dinner and meeting on April 7th, in the Tofield Community Centre, when approximately 120 people sat down to the delicious dinner served by the members of the PWUA.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and adopted

The manager, John Baergen, gave his report, and Dan Gebelhaus, the FCL delegate, gave a brief talk on the development of co-operatives from their humble beginnings to the present time.

The PRO, Fen Cline, gave a brief outline of the opportunities for young people at the leadership course at Gold Eye Lake camp. He also spoke on Co-Ever, which is a plan to help people in underdeveloped countries and the Eskimos in our own country form Co-ops to help themselves.

Harold Schultz and Ed Ferguson were elected to the board of directors for three years.

Winners of the door prizes were Mrs. Clarence Rude, Ed Ferguson and Mrs. Petra Stauffer.

Students aid 'San'

The girls of grade 8 have received a letter of thanks from Mrs. Elsie Samuel, RN, superintendent of nurses at Aberhart Memorial Sanitorium. The girls had sent Easter baskets and decorated cupcakes to the small patients in the San. For two years, at Christmas time, the boys and girls of grade 8 have sent toys to the children in the San. # P. Malowany passes suddenly on Sunday

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN, April 27. — Friends and relatives were shocked last Thursday evening when Pete Malowany passed away very suddenly, while his family was attending church services.

Prayer service was held Sunday night, April 25, at the Holden Greek Catholic Church, and the funeral was Monday at the South Holden Greek Catholic Church, with interment in the church cemetery. Rev. Lazynski of Holden was the celebrant.

Sympathy of the district is extended to the bereaved family, this being the third bereavement in the families in the last few months.

Open-house will mark High School opening

The general public is invited to an "Open House" at the Tofield Auditorium on Tuesday, May 11, starting at 7.30 p.m. The evening's entertainment will consist of a talk by Mr. Cribb of his experiences in Ethiopia and films and commentary by Mr. Stenberg of his travels in Russia.

The new section of the High School will be formally opened at this time, and it is hoped that there will be a large turnout of interested persons on this date.

County school board meets April 6th

Following are the minutes (in part) of the regular meeting of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee, held Tuesday, April 6th.

Water Lines at Holden School.

In regards to the tenders for replacing the water lines at the Holden School, Cr Roddick stated that he had discussed with Bill McLaren the tender submitted by McLaren Construction Co. Ltd. Mr. McLaren had stated that there would be no difficulty occurred, the price quoted would be reduced.

It had been the opinion of Mr. Al Innes that it might not be feasible to push copper pipe beside the present cast iron pipe. The cast iron pipe could collapse and punch the copper pipe and the work would have to be done over again.

It was also realized that the tender received from McLaren Construction Co. Ltd. was a firm bid, and after some discussion it was moved and carried that McLaren Construction Co. Ltd be requested to submit a firm bid on the total cost of installing both transite pipe.

In the matter of closing of gymnasium windows, motion 141/65. Mr. Pike reported that the cost would be approximately $125 per window, including material and labor, this being prices obtained from outside sources. He wanted to investigate this matter further with the Maintenance Foreman, getting some additional cost prices.

Moved and carried that the report be received.

Eighteen applications were received for the position of mechanic's apprentice in the school bus garage, and after a very thorough consideration it was moved and carried that Derek Tiedemann of Edmonton be employed at a starting salary of $300 per month, under the provisions of the Apprenticeship Board regulations.

Livestock brands to be embodied on quilt

The Tofield Historical Society has received, in answer to a request to the provincial government, a complete list of all the recorded cattle and horse brands from the Tofield area, both those in good standing and those that have been allowed to lapse.

The Society has been anxious to secure this record, both for its historical value in the Tofield area and for the proposed purpose of embodying them on a quilt which will be made by Mrs. Mary Tiedemann of Deville.

Scholarship awarded to Holden man

P. B. Jakubow, 23, of Holden has been awarded one of five Imperial Oil fellowships made available to Canadian students each year.

Mr. Jakubow, who is in his final year at the Royal Military College in Kingston, Ont., is eligible to receive $2,300 per year, for the next three years, to assist him in his studies in the field of communications at Queen's University.

This year's awards bring to 99 the number of fellowships made available by Imperial since 1954. Winners may attend any recognized university and are under no obligation to Imperial as to future employment.

Annual winners are selected by a committee appointed by the National Conference of Canadian Universities and Colleges and Imperial Oil Limited.

H.S. flash!

(Elaine Walker)

Well, spring's finally here and with the warm weather comes those annual sports. The High School baseball and softball teams have been organized and games have been organized and way.

On Wednesday, April 28th, the High School again volunteered to help the annual Red Cross Blood Donor clinic. The Tofield High was the first in Alberta to help the Red Cross, encouraging many other schools to aid in this worthy endeavor.

During the weekend of April 23 and 24th, Tofield was represented by Shauna Astley and Louise Moore at the U.N. mock assembly. The assembly was held in the Math-Physics building on the University campus in Edmonton. Both girls report a very interesting and enjoyable time, and the students wish to thank them for their fine job of

Interesting mailbag

The mail in a newspaper office can often be interesting, and this week was certainly no exception. One of the more interesting items which came in was a handsomely printed magazine, showing in almost ultimate detail the features of a new method of constructing huge tunnels, perfected in Milan, Italy. As we said, the publication, which is more than a quarter of an inch thick, is exceptionally well printed, and bound on a comparable level.

The pictures go into a great deal of detail in showing the process, and the photographer who crawled through the mud and sludge of the tunnel must have wondered if his craft were worth the trouble. No doubt an engineer could gain a great deal of information from the publication, since even a simple layman can almost fully understand the step-by-step development of the tunnel, right down to the use of the gunnite process.

In fact, the only trouble we could find with the expensive proposition was that every last word was in Italian . . . and unfortunately, . . . we don't read that language well enough to pick out the finer points.

Higher interest rates

Many depositors have been keenly interested in the raising of interest rates paid on term deposits by both the Alberta Treasury Branches and some of the trust companies. The battle for consumer lending is taking on a new appearance, and strong drives are being made to get the funds needed to lend.

At the same time, and somewhat less publicized, is the move of the treasury branches to raise the rate charged on loans. Since the treasury branches do not operate under the Bank Act, they are excluded from some of the regulations of the Bank Act, such as the ceiling of 6%, and it appears they will be moving into the field of slightly higher risk loans, on the basis of slightly higher rates.

The move is highly interesting, particularly at this time, when the chartered banks are pressing for revision of the regulations with the Bank Act legislation due for the current session of Parliament.

We have not in the past favored increased rates for the loan market, do not now. There is no question that costs have been increasing on them very rapidly, but it would seem highly probable that vastly increased volume should have made up for the higher operating costs. Not that volume alone makes money, but the number of dollars involved in the average loan must surely have increased at least as rapidly as their costs. If it were not so, it would be hard to comprehend the amazing rate of growth on the stock exchange in the prices of bank stocks. There have been few fields where growth has been so steady for so long a period, and if this reflects diminishing profits, something has gone wrong with the stock market.

On the other hand, the trust companies are carrying the battle to the banks hot and heavy, the same as the finance companies are. And while the treasury branches cannot compete in some areas with the banks, they have access to some areas not touched by the banks.

Don't forget, too, that the practice often employed by the banks of discounting the loan made has the net effect of increasing substantially the effective rate of interest. It's not all on a 6% basis by any means.

Budget best in fine print

The best features of Finance Minister Gordon's new budget lie buried in the finer print, according to our reckoning, while the least important item is getting the best play.

Least important in our opinion is the reduction in income tax, in spite of the fanfare given it. What is not revealed so clearly is how short a time there will be . . . July 1st to January 1st, until this reduction is taken up by the new assessment for the Canada Pension Plan. Gordon's gimmick here makes good political sense, getting all kinds of credit for lowering taxes, without making any real difference to the take home pay of the worker.

Far more important in the long run will be the provisions which allow farmers faster write-off for new grain storage facilities, (but the industrial press hardly noticed it) the more favorable climate for British manufacturers, and the elimination of most deductions for advertising in most foreign-owned magazines or periodicals, coupled with a promise of studying postal concessions made to some of these publications.

Incidentally, the thoroughness of the study made is indicated by the exemption of two small daily newspapers, one of which is The Red Deer Advocate whose ownership is English, even though the entire operation is based in Red Deer. It's worthy of note this situation was known and written into the legislation, even though the importance of the smallest dailies in the country (and this in no way disparages the well-operated Advocate) must be an almost insignificant detail in the preparation of anything so huge as the budget.

By George!

Is back to the old grind this week after a week of visiting in the southern part of the province, but with the coming of spring-like weather on our return to Camrose, the "old grind" is no grind at all.

Part of our holiday was spent in Waterton Lakes National Park in the southwest corner of the province, and being a mountain resort, we were not too surprised to find plenty of snow around and many wild animals--mostly deer and sheep -- roaming throughout the townsite. We were somewhat surprised, however, to awaken one morning to see a foot of fresh fallen snow on the roof of our car. It had disappeared, however, by evening, because of the snow drifts in the townsite reached to the peaks of cottage roofs.

There is still evidence in last year's fires in the park, and particularly on the Akamina Highway leading from the townsite up to Cameron Lake. Many sections of the hard-topped road had been washed out and the gullies had been filled with gravel.

Near Cameron Lake we visited one morning with a group of over 100 Boy Scouts who were camping outdoors. They dug shelters in the large snow drifts among the trees and covered them with pieces of canvas. An overnight rain had spoiled the outing for many of them the night before we arrived, but they busied themselves digging new shelters and were preparing for another try at it.

Late last week one Saturday in the Lethbridge area was seeding, and it was expected others would be following suit before the weekend. All evidence of winter had pretty well disappeared.

From the mail bag

Tofield Mercury,
Dear Editor:

We sometimes hear "there are no delinquent youth it is delinquent parents". And to a great extent this observation is correct, for our characters and social attitudes are to a great extend the product of two major factors, inheritance and environment, and the parents (even if they didn't choose their grand-parents), are in the early years of youth, responsible to the greatest degree for such environment; and in later years by example and attitudes for the development of behavior-patterns. And if teenagers and even younger are allowed to get away with anti-social conduct, we can later surely expect a repetition of the same. And if the parents are initially responsible for the formation of such attitudes, should the parents go unpunished?

Last summer I got into an interesting discussion on the matter of parental responsibility and one of the group stated that in one of the neighboring states that publishing of the names of the parents of the youth "in trouble" reduced juvenile delinquency by about 50% in a very short time. But why? Are they (the parents) and we as society so wrapped up in our personal interests, pleasures and amusements that we do not care or see what the youth need or are doing, so long as they do not get into our way, or get into trouble and THEN we get VERY indignantly aroused.

There comes a period in the life of youth when the influence of the home teachings and attitudes become less and that of society more dominant. Then is when the youth need or are doing, so long as they do not get into our way, or get into trouble and THEN we get VERY indignantly aroused.

There comes a period in the life of youth when the influence of the home teachings and attitudes become less and that of society more dominant. Then is when the youth need very definitely our social responsibility to furnish outlets for the interests of youth, such as boys' clubs, YMCA's, swimming pools, arenas, etc. And if and when the youth feel that they are being neglected or unfairly dealt with or imagine that they are being challenged to "get-in-to-trouble"; they will seek and form anti-social mores and even spiteful attitudes and outlets for their feelings. Can we then as society merely shrug our shoulders and then deny our responsibilities, obligations and The Choicemaker then "As much as ye 'do' it not, Ye 'do' it not to Me"? Should we (society) then damn the youth the parents or ourselves?

Geo. G. Abernathy.

The 4-H Dairy Club members made an afternoon tour during the Easter holiday week to see how all the members' calves were coming along after the long hard winter. Lunch was served and thoroughly enjoyed at the B. Kirklund home.

Don't forget the combined 4-H clubs will hold their dance in the Community Hall on Friday, Apr. 30th. Come and find out who will be the clubs' queen and prince charming.

Doug and Marvel Down of Athabasca, who came to spend Easter with Marvel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Neraasen, held a party for their friends Tuesday evening, April 20th, to celebrate Marvel's birthday. The next day they boarded the CNR train for Toronto to visit Doug's parents, and to attend a family wedding, expecting to be away about a week. Meanwhile, their four little girls, Connie, Lori, Wendy and Cindy are staying here with their grandparents, and enjoying the extra holiday.

A number of Ryley ladies attended the cooking school held at Tofield on Thursday evening, April 22nd, the theme of which was "foreign flavors". The school was sponsored by the Eastern Star Lodge, and conducted by the Home Service Department of Calgary Power Ltd.

Ralph and Mildred Cretney and family of Edmonton were Sunday guests with Mildred's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Booth.

Mrs. Tillie Branes has had her grandson, Gordon Ekland, spending the Easter holiday with her. He returned to his home in Edmonton in time for the opening of school on Monday morning.

13. Symmetrical, sorghum, maneuver, oculist, khaki, colloquy.

Palmer district tops Red Cross quota

(Mrs. J. Knudson)

PALMER-EARLING, April 23 —The Palmer Red Cross campaign is successfully over for another year, their quota being $175.00. Amount turned in to the campaign chairman, Mrs. Joe Knudson, from the five canvassers, Hans Huseby, Nick and Jerry Kushnerick, Harry Johnson, Mrs. George Mosby and Mrs. Joe Knudson was $192.00. We wish to thank all who donated to this worthy cause.

HIS RIGHTS Dutch immigrant Ernest Bergsma and his wife were refused Canadian citizenship because they admitted being atheists. He appealed to Ontario Supreme court, but lost. A new appeal has been filed to the Canadian Supreme Court, and the Federal Government has offered to pay the legal costs. "I should have the right to disbelieve," says Mr. Bergsma.

'Housewarming' for H. Johansen family

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY — On Saturday evening, April 17th, 15 neighboring families gathered together for a housewarming party for Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Johansen and family, to celebrate their moving into their lovely new modern farm house. George Knudslien made the presentation of a lovely wall mirror on behalf of those present, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Johansen many happy returns in their new home. The ladies served lunch at the close of a happy and friendly evening.

BLOSSOMING. Spring isn't the only thing that's coming up flowers. So are fashions. Above Marguerite hat and matching bolero in yellow and white flowers illustrates the trend in many spring fashions for bursting bouquets of petals and blossoms.

U.S. WARNS CANADA. The U.S. Treasury Department has warned that it will not tolerate dumping of Canadian autos on the U.S. market. Some U.S. manufacturers fear that the new Canadian-American auto agreement could result in such dumping. Dumping would occur if Canadian-built cars were sold for less in the U.S. than they retailed at in Canada. Above shows one of the many auto-assembly lines in Canada.

Solve a Crime

BY A.C. GORDON

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

The body of Lew Adams lies cold and lifeless on the thickly carpeted floor in his luxuriously-furnished apartment. "The paths of glory lead but to the grave", you quote silently to yourself as you think back over the much publicized career of the dead man . . . first as the brilliant southpaw pitching ace in professional baseball, then later as one of the top-ranking bowling stars of the country, and finally as owner of the three lush bowling establishments himself.

You direct a look at the two young persons in the room with you, one of them a very attractive dark-haired girl who is dabbing ineffectually with a wisp of handkerchief at her tear-stained eyes, and the other a slim, good-looking fellow of about 25 with a closely cropped head of blonde hair.

"As you probably know", the young man says, "I'm Cliff Penn . . . manager of one of Lew's bowling places. Dora Mason here . . . she was Lew's fiancee . . . she and I came into the apartment here about a half-hour ago. She told me that she and Lew had a little spat earlier today, had parted in a huff, and she wanted very much to see if they couldn't patch things up. Since Lew and I were very good pals, I volunteered to come along and maybe help [illegible]. You can imagine how we felt when we opened the door here and found Lew . . . dead . . . a suicide!"

"It's so hard to accept this", exclaims Dora. "And especially after the harsh words we exchanged today. If I had even dreamed that he was contemplating this . . ." her voice breaks and she begins to sob.

You bend over and with a gloved hand pick up the gun which lies on the carpet under the outstretched fingers of Adams' right hand. After examining it for fingerprints and finding nothing, you ascertain that one shot has been recently fired from it, and you dart a glance at the bullet hole in the victim's chest. Then, after a look at your watch which shows 6:15 p.m., you direct a question at Dora: "When did you last see him alive?"

"It was about two o'clock when we had our little tiff in the lobby of his Eastside Bowling Palace, and when he left me abruptly I was so upset about our misunderstanding that I went into Cliff's office there to discuss it with him. We had a couple of drinks together and finally we decided to come over here and talk things over with Lew. That was about 1.30 or so, I think. But we were too late. Lew had killed himself!"

"Your stories sound very good", you then say. "However, as I see it, Lew Adams didn't commit suicide. The evidence points to murder, and both of you are suspects!"

How have you arrived at this conclusion?

SOLUTION

Lew Adams was a former "southpaw" baseball pitcher, which means he was left-handed. Yet you found the gun lying on the floor under his right hand. This evidence, plus the quickness with which both Penn and Dora projected the suicide theme, plus the fact that the shot was fired into Adams' chest (most suicides choose the temple or mouth as surer and quicker) lead you to suspect the two young persons. Then, too, there is the fact that you found no fingerprints on the gun — impossible if Adams had used it.

Lakeshore-McKenzie news briefs

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

The Lakeshore UCW will hold a bake sale on Saturday (May-day) May 1st, starting at 2:30 p.m., in the Crown Lumber Co store at Tofield. All those wishing home cooking please call and get yours from the ladies.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Ida Niemetz returned home Wednesday of last week from the University Hospital where she spent three days having a check-up and further tests.

Emil Tiedemann spent from Wednesday to Friday in the Tofield hospital, having a check-up after having suffered a light heart attack.

This winter and spring seems to find more folks than usual sick, either at home or in the hospital. We wish all a speedy recovery and hope they will soon be out and around and able to enjoy the nice spring weather we now have.

Jack Goubault of Drayton Valley was a Tuesday evening visitor and overnight guest at the home of his grandparents, John and Mary Wood. His sister, Judy, came with her and spent her Easter holidays with her cousin, Yvonne, and Peter Brown at their home at Ketchamoot.

Mrs. Mary Wood motored to Viking on Friday and was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Lorene, and Jim E[...] and family Friday, overnight and Saturday. She returned home Saturday afternoon.

Dede and Robert Goubault of Drayton Valley were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Dede's parents, John and Mary Wood. On their way home, they stopped at Yvonne Brown's to get their daughter, Judy, and take her home with them.

Joe and Elinor Jones were Saturday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Ray and Ruth Wickenberg. Jack Johnston was also a supper guest and evening visitor there the same day.

Mrs. Isabel Rudzcki and son David, were Tuesday afternoon tea guests at the home of Ruth and Roy Wickenberg.

Gary Niemetz arrived home from the Arctic where he was employed by the Peter Bawden Drilling Co. and will have a few days' vacation during the spring break up.

Hans and Martha Jacobsen of Edmonton were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son, Morley, and Marjorie Jacobsen and family.

Mrs. Mae Ferguson and her son, Nelson, and her mother, Mrs. Roberts of Tofield were Sunday visitors and supper guests at the home of Mae's daughter, Doris, and Howard Brown of Lindbrook district.

Emily and Ernie Roberge and two daughters, Charlene and Mrs. Diane Highington, all of Edmonton, were Sunday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Emily's sister, Mickey, and Charlie Niemetz.

Leonard Loxton left Monday morning for work on a drilling rig at Taber after having spent a week at home with his wife, Patsy, and baby daughter during the spring break-up.

Mrs. Loretta Weir and daughter, Wanda, of Edmonton spent the weekend at the home of the former's parents, Howard and Mae Ferguson.

George Abernethy was a Monday morning coffee and luncheon guest at the home of Howard and Mae Ferguson.

Howard and Mae Ferguson and son, Nelson, attended the Camrose dairy sale on Thursday of last week.

Emil and Martha Tiedemann were Saturday evening visitors and coffee guests at the home of Bill and Mary Tiedemann at Deville.

Robert and Dede Goubault of Drayton Valley were Sunday afternoon visitors and coffee guests at the home of Robert's sister, Martha, and Emil Tiedemann.

Darrel and Diane Sutton of Edgerton were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ethel Wood and son, Donald.

Mrs. Fran Baines and sons, Tim and David, of Edmonton, arrived on Friday to spend the weekend with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ethel Wood. On Sunday afternoon, Ethel's brother, Doug, and daughter Patty, arrived and were supper guests there before returning home Sunday evening, taking his wife and boys home with him.

Tuesday dinner guests at the home of Ellen Eaton were her son, Leroy and Shirley Eaton and young son, Ronnie of Holden and Mervin Ross.

Sunday visitors and dinner guests at the home of John and Irene Warner were Irene's mother, Mrs. Mabel Bailey of Tofield, and her sister, Muriel, and Dennis Thisson and family of Edmonton.

Modern Etiquette

Q. What are a bridegroom's obligations to his best man and ushers?

A. He presents each of them with a boutonniere and a gift. The best man's gift may be different from that of the ushers (who all get the same thing). The gifts may be cuff links, wallets, tie clasps, all depending of course upon what the budget will stand.

Q. When eating in a restaurant where butter pats are served in paper containers, may one let his knife rest on the pat when not in use?

A. No. The knife should rest along the upper right part of the dinner plate—and never, of course, with the handle resting on the table.

Q. What apology should one make after a sudden sneeze in public?

A. "Pardon me" is sufficient.

Q. When is the designation "Messrs." used in addressing an envelope?

A. When addressing brothers—never a father and son. It is an abbreviation of the French word for "Misters". It may be correctly written in two ways: "The Messrs. Jackson", or, "The Messrs. Paul and James Jackson".

Q. May a luncheon or dinner table ever be bare of tablecloth?

A. Acceptable today—but only for very informal occasions. Attractive when colorful pottery dishes, silver, or stainless steel implements and bright paper napkins are used.

Q. Who pays for the corsages worn by both mothers at the wedding?

A. While in some communities the bridegroom usually pays for them, it is usually customary for the husbands to buy these corsages worn by their wives.

Q. When a woman is paying her first call on a new neighbor, how long should she remain?

A. From 15 to 20 minutes should be long enough. Usually a woman who has just moved into a new home has plenty to do, and it would show a big lack of consideration to keep her from her work too long.

Q. What does the informally gowned bride wear?

A. She wears a suit or afternoon gown in a pastel shade, and her attendant (usually only one) is dressed in the same manner, but of course in a contrasting color. A hat is always worn.

Q. What do you do when you know ahead of time that you will have to leave church before the service is over?

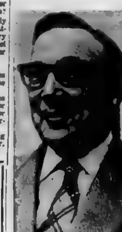
A. Sit near the back of the church, and preferably make your departure during the singing of a hymn.

Q. Should a woman walk on a short distance, or should she wait with her escort while he pays the taxi fare?

A. She should wait with her escort.

Q. Is it proper for the mother of a newborn baby to mail out printed or engraved "thank you" cards for gifts her baby has received?

A. Never, NEVER! These must be handwritten.



RADAR HAZARD? There have been some charges by scientists that police radar traps can ruin your health. However, Sir Robert Watson-Watt, above, the man who developed radar, says this is ridiculous. "I've been standing in front of the things all my life and they never bothered me," said the 73-year-old scientist.

IDENTIFICATION FOR EMERGENCIES

Pierre E Garepy, Executive Director of the Canadian Paraplegic Association, was presented with the first identity sticker distributed in Alberta. Mrs. L. R. LaForge, chairman of the Adult Section of the Alberta Council for Crippled Children and Adults, made the presentation.

Identity stickers for all handicapped or crippled persons have been devised to assist firemen in times of an emergency. Applied to the front and rear doors of residences, apartments or office blocks, they indicate the working or residential location of a crippled person. The project has the co-operative support of all municipal fire departments throughout Alberta.

While no stickers have yet been fixed in the Camrose area, according to Fire Chief Alf Sunderman, the local brigade welcomes the move as an assistance in time of emergenc, . Stickers may be obtained simply by writing Box 520, Edmonton.

FLOODS IN MANITOBA

Mrs. N L. Campbell, who has been spending the past two weeks in Winnipeg with her son Bill and his wife and family, has written to say that it had been very wet before she arrived there and that they had driven south of Winnipeg where the floods were very bad. Many acres of farm land were under water and farmers were moving cattle, grain and other goods out of the danger area. Mrs. Campbell expected to be home about Tuesday, April 26.

Bruce Appleby was a visitor with his family, the Bert Appleby, over the weekend.

County school board meets April 6th

Nine tenders had been received for the one-only bus-run, and after the tenders had been scrutinized to some extent, it was moved and carried that a committee be appointed to select the most satisfactory tender.

The Chairman appointed the Shop Committee, consisting of Crs. Magnuson, Krupskaski and Davis with the Bus Supervisor, Basil Reid, to act in this regard

Correspondence

A letter from Mike Leslau, requesting that his children be transferred from the Bruce school to the Holden school, due to the fact that the bus route that would take the children in the Holden school appeared to be open most of the time wherein the bus route to Bruce was impassible for a considerable number of days.

In view of the fact that the snowplow was considered over for the current year, it was moved that Mr. Leslau be advised that the Committee does not consider it necessary to act on his request at this time.

A letter from Camrose and District Association for Retarded Children requesting that the Committee reconsider its stand in regards to the Association request for a building grant was referred to the Committee.

Moved and carried that no change be made in the decision of the School Committee as outlined by motion 54.65, that is that no grant be given.

A Notice from Town of Tofield in regards to discount on taxes for prepayment of taxes was received by the Committee, and the Secretary-Treasurer reported that the discount had already been made thereby receiving a discount of 2%.

Moved and carried that information be received and filed and the Secretary-Treasurer's action be concurred in.

A letter from the Faculty of Education of the University of Alberta concerning Principals Leadership Course, July 5th to July 16th, was referred to the Committee, and the Committee was advised that the Superintendent had selected Cal Alnsh, Principal at the Tofield school, to attend this course.

Moved and carried that the correspondence be received and filed, arrangements concerned in and that the cost of the course, $200, be paid by the County.

Moved and carried that the Bus Supervisor's request for the month of March be accepted, and that his expense account in the amount of $44.50 be paid.

Moved and carried that Richard Krupskaski, Alex Shyba and Richard Kope be appointed spare bus drivers without remuneration, providing they have the required "A" license.

Moved and carried that Cr. Johnston be appointed representative from the School Committee to the Principals' meeting in April.

Moved and carried that the resignations submitted by Dan Kauffman, Dolores Kauffman, Louise Baergen and Vernon Rutan be accepted.

The Superintendent informed the Committee that, in all likelihood, three years of training would shortly be required for a teacher qualified to teach the Junior and Senior High School grades. He suggested that the County might consider increasing the bursary program to three years at this time. This would give students, now entering the Faculty of Education, the knowledge that they could obtain a bursary for three years.

Moved and carried that the bursary program be extended from two to three years.

The Superintendent referred to the Science Seminar for students which would be held from August 22 to 28 inclusive at the University, the cost per student being $35 and the fact that in former years the School Committee has sent one student to the seminar absorbing the cost therefore.

Moved and carried that as in previous years, the Committee sponsor one student to attend the Science Seminar.

The Superintendent informed the Committee that miss Diane Davis, Grade 7 teacher at the Ryley School, requested a two years leave of absence to attend Bible College, and that she intended to return to teaching in the County's School System.

Moved and carried that the request for leave of absence be granted.

The Superintendent reported that by the Order in Council, Friday, June 11, 1965, had been designated Farmers' Day.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted.

Moved and carried that the County's schools be closed for Easter Holidays, from 3:30 p.m. April 15th to 9 a.m. April 20th.

Moved and carried that the installation of a shower in the Phys. Ed. office at Holden, at a cost of $156, be approved.

In regards to the Viking building project, the Committee was informed that the School Building Board would not agree to the addition to the wooden structure, and that the School Building Board would like to meet the Committee at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, April 9.

Moved and carried that the report be received, and that the Building Committee for Viking meet with the School Building Board at the appointed time

It was noted that Mrs. Margaret Gleason, teacher at the Viking school, would be retiring at the end of the present school year, having reached the retirement age

Moved and carried that the County, as usual, participate with the Local ATA in a presentation to Mrs. Gleason, the County's share not to exceed $60.

The Superintendent reported on the Zone 2 High School Drama Festival which had been held at the Tofield Schools on April 2 and 3, with 11 one-act plays having been presented. He classed the Festival as being very successful, with some 1,200 people in attendance at all four performances.

In regards to internships, the Superintendent reported that the expected three first-year students and eight second-year students to take the Internship training this coming spring, and that a grant of up to $200 for each Intern was available from the Department of Education.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and that the present rate of pay to Intern teachers, $5 and $7 as the case may be, remain in effect for the current year.

Moved and carried that this meeting now adjourn until 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, April 7.

the year 1965, and it was established item by item by the Committee, with some upward revisions being made.

Moved and carried that the revised budget as decided upon at this time be adopted as the budget for the year 1965

Councillor Johnston brought up motion 120 / 65, passed at the meeting of March 9, which stipulated that if an order is issued by the Superintendent of Schools that buses are not to operate this includes the buses from Kinsella to Viking and from Bruce to Holden. Cr Johnston was of the opinion that these buses should travel if possible if high school pupils are at Bruce or Kinsella and are ready to go to their classes at Viking and Holden. He referred to an instance during the past winter when from nine to twelve high school students at Bruce and Kinsella could have attended their classes in Holden and Viking if the buses had been operating He stated that in some instances the parents had brought the children in with the expectation that they would be transported to the high schools

Some considerable discussion took place, and it was finally moved that motion 126 65 be rescinded.

The motion was lost, with four members voting for the motion and five against.

Those voting for the motion were Crs. Johnston, Davis and Weatherill and Mr. Allen.

Mr Allen brought up the proposed paving programs in the Town of Viking and stated that it might be possible that a vote could be held before the next meeting of the School Committee, and he requested that arrangements be made for summons to be authorized to cast a vote in the plebiscite on behalf of the County

Moved and carried that J. R. Allen be authorized as provided in Section 329 of the Town and Village Act to cast a vote in any forthcoming plebiscite on the paving program in the Town of Viking on behalf of the County

Moved and carried that the County pay the expenses in connection with the Drama workshop to be held in the Strathcona County. Expenses at $8 per member and mileage for at least two cars from the County.

Moisture slows area seeding

No crops have been seeded in the district to date, the Mercury is informed by a survey made by agents of the Alberta Wheat Pool. Even agents in widely scattered points of the Tofield region, several indications have been gleaned.

Surface moisture, to the top six inches, is nearly 100% on both cropped and summerfallowed land, according to reports. Subsoil moisture, however, is 85% on summerfallowed land, compared with 75% on cropped land.

Initial estimates are that wheat acreage will drop by roughly 10%; this year, while barley will show quite an increase. Rapeseed will be mostly Other grains are given roughly the same outlimate as last year.

The proportion of land under cultivation this year after cropping last year changes with the area Toward the eastern end of the area, roughly 60% of this year's crop will be seeded on summerfallow land, with only about 40% going into soil which was cropped last year.

THS spotlight

(Elaine Walker)

On Tuesday, May 11th. open house will be held at the new wing of the Tofield school. Everyone is welcome to attend and see the official opening of the wing, which includes a typing room, a library and a science room.

Student teachers who will begin teaching Monday in the Tofield school are Miss Barbara Arnett, with Mrs. Campbell of grade 2; Miss Ann Appleby with Mrs. Phillips of grade 8; and Miss Norma Zwiercke with Mrs. Young of Grade 1.

During the summer holidays, Tofield will be represented in Edmonton at the UN science seminar by Clarice Jacobsen and at the Banff UN seminar by Elaine Sorell.

Congratulations to Betsy-Ann Shukla and Keven Pike on having their Lions club youth exchange essays chosen in the process of judging. Now they will be interviewed in Edmonton in the next step toward a final choice for zone 27B. The students of Tofield school wish them the best of luck!

Fire levels Holden barn

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The barn on the Nick Podluk farm was burned to the ground Thursday evening April 29th., it being a total loss. It is not known how the blaze started but is thought that it might be from spontaneous combustion from bales of hay stored in the barn. The Holden fire truck was called but the barn was completely burned before they arrived, to control the fire.

Drainage board has meeting

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The monthly meeting of the trustees of the Holden Drainage District No 1 was held in the office of the secretary, Ray Hovland, Friday evening, April 30th, with all trustees present, namely, Oscar Abath, Nick Laskoski, and Hans Hisetty. This was the re-organization meeting, and Mr. Abath was nominated chairman for the ensuing year. Regular business was attended to and the auditors for the ensuing year appointed. The budget and estimates for the year had been approved by the department of water resources, it was decided to hold the monthly meeting on the last Friday in the month as previously. After the meeting adjourned, the trustees with Mr. Hovland and Mrs. Nick Laskoski were coffee guests with Mrs. N. L. Campbell at her home.

Cross-Canada cars re-fuel at Tofield

Shell 4000 Cross-Canada Rally designers selected as one of the check points on Wednesday last, when 63 cars competing in the last rally through Tofield on their way to Edmonton via Elk Island Park, between 4 30 and 5 p.m. About 15 of the cars serviced at the White Rose Service Station, owned and operated by W. A. Swift.

MONEY BUT NOT MUCH. The ten per cent. income tax cut from Finance Minister Walter Gordon isn't really dramatic enough to make a young fellow wide-eyed with ecstacy. Nor will the tax cut give this boy's father the bundle of booty at his elbow. In reality, the tax saving for the average Canadian will total less than that solitary 20 dollar bill in the boy's hand. Taking effect July 1, a man earning $5,000 yearly, with two dependents, will save $15 in the coming tax year.

New school wing to open May 11th

Have you ever been in Ethiopia or in Russia? If the answer is in the negative, you will be particularly interested in the program being presented by the Tofield sub-local of the ATA in the school auditorium on Tuesday, May 11th, on the occasion of the opening of the new wing of the Tofield school.

Miss Roberta Cummings, president of the Tofield sub-local, will be in charge of the program which will present Lloyd Cribb, B.Ed., B.A., Tofield High School teacher and A. Stenberg from the Junior High.

Mr. Cribb lived for six years in Ethiopia and has many fascinating tales of his experiences in that far-away country. Mr. Stenberg, in 1963, while on a study tour in Russia, became ill and was hospitalized for a period of time. During his convalescence he obtained views which will interest those attending the program.

This program will begin at 8:00 o'clock but for the half-hour previous to it, the general public is invited to browse around the school with all rooms, except those to be declared open later in the evening, will be open for inspection and visitors are welcome.

RIBBON-CUTTING

Following the program, H. A. Pike, superintendent of schools for Beaver County, will be in charge of the ribbon-cutting ceremony which will open the new wing of the school. Members of the County school committee have been invited and it is expected that the new house, Mr. Roddick of Viking, and the local trustee, Harold Weatherill, will also participate in the ceremony.

When the ribbon has been cut, the public is invited to tour the new wing.

This addition to the school consists of a library, a typing room, and a biological sciences lab.

4-H'ers take honors in radio competition

Once again this year the Camrose Broadcasting Company sponsored a competition in which all the 4-H clubs in the immediate listening area of CFCW were invited to take part. The clubs were to compose a program between five and ten minutes long that could be aired over CFCW.

The Tofield Beef Club readily took the challenge and set up a committee consisting of Colins Wyllie, Phyllis Rose, Marjorie Moore, and Laurie Weatherill. The foursome then composed a program in which the three girls portrayed three beef cows while Laurie acting as narrator Rogward was at hand for the group for the program was placed in the top nine and then went on to take the top honors. Each club that placed in the top nine sent a delegate to Camrose to spend a week of touring Camrose and Edmonton businesses — all expenses paid by CFCW.

Laurie, the delegate from his club, reports that a very pleasant time was had for after earning a little about how a radio station is operated the delegates then toured places such as the Alberta Wheat Pool's seed cleaning plant in Camrose, Byers Flour Mills, visits to many farms in the Camrose and Leduc areas and a trip to Edmonton where the University of Alberta Agricultural Building, the Macdonald Hotel, and the Queen Elizabeth Planetarium were toured. Then the group attended the first game in the series between the Edmonton Oil Kings and the Winnipeg Rovers.

Tofield 4-H Beef Club would like to take this opportunity to thank CFCW for taking an interest in Canada's 4-H movement.

Strange killers

Warm spring weather brings into the arena another strange killer, rarely thought of. And we're not thinking of automobiles or anything else on the highways. This is right in the backyard at home . . . the common barbecue.

Usually a happy occasion, the backyard item can become a nightmare.

Such as the case of the six-year-old in Edmonton who died last year after a red-hot barbecue was accidentally tipped over on him, covering eighty percent of his body with third degree burns.

Oddly, the number one trouble-maker in barbecues is the flammable liquid used as lighter. However, serious fires have started from burning potholders and other materials, from hot coals which fell through the grill to wooden porches, from hot coals dumped into cardboard cartons, or up against fences or bushes.

And don't forget the fumes are deadly when the barbecue is moved indoors . . . as some people have done. Or into trailers. The villain here is carbon monoxide, and the Safety Council warns that "anything that burns produces Carbon Monoxide . . . a tasteless, invisible, odourless and deadly gas".

New lexicon

The Alberta Wheat Pool aided this week in producing a new kind of dictionary, dealing only with initials. The Pool's periodical, The Budget, carries a column listing some of the farm groups commonly referred to by initials, and the full names which they represent.

Starting with the AFA (Alberta Federation of Agriculture) the list carries on through two dozen groups of initials to UGG, which as most people know stands for United Grain Growers Ltd.

The Pool's move is interesting, and leads to speculation as to how big the list could become if we brought in the initials from all other groups imaginable. Just imagine the list that would develop from the United Nations alone. Then there are the trade associations in other fields, the multitudinous committees and arms of government, the railways, and think of the contribution that could be made by radio and television stations, which are identified by their call letters.

The list might not dwarf the lexicon of Samuel Johnson, but our bet is that it would be a pretty formidable volume nonetheless.

Leave well enough alone

Having settled the flag issue, let's hope Ottawa recognizes the difficulty inherent in discussing the matter of the national anthem, and decides to leave well enough alone.

There seems to be some sort of controversy going on now over the official national anthem for this country, and it may just possibly be tossed to the Commons to worry over.

It has been our understanding for some years, even though we were surprised at the knowledge, that officially the national anthem is "God Save The Queen" while "O Canada" is just a sort of popular national song. Whether the information is accurate or not we care not. We do feel this is not a question which must be settled by days on endless days of wearisome and divisive argument. We do not feel it is a question which calls for settlement at all, for that matter.

As we understand it, the British constitution is completely unwritten, and is the collection of scores of precedents developed over several centuries, and the American constitution is almost completely written, while that of Canada lies somewhere in between.

It would seem there is a great deal of merit in the British practice of allowing things to develop according to the needs of the period. When it comes to putting every last item down in writing, and every comma and colon is subjected to the most searching scrutiny, it is often found the situation develops into a well nigh impossible picture from a practical standpoint.

By George!

The most peculiar things happen to the most unlikely people. During the past week or so I noticed the following items in some of the dailies of our province.

At Las Vegas for instance, a man named Charles Handy has been charged with failing to file an income tax return for the years 1958, 1959 and 1960, during which time his income amounted to $100,000. Mr. Handy's occupation? He is an income tax con-[illegible].

o o o o o o

The [illegible] who plays the part of Paul Drake, a private investigator, on the Perry Mason television show is known in real life as William Hopper. Two weeks ago Mr. Hopper paid a $275 fine after pleading guilty to drunken driving.

o o o o o o

The Lethbridge Herald reports "Help sometimes comes from the most unexpected quarters.

"For some time now Rev. L. J. Lacey of Assumption Roman Catholic Church has been hinting strongly to his congregation that he would like to see new drapes on the church windows.

"Last Sunday he asked parishioners to say a prayer for a benefactor.

"Someone had finally donated the needed drapes.

"Father Lacey said he could not reveal the name of the donor since he is not a member of the congregation or even of the Catholic faith.

"He is a member of the Jewish religion."

o o o o o o

Expecting an addition to the family and wondering about a name? Well, according to a health department survey in New York, the most popular names there this year are Lisa and Michael. So there's a couple you can strike off your list and avoid some confusion.

Tofield, Alberta.
Dear Sirs

Would you be kind enough to place the following in your paper.

"Thanks to the taxpayers of the Holden Drainage District for re-electing me as a member of the Holden Drainage Board by acclamation. This means that I have served as a trustee for a period of forty years. The first Drainage Board for Alberta, namely the Holden Drainage District No. 1, was appointed by the Government on September 12, 1921, the original members being Hans Huseby, Peter Sorensen and Frank Wear.

"At that time we had a debenture debt of approximately $300,000, and my goal was at that time to get the Government to carry 50% of the cost. We have really reached this goal at this time as we have received $100,000 from the Government over the past years. This involves a lot of money when interest is counted".

Yours respectfully,
Hans Huseby.

with NEW [illegible]

specially formulated dual seed dressing. Before you even start worrying about the problem, flea beetles are at work destroying rape and mustard seedlings. Often, poor stands are blamed on the wind or on low germination . . . but well-fed flea beetles did the damage.

A small purchase of NIAGARA'S THIRALIN seed dressing, just ½ oz. per lb. of seed, protects against flea beetles and against the other soil borne enemies of rape and mustard: "damping off", seed decay, and seedling blight. Application is easy, because free flowing THIRALIN sticks to the seed.

For higher yields, greater profit, treat rape and mustard seed with THIRALIN.

County council meets April 8th

The regular meeting of the council of County of Beaver No. 9 was held Thursday, April 8th.

The delegation that had interviewed the mixed committee with a petition to have Marvin Lund's employment as patrol operator at Bruce terminated, attended the meeting at this time. This complaint had been referred to the County Council by the school committee and the delegation was advised that a committee would be appointed by the council to investigate the complaint and that further consideration would be given to the matter at a meeting of the council expected to be held on the 16th of April. The Reeve stated that it had been a very hard winter and that the snowplowing operations had been very difficult and hard to cope with and he requested that the members of the delegation as well as the ratepayers give due consideration in this fact. Mr. Al Bussone, speaking for the delegation, agreed in this but stated that on the other hand the roads in other divisions within the County had been in much better condition. Mr Benson offered to take the committee, that would be appointed by the council, on a tour over the roads. It was further stated that Mr. Leo Kotyk, who also was a member of the delegation, had kept a portion of the road premises with his tractor. Mr Benson also noted that the committee look into the bridge and culvert situations in the area. It was moved that Crs. Gibson, Magnuson and Westhorpe be appointed a committee to investigate the complaint and that they meet on Friday, April 9th, at 10:00 a.m. at Bruce

It was also moved and carried that the minutes of the safety committee meeting March 30th be accepted and that, as requested in these minutes, a condition of employment in the County be that safety hats be worn whenever necessary

In respect to the abandoning of the survey on the NW 10-50-19-W 4 J. D. Jacuss, the sec.-treas. reported that cancellation for the plan in this quarter section as well as in NW 15-50-19-W 4, C. J Sears, had been approved by the Edmonton Municipal Government.

It was moved and carried that the minutes of the public meeting held in the Bruce Community Hall on March 30th, 1965, be accepted and that, as requested in these minutes, a condition of employment in the County be that safety hats be worn whenever necessary

In respect to the abandoning of the survey on the NW 10-50-19-W 4 J. D. Jacuss, the sec.-treas. reported that cancellation for the plan in this quarter section as well as in NW 15-50-19-W 4, C. J Sears, had been approved by the Edmonton Municipal Government.

"There comes a day in every man's life when he can do something a little extra for his town. Jones, your day has come . . ."

YOU ARE THE DETECTIVE

You lounge comfortably in a chair in Police Chief Jim Patterson's office while he talks on the telephone, jotting down notes on the pad in front of him as fast as he can write. Finally, Patterson hangs up, studies his notes for a few minutes, then turns to you with a grim smile and says:

"That was Sergeant Bob Gilligan. He's been out covering a homicide over in the north end of town. There were five hoodlums involved in this little party . . . and one of them got into a little ruckus with one of his pals and shot him to death. Sergeant Gilligan has just given me some information on the activities of these five characters, and I'm wondering if you can sift through these notes I've taken and tell me just who killed whom".

You intercept the memo pad Chief Patterson skims across his desk to you, and begin reading through his notes:

"Danny Dodge bowled seven games of tenpins with one of the innocent men sometime between one and three p.m. today. The killer, when only three years old, was taken out of an orphanage, adopted by Jack Anderson's parents, and the two boys grew up together virtually as brothers. Hank Edwards is an accomplished pianist. Cappy Carson, who is considered a fine bowler, was formerly a professional football player. The killer underwent a hernia operation eight days ago. Bill Bradshaw became a member of this group of hoodlums only two weeks ago, having been well acquainted with three of the other men, but meeting Jack Anderson then for the first time. Jack Anderson separated from his wife six months ago, has been living with his mother since then, and is there now. Danny Lougee was at one time a night club M.C. Bill Bradshaw and Cappy Carson have been seen some quite often of late playing billiards together".

You now look up at Chief Jim Patterson, and say, "I know your two men . . . the killer and the victim".

Who are they?

SOLUTION

Cappy Carson killed Hank Edwards. Danny Dodge obviously cannot be the killer, because he bowled seven games this afternoon, and the killer underwent a hernia operation just eight days ago. Jack Anderson is not the killer for he met Anderson for the first time only two weeks ago. This leaves Cappy Carson and Hank Edwards. Since Carson is obviously alive (he is considered a fine bowler), he must have killed Edwards, the only other name not mentioned.

2035 had been established in the amount of $135,000.74, to received and filed.

The sec-treas. stated that in 1964 the grant had been $184,184.08.

Correspondence from Otto D. Phillips, Pete Danch, Harry Thiessen and Abe Wiens requesting improvements to the road from the SE corner of Sec 17-50-17-W 4 one mile west and two miles north to the NW corner of Sec. 20-50-17 was referred to the council and some discussion it was decided to table the matter an order that some of the councillors could examine the road in question when they intended to do after lunch.

A copy of a letter from a number of residents of the district director of postal service in Edmonton requesting that the rural mail delivery which had been cut to once a week, be reinstated to twice a week. The reason for the reduction in service appeared to have been the impassable conditions of the road north of Sec 9 and 10 of 47-16-W 4th. Cr Gibson stated that this road was used very little in the winter time, probably mostly by the small carrier and that the road was passable in the summer time. Cr. Gibson did not intend to improve this road in 1965 as there were other roads in the area that were more in need of improvement.

It was moved and carried that the letter be received and filed. Cr Gibson's opinion concurred in, and that the responsible parties be so advised.

A letter signed by Clare Good and the Burns, registering a complaint against David Ingebe for the draining of Duck Lake stated that the drainage would definitely cause water damage on SW and SE 29-50-18-W 4, was referred to the council Cr Magnuson stated that he had only recently been advised that this drainage had been done. As this was a matter that did not actually concern the council it was moved and carried that Messrs Clare Good and Abe Wiens be advised to contact the department of water resources.

A letter from John Maurer stating that his cattle drink from a 5½ acre dugout on SW 36-50-18-W 4th has been run out of watering around his farm so that the water would run quite a bit off the natural drain and would run through the centre of Mr. Maurers land on SE 19-50-18-W 4th He requested that the council take some action on this complaint. Cr. Magnuson stated that when the road was reconstructed between Sec 19 and 20-50-18-W 4th a culvert, that had been located at a slough towards the south of SE 36-50-18, had been moved further north and that this would have some bearing on the amount of water that would go through Mr. Maurer's land It was considered that a committee from the council should look into this complaint during the course of the meeting and that Mr. John Maurer be asked to accompany the committee in view of the fact that the provisions of Sec 242 had not been fully carried out.

Board Order No 1780 of the Local Authorities Board separating the E ½ of N.E. 2-51-18-W 4 and all the original north south road allowance adjoining the south boundary of the aforesaid land from the Town of Tofield and annexing to the County of Beaver No 9, was referred to the Council The Order prescribed that the provisions of the Order was to become effective as from and after 1st day of January, 1965. Moved and carried that the Order be accepted

Cr Weatherill was somewhat surprised that the north - south road allowance adjoining the east boundary of the parcel in question had been transferred to the County, as, as a rule, the road to the west of the municipality is the responsibility of that municipality

Moved and carried that an inquiry be made as to the reasons for annexing this road allowance to the County

In regards to the interview that the District Supervisor of Texaco Canada Limited had with the Council on April 8th, the question as to whether or not a survey should be made was further discussed

The Secretary-Treasurer reported that, with respect to requisitioning amounts of diesel fuel, gas oil and grease had been used during 1964 Diesel fuel 6,440 gallons, gas for buses and cars 67,412 gallons heating oil 612 gallons, lubricating oil 1,402 gallons lubricating grease, 1,515 pounds, varsol, 280 gallons Moved and carried that we request a survey with no obligation attached to the request.

vertised in the newspapers circulating within the County, some ill the tenders giving a chance of more than one scraper. After scrutinizing the various tenders it was moved and carried that the following tenders be accepted:

B.G. scraper located at NW 21-49-11-W 4 — W. J. Pobuda, $250.00 NE 35-47-13-W 4 — Magnet Township 1426.00 Hamlet of Bruce — J. R. Jackson, $285.00, Hamlet of Haight — Lester Pepper, $305.00 NW 25-47-16-W 4 — Ernest Vitek $231.00 NW 9-50-17-W 4 — Ernest Koerber, $265.00. SE 35-51-19-W 4 — V. Bates, $286.

In regards to the council's decision that the council is not in the advisory committee to the Alberta Farm Purchase Board, the sec-treas. reported that the application to establish the council as the farm purchase advisory committee had been approved by the Minister of Agriculture and that from now on the former advisory committee was discharged. It was moved and carried that the information be accepted.

In the matter of the recreational facilities grant program, the sec-treas. reported that he had received applications from Ardrossan Community Centre, Catholic Parish of St. John the Baptist Polish Hall and St. John the Baptist of Bardshiview Hall for this grant. He further advised that although the deadline for submitting these applications had been March 31st the deputy provincial secretary, Mr. P. B. Hereford, had kindly agreed to accept the applications if they were passed by the council at today's meeting. It was moved and carried that the applications be approved and that the Reeve and sec.-treas. be authorized to complete the applications and forward them to the provincial secretary's department.

CORRESPONDENCE

A letter from Mrs. Nick Hrynash of Holden complaining that the road to their farm was not being snowplowed until several days after the storms and that her husband and son had to open the road with tractor and shovels so that the sun could get to school. Mrs. Hrynash also referred to the poor condition of the road which no doubt would make it impossible for the school bus to the spring of the year and she requested that something be done to improve this road.

It was moved and carried that Mrs. Hrynash be advised that an effort will be made to improve the road in question this year and that this would no doubt alleviate the snow problem in coming years and that it be pointed out to Mrs. Hrynash that due to the unusually difficult snow condition many roads were not opened up as quickly as the council would have liked.

It was moved and carried that correspondence from the deputy provincial treasurer concerning the Municipal Development and Loan Act, advising that the restrictions regarding the amounts of the loans that can be obtained through this act have been removed, be tabled until a later meeting.

It was also moved and carried that this meeting now adjourn to Wednesday, April 14th, at 10 a.m.

It was moved and carried that letter from the department of municipal affairs advising that the grant under the Municipalities Assistance Act for the year

2505 had been established in the amount of $135,000.74, he received and filed.

The sec.-treas. stated that in 1964 the grant had been $180,189.38.

Correspondence from Otto D. Phillips, Pete Dueck, Henry Thiessen and Abe Wiens requesting improvements to the road from the SE corner of Sec. 17-50-17-W 4 one mile west and two miles north to the NW corner of Sec. 30-50-17 was referred to the Division. Minor improvements was also decided to table this matter in order that some of the councillors could examine the road in question which they intended to do after lunch.

A copy of a letter from a number of residents of the district director of postal service in Edmonton requesting that the rural mail delivery which had been cut to once a week, be reinstated to twice a week. The reason for the reduction in service appeared to have been the impassable condition of the road south of Sec 9 and 10 in 47-16-W 4th. Cr. Gibson stated that this road was used very little in the winter time, probably mostly by the mail carrier, and that the road was passable in the summer time. Cr. Gibson did not intend to improve this road in 1965 as there were other roads in the area that were more in need of improvement.

It was moved and carried that the letter be received and filed. Cr. Gibson's opinion concerning this, and that the municipality be advised.

A letter signed by Clare Good and Abe Wiens, registering a complaint against David Hegehy for the draining of Duck Lake stated that the drainage would definitely cause water damage on SW and SE 29-49-18-W 4, was referred to the council Cr Magnesson stated that he had only recently been advised that this drainage had been done As this was a matter that did not actually concern the council it was moved and carried that Messrs Clare Good and Abe Wiens be advised to contact the department of water resources.

A letter from John Maurer stating that Dave Schmidt on 3½ 24-50-16-W 4th had made a lot of ditching around his farm so that the water would run quite a bit off the natural drain and would run through the centre of Mr. Maurer's land on SE 19-50-16-W. 4th. He requested that the council take some action on this connection. Cr. Magnesson stated that when the road was reconstructed between Sec. 19 and 24-50-16-W 4th a culvert, that had been located at a slough towards the south of SE 24-50-16, had been moved further north and that this would have some bearing on the amount of water that would go through Mr. Maurer's land. It was considered that a representative from the council should look into the complaint during the summer and that Sec. 24 had not been fully completed.

Board Order No. 1709 of the Local Authorities Board, separating the E. ½ of N.E. 2-51-19-W 4 and all the original north-south road allowance adjoining the said boundary of the aforesaid land from the Town of Tofield and annexing to the County of Beaver No. 9, was referred to the Council. The Order prescribed that the provisions of the Order was to become effective on, as from be 1st day of January, 1965.

Moved and carried that this Order be accepted.

Cr Weatherall was somewhat surprised that the north - south road allowance adjoining the east boundary of the parcel in question had been transferred to the County, as, as a rule, the road is the matter of the municipality and the responsibility of that municipality.

Moved and carried tabt an inquiry be made as to the reasons for annexing this road allowance to the County.

In regards to the interview that the District Supervisor of Texaco Canada Limited had with the Council on April 8th, the question as to whether or not a survey should be made was further discussed.

The Secretary-Treasurer reported that, according to the following amounts of diesel fuel, gasoline and grease had been used during 1964: Diesel fuel, 45,040 gallons, gas for buses and trucks 67,412 gallons, heating ..... 812 gallons; lubricating oil, 1,602 gallons; lubricating grease, 1,515 pounds; varsol, 380 gallons

Moved and carried that we request a survey with no obligation attached to the request.

Community League begins plans for Dominion Day

The regular monthly meeting of the Tofield Community League was held on Tuesday, May 4th, in the meeting room of the Community Centre, with the president, John Baergen in the chair, and 16 members present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, J. C. Lamplett. Regarding donations to memorial funds, H. Seller explained that some members of the staff of the Bank of Montreal would accept such donations.

The treasurer's report was given by Hans Christensen, treasurer, and the theatre committee report by the committee chairman, Jack Whyte. The chief concern of the meeting was preparation for the Community League's annual sports day on July 1st, on which occasion the league attempts to provide a good program of recreational facilities, sports' events, exhibits, etc. At the same time, they hope to raise money to carry on the many current community-oriented projects as well as to retire the debt on Tofield's excellent Community Centre.

A tentative theme was discussed and details about it will be announced later. Mr. Baergen and Mrs Grace Phillips were appointed as a committee to arrange for a theme and its implementation.

A school exhibit will be displayed and the Historical Society will feature antique furniture in its annual exhibit. A handicraft exhibit will also be featured with Mrs. Mabel Boyles in charge. The jumping and cutting horses will again thrill the spectators. Mr. Seller is in charge of this event.

PARADES

The parade will be under the direction of J. E. Stinson, Clio Blackiock and Henry Page. More details of trophies and/or cups for the parade will be reported in a later issue of The Mercury.

The grounds committee will consist of Thomas Jacobs, Geo. McFadzean and Bill Christensen. This committee will also consider the need for new bleachers at the sports grounds.

BALL TOURNEY

Eddie Williams spoke about the arrangements for prize money for the senior baseball team, and the meeting agreed that the players' entrance fees should be refunded. The committee in charge of the baseball tournaments will be Lionel Barton, Eddie Thomas and Jack Lamplett. John Wall will be asked to arrange the fastball tournaments.

Arrangements for rides for the children on July 1st and for a band to lead the parade are also underway. It is hoped that the RCMP will lead the parade.

The barbecue will be under the direction of Vince Bates, Charles Rollins and Henry Page.

SWIMMING LESSONS

For several years, the league has sponsored swimming lessons for the youth of the Tofield district and this community service was next discussed and plans for this year's lessons were formulated. The committee in charge of this year's swimming lessons consists of Bill Christensen, Mrs. Daisy Young, and Hans Christensen.

offered by the new library, which has put the old one in the back when era.

To begin with — space! No more crowded shelves, no more bumping into tables at every turn! . . . Just wide open space! More space leads to greater display areas — magazines march proudly on display; Newbery award books are now exhibited. Tables are further apart, giving the entire room a professional, well-planned look.

Another feature is a separate office for Mrs. Bowick, the librarian. Here the additional cupboard space is amazing; equally amazing is the remarkable difference made by a map rack where the maps are neatly hung instead of being stacked. Encyclopedias, dictionaries, and other reference books are in one corner very conveniently located for students

But the best feature of this library is the lighting — absolutely excellent! All corners of the room light up brightly, greatly aiding proper study and reading. I urge you, the public to attend the open house and to visit our new library, which is the first central library in the County of Beaver. Mrs. Bowick would be delighted to see you.

COMMERCIAL ROOM
(Donna Jacobson)

The Tofield High School is pleased to announce the completion of the new commercial room and to report that commercial classes are now underway and operating efficiently again. All students agree that the spaciness, well-lighted room leaves little to be desired. The room boasts an added amount of bulletin board space and a separate office, located at one end of the room. Miss Komarnisky, our commercial teacher, and the high school students welcome and urge the public to attend and witness the opening.

BIOLOGY LABORATORY
(Jacqueline Lamplett)

The new biology laboratory is situated next door to the commercial room in the school's most recent addition. Located in the far corner is a greenhouse, filled with numerous varieties of plants. Fossil and butterfly collections are on exhibit, as well as many news articles brought in by the students. The laboratory is large enough to hold six work tables, with individual lamps and gas jets, a wall of cupboard space, two sinks and an office

Students of the high school are pleased to announce that this biology laboratory is unique in the County of Beaver.

Following the ribbon - cutting ceremony and the inspection of the new rooms, all visitors are invited to return to the auditorium where coffee will be served by members of the sub-local under the direction of Mrs. Hilda Bowick, social convenor.

Library board meets April 26th

A meeting of the board of the municipal library was held on Monday, April 26th, at 8 o'clock in the council chambers.

Present were E. Watson, Dr. W. H. Freebury, Don Hardy, Mrs. Hazel Patterson, Dorothy Freebury, Georgia Christensen, Rita Halverson and E. T. Wilshire, supervisor of public libraries for the province of Alberta.

The secretary advised the board that the government library grant for $353.15 had been received and deposited to the library account.

Mrs Georgia Christensen wished to take part in the librarians' course offered by the provincial government in October. It was moved that the board pay the registration fee of $30.00 for the course.

Mrs. Freebury, librarian, reported that Mabel Bailey wished to become a "friend of the library".

A request from the Community League that a float sponsored by the library be entered in the July 1st parade was accepted. Mrs. Hazel Patterson and Mrs. D. Freebury were appointed as conveners of the project.

E. T. Wilshire gave a very informative talk on the duties of the library board and answered a number of questions directed to him. He felt that the per capita grant would be more advantageous to the Tofield Municipal Library than would the book grant. After much discussion regarding the rural area using the library at the same rate as local residents, Mr Watson volunteered to contact Viking Library and look into the possibility of a grant from the County of Beaver. The suggestion that a library memorial fund be started was accepted, and Mr Watson was appointed to contact the Tofield memorial committee regarding same.

Mr. Wilshire conveyed thanks from the Duffield library for the books forwarded to them from Tofield.

Field work under way in Tofield district

According to the May 7th crop report from the Alberta Wheat Pool in Tofield, field work is well under way in the district, and it was expected that seeding of wheat would be general by this week. General conditions are considered good, but spring work is a little later this year than usual. Total rainfall since May 1st in Tofield is 1.5 inches.

At Ryley, it was expected field work would be general this week. Rainfall since May 1st at Ryley amounted to one-tenth of an inch.

A marked increase in the seeding of rapeseed of about 20 per cent is expected at Ryley this year, while at Tofield it is expected to be about the same as in 1964. Wheat acreage in both Tofield and Ryley is expected to be down slightly, with oats about the same and the amount of barley seeded may show a slight increase according to Wheat Pool agents.

ON THE STREETS OF ST. PIERRE. A labor dispute on the normally lazy and peaceful island of St. Pierre, 12 miles south of Newfoundland, caused great concern in Paris, and a crack troop of federal gendarmes was rushed to restore "law and order." But when they got there, the gendarmes found that things couldn't be quieter, as indicated by these French policemen as they enjoy a leisurely walk down a street. One of the last bastions of French colonialism, St. Pierre measures 93 square miles, supporting 5,000 inhabitants, mostly in fishing. It's been a French colony since 1660.

AMA seeks aid with signs

The Edmonton Branch of the Alberta Motor Association is again asking for the co-operation of the residents of the Tofield district in the erection or replacement of directional signs in the area. Any person who is aware of the need of a sign in his district, should advise the Alberta Motor Association (Edmonton) of the location for such a sign by June 1st of this year, to ensure that the AMA road signing crew will be able to include in in the 1965 signing program.

Please help us to help you.

Address correspondence to A. R. Graham, Assistant Manager, Alberta Motor Association, 109th Street and Kingsway, Edmonton.

4-H dance is a huge success

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY — For the 4-H clubs' dance, which was a great success, the hall was decorated nicely and suitably for the occasion, and there was a good crowd in attendance. "The Trojans" supplied the music which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Lucy Dieriais of the Girls' Food Club was declared Queen, receiving a nice pendant and earrings presented by the Mayor, Bob Cross. Ian Snortheim of the Dairy Club was declared Prince Charming, and was given a modern tie clip and cuff link set. Each of the other contestants received sets for competing which differed slightly from the winners' sets. Miss Peggy Fisk acted as mistress of ceremonies, and Bob Westmancoat led the Grand March.

The ticket draw winners were, first, Miss Pamela McLeod of Edmonton (camera); second, Mrs. Carl Ostram of Viking, (clothes hamper).

Lunch was served by the two food clubs, one of which is composed of boys, the only 4-H all-boys food club in the province.

Holden nurse locates patient after searching for 10 months

(By Mrs. J. Knudson)

Miss Elvira Sizer, R.N., recently gained considerable publicity in The Ann Arbor (Michigan) News, following an unusual display of interest and tenacity in helping her patients.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs Charles Sizer of Holden South, Miss Sizer is presently aboard the mercy ship S.S. Hope, which was commissioned by the late John Kennedy when he was president. She will complete her third and fourth year studies aboard ship.

The report reads:

A former patient at University Hospital has been found in Ecuador after a 10-month, 4,000-mile search that had elements of an international detective adventure.

The quest began as a routine inquiry by the hospital's Cancer Follow-Up Unit.

Before it ended, it had involved an X-ray technician and a dozen doctors, nurses, port authorities, and hospital administrators in Michigan, Ecuador and aboard the mercy ship, S.S. Hope.

The Follow-Up Unit is supervised by Mrs. Wanda Meldrum. She keeps records of more than 11,000 cancer patients who have been treated at the U-M Medical Center here. Each patient is contacted periodically to determine the current status of his health.

The Follow-Up Unit prides itself on nearly 100 per cent success in keeping track of its patients, for the information goes to researchers studying the long-range effectiveness of cancer treatment.

Early in 1964, one of these patients "vanished".

A native of Ecuador, he had been treated at University Hospital in 1962 while attending the University. The next year, he went to Connecticut. The Follow-Up Unit kept track of his progress. Then he disappeared.

Letters sent to Connecticut were returned. They were marked, "Unknown at this address".

Four successive letters to the patient's last known address in Ecuador brought no response. Repeated checks showed he had not returned to Ann Arbor.

But Mrs. Meldrum does not give up easily.

Her inquiries among staff members at University Hospital brought out a slender lead: Dr. James Taren, U-M neurosurgeon, had recently returned from Guayaquil, Ecuador, where he had served on the S.S. Hope.

Although he did not know the patient, Dr Taren offered one possibility. A University X-ray technician, Miss Elvira Sizer, was leaving the next day to join the S.S. Hope staff. Perhaps she could look into it?

Contacted a few hours before departure, Miss Sizer agreed.

When she reached the floating hospital at Guayaquil, she began her detective work in her spare hours. Finally, she hit paydirt.

One of the Ecuadorian doctors visiting the S.S. Hope knew the patient's family. Through him, Miss Sizer arranged to contact them in their village a short distance from the port.

The patient was there.

Several days ago Miss Sizer's letter arrived in Ann Arbor. It reports the patient "is enjoying good health", and will get future check-ups from his own doctor.

An entry in the patient's folder shows a change of address. His file is now back among the other 10,999 and the Follow-Up Unit is still hitting close to 100 per cent.

Home from college soon

PATRICIA SEARS

Patricia Sears, 18, of Tofield, will be home soon from Mount Royal Junior College in Calgary where she has been taking a university course in social welfare.

Patricia chose Mount Royal to further her education because of its specialized course, and college counselling centre. She will continue her education in the fall.

Funeral service held for Ministik oldtimer

(Mrs. J. Reddick)

MINISTIK — Funeral services were held Monday, May 10th, at Andrews - McLaughlin Funeral Home in Edmonton for Walter C. Barnes who passed away on May 8th.

Mr. Barnes came to the Ministik district in 1907 and settled on a homestead near Cooking Lake, where he resided until his death. He leaves to mourn his passing, his loving wife, Rachel, six daughters, Mrs. Archie Clarke, Mrs. Archie Maclean, both of Edmonton, Mrs. N. Bloxham of Kelowna, B.C., Mrs. D. Miller of Valleyview, Mrs. Steve Dunn of Calgary and Miss Sheila Barnes of Glasgow, Scotland, also 14 grandchildren.

Many persons from the district attended the funeral. Interment was in Westlawn cemetery in Edmonton with Andrews - McLaughlin in charge of arrangements. Sympathy of the district is extended to Mrs. Barnes and family in their loss.

Best answer yet

Cynical because Canadian governments for more than a decade have promised measures to "strengthen the position of Canadian publications" many editors of these publications expected little from the recent budget to help their position. Then when it did come, they almost unanimously objected to the proposal advanced, which is to deny income tax exemption for advertising placed in periodicals owned beyond the country.

Curiously, however, none of the publications has advanced a simple rule which would achieve the same end nearly as easily as Finance Minister Gordon's measure. All that was needed was a simple basis which would permit the entry of all foreign magazines into Canada, but prevent them, wherever published, from competing for Canadian advertising.

This is precisely what Gordon has achieved . . . with the possible exception of Time and Reader's Digest, which are enjoying special preferential treatment.

In the past, extraordinary pressures to avert this sort of action have been advanced by successive American presidents. It will be interesting watching Washington's reaction this time.

The issue has never been freedom of speech, except insofar as there would be no freedom of speech through the means of Canadian periodicals unless the government had acted soon to protest magazines against unfair . . . and the word should be underlined . . . unfair competition from foreign publications. There has never been any question of the principle as it applied to foreign ownership of radio or television in this country. Why should it produce so much controversy applied to the press? In the end, it will prove by far the most important medium.

SHAW ON TV

CBC-TV's Festival series offers a fascinating study of the great George Bernard Shaw, the playwright who emerged from the obscurity of a Dublin boyhood to become one of the most influential writers of the 20th century. The one-hour film was made in Dublin, London and at Ayot St. Lawrence, where he died at the age of 94. Interspersed are newsreel sequences and still photographs adding authenticity to this portrait of a great writer whose ultimate concern was for the human race. Titled Bernard Shaw: Who the Devil Was He?, this Festival program of May 19 features Lister Sinclair as narrator, with actor Barry Morse speaking the words of Shaw.

Tags make the difference

For many war veterans, or their widows or orphans, the difference in living is spelled out through the reception given the miniature car licenses which are shipped out by the thousands each year by the Key Tag Service of The War Amputations of Canada.

Thousands of drivers, naturally, respond with the nominal fee requested, and the service maintains 42 war veterans, all amputees, in full-time employment. Coupled with this, proceeds are spread over nineteen branches across the dominion, to help in the training program, rehabilitating, research, artificial limbs, liaison and guidance, even of civilian amputees, not just veterans.

It's worthy of note that since the service started, well over 100,000 sets of keys have been returned to owners, more than 12,000 of these going out last year alone. In addition to the keys, tags have turned up to identify numerous other pieces of equipment, ranging from lucky charms, through to fishing gear, suitcases and golf club-bags. In fact, some people seem to tie them on almost everything but the family dog.

The resourceful program of self-help has done a tremendous job for people on both ends of the receiving line: the donors who have keys returned, and the amps who gain a place in the world through their ambition and pluck.

Shopping for credit

A recent bulletin from the Better Business Bureau points out that shopping for credit . . . if you haven't the cash to pay in full for your purchase . . . is just about as important as shopping for the merchandise in the first part. They urge that you shop for money as carefully as you would shop for any other item, and make the best deal possible for yourself. With the advent of new banking laws, probable under the revised Bank Act, and certainly with the new approach to loans of the Alberta Treasury Branches, the credit part may be quite different, and may be highly interesting.

Some of the items to watch for in credit shopping are being sure that all charges have been added, so you will be able to figure in advance the total cost of the money you borrow, and be able to figure comparative costs and percentages. You should know also the privileges available for prepayment and the penalties attached to falling behind . . . these can often be more important than the cost of the money.

Credit buying is certainly one of the established modes of our time, and smart shoppers will be just as value conscious here as they are in any other line of shopping.

Dick and Ruth Moore of Josephburg visited with Ivan and Florence Malcolm on Saturday evening.

Sunday visitors at the home of Graham and Elsie Snider were Milton and Rita Hennig.

Former Holden man passes in Edmonton

(Mrs. G. N. Taylor)

HOLDEN — The sympathy of friends is extended to Philip le Clercq and family whose father, Walter LeClercq of Edmonton passed away Tuesday, May 4th. He leaves to mourn his loss, five sons, Philip of Holden, George of Red Deer, Norman of Irongate, Stanley of Mayerthorpe, and James of Edmonton; two daughters, Mrs. L. (Elsie) Bradley of Hampton, Ont., and Mrs. Helen Mills of Sangudo; also 32 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Saturday, May 8th, at the Foster and McGarvey funeral chapel in Edmonton with interment in the Beechmount cemetery. Dr. J. W. Bainbridge officiated.

Mr LeClercq was born in the Channel Islands and emigrated to Ontario, Canada, in 1904, settling in the Holden district in 1912. He retired from farming in 1948, moving to Edmonton where he had since made his home.

District news items from Ryley

(M. K. Westmancoat)

Johnnie and Marguerite Fish, together with Mrs. Amy Pope and Mrs. Winnie Johnson, were Edmonton visitors one day this week.

RETURN TO ONTARIO

Mrs. Edna Irwin and Mrs. Ina Marshall left this week for their respective homes in Ontario, after spending the past two months visiting with their sister, Mrs. S. Booth.

Mrs. Bill Smith (nee Esther Halberg) and children, Steven and Debra, have arrived from their home in Sioux Lookout, Ontario, to spend the next month visiting with Esther's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Halberg.

SCOUT BOTTLE DRIVE

On Saturday, May 15th, the Scout Cubs will be out in full force for a bottle drive. Will you please have your bottles ready for collection. The Cubs will also be selling the "Scouts" chocolate bars that day, and are asking for your support. One evening of last week, these boys with their leaders, N. Hegland, T. Kerine and Mrs. Barbara Harbeck, spent the entire evening raking and generally clearing up the Lions playground, ending up with a weiner roast and sing-song around the bonfire.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pepper, with Gary and Ronnie, were Mother's Day visitors with Ethel's mother, Mrs. W. Pepper, at Ohaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pickles and son, Patrick Jonathan, of Edmonton, were Mother's Day visitors with Rosalie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Heilesen. Mrs. Heilesen has just returned home after flying by plane to Vancouver for a ten-day holiday with Mr. Heilesen's sister, Mrs. Molly Weinberger.

Mother's Day visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pope were their daughter, Madeleine and family, and Miss Pamela McLeod, all of Edmonton.

Mrs. Agnes Hagen has returned home after spending the past week in Edmonton taking care of her daughter, Irene's family, while she recovered after a tonsillectomy.

LONG DISTANCE CALLS

Mrs. Hans Nernasen had a long distance phone call on Mother's Day from her son and daughter-in-law in Pierce, Colorado, U.S.A. Margaret Nernasen, their only daughter, will be coming back to Alberta this fall to go into nurse's training at the University Hospital in Edmonton.

Mrs. Bob Westmancoat had a long distance phone call on Mother's Day from her daughter and son-in-law at Dallas, Texas, U.S.A.

The calls came through very clear in both instances, in spite of the many miles that separated the speakers.

Mrs. Westmancoat was lucky to have her name drawn last week in the CFRN "Sample the Sound" contest, winning a new radio.

Holden news briefs

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Fediuk returned the end of last week from Vancouver where they visited with relatives.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Lars Ritland, who had been a patient in Tofield hospital for three weeks receiving treatments, returned home Wednesday of last week, feeling much better. Mrs. Ernie Good drove to Tofield to bring Mrs. Ritland home.

Mrs. Campbell was in Tofield at the clinic Tuesday of last week for a check-up and for x-rays on Wednesday morning. She is pleased to report that the bruise and swelling above her right eye is almost gone. Mrs. Earl Hardy took Mrs. Campbell to Tofield.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Liden attended the funeral of a cousin of Mr. Liden at Killam Thursday afternoon of last week.

Eddie Piasta, lawyer of Edmonton, did not make his usual Tuesday afternoon visit to Holden last week, owning to illness.

William Laskoski was an Edmonton visitor the early part of last week.

A few friends met at the home of Mrs. Lars Ritland Tuesday, May 11th, to help her celebrate her birthday. The celebration had been postponed from the middle of April when she was a hospital patient.

Mrs. Ella Bryan of Winnipeg arrived the end of last week to visit for several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Lars Ritland, and Mr. Ritland.

Explorers go on to CGIT

Last Wednesday, May 5th, the Explorers held their Mother and Daughter banquet in the Tofield United Church basement, with Clara Mae Larson as master of ceremonies. Following a delicious supper, an inspirational message was given by Rev. McDonald, and a sing-song was enjoyed, with Margie Hallet at the piano. Later the girls received their additional stars and 12 girls received their Explorer pins and graduated into CGIT. Gerry Hardy and Ruth Ellen Bears were there to welcome the girls into CGIT.

Claude Gallinger passes at 83 years

Claude Gallinger of No. 9 Willingdon Crescent, Edmonton, passed away on May 7, at the age of 83 years. He is survived by one daughter, Margaret, of Edmonton, one son, William, of Tofield; two grandchildren, Claude Jr and Michael; three sisters, Mary Anderson of Carlton Lodge, Ottawa, Margaret C. L. Treleaven of New York, USA, Olive Richardson of Ottawa; one brother, Stan Gallinger, of Sherbrooke, Quebec.

Funeral Service was held Tuesday, May 11, at 2:00 p.m., at the Andrew - McLauchlin Funeral Chapel, Edmonton, with the Rev. E. J. White, D.D., officiating. Interment was in the family plot in the Edmonton Cemetery.

Lions club has May meeting

The first supper meeting of the month of May was held in the meeting room of Tofield Community Centre on Tuesday of this week, with nearly 100% attendance.

Matters for attention were a Club Token being secured by Lion Ed Regehr, a Bingo report by Lion Kallal, and Pools by Lion Blacklock.

The June District Convention, to be held in Edmonton, was taken care of, together with arranging for a "Buddy" Club.

It was decided to enter a float in the parade on July 1st, along with the loan of the dunk tank to the Tofield Community League. The float will include a Playhouse, to be built by Lion Kallal.

Derrill Riel wins first scholarship

Another Tofield student has won a summer award. Derrill Riel has won the first annual scholarship to attend the Gold-Eye Lake Teen-age Leadership Camp. The award, set up by the Tofield Co-op Society, will be awarded annually to a promising student.

Open-house was held in the Tofield School on Tuesday evening, May 11. An enjoyable evening was spent at the official opening of the new wing of the school.

The Western Zone play-off or ball-meet will be held during the week of May 24-28.

Pre-nuptial shower honors district pair

(Mrs. G. H. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Monday evening, April 26th, a large number of relatives and friends gathered at Pulaska Hall to honor Miss Virginia Kawaliliak and Vernon Voltner. As the bride-to-be entered the hall, the orchestra played "I love you truly". A beautiful corsage of red roses was pinned on Miss Kawaliliak by Mrs. Mary Gardecki and a corsage of pink roses pinned on each mother.

Dancing was enjoyed until midnight and during the intermission, Stanley Wandio presented the guests of honor with a beautiful chrome dinette suite and a purse of money from all their friends. Both Miss Kawaliliak and Mr Voltner thanked all those present for the gifts and the lovely shower, saying they appreciated the kindness very sincerely. Lunch was then served and dancing continued.

Speaking Can·ada minds

OTTAWA. — Prime Minister L. B. Pearson made his third foray in the United States in two months recently diplomatically informing our good neighbors to the South that he intended to keep on speaking his mind about American policies when they could mean the difference between war and peace for Canadians.

The occasion was the presentation to the Prime Minister of an honorary degree by the University of Vermont at Burlington. The press in both Canada and the United States in recent weeks have carried stories out of Washington suggesting that Mr. Pearson had been "chewed out" by President Johnson for his last speech in the U.S. He made that speech in Philadelphia when he was accepting Temple University's World Peace Award.

In that Philadelphia speech Mr. [illegible]

THE TIP-OFF

That was the first word Mr. Johnson had that the prime minister was going to suggest a "pause" in the U.S. air raids. Obviously the Canadian prime minister was well aware that he should not let Mr. Johnson know in advance what he was going to say, otherwise there might be pressure put on him by the State Department to refrain from making such a statement. Best to go ahead and just make the speech and get the reactions afterwards.

The reaction was not long in coming. When Mr. Pearson flew by helicopter to Camp David he found the president annoyed.

Mr. Johnson thinks, acts and reacts like a politician. He was under heavy fire from some of his toughest critics in the U.S. for ordering stepped up raids on North Viet Nam.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT

The president made it clear to Mr. Pearson that he did not appreciate the prime minister sounding off along such lines in the U.S. When the two men emerged from their luncheon meeting and talks, it was apparent to the newspapermen that the president was in a bad humor.

Later that week inspired stories came out of Washington indicating that Mr. Johnson had been annoyed with Mr. Pearson for preaching a "pause" in the American air raids.

Later, back in Ottawa, Mr. Pearson at a press conference admitted that he and the president had an "argument", but emphasized that they had parted good friends.

This was the setting against which the prime minister flew back into the U.S. to speak to the Convocation Ceremonies at the University of Vermont. A large delegation of press men from Canada and the U.S. showed up to hear what Mr. Pearson had to say.

NOT DAUNTED

Mr. Pearson again quietly but emphatically made it plain that he intended to go right on speaking up when he thought U.S. policies in the international field deserved some friendly criticism or comment. Adding point to his remarks he went out of his way to heap praise on U.S. Senator George Aitken (Republican-Vermont), who was on the platform at the University because he was to bestow the honorary degree upon Mr. Pearson. The senator has been a strong critic of Mr. Johnson's policies in Viet Nam. He has warned that the war there could escalate into a full blown nuclear war that would result in the deaths of millions of persons on both sides.

The senator's comments have aroused the ire of President Johnson. In this respect Mr. Pearson and the senator had something in common.

When Mr. Pearson spoke to the convocation audience his remarks were not lost on his listeners. They are well aware of Canada in the State of Vermont. They are "commuter close" as the prime minister pointed out. The University has a Canadian studies course. Several members of its faculty are Canadians.

VOICE OF OUR OWN

Mr. Pearson singled out Senator Aitken as an example of Americans who had earned the deep respect of Canadians over the years for his wise and fair-minded approach to relations between the countries. He thanked the senator warmly for the "great good sense and genuine goodwill which he has consistently displayed in U.S.-Canadian relations", obviously well aware of the large corps of U.S. reporters there. The prime minister conceded that there was not always a complete identity of interest between the two countries. Canada felt bound to speak with her own voice on continental and international problems of concern to Canadians. But in doing so Canadians would never ignore the heavy world responsibilities of the U.S. which are so much greater than those of Canada. Mr Pearson said all Canadians realized that if it was not for the Americans assuming the heavy burdens of leadership in the free world the future for freedom loving nations would be bleak.

JUST BETWEEN FRIENDS

Mr. Pearson said Canadians and Americans would work closely and effectively together. They would continue to judge each other more critically than they judged anyone else. They realized that their friendship was strong enough to stand the test of frankness which is the real test of friendship.

In Parliament on his return the prime minister found himself being questioned about the United States' actions in the Dominican Republic. He said the situation in Santo Domingo was not the same as the situation that prevailed late in 1962 when the Russians moved into Cuba. He declared that it was the hope of the Canadian government that in the restoration of peace and security in the Dominican Republic, any political arrangements that are made, will be made by the people of that island. Meantime the reports the Canadian government had received were not conclusive concerning the degree of Communist involvement in the fighting in Santo Domingo. There were Communists involved and many of them had received guerilla training in Communist countries including, he had no doubt, Cuba.

Q. What types of letters must ALWAYS be written by hand, rather than on the typewriter?

A. Letters of condolence, formal invitations and acceptances (those written in the third person), and most letters of congratulations; such as on the occasion of an engagement, birth of a baby, etc. Also, thank-you notes for gifts received, and bread-and-butter letters.

Q. I know that bacon is generally considered a "fork food", but how about the kind that is fried so crisp that it crumbles when attacked with your fork?

A. In this case, it is perfectly proper (and more practical, too) to use your fingers, just as you would in eating dry potato chips.

Q. My husband and I are the godparents of a friend's child. Now that we are expecting our own first child soon, are we obligated to ask these friends to serve as godparents?

A. Not at all. Choose whomever you wish.

Q. When a man, his wife, and his mother attend church services together, how do they walk down the aisle and how do they seat themselves in the pew?

A. The mother and her daughter-in-law walk down the aisle together, followed by the man, who sits with his mother between him and his wife.

Q. While dining at a friend's home recently, I was offered a raw apple and immediately proceeded to bite into it. My wife claims this was improper. Was it?

Council discusses cemetery policy

The Tofield Council meeting was held Monday, May 3, at 8:00 p.m., when those present were Mayor Dr. W. H. Freebury and Councillors Allan, Boese, Everitt, Jefferson, Patterson and Swift, and Const. J. Wall.

CEMETERY

Requests for the cost of cemetery care to pay into perpetuity was discussed. It was suggested by Clr. Swift that $100 be the amount charged. It was decided that $100 be charged to applicants who wished to pay cemetery care into perpetuity.

The secretary-treasurer reported that only a few surveyed plots were left for sale at the cemetery, and asked that a policy be discussed regarding those plots which were not being used nor cared for by anyone. Council decided that the secretary-treasurer with the help of J. E. Stinson list the owners of plots falling into this category and present same at the next meeting.

The Inspector's report of the Board of Industrial Relations was read, which instructed Council to pay termination pay to C. Oslund for $80 and to Wm. Kennedy for $94.76. The report also advised Council that overtime must be paid to the town foreman, A. Rowland, and that a time sheet from A. G. Clark, town engineer, be filed each month. The report was accepted by council and will be paid.

Information from the M. S. I. and from Travelers Insurance regarding a group plan for Town employees was presented. The secretary-treasurer was instructed to confer with the other employees as to which plan was most suitable and report at the next meeting.

Much discussion took place regarding a probation officer for the Town of Tofield. It was finally moved and carried that no action be taken until official notice is received from the Attorney General's Department.

Application was approved for the purchase of E. 12 1/2 feet of Lot 3, Block 9, Plan 8800 S by George Boese, to be consolidated under one title with Lots 4 and 5, Block 9, Plan 8200 S.

It was moved and carried to purchase a desk and chair for the Town Office from Municipal Supplies at a price of [illegible] complete.

TREE PLANTING

After discussion, it was moved and carried that a quantity of green ash trees be purchased for planting in the Town, the quantity to depend on the supply available and the price of same. The town foreman is to confer with the Property Committee as to where the trees will be planted.

Unlicensed cars parked on streets was brought to Council's attention by Const. Wall. An amendment to the bylaw covering the matter is to be drawn up and presented for discussion at the next meeting.

A. Hardy wished to rent an acreage for pasture from the Town. Council decided that Mr. Hardy confer with the property committee, Clrs. Allan and Boese, who desired more information before leasing the property.

Building permits were sold to N. E. Stauffer for addition to residence on Lot 7, Block 21, Plan 3800 AC for $1,800. Council asked for a floor plan before approving, sold to Geo. Boese for dwelling on Pt. Lot 3 and all 4 and 5, Block 9, Plan 8800 S for $9,000.

Ministik news briefs

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

Mother's Day services were well attended at the United Church on Sunday with Miss Helen Irwin conducting.

An organization meeting of the Sunday School following church and regular classes will be held next Sunday, May 16th, with classes every Sunday until the cold weather.

The benefit cash bingo, sponsored by the Community Club, to aid Ted and Morris Stewart, was well attended and a nice sum of money was presented to them.

NEWS OF GRADUATES

Ernie Loch, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Loch, has graduated in commerce at the University of Alberta and left for Toronto on Sunday where he has a position.

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]nald Swabey attended commencement exercises at Salisbury High School on Friday, May 7th, when their son, Gary, graduated.

Don't forget the whist drive at Ministik Hall sponsored by the Ladies' Club in aid of the picnic fund, on Friday, May 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Penrice are the proud grandparents of a new granddaughter. The parents of the new arrival are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thor of Edmonton.

A fire which started near Lakeview on Sunday burned off nearly all the quarter section east of there, owned by Tom Coles of South Cooking Lake.

Mrs. Tom Jones and Chris and Mrs. Paul Stepanow and three children spent Mother's Day weekend with Mrs. Jones' parents in Wilkie, Sask.

TRIPLE CELEBRATION

It was a triple occasion on Sunday when all members of the George family gathered at the home of Mrs. S. George for a family re-union. It was Mother's Day, the birthday of Douglas George and the wedding anniversary of Dolly and Jim Roddick. Mrs. Joe Abear, who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce George of Prince George, B.C., was also a guest.

The Joe Davenport family were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Helen Hennessy. Miss Helen Irwin called in the evening.

Visitors at the Russell Rowland home for Mother's Day were their son, Gary, and daughter, Peggi.

Mr. and Mrs. Verden Sears, Miss Teresa Rogier, George Rogier and Madame Martha Rougier, were Saturday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. El[illegible] Dekinder in [illegible].

Miss Bella Boss is a patient in an Edmonton hospital. Her friends all wish her a quick return to good health.

WILLOWDALE, May 10th — An Easter story, "Peter and the Resurrection" was rendered by the Trondhjem Church choir in Forestburg Pleasantview Church last Sunday, May 2nd, under the direction of Mr. Terry Grainger. For the opening, Mrs. Howard Burnstad sang a solo, "Is He Satisfied with Me?" and 17 songs were sung by the choir with narration by Fred Gotheridge. Mrs. Bernice Helberg of Kingman was pianist. A collection was taken for the Gwynne Home. A lovely lunch was served in the church basement.

Sympathy of the community goes to the Pearson families in the sudden death of Henry Pearson. He leaves his wife and nine children. It is believed he died of a heart attack.

Joe Holowitchuk was a lucky winner of $250.00 last Saturday evening in the cash bingo in Camrose.

The Ronald Burnstads visited with the Sven Sorensens of Leduc on Mother's Day.

Miss Lorraine Mathison, who teaches school at Bashaw, was home over the weekend at the Edwin Mathison home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hamstra and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hamstra of Edmonton were visitors at the Bill Holowitiuk home on Sunday.

Bill Wade of Edmonton is progressing quite favorably in the General Hospital after undergoing surgery last week.

If you're asking yourself can I afford it?

This message might provide a positive answer.

If a major purchase costs more than you want to spend, the Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan might well be the difference between having it to enjoy and going without.

The Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan is the modern, economical way to take care of all your credit needs without putting a heavy strain on your paycheque. It puts cash in your hands for a new automobile, washing machine, TV set, wardrobe for your family — or for meeting emergencies and recurring commitments.

Many people don't know you can walk into any branch of the Bank of Montreal and arrange a large personal loan. Depending on your income, you can obtain up to $3500 or even more. And you can repay your loan within three years through regular monthly payments geared to your income. Interest is low. All FFP loans are automatically life-insured to protect your family.

Tofield Showcase '65' is Dominion Day theme

"Tofield Showcase '65" is the theme for Tofield's annual Dominion Day celebration.

This theme should lend itself equally well to all business, governmental, institutional, service club and individual entries in the Dominion Day parade.

What products and/or services does your business provide for the citizens of Tofield and district? What does your youth group aim to do? What has your service club done? What contributions has your organization made toward the betterment of the community?

The parade on July 1st is an excellent place to answer these questions. The floats could demonstrate very effectively how many groups and individuals are actively engaged in building up our community. Any member of the executive of the Tofield Community League will be glad to discuss ideas for a float. It might even be possible to secure some help for work on the floats if the need is made known. This is one occasion on which it is not only legitimate but desirable to "toot your own horn". Let's hear it! What can you put in Tofield's '65 Showcase'?

Bardo LCW hears convention report

(Mrs. C. M. Rude)

BARDO, May 11th — The May meeting of the Bardo LCW was held in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Berglund Rude read the scripture and offered prayer.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Selma Chmanzon, Mrs Agnes Haukelid was elected secretary pro-tem. Mrs. Norma Anderson led the Bible study with the members taking part. The offering meditation was given by Mrs. Pauline Rude

Mrs Mary Finseth gave an interesting and informative report from the Edmonton conference convention at Banff on May 1st.

Mrs Mary Finseth was elected delegate for the district convention in Saskatoon in June. It was decided to send $15.00 to the district convention which goes for expenses and anything left over is divided between CLC and CLBH at Camrose. Mrs. Mary Finseth, the education secretary, gave the "cause of the month" and stewardship secretary, Mrs. Alice Hokkian, asked the group to bring articles for Hedley Ville to the June meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Agnes Haukelid in Tofield.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Nita Kindley and Mrs. Gladys Severson served a bountiful lunch to 18 members and one visitor.

EMO directors note lack of public interest

Mr. Westmancoat said at the April 12th meeting of the Beaver County EMO he had not been able to arrange a home nursing course, but now that the curling season was over he thought he might have more success

George Taylor said he had contacted the administrator of the Viking Hospital District with regard to handing a health service. Mr Taylor was advised by Mr. Caves that he would not be able to take this appointment. He said we should try to get someone not connected with a hospital as, in case of emergency, anyone connected with a hospital would be frozen to their job.

FIRST AID COURSE

Father Scriven said that of the 19 persons starting the First Aid course at Tofield, 14 had completed it and had passed.

Joe Chomiuke of Holden said he has had trouble in Holden getting any interest. He tried to organize a first aid course and tried to get someone to take the radiological course. with no results.

Thomas Harris of Ryley mentioned the radiation monitoring course that was held April 8th and 7th. He said the attendance was poor and he thought he would put on another one later. He reported that two young men from Ryley had attended the rescue course in Edmonton but only one had completed it. Mr Harris stated that the Village Fire Brigade had been re-organized and it was expected they would take a rescue course Father Scriven of Tofield mentioned that a first aid course had been completed. He said he tried to get candidates to come to the radiological course at Ryley but only one person attended. He said he is going to try to re-organize the hospital as regards to evacuation and disaster after the new matron takes over.

George Taylor gave a report on his activities since the last meeting. He had contacted Art Boyles and Mr. McDaniel with the radiological plan and had made two trips in Viking to see Mr. Hill. He mentioned the difficulty in getting persons to act in the organization, making it difficult for the co-ordinators to get any of the various courses

ONE CAPACITY

Mr. Westmancoat mentioned that the people who are interested in civil defence take all the courses which helps to make classes, but in an emergency these people can only act in one capacity What is needed, he said, is different people in each service, so that in an emergency the co-ordinators will know who is trained for that service He also noted again that we need someone as a deputy head of the radiological service, as Ben Boyles would not be available in an emergency He said Mr Gilpin's name had been mentioned in this capacity George Taylor is to contact Mr Gilpin regarding the position of deputy chief of the radiological service

The chairman stressed the need to get persons to fill the vacancies in the services and to try to generate some interest in Emergency Measures. Otherwise the unit will become dormant and would not be of any use in an emergency, he said

George Taylor said he thought there would be a better response to the course if they were held in the various centres instead of a central point. He thought the co-ordinators would possibly put more effort into getting candidates if the course were held locally

Mr Westmancoat advised that the rescue team should have safety helmets when training The chairman advised that these were not included in the 1965-66 budget and could not be purchased under a cost sharing agreement It was decided to leave them until the 1966-67 budget is discussed.

The radiological annex to the survival plan was presented to the committee and discussed. It was accepted and included as part of the survival plan.

LCW meets May 6th

(M. K. Westmancoat)

RYLEY—The Lutheran Church Women held their monthly Ladies' Aid meeting in the dining room on Thursday afternoon, May 6th. Open devotions was given by Mrs. Caroline Darvick. Bible study by Mrs. Edna Maaren, worship offering by Mrs. Ann Pope. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Pearl Kasbar and Mrs. Mary Osland, and several visitors were present for lunch.

School committee meet held May 11

Following are the minutes (in part) of the regular meeting of the County of Beaver No. 9 School Committee held Tuesday, May 11th.

Water Lines At Holden School

Concerning the replacements of the water lines at Holden school, motion 147 65. The Committee was informed that no reply had been received from McLaren Plastics Ltd. in response to a letter to them on April 8th requesting a new bid on this job. Cr. Reddick was of the opinion that Mr McLaren would be interested in the job and he contacted Mrs. McLaren by telephone, who stated that Mr. McLaren was out on a job but, if he arrived back home prior to 5:00 o'clock, he would contact the County Office. It was, therefore, decided to leave this matter in abeyance.

Gymnasium Windows

In regards to the closing of gymnasium windows, dealt with by motion 140 65, Mr. Pike reported that no satisfactory quotation had been obtained, and he suggested that the work could be left until the proposed building program at Viking got under way and that the cement block layer could also close the windows in question.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and the suggestion concurred in.

Purchase Half-Ton Truck

In regards to the purchase of a half-ton truck for the Maintenance Foreman, motion 123 65, the Committee was informed that the Committee appointed to deal with this purchase had, after scrutinizing the various tenders, awarded the tender to Black's Sales and Service for one only half-ton Chevrolet 1965 truck at a net price of $1,700.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and action concurred in.

In the matter of the retirement of Mrs. Margaret Gleeson, janitor at the Viking school, motion 176 65, the Superintendent stated that the staff at the Viking school was taking care of all the ceremonies in connection with the presentation to Mrs. Gleeson.

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and that the Chairman of the school Committee make the presentation to Mrs Gleeson on behalf of the County

Correspondence

Moved and carried that the Bus Supervisor's report for the month of April and his account in the amount of $19.25 be accepted and approved for payment.

The monthly ATA sub-local meeting, on Tuesday evening, held in store for its attendants a most interesting session.

Miss R. E. Cumming, president of the ATA sub-local, got the evening underway by welcoming all and introducing the first speaker, L. A. Cribb

Mr. Cribb gave an informative talk on Ethiopia and the six years he spent teaching in that country. While topics of discussions schools, education, laws, customs, religion and the Emperor of Ethiopia—Haile Selassie.

After the conclusion of the talk, Mr. H. Schultz, on behalf of the Tofield Co-op Association, presented to Derrill Bell, the first annual leadership course at Gold-Eye Lake (near Nordegg) the student who shows the best qualities of leadership.

Following the presentation, A. Stenberg gave a short talk on his trip to Moscow and then showed slides of the city of Moscow and the Kremlin.

H. Weatherill, on behalf of the school board, presented C. Annis, proclaimed the best director of the same drama festival, with a scholarship to attend a drama summer school in Drumheller August 8th to 21st.

At the adjournment of the meeting, all left the gym to witness the ribbon-cutting ceremony for the official opening of the new wing of the Tofield school.

G. Reddick, chairman of the school committee, after giving a short official speech, gave Mr. Weatherill the honor of cutting the ribbon and officially declaring the new wing open. Guests were then able to tour the new biology lab, commerical room, and library. Coffee and doughnuts were served.

THS news

On May 20th, the Tofield ball teams will meet the Ryley teams in Ryley. The winner of these games will playoff with other county teams on May 29th

Preparations for the 1st spring "prom" are well under way. The plans promise an exciting evening for all.

OORP aids charities

(Mrs. G. M. Taylor)

HOLDEN — Tuesday evening May 11th, Holden OORP held their monthly meeting. Donations to the Purple Cross Fund and Save the Children Fund were approved. Reports of the district meeting held at Killam April 24th, and of the meeting at Kinsella April 27th were given. Plans to enter in the annual Brownie, Guide and mother banquet to be held Monday, May 24, 21st. were started, and a committee was also appointed to look after the food booth at Holden Ryley Day which is sponsored by the OORP. Lady Helen Baker was presented with her 15-year pin from the lodge The lodge is also sponsoring this year's Canadian Career campaign and hope for the continued good support of Holden and district residents. Hostesses for the evening were Ladies Blanche Gilson and Elizabeth Heath

Pre-nuptial shower honors bride-elect

(Mrs. Ellen Eaton)

LAKESHORE - McKENZIE — Some 40 guests attended the miscellaneous shower held on Saturday evening in the Tofield United Church hall in honor of Miss Joyce Warner whose wedding will take place the end of May in Edmonton. Joyce received many lovely and useful gifts. She was assisted in the unwrapping of the gifts by Gail Nesmeth and Miss Kuc. She thanked all those present for the gifts and extended an invitation to all to call on her at her home in Jasper, anytime they were there. A very delicious lunch was served by the hostesses and their helpers.

CGIT honors mothers at spring banquet

Last Wednesday night, the Tofield CGIT held their annual mother and daughter banquet in the United Church basement, with Mr. and Mrs. Tobey from Westminster United Church in Edmonton as special guests. It was also the 38th anniversary of the CGIT. With Ruth Ellen Sears as emcee, the girls each presented their mothers with a corsage. A sing-song for all and entertainment by some of the girls was enjoyed after the banquet.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Tobey, superintendent of the CGIT of the Westminster United Church, dressed in the uniform of 40 years ago, gave a talk on "Today's Teenagers". Four of the girls were presented with the lanyard after four years with the CGIT.

The evening closed with Taps.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP
Derrill Riel receives a scholarship award presented by Harold Schultz of the Tofield Co-op Society. Derrill, shown on the right, is the first Tofield student to receive the annual scholarship to attend the Gold-Eye Lake Yeon-age Leadership camp. The scholarship was set up by the Society and will be awarded annually to a promising student. MacDuff Ottawa report

. . . Spy troubles

OTTAWA — Canada's Official Secrets Act passed by Parliament in 1939 under the [illegible] of war is a frightening document for any public servant who might have access to confidential information. A chain of events of which he or she might be only casually aware could at best land [illegible] court and at [illegible] in the penitentiary for a period of 14 years.

It is one of those exceptions to the rule of British justice that a man is innocent until proven guilty and second only to the War Measures Act, makes conviction on the merest suspicion possible. The War Measures Act, as its name [illegible], [illegible] into force only where there is a state of war or apprehended war. The Official Secrets Act is with us always and has been used in peacetime on more than one occasion.

By frequent use of the little word "deemed" it is hardly necessary for a prosecutor to do more than show that a civil servant could have access to information the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to the safety of the state and has been in communication with the agent of a [illegible] power.

But that is not all. It does not have to be secret communication for sinister purposes. He shall be deemed to have been in communication for such purpose if he has visited the address of a foreign agent.

One such address is 285 Charlotte Street in Ottawa which most civil serv[illegible] have [illegible] at one time or another. The Russian embassy is noted for its lavish entertainment. The acceptance of one invitation could start the chain and in fact on one occasion at least gave uneasy night to quite a few innocent Government officials.

Late one Sunday night in February 1946 a brief announcement from the Prime Minister's office posted in the Parliamentary Press Gallery revealed that certain persons had been apprehended and detained as a result of information pointing to the fact that agents of a certain foreign power had been obtaining information prejudicial to the security of Canada. The certain [illegible] turned out to be 14 civil servants whose homes had been visited simultaneously by the RCMP in the middle of Saturday night, and who had been whisked off to an RCMP barracks outside the city to be held incommunicado at the pleasure of the Minister of Justice for interrogation.

The order-in-council authorizing such a course had been passed in October 1945 after the Gouzenko documents revealed the extent of the ring. It was not made public until the following June and aroused even at that time a storm of political protest. In the House of Commons the Hon. C. G. Power, former Liberal Minister and now a Senator, concluded a fiery attack on the Government with the words, "If this be the funeral of Liberalism, I for one do not wish to be a pall-bearer".

But to the people of Canada generally, with the war still fresh in memory, no action appeared too harsh. The fact that Canadian citizens had assisted the Russians in obtaining mi[illegible] secrets and were in their pay created shock and panic.

The story of Igor Gouzenko the cipher clerk in the Russian embassy [illegible] exposed the spy ring operating not only in Canada but in the United States and the United Kingdom has been written and re-written. Hollywood filmed it with some variations from the truth. But for once, Hollywood fiction was far less dramatic than the facts revealed officially in the report of the Royal Commission, the Hon. Robert Taschereau, now Chief Justice and the Hon. R. L. Kellock.

A few of the civil servants were able eventually to prove their innocence after secret court hearings. Most of them were convicted. Fred Rose, Communist member of Parliament from Montreal, served a penitentiary term and the whole Communist party in Canada was shown to be involved.

The recent disclosure that the Russians are at it again or to be more accurate are still at it is not causing the panic of 20 years ago. But it is admitted that the two men sent back to Russia on representations made by the Canadian Government had [illegible] just as [illegible] operations of Colonel Zabotin's spy ring in [illegible] of the men was the commercial attache at the embassy, Anatoli Bytchkov. He has been particularly active entertaining newspaper men and courting publicity purportedly in the interests of closer Soviet-Canadian trade relations.

Only two unidentified Canadians have been mentioned so far, one of whom apparently went to the police immediately. The other, a civil servant, accepted thousands of dollars from the Russians and worked with them in attempts to compromise civil servants, some of them [illegible]. This of course is an old trick.

He has had a severe heart attack and may not recover. If he does there will be a general demand again for his prosecution under the Official Secrets Act. Meanwhile the [illegible] Minister's statement in the [illegible] was probably as full as security would allow, but it is far from satisfying.

CAPITAL HILL CAPSULES

Prime Min[illegible] Pearson's speech to the [illegible] Liberals was as near to a challenge to Conservatives to defeat him in the House as anything he has said or done yet. The Tories, he said, breathed fire and slaughter, but when it came to a vote made sure they lost it. Just to prove his point Conservatives, the very next day, passed up the opportunity for a non-confidence motion.

* * *

Finance Minister Walter Gordon may have had his economic reasons for refusal to lift the interest ceiling for the banks, but the important consideration was political. At a Liberal caucus about two weeks before the budget he was told in no uncertain terms that if he did so the Government would be defeated in the House and in the country.

By George!

"The happy art of whistling in public has suffered a noticeable decline in recent years", says The Ottawa Journal in a recent editorial. There can be little doubt this is very noticeable in large centres such as Ottawa, but I wonder if even in smaller cities like ours the decline in happy whistling is noticeable.

I know that in our office there are no shortage of whistlers, but then, maybe we have an exceptionally happy or talented staff. There can be no doubt that the sound of a merrily whistled tune does give one a lift. Here is what the Ottawa editor has to say about it.

Whistling, in its purest forms, is the outward, spontaneous expression of inner contentment. We do not, of course, include among such solo performances those mindless, toneless renditions that drive listeners to distraction. Rather what we seek to acclaim is the sort of agreeable melody that results from flashes of unalloyed happiness, the overture of a soul in complete accord with the universe and of a spirit at one with nature and with life. Here, then, is the declaration of sheer joy over the fact of being alive, of delicious, if fleeting unconcern over the past and a salute to the unknown future.

Are these moments of high experience now so rare during the haste, the pressures and complexities of modern living that we seldom acknowledge them to others by impromptu recitals of whistling? Or is it that most of the popular music of today is so lacking in catchy and memorable tunes as to be virtually unwhistleable? One notable exception is surely the lilting score of "My Fair Lady" with its treasury of gay, uncomplicated and eminently repeatable tunes.

Perhaps in our civilized communities today this lamentable neglect of what was once so widespread a practice is the natural consequence of the distribution on a massive scale of electronically distributed music. By radio sets, transistors, by television and by music piped into hotel lobbies, elevators and even banks, perhaps we are now so inundated by professional musicians that the pleasant, and often stimulating, lay art of whistling in public will go the same vanishing way of such once firmly-established institutions as family sing-songs around a piano and the hurdy-gurdy man on the street corner.

Community League is rife with Dominion Day plans

Tofield's annual Dominion Day celebration is only six weeks away. John Bourgon, president of the Community League, and his committees are busy with preparations for this important day.

This year, there will be a larger handicraft exhibit than ever before. Mrs. Boyles, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Pike have decided that entries in any, or all, of the following categories will be accepted, to the limit of two in each category.

CATEGORIES

1. Leatherwork:
2. Woodwork:
   (a) small articles of hand-produced furniture, etc.
   (b) article made from driftwood.
3. Fancy Work:
   (a) embroidery.
   (b) Crotcheting.
   (c) knitting.
   (d) needlework.
4. Rugs:
   (a) braided.
   (b) crocheted.
   (c) hooked.
5. Artificial flowers:
   (a) bouquets in owner's container
   (b) corsages.
6. Paintings:
7. Lapidary:
8. China: handpainted.
9. Copper tooling:
10. Collections:
    kept as small as possible and mounted before being brought in. Collections such as those assembled by Boy Scouts, coin collections, stamp collections, match-book collections, are suggested.

NOT RESPONSIBLE

It must be emphasized that while someone will be constantly with this display, and every possible care will be taken of the exhibits, the Community League or the ladies in charge cannot be responsible for loss or damage.

Mrs. Boyles, phone 662-3662, Mrs. Pike, phone 662-3478, and Mrs. Patterson, phone 662-[illegible], would like prospective exhibitors to contact them prior to June 20th regarding the number and size of their entries. This is to ensure that adequate and suitable arrangements may be made to show the exhibits to their best advantage.

The Tri-Chem Society's representative in the Tofield area, Mrs. Tom Beverton, is arranging a display of Tri-Chem embroidery from the work done by her pupils. Anyone wishing further information on this topic may phone Mrs. Beverton.

LIONS CLUB ASSISTS

The very active Lions Club of Tofield is again lending its effective financial support to the Tofield Community League on July 1st. A playhouse which will delight the heart of any child is being built and raffled by the Lions Club and the proceeds donated to the League.

SENIOR CITIZENS

The Tofield Historical Society will again play hosts to the Senior Citizens of Tofield, both those in residence and those who are returning for the big day. This is the time to contact former residents of this community and acquaint them with the League's plans for the annual get-together of old timers. Coffee will be served free to the senior citizens who were here a half a century ago—in 1915.

PARADE ENTRIES

J. E. Stinson is very interested in obtaining entries for the parade. The theme is "Tofield Showcase '65". What can you put in the showcase of the Tofield Community?

This is a splendid opportunity for businesses to advertise, for institutions to remind the citizenry how valuable such institutions are to the community's welfare, for youth groups to demonstrate how valuable their programs are. Mr. Stinson will be glad to receive your entry or to discuss it with you.

Other features of the League's Dominion Day celebration will be featured in later issues of The Mercury.

Hastings Lake

(Mrs. S. Giebe)

B.C. accident victim former resident here

Oldtimers will be shocked to hear of the death of the former Bernice Robinson and her husband of North Surrey, B.C. Bernice was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander (Sandy) Robinson who formerly resided in the Tofield district. Bernice was the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gill of North Surrey, B.C., formerly of Tofield, and niece of Lawrence Gill, Tofield. She and her husband were killed in a car accident in the interior of B.C. the weekend of May 8th.

Locals . . .

Mrs. Edith Rogers left by plane on Friday last for an extended visit with her son, Dr. and Mrs. Max Rogers and family of East Lansing, Michigan.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Toby Nerneland and Mrs. Mary Moore are patients in the Tofield hospital.

Tofield Community League would appreciate hearing from anyone interested in putting in a float, decorated automobile, tractor, etc., in the July 1st parade.

* * *

[illegible]

Mr. Schell has opened a jewelry and watch sales and repairs shop. He recently moved to Tofield with his wife and two small children and is presently occupying the Walter Eaton dwelling on 2nd Ave. West.

* * *

Mrs. Davison and Miss Edith Davison have returned from a two-week trip to B.C.

* * *

Some good baseball is being played on the local sports ground and will provide entertainment of an evening for those who enjoy the game.

* * *

Congratulations go out to Alan Warner on acceptance by the American magazine "Guns" for an article entitled "The Poor Man's Gun Club" for which he received a monetary consideration. His picture and name appears on the front page of the magazine in an edition not yet published.

* * *

Visitors at the Stockton home recently were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson, Provost, Mrs. Joe Donaldson of Wainwright, and Alf Larson of Irma.

Holden news briefs

90th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Lloyd Bell visited with her father, Mr. Maranda, who is a patient in the Royal Alex Hospital, Edmonton, a week ago. Mr. Maranda, who spent last summer and the winter months with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bell, celebrated his 91st birthday Tuesday, May 4th.

AT FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie attended the funeral of a relative, Victor Paulson of Bawlf Saturday, May 15th, which was held at the Hegre Church, south of Holden.

Mrs. Carrie Olsen was a Sunday afternoon visitor and dinner guest with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nordstrom.

Judy Bilyk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bilyk, was one of last week's country winners in the Journal's CJCA "Teen Pick the Hit of the Week."

Mrs. Sam Black entertained at tea one afternoon last week in honor of Mrs. Ella Bryan of Winnipeg, who is presently visiting in Holden with her sister, Mrs. Lars Rutland and Mr. Rutland. Mrs. T. A. Laden also entertained a few friends at tea last week in honor of Mrs. Bryan.

Alex Barlow of Poe visited around Holden last Saturday and called on his brother, Percy, and Mrs. Barlow.

Mrs. Olive Good, with her aunt Mrs. Ella Bryan of Winnipeg, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lars Rutland, were visitors in Edmonton Monday.

WIND DAMAGE

During the high wind, rain and snow storm experienced over Sunday and Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Laskosky were unfortunate in having their TV antenna blown down, smashing through the window and tearing the window drapes very badly. The plate glass window in the door at Beaver Motors was also blown in.

BAPTISM

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lowstone had their baby daughter baptized in the United Church Sunday, May 16th, with Rev. Barkwell of Viking officiating. Rev. Barkwell also gave the sermon and administered communion during the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruxton entertained at lunch Sunday afternoon after the service, those present being Mrs. N. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hardy and their son, Douglas, of Edmonton, who was a weekend visitor with his parents.

We hear that Mrs. Mary James, who is visiting with her son, Arthur, and family, in Vancouver, is enjoying the mild spring-like weather at the coast. She is planning to go to Vancouver Island to visit with her daughter, Irene, and family for several days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Olson of Andrew, former Holden residents, were recent weekend visitors with relatives in the Bruce district.

We understand that in the near future, Alberta Government Telephones will be building a new office in Holden to be ready for the dial system in 1966.

Bruce Budd was a business visitor in Edmonton Monday.

TALENT SHOW WINNERS

Friends of Larry Benson, Holden school teacher, were pleased to hear that he had won the grand prize in the final talent show held in the National Hall, Vegreville April 9th. Mr. Benson also was the grand prize winner of the Viking talent show, held previously. The talent shows were held by the Northern Federation E14.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Village of Holden held May 11th, it was decided to change the day of their meeting from the second Tuesday of the month to the second Thursday of the month, to be effective from the June meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rael (nee Inez Hardy) had their baby son baptized Sunday, May 16th at Ryley.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Damtyk of Vegreville (nee Myrtle Laskosky) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son at Vegreville hospital, May 6th. The new arrival is the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. John Laskosky.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McFayden are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son in Viking hospital last week.

Mrs. Jimmie Kamarnisky returned home from Viking hospital the end of last week with their new baby daughter born on May 6th.

WINS TRUCK

First prize winner in the Elephant Brand "Best in the West" contest, Cliff Sapsford of Perdue, Saskatchewan, receives the keys to a 1965 GMC two-ton truck from T. C. McBeath, Western Canada Sales Manager, for The Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Limited. Mr. Sapsford, who farms 1,000 acres, also won five tons of Elephant Brand Fertilizer. Mr. Sapsford's entry was one of 120,400 received from Western Canadian farmers.

Ryley news

(M. K. Westmacott)

Gordon and Elsie Wilson (nee Elsie Solberg) and children, Tara and Johnny, are visiting friends and relatives in and around the Ryley district, en route from their home in Halifax, Nova Scotia. They will continue on to Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Neraasen are visiting at Athabasca with their daughter, Marvel, and family.

Jim and Susan Fish and family, of Edmonton, were Sunday guests with Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fish, the occasion for a family dinner being Marguerite and Johnny's 30th wedding anniversary.

HOME FROM TRIP

Mrs. Alma Adams returned home recently from a trip that took her to Idaho, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. She was away two weeks and travelled by bus all the way, enjoying the lovely weather, and the beautiful flowers and lush green lawns that were at their best in B.C. Mrs. Adams visited many old friends and neighbors from Ryley and district. Mrs. Annie Carter (nee Annie Moline), Mr. and Mrs. John Westby, Mrs. Anna Stromstad and Mrs. Mary Beness all send greetings and wish to be remembered.

LEHMAN. — In loving memory of David Lehman, who passed away May 20, 1960.

Somewhere beyond the sunset,
Where happiness never dies,
He dwells in God's beautiful mansion,
Midst the blue and gold of the skies.
And to us who always loved him,
Whose parting brought us great pain,
We will cherish his memories forever,
Until we meet with him again.

R. F. "BOB" SOMSHOR

Modern Etiquette

Q. At the dinner table I've found myself in the embarrassing situation of having a question directed at me by someone just as I am steering a bite of food toward my mouth. What should I do in this case?

A. Don't put the food into your mouth and then attempt to answer the question. It is much better to return your fork to your plate, answer the question, and then resume eating.

Q. How should a husband and wife introduce each other?

A. A woman always introduces her husband by his first name, or as "My husband"—never as "Mr. Adams". The husband, in turn, introduces her socially as "My wife, Ruth"—but to his business acquaintances as "Mrs. Adams".

Q. I have a name that is constantly being mispronounced by other persons. Should I overlook this, or am I justified in correcting it?

A. I think you're in perfect right to correct it—such as, "I'm sorry, but my name is Barry, not Perry".

Q. Can you give me some suggestions for appetizers at a cocktail party?

A. Simplest, of course, is peanuts, olives, pretzels, cheese sandwiches, dipped potato chips, and the like. If you want to be more elaborate, however, you can serve small sandwiches of various kinds—and the modern cookbooks are full of suggestions on this.

Miss Ane Appleby, student in education at the University of Alberta, is practise teaching at Tofield.

PRIZE WINNERS

Miss Trudy Oslund of the Holden Coffee Shop was the lucky winner of $15.00 in the recent hockey raffle held by the Holden Boy Scout troop, and Mike Tkaczyk of the NADP staff was the lucky winner of $50.00 in a hockey raffle sponsored by the Holden baseball club.

Mrs. Winnie Johnson was a recent Edmonton visitor with her mother and sister and brother-in-law of Ryley.

Mrs. Helen Tiedemann was a visitor at the Tofield hospital on Friday evening, calling on Mrs. Earl Hardy who was receiving treatments, Mrs. Oscar Ruskenveld and Mrs. Alfred Sorensen who was having treatments for arthritis in her shoulders.

Harry Michlich was an Edmonton visitor over the weekend, visiting with his daughter and other relatives.

Mrs. Mabel Sizer returned home the end of last week after spending several days with her daughter, Gurene, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hammer, at Viking. Mrs. Hammer entertained at a large family dinner on Sunday, May 9th, Mother's Day.

Ladies' Club meets

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

MINISTIK, May 13.—The May meeting of the Ministik Ladies' Club was held at the United Church on Wednesday, with 14 members and one visitor present.

Plans are well underway for the strawberry tea to be held on Saturday, June 5th. Tickets for the raffle on the pole lamp were distributed for sale by Mrs. A. Ferguson. These were made by Norman Penrice and Glenn Ferguson, and letters of thanks were sent to them.

Mrs. Frank Swabey was chosen convener of the picnic to be held in June.

Roll call was answered by "A favorite Bible verse", roll call for June being "a sewing short-cut".

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. A. Kleinschroth, Mrs. Ralph Leach and Mrs. Claude Leach.

Solve a Crime

BY A. C. GORDON

There have been big headlines in the local newspapers for the past week concerning the young, socially - prominent Craig Blair who embezzled more than $100,000 of his company's funds and fled town. An intense search has failed thus far to trace him, and now you are working on the case. You are, late this afternoon, waiting in the lobby of a luxurious high-rise apartment building for Amanda Ames, a girl with whom Craig Blair had formerly gone regularly, but who in a much publicized break-up had been jilted by the womanizing Blair for Amanda's "best friend", Caroline Patterson. You are here in response to a phone call you received almost an hour ago from Amanda informing you that she has some "vital information" to give you about Craig Blair.

Finally, through the revolving doors and into the lobby sweeps the richly - dressed, red - haired Amanda Ames. "So sorry to keep you waiting", she apologizes. "I phoned you to meet me here right after I left Caroline's cocktail party ... but I was delayed on the way here ... traffic, you know."

You accompany her to her modernistically furnished apartment. In a caustic and bitter voice she tells you of her discovery. "If you want to find Craig, ask Caroline Patterson. She knows where he is, that's for sure. This afternoon during the party I went into her bedroom to make some repairs on my lipstick, and I found a letter ... her from Craig. Oh, I'm shameless enough to admit I read it ... the whole thing full of gushy sentiment, but not much information". She sniffs disdainfully as she pulls her gloves off her long, slender fingers.

"Have you read this little item in the late edition of today's paper?" you ask, handing her a news clipping.

"No", she replies. "I haven't seen a newspaper at all today". She squints for a few minutes at the paper in her hand, then with a murmured word of apology begins fumbling in her purse. Finally, after an apparently fruitless search, she moves over to a nearby coffee table, rummages under some magazines, and comes up with a pair of harlequin styled glasses which she dons. She begins to read the news clipping you gave her, then looks up at you with a puzzled expression and exclaims, "This has nothing at all to do with Craig ... it's about that big warehouse fire in the west side of town ... what in the world was your reason for ...?"

"I had plenty of reason", you break in. "The only thing your story has done for me is to convince me that you're a very jealous young woman. It was a vindictive attempt on your part to involve Caroline Patterson, but I'm not buying it!"

Why do you think this way?

SOLUTION

You have just proved with your irrelevant news clipping that Amanda Ames needs glasses for reading, and you have also noted that she didn't have her glasses with her while she was at Caroline Patterson's party. This being the case, she could not have read the letter she told you she found in Caroline's bedroom.

Ministik news

(Mrs. J. Roddick)

Church services continue at the United Church, with Miss Helen Irwin conducting.

Sunday School got well underway for the summer, with teachers again being Mrs. Andrew Ferguson, Mrs. Pat Paterson, Mrs. Ralph Leach and Miss Barbara Lochtie.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Friends from Ministik wish Arthur Dunham a speedy recovery from a leg ailment suffered while playing ball recently. He is a patient in Tofield Hospital.

Mrs. W. F. Davenport is also a patient in Tofield Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore, of Whitecourt, were weekend guests of Mrs. Helen Hennessy. Irving Likness was there Saturday, assisting Mr. Moore with shingling Mrs. Hennessy's house.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Mrs. Effie Naslechuk was very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when Mrs. Verden Sears and Mrs. Michael Naslechuk were hostesses at a birthday party for her. A lovely birthday cake and lunch were enjoyed, the cake being made by Mrs. Verden Sears.

Margaret and Edna Roddick were weekend guests at the home of their parents, Dolly and Jim Roddick.

Weekend guests at the Russell Rowland home were Peggy and Murray Rowland and Mrs. Sarah Waters, sisters of Mrs. Rowland, all from Edmonton.

Mrs. Russell Rowland and Mrs. Sarah Waters were coffee guests Monday with Mrs. Jim Roddick.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Whitford received word from Donald Grammett on Friday that he has employment for the summer on a farm east of Calgary, and is enjoying it there.

POWER DISRUPTED

Residents in this area experienced a power shortage for approximately 12 hours Monday. This seemed quite serious as these are so few, but due to a terrible snow, rain and wind storm Sunday evening, power lines couldn't cope with the elements.

WHITE IS RIGHT. If fashion forecasts can be trusted, one of the more popular colors in swimwear on Canadian beaches this summer will be white. Above shows a white full-length swimsuit, with a naughtily nice laced cleavage at the front.

Trondhjem LCW meets April 27

Nineteen ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Johnny Bruce on the evening of April 27th for the monthly meeting of the Trondhjem LCW.

Mrs. Doreen Burnstad conducted a very interesting Bible Study based on Matt. 6:19-34. Mrs. Francis Hagen read an article for the "Cause of the Month" entitled "Out of Our Minds". A letter from Mrs. Mabel Gotheridge, a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, was read to the group.

Mrs. Iva Olson was nominated as delegate to attend the convention in Bawlf May 1st.

Mrs. Ruth Foss reported on hospital visitation. During May, Mrs. Alma Nelson and Mrs. Bertha Mathison will visit with patients in St. Mary's Hospital.

Education Secretary Mrs. Helen Burnstad gave a short talk on the use of the Treasure Chests.

Mrs. Bruce served a tasty lunch.

PRE NUPTIAL SHOWER

A lovely miscellaneous shower party was held at the home of Mrs. Arnold Hoveland on Friday evening to honor Miss Rita Enns, bride-elect, prior to her coming marriage. Approximately forty ladies including members of the Messiah Lutheran Church Women were guests to enjoy an evening of games and contests. The bride-elect's mother and sister from Tofield and a sister-in-law from Saskatchewan were among the visitors. A lovely selection of useful and beautiful gifts were presented to Miss Enns with the Misses Patricia Hoveland and Elsie Neufeld, the bridesmaids, assisting with unwrapping the gifts. Rita expressed gracious thanks, and a delicious lunch was served. Miss Enns will be married on Friday, May 21, at the Mennonite Church, Tofield, to Dennis Hoveland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hoveland of Camrose.

Modern etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When should a dinner guest, who has finished eating, place his napkin on the table?

A. Not until the hostess places her napkin on the table.

Q. When it is necessary for a house guest to make a long-distance phone call, how should this be handled?

A. First, of course, the guest asks permission of his host or hostess. Then, after his call has been completed, he immediately calls the operator, asks for the charges, and then remits this amount to his host.

Q. Isn't it considered proper nowadays for a bride to telephone her thanks for wedding gifts received?

A. Indeed not! Never, under any circumstances, should she substitute telephoned or verbal thanks for that handwritten note of appreciation!

Q. When seated at a bar in a cocktail lounge, are you supposed to tip the bar man?

A. While not exactly necessary, it still seems to be expected in some places—and especially when one's change is returned in a small tray.

Q. May chicken drum sticks or pork chop bones be eaten with the fingers?

A. This cannot be called an attractive sight. It is much better, when dining in someone's home or in a restaurant, to use your knife or fork. At home, of course, you're on your own!

Q. When one is in doubt as to whether a formally written invitation can be accepted or not, how should one's acknowledgement be worded?

A. There should be no uncertainty about the acknowledgement. You should always state definitely whether or not you can accept the invitation.

School committee meet held May 11

of Viking for a bus driving job in the Viking area was referred to the School Committee. The Committee was informed by Cr. Reddick that Mr Leader had been driving as from May 10th.

Moved and carried that Harold Leader of Viking be approved as a regular bus driver in the Viking area.

A letter from G Boyd Ash of Viking applying for the position of school bus driver, either as a spare or regular driver, in the Viking area, was referred to the Committee. Cr Reddick stated that the Viking area now had two authorised spare bus drivers and he did not see any particular need for another spare driver.

Moved and carried that Mr. Ash be advised that his services are not required at the present time but that his application will be kept on file.

The Secretary-Treasurer reported that he had received a verbal resignation from Clarence Barker of school bus driver, the resignation being effective May 7th, 1965.

Moved and carried that the resignation be accepted.

A.S.T.A. Economic Bulletins Nos 7, 8 and 10 were referred to the Committee, and particular mention was made of the Internship Leadership course for Co-Operating Teachers to be held July 5th to 9th inclusive at Barnett House in Edmonton. This was dealt with in Bulletin No 10, and the cost per person would be $60 plus the transportation.

Moved and carried that the Bulletins be received and filed, and that the School Committee sponsors one teacher to the Leadership Course for Co-Operating Teachers.

The Superintendent stated that, without a doubt, the Co-Operating teachers would benefit from this course and that he had a teacher in mind that would be sure to absorb the information and pass it on to other co-operating teachers within the County.

Salary Negotiations

In the matter of salary negotiations the Chairman, Cr Reddick, reported that the two Committees had met on the evening of May 10th, but that no progress had been made. The County's Committee had stayed with its offer of approximately 8% increase.

It was apparent that no further negotiations could be carried out on the local level, and it was moved and carried that the report be accepted and application be made for a bargaining agent.

Moved and carried that the resignations of Mrs. Gleeson and Mr Lloyd Syngrovass be accepted.

The Superintendent mentioned the ceremony of the opening of the addition of the Tofield School to take place at 8 00 o'clock this evening. It was decided that the Chairman of the School Committee, Cr. Reddick, and Cr. Wentzell would take part in this ceremony, and any other School Committee member who so wished was invited to attend.

Lars Olson, representing the Local A.T.A., attended the meeting at this time and requested the usual grant for sports activities in the amount of $125.

Moved and carried that a grant in the amount of $125 be given to the Beaver Local A.T.A. to help defray the costs of the sports activities carried on in the County.

Mr Olson also requested the use of a school bus at noon to take baseball players from the school to the sports ground during the noon hour A bus and driver would be required.

Moved and carried that the request be approved, and that Cr. Gibson arrange with Mr Olson as to a suitable driver and other matters necessary.

The Superintendent mentioned that a number of chairs for the libraries, laboratories and offices were required.

Moved and carried that authorization be given for the purchase of the necessary chairs.

The Superintendent mentioned that a request had been made to put on a Rural Rearmament Program in the schools in the County, and that this request had been unanimously turned down by the Principals at one of their meetings, and that also the policy of the School Committee would prohibit such an approval, and that he had informed the parties concerned that no permission could be given.

Moved and carried that the action of the Superintendent in the above matter be concurred in.

Moved and carried that the following appointments be approved Myrtle McFadgen, Earl Sadler, Eric Michie, K. S. Gyani, D V Kapoor, Boris Hamlin, A. M. Johnson, Mrs. D Rude, Mrs. Gambill Berbe

Moved and carried that the Committee meets to consider the summer repairs in the various schools on May 31 and 32, starting at Kinsella at 9 00 a.m. on the 25th and at 9 00 a.m. at Holden on the 26th.

The Superintendent informed the Committee that a Reading Conference had been held at Leduc on April 30th, and that Mrs. Margaret Phillips and Mrs. Harriet Ruddy had attended this conference, and he suggested that some remuneration for out-of-pocket expenses be in order

Moved and carried that mileage allowance for time and the necessary meals for the two teachers be approved.

The Superintendent reported that Ralph Gorrie, former Supervisor of Instruction, had undertaken to have two Math Seminars in the County in connection with the new math courses that are being introduced this coming school year One seminar had been held on Saturday, May 1st, and the second one on May 15th. Some 20 teachers had attended the May 1st seminar, and in the opinion of the Superintendent the seminar had been very successful He suggested that some remuneration be made to Mr. Gorrie.

Moved and carried that mileage at 10c per mile be paid plus a honorarium of $25 per day

The Superintendent informed the Committee that Cal Annis, Principal at the Tofield school, had received a scholarship in the amount of $50 as the host director in the High School Drama Festivals to attend a workshop in the City of Drumheller in August The scholarship in the amount of $50 would not cover his actual expenses and the Supt. suggested that the School Committee might give some recogni-

"There must be a better way to build a highway."

Build the highway for safety - first! Highways with safety factors built-in offer several advantages to roads constructed with an eye solely to convenience and economy. Safety factors such as limited access roads and cloverleaf intersections eliminate one of the major hazards leading to accidents and loss of life. Where access to a highway is limited, through traffic flows easier, faster.

Constructing a highway with every known safety-factor built-in is expensive in money, but the saving in life and injuries is worth every penny. The inconvenience caused to local traffic by limiting access roads is a small price to pay for the additional peace-of-mind.

"In Alberta there is!"

Alberta's Department of Highways has built 26 clover-leaf intersections and four are now under construction. Six more are planned for the near future. Elimination of at-grade crossings is part of Alberta's policy for building better, safer roads.

Alberta motorists are among the least taxed in Canada, and yet they enjoy almost 100,000 miles of better road travel facilities - more than almost any other group of Canadians.

Good, safe highways - another feature that makes Alberta A Good Place to Live.

tion to Mr Annis for having obtained the scholarship

Moved and carried that an amount of $50 be given to Mr. Annis to assist in defraying his expenses at the Drama School in Drumheller

The Superintendent informed the Committee that Bikkar Randhawa would be attending the University in Toronto and that his courses would start prior to the end of the school year and he therefore requested leave of absence as from June 28th.

Moved and carried that Mr Randhawa be given leave of absence with pay from June 28th to 30th.

Bus Storage At Bruce

In regards to bus storage at Bruce, a proposal from Ken Stambaugh was submitted to the School Committee Mr. Stambaugh offered to store the five County buses at a monthly rate of $15 per bus. The storage would be heated storage in the winter and yard storage in the summer Mr Stambaugh would be responsible for having the buses put in at night and taken out in the morning He also requested, subject to discussion, a five-year contract, starting Sept 1, 1965.

Moved and carried that Crs. Reddick, Johnston and Dorau be appointed a Committee to interview Mr Stambaugh in this matter, keeping in mind that a five-year contract might be too long and also that the price, $15 per bus, was somewhat high, considering that the buses would be stored outside in summer time

Teacher Housing

The Superintendent brought up the matter of teacher housing which appeared to be acute at Holden Viking and Ryley Cr Gibson reported that Harry Mitchlach had offered a house in Holden for sale for $7,750 This house, being quite old, was not considered suitable for the County Cr Reddick reported that Neil White at Viking had a 24 by 60 foot house plus basement inside, 9 to 4 years old, for which he asked $14,500 He also stated that there was a new house in Viking, built by Hillen Building Contractors, that could possibly be purchased for some $13,500. It was suggested that Cr. Reddick make some further inquiries about these houses. It was also considered that an application to borrow under Section 233 of the School Act, should be made.

Moved and carried that the county be requested to apply for a loan of $42,500 for teacherages in Holden Viking and Ryley

Mr Pike referred to the additional rooms required at Viking in view of the visits from Mr Blackadder and Mr Walker of the Department of Education. The building committee, composed of Cr. Reddick, Mr Allen and Mr. Pike, proposed the following changes at the Viking school plant

(a) Provide by new construction a biology laboratory, a chemistry laboratory, a commercial room, a general purpose room, five high school classrooms, two small storage rooms to serve the junior and the commercial room and two storage rooms to serve the biology laboratory and the chemistry laboratory, plus two washrooms.

(b) Provide by renovation a larger library by using a principal's office and a staff room.

(c) Provide by renovation four larger primary classrooms for grade 1 and 2 by using five standard classrooms.

(d) Provide by renovation a teachers' staff room, a teachers' work room and janitor's storage room.

(e) Provide by renovation a principal's office, two vice-principals' offices, an infirmary two counselling areas and one waiting room, plus secretarial space

Moved and carried that the proposed project of new construction of 3,738 sq. ft. and alterations of 7,335 sq. ft. be approved for the Viking school plant

It was reported that the building committee of John Allen, Jack Reddick and H. A. Pike visited the Oracle One building with A. L. Baker of the Department of Education The two-room building was found to be in reasonable repair, but it was suggested no further money be spent on the structure and that perhaps it should be retired from service over a period of the next two years and then removed from the school grounds It was also pointed out necessary repairs needed in the future would be a completely new heating system plus toilet facilities since this further convinced the building committee of this needless expense, the members agreed to replace the rooms by new construction

Moved and carried that the report be accepted and the recommendations approved in.

In the matter of the water lines at the Holden school, dealt with earlier in the meeting. It was noted that McLaren Construction had not contacted the office
